

DENOMINATIONAL NEWS.

REV. JOS. NOBLE, last week returned to his charge in Hampstead, after a visit to Carleton Co. He is in good health. After Conference he intends to relinquish his pastorate, and spend some months in visiting churches in this Province and Nova Scotia where he has laboured during his long ministry.

A CALL. The Portland Church has given a call to Rev. B. H. Nobles. We have not learned whether he has accepted or will accept.

BARRINGTON. Children's Day was observed on Sabbath last in Temple Church. Morning, a sermon, theme, "buds, blossoms and fruit." Text: Numbers 17: 8. Afternoon the usual exercises. Evening, when the church was crowded by a deeply interested congregation, a number of excellent children gave a number of excellent and appropriate dialogues, and recitations, the subject being "flowers." The singing and music by both the choir and the children were greatly appreciated. Mrs. James Kinney, as organist, rendered valued and efficient service. Short addresses were given by Revs. T. H. Siddall, J. I. Porter, and by the Superintendent, Deacon Josiah Hopkins.

The altar was richly and tastefully adorned with plants and flowers. The committee of management, with Captain Seth W. Crowell as chairman, admirably discharged their duties, and were justly commended for their skill, zeal and interest. The entire service was good throughout, and one that will be long had in joyous and helpful remembrance. One marked feature that gave joy and delight was the excellent rendering of instructive recitations by very young children, manifesting painstaking care and zealous home training.

Such days are welcomed by and helpful to the children. They create happy memories and pleasing life-long associations in the service of the house of God. There is a ministry for children, and a ministry of children. They can reach heart and mind; "and a little child shall lead them" of riper years into the service of the lover of little children—Christ. Children's day gives the little ones an opportunity—one of many afforded them in our day—of engaging in a ministry without which the Church of God is not complete in its manifold ministries. "Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; for of such is the Kingdom of God."—Car. Yarmouth Herald.

SIXTH DISTRICT MEETING.—This meeting convened in the Moncton Free Baptist Church Friday, 13th inst., at 2 o'clock.

The 28 churches in the District were represented by about 60 delegates and the following ministers: Revs. G. W. McDonald, Wm. DeWare, A. H. McLeod, W. H. Perry, and A. C. Thompson, Licentiates W. B. Wiggins, Everett Gosline, and Allen Bonnell; from other districts: Revs. Joseph McLeod, D. G. A. Hartley, C. T. Phillips, and F. Babcock.

The first meeting was the usual social conference, which was interesting. Rev. G. W. McDonald, chairman of the district presided.

From 6.30 to 7.30 a very interesting prayer meeting was held. At 7.30 Licentiate Gosline, who has lately been attending Bates College at Lewiston, Maine, delivered a practical gospel sermon, which was followed by addresses by Revs. G. A. Hartley, F. Babcock, C. T. Phillips, G. W. McDonald and others.

Saturday.—From 7.30 to 8.30 prayer service. At 9.30 the regular business of the session commenced. Rev. G. W. McDonald in the chair. Prayer by Gideon McLeod. Reading minutes of last session. George McLeod elected treasurer pro tem. Reading church reports followed. Twenty-four churches sent written reports, from which we glean the following statistics: Added by baptism 53, by letter 21, Total 74. Moneys raised for support of ministers $2,454, for repairs, &c. $476, for church expenses $493, miscellaneous $95, a total of $3,518.

Rev. Wm. Deware was elected chairman and Gideon McLeod assistant.

Rev. G. A. Hartley and C. T. Phillips, visitors, were accorded seats in the meeting. Rev. G. A. Hartley addressed the meeting on the union educational work of the Baptist denomination at St. Martins, and was followed by Revs. Dr. McLeod, F. Babcock and C. T. Phillips.

Voted that Victoria Road church be admitted to district. Voted that licentiate Gosline have a seat at the meeting. Reports of several committees followed. Moved by Dr. McLeod, that a committee be appointed to consider the reports of the churches. Rev. Dr. McLeod, F. Babcock and Gideon McLeod were appointed such committee.

The churches having over 100 members are:

Corn Hill 172, Middleland 202, Moncton, 123, Millstream 117, Coverdale 115, Norton 103, Sussex 108.

