RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCER.

MAY 26, 1887

What will Heaven be?

What will heaven be ? A place where all is gain, Where souls are free from stain, Where hearts can feel no pain Through all eternity.

What will heaven be ? A place where blessings flow, Where curse and want and woe And death we shall not know Through all eternity.

What will heaven be? A day without a night, With Christ the source of light. In His effulgence bright Through all eternity.

What will heaven be? A place more beauteous far Than gem or shining star, Where saints God's jewels are Through all eternity. Christian Intelligencer.

Memorial Service.

Sermon preached in the Temple Barrington by the Revd. T. H. Siddall May 8th.

In memory of the late captain Charles. E. Stanley ; who with all the crew were lost on the voyage from Rangoon to England.

Scriptures read : First and one hundred and forty-fifth Psalms, Text, Psalm 112:4.

" Unto the upright there ariseth dight in the darkness.

the old testament are marked by great in the shadow of death, to guide our simplicity and oneness of idea. "A feet in the way of peace." good man, just, perfect, righteous, upright," all expressive of God, and He gave His only begotten Son, that divine qualities in man, God-likeness, which in some degree characterise the not perish, but have everlasting life." upright. Each and all the words- Now the voice of the gracious spirit designations-express the character is come, "walk in the light of the of God: "Good and upright is the Lord." Lord," and "is just and holy in all His ways."

By "His light we walk through belong to all. Be we upright or not, darkness." The darkness of life's we escape not. But what of the light tangled maze; sorrows gloom; and and hope, " unto the upright there death's dark night. For "light is ariseth light in the darkness" " We many good things of your husband, In the assurance of assured immor- have learned (oh, sad knowledge) how but also to love him very much. We tality. "Because I live ye shall live to cut deeply with a sentence that here mourn with you; and hope with also." Not lost, but gone before. seems to have no edge, except for the cause the man was poor and frienda genuine hope to meet and greet "They sleep in Jesus and are blest." ear for whom you intend the wound. less?" And before the horrid sound friend Captain Stanley, in a world Sleep, "I shall be satisfied when I And you need not deny it, for you of the drunken songs had died in where shipwrecks do not occur. We awake in thy likeness." Where ? " In deliberately made that gash in the the distance, he had resolved to deare glad to enclose letters written to the land of the hereafter." "To day happy heart of one who ought to be vote his life to the cause of the poor the papers of this city testifying to shalt thou be with me in Paradise." dearer to you than life. the good impression he left when "Absent in body present with the among us." Lord." Absent to us in body yet are streams that channel deeper the

The mother of a boy, one of the present. God has given to us affections gulf of alienation between you and Dr. Butler, the son of his old master. crew, writing to the owners as to the and objects for them. The objects your loved ones? This gulf once his companion asked him if he could chances of the vessel ever arriving, change positions but the affections made is not easily filled. mentions in her letter something remain. Not less was Christ after her son had written. "He say's the His Ascension, to His disciples, but captain is a very cautious God-fearing, more, not less are the upright, made change tears to smiles! christian man, which I was pleased so by Christ, to those who remain to hear. He conducts family worship behind. No! but more in true hearts. every night. It is a great comfort to "The memory of the just is blessed," me at this time to think of the many and a blessing. Sometimes the up- with quicker step because you have that I first resolved to make the cause blessings that Andrew received on right are removed hence to touch board the "Charles Connell." What a hearts dear to God, and them, and heart? blessed testimony! From all parts of though dead yet speak.

the world where he had been, like Further there is the light imparted witness is given to his integrity and by promised reunion in the mansions Christian trueness. of the just. "Where I am there shall

2. The darkness-Its nature and ye be also." How rich the hope ":--character. Sin is darkness. Lovers Religion pillows on the heart." To died at the ripe age of eighty years. of sin, the sin-bound, dwell in darksee Him who doeth all things well ! ness. Not of necessity but of choice. And those who die in Him, who now, 'He giveth day, thou hast thy choice, "rest from their labors." The anti-To walk in darkness still. cipation is gladness in the Lord. "He giveth day," "the day spring By such thoughts may each and all from on high hath visited us, to give The designations of a christian in light to them that sit in darkness and

