The people are exceedingly kind, and their love for and interest in their pastor are constantly being manifested in many ways. This is my first pastorate and I can truly say, "The lines have fallen unto me in pleasant places, yea, 1 have a goodly heritage." The interest in all the churches of the pastorate is good. Each sustains interesting conference and weekly prayer meetings, thus indicating gradual but steady and healthy growth.

REV. R. FRENCH writes that he has been on a visit to Deer Island. He was there a month, and went over a good part of the island. He found the people very kind. The sisters, especially, he says, deserve commendation for their faithfulness in christian well. The wall behind the pulpit is neatly frescoed, and the wood work nicely painted, the pews being done in bird's eye maple. New windows, which let down for ventilation, and good inside folding shutters make a great improvement in both the comfort and appearance of the room. Indeed when inside, one cannot realize that any part of che building ever formed a part of the old house, and when outside, the site only looks familiar. It cost them about eleven hundred. dollars, and they are doing wonders in raising the money. Some of them have done abundantly, and about all have done well.

The writer was with the pastor and assisted in the services of the day .. The dedicatory services were held in: the afternoon, when the house was full although the day was not fine. The text from which the sermon was: preached in 1 Chron. 28:1. Many times have we listened to the pastor pray, but seldom, if ever, have we heard him offer so appropriate and solemn a prayer as he did at the close of the sermon, when the house was reverently offered to God, and His blessings invoked. There was preaching again in the evening when the house was full, and the power of God rested upon the congregation. It is a long time since we have spent a more blessed day. We surely believe that, the labours of that Lord's Day will be helpful to the cause at the Beach.

It was a great pleasure to meet those dear friends again. Several whom we saw converted when last there, had gone to the better land, and some of them suddenly. Bro. Barnes is doing good work. He is a faithful and industrious pastor. The church has a good deal of strength and is as a city set on a hill. I am pleased to say that, doctrinally it is well united. There is. no marble cake appearance, but it seems to be well kneaded. Of the church at North Roads, "old Uncle Mire" said, amongst other things. "All three of the masts have been shot away, but we have the colours up on the boat hook and we are fighting away." They are faint, but persevering. They have no pastor at present. We hope there are ich blessings in store for both those churches in CampoBello. G. A. H. Temperance Facts.