Only one parsonage is owned on the District, that at Petitcodiac.

The total number of members in the District in the churches reporting is 1750. The four churches not reported increase the number to over 2000. Their adherents number about 4,000 more, making the total denominational strength in the District about 6,000. One new church has been organized during the year—that at Victoria Road, having a membership of 21. The gain shown by the statistical report does not reveal fully the progress that has been made.

At 6.30 the District Meeting resumed its session. Rev. W. H. Perry offered prayer, after which considerable business was transacted. Alfred Taylor, Gideon McLeod, Thomas G. Perry, Abraham Colpitts and G. B. Story were appointed delegates to the next General Conference, with Job McFarlane, George McLeod, John B. Dunfield, Hugh Walker and W. W. Steeves as substitutes. Rev. Dr. McLeod from committee appointed to examine the several church reports, submitted the following report;

Total No. of churches in the District..... 32
No. of churches reporting..... 26
No. of churches having pastoral care..... 23

Members enrolled in the churches as published above..... 318
Average attendance at prayer meetings..... 318
At conference meetings..... 365

This report contained several recommendations which were carefully considered section by section, the report being finally adopted as a whole. In pursuance of those recommendations, the following were appointed a committee to arrange for gospel meetings in the destitute churches of the District as convenient: Revs. Wm. Deware, G. W. McDonald, A. C. Thompson and Messrs. G. W. Sharp, Gideon McLeod, Allan Bonnell and L. R. Cosman were granted District license. The District meeting was located next year at Corn Hill. The customary votes of thanks to the people of Moncton and I. C. R. management for reduced fares were passed.

At 10 Saturday the ladies of the Missionary Society met in the Baptist church. After devotional exercises the usual routine business was gone through and reports received from 22 of the 24 societies in the district. Reports were encouraging and the interest good. The officers elected for the ensuing year was Mrs. C. W. Weyman, president; Miss Jane Weyman, secretary-treasurer. The amount of money raised in the district during the year was $164.31. The following is the Secretary's Report.

DEAR SISTERS: The Lord in His wisdom has been pleased to prolong our lives another year and permits us to-day to meet in our annual meeting. I trust with grateful hearts for all the blessings bestowed upon us. Blessings unnumbered, whether we realize or appreciate them or not, have come to us. It may be that to some of us, earthly blessings have come so lavishly that, like Jeshurun of old, we have waxed fat and kicked. Let us examine our hearts closely and prayerfully to-day and see if there are any idols of silver or gold there, and if we discover them, let us cast them from us, break down their altars and from our hearts offer an unblemished sacrifice to the Lord our God even the first fruits of our increase. Sisters, have we during the past year daily and prayerfully inquired, Lord what wilt thou have me do for the spread of the gospel in the dark places of the earth? Are we seeking to know the greater need there is of more workers in the mission district of Midnapore and Balasore, in India, where the little band of three that have gone from us are toiling with their brethren and sisters of the Free Baptist Mission board in the States, and of the impossibility of twenty-two missionaries giving instruction to nearly four million of people in those two districts? Last week the INTELLIGENCER brought us the good news that fourteen villages had broken away from hindooism and were asking to be taught the better way. This to one and to all who love the Lord Jesus is gladdening news. Do we not to-day feel that it is our duty to do much more for those people than we now do, and not only a duty, but we should esteem it a privilege to work for our blessed Master in helping to carry out his command to his servants to go into all the world and preach the gospel. It does seem to me that it is time the members of our churches do wake up to see the great need of being more active in all Christian work than we have been. The sisters ought to support three missionaries instead of one. We could do this easily if our sisters would unitedly give themselves to missionary work and prayer. Of the eighteen societies reported only two report that they hold missionary prayer meetings. Corn Hill and Taylor Village meet every month and the Lord does bless them when they meet and will ever meet with the faithful ones. It is cause for sorrow that our sisters in most societies are so neglectful of this duty. Our missionaries ask us to pray for them; do they desire what they ask, for undoubtedly they do and can we refuse their requests. Hard is the heart that does not pray for those self-sacrificing ones who for the love of Christ and the heathen have left all the endowments of kindred and the religious associations which we to-day enjoy so much.