> "For God so loved the world that whosoever believeth in Him should

The darkness-mystery-of life, sorrows, .trials, and sad bereavements salvation, ought to drive away despair spell-bound, and then exclaimed, "Can this be permitted, simply beand friendless. And do you not see that these words Nearly seventy years afterwards when walking down the same hill with remember any particular incident And yet how one sympathizing, which induced him to dedicate his life affectionate word from you would to the cause of the poor and wretched. "It is almost extraordinary that

Why do you cultivate this cruel you should ask me that here," he tendency? Does it make you better said, "for it was within ten yards of or stronger? Do you go to your task the spot where we are now standing assassinated happiness in a human of the poor my own." and he then told Dr. Butler the incident just recorded.

"But do you think I can overcome Mr. Hodder suggests that a suitable this tendency to angry and cruel monument should be erected there, such as a stone seat, like that which

Yes, I do. One of the best friends marks the spot above the vale of I ever had was an old gentleman who Keston, where Wilberforce conversed with Pitt, and determined to bring He was a Christian. He was genial, forward the question of the abolition charming. I can see now the merry of slavery.-The Quiver.

twinkle in his eye. Yet he told me that in a certain period of his life, he found the tendency to peevishness, bereaved realize that "at evening time fretfulness, growing upon him. He had a sharp talk with himself, and As a church we pray that the God determined to cultivate another habit, of all comfort will comfort your hearts; and he did it.

speech?"

His Grace, imparting life, hope, peace Herald.

The Duty of Refusing to Do Good.

Every pastor and preacher is invited, and is expected, to do good in more directions than are really open to him, in the possibilities of time and strength and clear demands of personal duty as pastor and preacher. Unless he learns to refuse resolutely to do much of the good while others think he might do, he will fail to do all of the good which he ought to do ; as, indeed many a pastor and preacher has thus failed, through trying to do the good outside of his proper sphere which he ought to have refused to attempt to do. Every philanthrophic business man, every large-hearted capitalist, every well-disposed and sensible citizen, is asked, day by day, to have a share in well-doing to an extent that would cripple him for efficient service in any one sphere of right endeavor, if he attempted a favorable response to all of these appeals which he recognizes as in the direction of unmistakable good. He must decide what good to do, and what good to refuse to do, or he will do no good as he ought to do it. No man anywhere

DI SPEPTICS, NUIIU Read the following statement:

AYLSSFORD N. S., Feb. 7, 1877. MR. CALEB GATES :

Dear Sir,-This is to certify that I have been troubled with the Dyspepsia for about two years, and have taken almost every kind of medicine within my reach that has been prescribed for the disease, but could find no relief. I took one bottle of your BITTERS and one bottle of your INVIG-ORATING SYRUP, which effected a complete cure. You are at liberty to publish this for the benefit of other sufferers.

I am, respectfully yours. MRS. W. H. GRAVES. Sworn to before me, LIACOME S. TUPPER. CREAMERS. CREAMERS.

50 Creamers. The "Acme" probably the best Creamer made in our country. Just received and for sale by

R. CHESTNUT & SONS.

-His Love To Me.

To an invalid friend, who was trembling, doubting believer, a clergyman once said, "When I leave you, I shall go to my residence, if the Lord will; and when there, the first thing Why cannot you?-New Theology that I expect to do is to call for a baby paid agents to the buyer. that is in the house. I expect to place her on my knee, and look down into her sweet eyes, and listen to her charming prattle; and, tired as I am, her child with unutterable tenderness.

