Cough medicines, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is in greater demand than ever. No preparation for Throat and Lung Troubles is so prompt in its effects, so agreeable to the taste, and so widely known as this. It is the family medicine in thousands of households.

"I have suffered for years from a bronchial trouble that, whenever I take pold or am exposed to inclement weather, shows itself by a very annoying kling sensation in the throat and by difficulty in breathing. I have tried a great many remedies, but none does so well as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral which always gives prompt relief in returns of my old complaint." - Ernest A. Hepler, Inspector of Public Roads, Parish Terre Bonne, La.

"I consider Ayer's Cherry Pectoral a most important remedy

For Home Use.

I have tested its curative power, in my family, many times during the past years, and have never known it to fail. It will relieve the most serious affections of the throat and lungs, whether in children or adults." - Mrs. E. G. Edgerly, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

"Twenty years ago I was troubled with a disease of the lungs. Doctors afforded me no relief and considered my case hopeless. I then began to use Aver's Cherry Pectoral, and, before] had finished one bottle, found relief. continued to take this medicine until a cure was effected. I believe that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life."-Samuel Griggs, Waukegan, Ill.

"Six years ago I contracted a severe cold which settled on my lungs and soon developed all the alarming symptoms of Consumption. I had a cough, night sweats, bleeding of the lungs pains in chest and sides, and was so costrated as to be confined to my bed most of the time. After trying various prescriptions, without benefit, my physician finally determined to give me Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took it, and the effect was magical. I seemed to rally from the first dose of this medicine, and, after using only three bottles, am as well and sound as ever." -Rodney Johnson, Springfield, Ill. *

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, PREPARED BY Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; six bottles, $5.

Write Them A Letter To-Night. [This beautiful litt'e poem was read at an evening service, composed largely of young men, by Rev. Dr. Deems, pastor of the Church of the Strangers, New York.] Don't go to the theater, concert, or ball, But stay in your room to-night ; Deny yourself to the friends that call, And a good, long letter write; Write to the sad old folks at home, Who sit, when the day is done, With folded hands and downcast eyes,

Don't selfishly scribble. "Excuse my haste, I've scarcely the time to write," Lest their drooping thoughts go wandering back

And think of the absent one.

To the many a by-gone night When they lost their needed sleep and rest, And every-breath was a prayer, That Gcd would leave their delicate babe To their tender love and care.

Don't let them feel that you've no more need Of their love, or counsel wise; For the heart grows strongly sensitive When age has dimmed the eyes. It might be well to let them believe You never forgot them quite ; That you deem it a pleasure when far away Long letters home to write. Don't think that the young and giddy friends Who make your pastime gay, Have half the anxious thought for you That the old folks have to-day. The duty of writing do not put off-Let sleep or pleasure wait-Lest the letter for which they looked and longed

Be a day, or an hour, too late.

For the sad old folks at home, With locks fast turning white, Are longing to hear from the absent one-Write them a letter to-night.

10-13. For the priests which bare experience and in his own way, the ark stood in the midst of Jordan : and there will always be those who each apparently on some firm stone could receive no other. "Upon in the bed of the stream. Until this stone," says one, "my feet every thing was finished. The stood firm." priests with the ark were the representatives of God, and their position where they would be the first to be overwhelmed if the waters should break their barriers, was a testimony to the people that it was safe for them to cross.

God's ministers are to prove to the people that it is safe and wise to trust in the Gospel promises, by themselves fully trusting them. And the people hasted : not from fear, as many assume; they hasted behomes and vineyards which they were to possess. A few moments, and the weary waiting of years would end. So should we hasten on to the blessings and victories and rest of our promised land. So should we haste to do God's will, and run in the path of duty. When all the people were clean passed over

We should haste and not dally on our way to the many blessings He had not asked to be forgiven promised by God.

We should bring aid to our brothers and neighbors, not neglecting our own families.

We should make and keep memocause just before them were the rials of God's wondrous acts of mercy and love to us.

We should take special pains to instruct our children in the great truths and facts of the Gospel. Forgetfulness of past blessings, and of the wonderful ways of God, is an unspeakable loss. God teaches us, in the lesson, the art of instructing the young. We must first arouse their attention and excite an inquiring disposition.