Sisters, once more I ask you, will you pray? Jesus has told us whatsoever we ask the Father in His name he will give it. Oh how precious is that promise.

Respectfully submitted,
JANE A. WEYMAN,
Secretary.

A public missionary meeting was held Saturday evening. Rev. Wm. Deware presided. Addresses were delivered by Revs. F. Babcock, C. T. Phillips, G. W. McDonald and Dr. McLeod. The ladies mission aid society also furnished two speakers, Miss Jane Weyman, the District Secretary, who read her annual report as it appears above, Mrs. C. W. Weyman of Millstream, the President of the District and Corresponding Secretary of the parent society. There are now in the whole 7 districts of the denomination over 70 of these aid societies, which last year contributed $630 to the work.

Sunday.—The first service on Sunday was a prayer and testimony meeting. At 10.30 Rev. G. W. McDonald preached from Exodus 4: 2.

At 2.30 Rev. Dr. McLeod preached from Titus 2: 14. The communion service followed, and was a good season.

Other pulpits were supplied as follows: Baptist Church, 10.30, Rev. C. T. Phillips; and at 6.30 Rev. Dr. McLeod; Lutz Mountain, 2.30, Rev. Wm. Deware; Taylor Village, 10.30, Rev. G. A. Hartley; Dover, 2.30, Rev. G. A. Hartley.

At 6.30 Rev. Wm. Deware preached from John 7: 29. Thus this session of the 6th District Meeting was brought to a close.

The delegates were very much pleased with Moncton, and were unanimous in expressing their gratification at the ample and abundant provision made for their entertainment.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.—I wish to acknowledge through the INTELLIGENCER a "Basket Sociable" held at Victoria Road, W. Co. for me, which realized $22.40.

A. H. McLEOD.

LINCOLN, S. Co.—Last Sabbath the pastor of the Fredericton church baptized two converts at Lincoln. The church has no pastor, but meetings have been held quite frequently by Deacon D. W. Estabrooks (Baptist) and other brethren of Fredericton. The results have been good.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.—Licentiate F. G. Francis wished to acknowledge the receipt from a few friends in Douglas of a present of $9.50. In the note accompanying the money they say they wish to express their high appreciation of the earnest christian work he has done in their community while laboring there with Rev. Wm. Downey.

Temperance Notes.

—It is appalling to read that in Monroe County, Ill., there are more saloon-keepers than Sunday scholars.

—The Topeka Capital estimates that Kansas has saved not less than $12,000,000 since her prohibitory law went into effect.

The Halifax Women's Christian Temperance Union are memorializing Gov. McLean, asking him to discard liquors at government house entertainments. Having been a life long abstainer Gov. McLean will likely accede to the request.

—Four Christian countries have sent over twenty-five million gallons of rum into the Congo State within the three years of its establishment, Berlin alone having sent three-quarters of a million in one year. England, Germany, France and America are the countries which send missionaries and liquor to the Congo State. It is small wonder to read that "liquor meets with ready sale," and that "some of the missionaries are becoming discouraged." Already prohibition is evoked for the Congo State. It would seem as if the powers might now unite in stopping this dreadful traffic.

For the report of the Sixth District Meeting we are indebted to Rev. A. C. Thompson, whose report to the Moncton Times we condensed.

P. O.—Rev. J. T. Parson's P. O. address is now 233 Waterloo St., St. John.

PERSONAL.—Hon. Geo. E. Foster, Minister of Finance, was in this city from last Friday till Monday. We learn from the Sentinel that Rev. Thomas Connor, Victoria Corner, was quite seriously injured on Friday of last week, while assisting to raise a barn. Some of the frame work he was helping to lift fell upon him, bruising him very severely, although, fortunately, no bones were broken. Dr. Steeves, of Hartland, and, later, Dr. Connell, were called, and the latest reports are, we are glad to say, favorable for his recovery.