"But the fact is, she does not love. me; or, to say the most for her, she loves me very little. If my heart were breaking under the burden of a crush- Editor of this Paper, who has two of our ing sorrow, it would not disturb her sleep. If my body were racked with excruciating pain, it would not interrupt her play with her dolls. If I was dead, she would be amused in watching my pale face and closed eyes. If my friends came to remove the corpse to the place of burial, she would probably clap her hands in glee, and in two or three days totally forget her papa. Besides this, she has never our Lord one thousand eight hundred and brought me in a penny, but has been a constant expense on my hands ever under No. 31553, nade between the said since she was born. Yet although I am not rich in the world's possessions, there is not money enough in this world to buy my baby. How is it? Does she love me, or do I love her? Do I withhold my love until I know she loves me? Am I waiting for her to do something worthy of my love before

Sewing Machines. W E handle only first-class Instruments. which we sell at very low prices and on easy terms. WE EMPLOY NO

AGE TS, but give the large commission Call and see our Stock, or write for Price and Terms.

WE MAKE A SPECIALTY OF ORGANS. Having furnished over twenty churches in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia with presence will rest me, for I love that Organs, for which we make a special disount both to the church and clergyman.

Any person in want of any of the above Goods, will find it to their advantage to write us for prices, terms, etc

MCMURRAY & CO. P. S.- Reference, by permission, to the Organs in his Church. Mc 4. & Co Fredericton. mar101

MCMURRAY & CO., BUUNSELLERS. STATIONERS. -AND DEALERS IN----

Pianos, Organs and sown for the righteous'

" In darkest shades if thou appear, My dawning is begun : Thou art my soul's bright morning star.

And thou my rising sun." The general truth of the text, is richly expressed in the comforting words of Christ, "Lo I am with you always." "Other refuge have I none ;

Hangs my helpless soul on thee Leave, ah, leave me not alone ;

"Still support and comfort me." Words truly real, precious, in the hour of storm, death and bereavement. Cast upon God in such hours, the "'helpless soul," cries :--" Hide me, O my Saviour, hide, Till the storm of life is past; Safe into the haven guide O, receive my soul at last."

Aler .

