Concerning Women.

—At a recent type-writing contest in New York, Miss M. C. Grant wrote 384 words in four minutes and forty-two seconds.

—Mrs. Marie Danos, of Louisiana, has been granted a patent for a cotton cultivator.

—Miss Florence Greene, of Montreal, who saved her father last summer from being carried over the Lachine Rapids, has been presented with the medal of the Royal Humane Society of England.

—Miss Julia E. Foneret has been installed as deaconess in the St. George Episcopal Church, by Bishop Potter. She is the first deaconess admitted to the church in four hundred years, and the first ever created in America.

—A class of seven young women will graduate this month from the training-school for nurses at the Buffalo (N. Y.) General Hospital. Six young women received their diplomas in January. Trained nursing is growing in favor as a profession for women.

—A new trade for women is that of "neighbourhood darning." The woman who follows it has for her customers a dozen or twenty households, each of which she visits weekly, and spends a few hours in doing up the family darning and mending, including ripping and cleansing of old gowns. Her engagements are systematized, and she never lacks work. Some of these members make a specialty of repairing lace and other delicate fabrics. The pay is fairly good, and the professional mender is a great blessing to busy housekeepers with large families.

—Queen Victoria's daughter Helena, wife of Prince Christian of Schleswig-Holstein, during the past winter gave a series of free dinners to poor children at Windsor, at which 7,000 were entertained. She superintended nearly every dinner, serving about seventy children with her own hands on each occasion, and has visited regularly the homes of the poor in one district of the town.

AN UNDERGROUND RETREAT.—The cyclones, so common in the West, make necessary underground places to which the people can hastily retreat when the destroying wind comes. This necessity has developed an underground architecture, and the providing places somewhat more comfortable than the pit or cellar to which the people have been wont to resort. East-ontion, Ga., claims to have the largest, safest, and most costly retreat of the kind in the country. It is situated near the house, and large enough to accommodate an entire family. The walls are of brick laid in cement. The floor is carpeted, has a fireplace and a chimney, and the room is handsomely furnished. To guard against the contingency of the house blowing over on it and imprisoning the inmates, a large sewer pipe leads off from the pit in an opposite direction a distance of one hundred yards, through which the family could escape. This unique underground dwelling is thoroughly protected against water rising from below or running in from above. The cost was over $500.

It is nearly as well, if not better, to live in a country where such things are unnecessary.

UNIVERSITY.—The examination at the university are being held this week. Encenia will be on the 24th inst.

Prof. Mortman, now of the Union Baptist Seminary has been appointed to the new chair of modern languages and history in Acadia College.

REV. J. DONNELLY.—A Roman Catholic Priest, has renounced Roman Catholicism, and delivered in the Court-house at Mercer, Pa., a remarkable address, which is published in full in one of the papers of that region. He charges ignorance against Roman Catholic priests, and that ignorance is the result of the system. He makes ordinary exposure of the confessional, and of opposition to secular learning. He attacks the system as producing a false conscience, leading the average unlearned members of the Church to think it a less sin to steal and get drunk than to work on a holiday; that is, a mere day designated by the Church. He then discusses the pecuniary burdens of Roman Catholicism, taking Peter's pence as an example. He declares that these millions of dollars sent to the Pope of Rome are not used for any worthy moral end, but to maintain a reign of arbitrary domination. And finally he considers the subject of purgatory. The number of priests who are shaking off the yoke of Rome appears to increase, but as yet no marked movement of Roman Catholic laity in mass has taken place in this country.

CHRISTIAN PROGRESS IN SYRIA.—We chronicle a victory for the cause of evangelical truth in Syria. A marked change in the treatment of American missionaries by Turkish Government has been witnessed since that government came to see clearly the radical differences between the purposes of those missionaries and those of the Jesuits—the former open and peaceful, the latter, secret, scheming and dangerous. This change means much for evangelical work, not only in Syria, but throughout the Turkish Empire. Driven from France, the Jesuits have been actively at work in Syria, and in their own peculiar way, as the subsidized agents of a foreign power. The new phase of matters is illustrated by the fact that, while graduates of the medical department of the Protestant college in Syria, can, after studying some time in Constantinople, receive another degree there, this privilege is not extended to the graduates of the Jesuit college in Beirut, because they announce themselves as Frenchmen and as expecting to enter the service of foreign nations. Alarmed at this condition of matters, the government began the close mission schools of all kinds. It has now promised to close no more Protestant schools, and to reopen such as were closed in its ill-advised haste. It has also recognized the American college at Harpoot, while it continues active work in closing the schools of the Jesuits.

SUNDRIES.—Seven of the pastors of Hartford, Conn., are sons of ministers.

Dom Pedro, Emperor of Brazil, who visited Canada some years ago, is dying. He is the oldest of reigning monarchs, for he ascended his throne in 1825 when only 5 years of age.

Albany, N. Y., has a Knee Breeches Association, numbering over 60 members. They are pledged to one another to wear short trousers and long stockings, both in business and society.

TEMPERANCE NOTES.

—Over 100 colleges in the United States have prohibition clubs.

—Statistics show that insanity due to alcohol has increased in Paris from 302 cases in 1872, to 548 cases in 1883.

—More than 17,000 persons have signed the temperance pledge in Chicago, as the result of the work there of Messrs. Murphy and Moody. They have organized a Gospel Temperance League.

—Mrs. Annie Boyd of Grand Rapids, Mich., recovered in court $9,500 damages on Thursday from a liquor seller, Christopher Post, who sold her husband liquor under the influence of which he killed a man and was sentenced to prison for life.

—Upon the testimony of the Governor of Iowa it is said:

1. In eighty out of ninety-nine counties of the State, Prohibition is enforced. 2. In the remaining nineteen counties it is partly enforced. 3. No property has been depreciated by its enforcement, as saloons make room for better and more legitimate business. 4. The enforcement of the law has had noticeable effect upon the population. 5. The effects of Prohibition upon the general welfare and habits of the people are decidedly wholesome. 6. Prohibition sentiment is on the increase.

Parnell's health is reported improved.

The Minister of Agriculture has received a cable message from Liverpool, intimating more hopeful prospects for the Canadian cattle trade. The first shipments from St. Lawrence are selling in Liverpool at six pence to six pence farthing, an improvement of about five dollars per head.

ALL SORTS.

Customer: "I don't think the picture does me justice." Photographer: "My dear sir, if photography did justice to every one who has his picture taken, the art would soon grow unpopular."

A paper which is devoted to faith healing of the most radical type recently stated that a tramp called on a good sister who kindly gave him a copy of that organ. Subsequently, meeting the sister, he said: "Don't you remember when I was here some time ago, you gave me a paper, and it had something in it about healing? Well, I was sick at that time, with pain in my side. I just cut out that piece on healing and pasted it on my side, and he had not had a pain since!"

It is discovered that extract of whale is quite as good as beef extract and much more economical. A whale weighing 200 tons yields 5,000 pounds of extract, and one pound of extract makes 100 pints of soup. Thus one whale will furnish 500,000 people with dinners, and 100 whales will give all the people of the United States old enough to eat soup one comfortable meal apiece.

CARR.—At Geary, S. Co., on the 30th ult., Mrs. Carr, aged 60 years, wife of Deacon Reuben Carr, and daughter of the late Alexander Carr.