A GOOD TRAIT.—It is said that a characteristic trait of the late Emperor of Germany was his genuine good nature. He never scolded his servants in a rude manner. His hardest words were, "That ought not to have been done." When he said, "This must not be done," his servants knew that their master was really angry. One day, a cup which he had received some twenty years before as a present from Queen Victoria, and which he used daily, was broken. The court marshal gave a sharp reprimand to the two servants who kept the vessels. They both assured the emperor of their innocence; and the emperor remarked, "Well, well, I may have done it myself."

ALL SORTS.

The output of the Birmingham (England) pin mills is thirty millions a day. Other factories in that country have a capacity of seventeen million pins per day. France turns out about twenty millions a day, and Holland and Germany ten millions each. The pin machines cut the wire in pin size, head, point, polish, sort, and stick them in the papers.

Experiments with an electric locomotive are now being made on one of the underground roads in London, which, if successful, will do away with the chief annoyance of underground travel, the smoke; and the danger incident to carrying a powerful electric current along the line will be very much lessened on the underground system.

The greatest elevation which has been attained by man is 37,000 feet—about seven miles—this height having been reached during a balloon ascent made by Glishair. At this tremendous distance above the earth's surface physical exertion is found to be almost impossible, owing to the great rarefaction of the atmosphere.

It is Thomas A. Edison's intention to take a record of the strength of his baby's lungs every three months. "I will preserve the record," said he yesterday, "until the child becomes a young lady. Then the phonograph can be operated for her benefit; and she can see for herself just what kind of a baby she was, and won't have to take her mother's and the nurse's word for it."

An English gentleman, Mr. Assheton Smith, has planted the side of a mountain on his estate at Llanddeinolen with forest trees so arranged as to display the words "Jubilee, 1887," in letters 200 yards long by 25 feet wide, to all the surrounding country. The letters are worked in trees of light colored foliage planted amid others forming a dark background, and 650,000 have been used in the undertaking.

An awkward compliment recently rather disturbed the harmony of a wedding breakfast given by a substantial farmer blessed with five daughters, the eldest being the bride. A neighboring farmer, who was honored with an invitation, thinking, no doubt, he ought to say something smart and complimentary upon the event, addressing the bridegroom, said, "Well, you have got the pick of the batch!" The countenances of the four unmarried ones may be imagined.

The ex-Queen of Hanover is one of the most completely forgotten of the many exiled sovereigns who live in secluded places in Europe. She recently celebrated her seventieth birthday. She lives at the Gmunden with her son, the Duke of Cumberland. The authorities of Gmunden presented her with congratulations on her birthday, and there was a torchlight procession to the royal residence.

Literary Notes.

The temperature of the dog-days has had no depressing effect on the conductors of Harper's Magazine. The Number for August is as fresh and vigorous as May or early June. Most of the staff of well-known contributors are represented in its pages, with here and there a new name. From an artistic point of view, there is no chance for fault-finding. Abbey, Parsons, and Thulstrup furnish some of their best work. In fiction many strong chapters are offered, while the supply of solid reading is in no way diminished. The frontispiece is a haymaking scene by Abbey.

The August Missionary Review of the World appears in advance of the other monthlies. Its contents show a steady advance along the broad lines which it has marked out for itself. It discusses, by its high literary ability, its breadth of discussion and information, and its world-wide sweep of survey, the other missionary periodicals of the world. It has taken the lead of them all, and by its enterprise and enthusiasm, and its editorial ability, is holding out an example which already gives evidence of being potential in missionary literature. There are several noteworthy articles in the "Literature" section of this number, such as "Bicentenary of Bunyan's Death," "The Miracles of Missions," "The World's Missionary Conference," all from the pen of Dr. A. T. Pierson; "The Romance of Missions," by Dr. Christlieb; "Medical Missions," by Dr. Drink; "Traffic Among Native Races," and the "Hero-missionary." We know not where to look for better reading than these papers afford. The "Correspondence," the "International," the "Monthly Concert," the "Monthly Bulletin" and the "Editorial Notes" departments are each full of timely thought, fact and discussion, presented in a terse and impressive manner. Altogether we think this the best number issued of this sterling Review. Funk & Wagnalls, New York. Price, $2; single numbers, 25 cents.