1. The upright, who are they ? Not can begin his daily task in the mornask ?" "Because, the last time I Again the darkness of death shroudthe sinless. "For all have sinned," extending it to her ?" ing without practically refusing to give heard hat voice its swearing made my ed in mystery as to much we long to "Oh, I see it," said the sick man, but the "upright in heart." In affec help in a thousand directions to those blood run cold ; the man's oaths were know. Often do we wrestle with tion, desire, and purpose. Made so while the tears ran down his checks. who are sick, who are sorrowing, who questions in our hours of meditation, by the manifold grace of God. Having beyond measure terrible. Can it be " I see it clearly; it is not my love to are starving, who are oppressed, or only to reveal to us that our eyes are the same man?" Someone said, "Go a bright aim, and can say, "my soul God, but God's love to me I ought to who in some way are in bitter need weak, and our sight is dim. But in and ask him." The lady said, "Are followeth hard after thee ; thy right be thinking about ; and I do love Him at points where he could give them you the same captain I heard swearing hand upholdeth me." Also, " whom reason's blindness, and nature's darknow as I never loved Him before." help if it were not his duty to do From that time his peace was like a ness faith lifts the gloom in light and in the street ?" "Well,' said he, "I have I in heaven but thee? and there something else just then instead of we hear a voice saying. "I am the am the same person ; and yet, thank is none upon earth that I desire beriver. doing good in that way. In fact, all resurrection and the life." That is God, I am not the same!" O, side thee." Possessed by singleness the good that is done in the world is our anchorage, "the one bright light brethren, such were some of ourselves! Rest of Soul. of object and purpose. Ruled by the done at the cost of the doer's refusal I was reading the other day of an "one thing"; "but this one thing I n the clouds.' Christ is the "Rose of Sharon and to do some other good instead of that old shepherd who had never attended Inexpressible our thoughts and do, forgetting those things which are the Lily of the Valley." Believers good. And so it ever must be. feelings when by the dying :-- "We a place of worship; but when he had behind, and reaching forth unto those are the best that swarm about the The real question for every man to watched the close of all life balanced grown gray, and was near to die, he things which are before, I press torose, sighing, rejoicing, hungering, consider is not, What good can I do? in a breath ; we saw upon their features was drawn by curiosity into the ward the mark for the prize of the and enjoying ; flitting around it, either but, What good ought I to do? The fall the awful shade of death." Be-Methodist chapel, and all was new to high calling of God in Christ Jesus." with the wings of prayer or the surgeon could prematurely leave the fore us they changed positions, out him. Hard-hearted old fellow as he Living a mixed life, in a mixed world opinions of delight; and there is no patient on whom he was operating; of the darkness-mystery of death was, he was noticed to shed tears of good and evil; according to light, end to the humming about this flower, but he ought not to do so. So in the into the dwellings of eternal light. during the sermon. He saw that and opportunity, the upright seek to both day and night, in the true case of the foreman of the fire depart- Church. From it we derive our Beating, throbbing hearts in responsive there was mercy even for him. The please God. Enjoying an ever deepenment, or the coast-guard commander, love, and sympathy cheered them to surprise was great when he was seen ing sense of His presence which is honey every day-forgiveness, peace, or the wife and mother watching and the "margin of the river," dark river at the chapel, and greater still when, light. For "God is light." An evercourage, and strength; and its fullness the twenty eighth day of March, in the nursing, what could be done is a posof death. Sadly we followed their on the Monday night, he was at the present voice saying, "let there be is inexhaustible. Many Christians are sibility in two directions, what ought bodies to the silent land, the city of prayer-meeting; yes, and heard at the light," revealed in pressing obligation indeed, only working bees : day after to be done is a possibility in only one day they swarm and flutter about the the dead. By the narrow house we prayer-meeting, for he fell down on and duty. Our brother heard that direction. A capitalist could give all Rose, and never properly attain to stood, saw the last, the close. Not so his knees and praised God that he had voice, and obeyed its invitation. He his money away at once to relieve the rest. But how great is their folly ! with those whose "bodies rest befound mercy. Do you wonder that broke with the darkness of sin, its sufferers by an earthquake, or a pestithe Methodist shouted, "Bless the neath the surf," not so with those spirit and rule, he entered into the Observe on a summer's evening how lence, or a flood, or a conflagration; other bees act, and then go and do who wait, watch, look, listen, "for Lord ?' Whenever Christ is preached light of divine service, and was bapbut that is no proof that he ought to likewise. Wearied by the heat and J. A. & W. VANWART, footsteps that never return." In such the most wicked of men and women tized by Elder McKeown, April 9th do this. A pastor, or a business man, labor of the day they slumber peacecircumstances death indeed is darkare made to sit at the Saviour's feet, 1852, and united with this church. could turn aside from the special in- fully in the calyx of the flowers. The About two years ago for the first Dark night! Yes! But not starless. 'clothed, and in their right minds.' terests committed to his charge, and latter inclose them with their tender Why should it not be so with you? time I met with him. During his spend all his time and strength in min-petals, and the gentle whispers of the The stars shine brightly. "His way At any rate, we have full proof of the visit home after a long absence, we had istering to personal sufferings in other evening zephyr rock the reposing and is in the sea, when 'thou passest fact that sinnership is no reason for some special meetings in which he spheres than that which he has pro- well-secured insect on its balmy couch. between the hours of Twelve o'clock noon through the waters, I will be with took part. His testimonies were markdespair. -C. H. Spurgeon. mised to fill; but it may be his duty How sweet the rest! So do thou also of the County Court House in the City of thee." And, "as thy day so shall ed by devoteness, directness and denot to do this, in spite of the possibility slumber in the calyx of the Rose of Fredericton, in the County of York, all the WHY? cision. He was ever willing to show thy strength be." of its doing. The good which a man Sharon Forget thyself in thinking I would like to have a few quies "Judge not the Lord by feeble sense himself on the Lord's side. He was rht, title, interest, ought to do, he ought to do; and the of Jesus. Be He thy all, and His Equity of Henry Braithwaite, which he But trust Him for His grace; words with you. deeply interested in Temperance at Behind a frowning providence, good which a man ought not to do, he promises and merits the covering A. D. 1887 of in to or out of the following Do you not see that you are cultihome and abroad and upheld his princi-He hides a smiling face." vating a habit of fretfulness ? How A. D. 1887 of in to or out of the following over thee, and the pillow beneath thy described premises, to wit; All that cerples with zeal and energy; he aided us in 3. The light-what is it? life, hope, easily angry words spring to your lips. S. S. Times. consolation, rest. "In Him-Christ- How often you say things you would putting a stop to the clandestine sale head. O, then, what does it matter tain lot, piece or parcel of land situate, lying and being in the Parish of Stanley, of liquor around the shores. The if the tempest howls without, and was life, and the life was the light of The Turning Point in Earl Shaftesbury's Life. gladly unsay, but you cannot change County of York and Province of New croaking night-birds flutter around manifest features of his character, men." Blessed life ! Brunswick, and bounded as follows:-Runthe direction of the arrow after it has ning by the magnet along the Cross Creek were manliness, reality, and frankness. thee? Soft is thy couch, and the "The Lord is my light and my left the bow. The incident which influenced his road south fifty-four degrees and fifteen A high sense of duty combined with Salvation." Unto the upright. Gloriwhole career and led him towards a banner over thee is Love .- Krumminutes west one chain and sixty-two and How often do you throw a dark life of philanthropy was indeed a one-half links to a post; thence north fortybreadth and firmness of principle ous Hope ! "The Lord shall be thine macher's Elisha. shadow on hearts on which should two degrees and fifteen minutes west six everlasting light," Says "Come unto fall only the tranquil light of peace. strange one. It occurred when he had characterised the outflow of his life. chains and twenty-five links to a post, FACTS WORTH KNOWING. - This is thence north fifty four degrees and fifteen me, all ye that labor and are heavy been at Harrow about two years, and Beloved as husband, father, brother the season of the year when the blood Have you not noticed when in the minutes east one chain and sixty-two and and friend : esteemed and noticed by laden, and I will give you rest.' was yet a boy between fourteen and needs to be cleansed and purified. one half links to a post, thence south fortywoods the birds cease their singing at fifteen. He was one day walking Peaceful rest ! None other teacher the loud tones of the passer-by ? No along down Harrow Hill, when he The best preparation that we know of chains and twenty-five links to the place his employers, he sought to walk upto accomplish this is Gates' Life of Man of beginning, being part of number seven rightly in the fear of God. wood-bird is so shy as the joy birds of was startled by hearing a great shout-Bitters and Invigorating Syrup, they The rest of life in a presence in the the heart. When they hear the angry ing in a side street ; and then he beon Cross Creek road, located to one Ed The Revd. S. P. Long of the extract the water and purify the blood, ward Speer, and containing one acre, to-Seaman's Mission, Kangoon, writes to tone or chiding word, they are silent. held a coffin carried by four or five novate the whole system. A dozen having been seized under and by virtue of regulate the bowels, increase the appehis widow. "We all have been much hope, " parent of hope immortal And how many joy-birds you have drunken men. Staggering as they bottles only cost five dollars and fifty effected by the sad news of the good truth, "in "precious promises." ship "Charles Connell." which your on the wings, "' 'Tis heaven all heaven descending turned the corner, they let their cents, if every person should use this several executions issued out of the County "But I didn't mean it. I didn't burden fall, and then broke out into quantity each spring we are sure that Braithwaite. Court of the County of York, at the suit of husband commanded. I was much on Of the glad legions of the King of William T. McLeod against the said Henry say anything." board the vessel, and not only learned Kings." Aye, but you did mean it. You at the sickening spectacle, he gazed save many a sickness.

know in part, and what we know not now we shall know hereafter." Light clear, full, beyond. When the "morning breaks and earth's vain shadow's flee." Till then upspringing light "in the darkness," in an abiding presence, sure promises; assured help; needed light. "Who shall separate us from the love of God." "Darkness cannot hide from thee."

'There is a day of sunny rest, For every dark and troubled night And grief may bide an evening guest But joy shall come with early light." "Hope thou in God. The eternal God is thy refuge; and underneath are the everlasting arms."

fraught !

What'er I do where'er I be, still 'tis God's hand that leadeth me."

from every heart that hears of it. you are a sinner, you are the very man for whom the gospel is intended; and I do not mean by this a merely complimentary nominal sinner, but an outand-out rebel, a transgressor against God and man.

there shall be light."

in the darkness."

and grant you the rich consolations of and rest. "In His light may you see light." To all-"Be ye also ready for in such an hour as ye think

" Unto the upright there sriseth light not the Son of man cometh." And :-

The Great Salvation.

The fact of salvation, and of a great

If you want any other argumentand I hope you do not-I would put it thus : great sinners have been saved. All sorts of sinners are being saved to day. What wonders some of us have seen ! What wonders have been wrought in this Tabernacle ! man was heard at a meeting pleading in louder tones than usual; he was : sailor, and his voice was pitched to the "Oh! words with heavenly comfort tune of the billows. A lady wispered to a friend, " Is that Captain F = -?"Yes," said the other, "why do you mar10 1y Notice of Sale.

10 William Rosborough, at present of the City of Fredericton, in the County of York, mason, and Elizabeth W. Rosborough his wife, and all others whom it may in any wise concern

Notice is hereby given, that under and by virtue of a Power of Sale contained in a certain Indenture of Mortgage bearing date the twenty-fifth day of May, in the year of eighty-one, and registered in Book Q 3 of the York County Records, pages 46 to 50, William Rosborough therein described as of the Parish of Kingsclear, in the County of York, mason, and Elizabeth W. his wife of the one part and Mary McLean, therein described as of the Parish of Saint Marys in the County of York, widow, of the other part, there will, for the purpose of satisfyng the moneys secured by the said Indenture of Mortgage, default having been made in the payment thereof, be sold at Public Anction at Phœnix Square in the City of Fredericton, on Saturday, the Fourth day of June next, at twelve o'clock noon, the Lands and Premises described in the said Indenture of Mortgage as follows : "All that certain piece or parcel of land situate lying and being in the Parish of Kingsclear, known as being called the Woodworth Place, and is abutted and bounded as follows, viz:-On the front by the River Saint John, on the lower or easterly side by land owned and occupied by Robert Forcey, on the upper or Westerly side by land occupied by the heirs of the late Stephen Lowell and on the rear by the highway road leading to Woedstock, the same containing seventy-five acres more or less," being the same lands deeded by Litetia Mills and Betsy Ann Mills to the said William Rosberough by 'deed dated October 8th, A. D., 1880. Also all that certain other piece or parcel of land situate ying and being in the Parish of Kingslear, known as being called the Mills Homestead, and is bounded as f llows, iz: "On the front by the River Saint John, on the lower or Easterly side by Land owned by Isaac Ki.burn, on the pper or westerly side by land owned by Allan Palmer and on the rear by the Queen's Highway road leading to Woodtock, the same containing thirty acres by estimation more or less. being the same Lands deeded by John Mills to the said William Rosborough by Deed bearing dato year of our Lord one thousand eight hunfred and eighty-one. Together with all the buildings and improvements, rights, privileges and appurnances to same belonging or appertaining Dated the twenty-ninth day of April, A. D., 1887,

W. H. BRADLEY GEO. E. VAN HORNE, Executors of the Estate of the late Mary

Solicitors for Executors.

O be sold by Public Auction on SATUR

W

MAY 1

5000 B

LIFE (

0 L N U U

Ø

4

By Lyman

Ass't. paste Bargely by 1 aid and app tributions over 30 pr book; don' taïns entire wanted in e

Suce, 188 W

NOTICE

benefit of o

powerful le bers for thi

ed itself to this publics

Never bef

Write

WATER.

LOB

ÐNIH

THE

First

SP

bracin better ever s We and c

Our

Plain Sat

He

 N^{I} Eren Dress and .

MA

ENG

turk rest with send Win drei able suff it m it.

regu

cure

red

"M

chil

tast

the

and for the

a b

WI

ake

-

foul and horrible language. Horrified they would save pounds in the long run as it will certainly ward off disease and Sheriff's Office, F'ton, N. B.,] March 28th 1887.