

DENOMINATIONAL NEWS.

CARLETON.—One person was baptized, and three were received into the Carleton church on Sabbath last.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.—I wish to acknowledge through the INTELLIGENCER the receipt of $14.25 a present from the members and friends of the F. C. B. church at Seventh Tier, C. Co., the proceeds of a basket social held there a short time ago; also $2.00 from two members of the church who were not present at the social, for which I am very grateful.

GEORGE W. FOSTER.

Oct. 29th.

FROM REV. T. H. SIDDALL.—Permit me to acknowledge with a deep sense of gratitude, the many expressions of interest and the tokens of good will received from the people of this pastorate on the eve of our departure for our new home. I wish also to acknowledge, in this way, the many kind letters received from friends all across the Province, all of which have been very cheering and helpful, and will not readily be forgotten. It is with regret that we leave so many whom we have learned to love and whom we shall ever esteem. During eight years here, we have been kindly and generously treated, and with sadness of heart, we leave a people whom we truly know to love. We needed a change, and believe it is the will of God we should go to the field we have chosen.

For the many presents, including $45.00 in cash, amounting in all to $130.03 we heartily thank each and all. To my friend Deacon J. A. Smith, for the gift of a watch, and for his lavish kindness, during the past eight years, it is not possible for me to express my appreciation of his goodwill and generous regard. To the choir and young people of Barrington for their present of a beautiful and useful writing desk, I can but say with sincere feelings "I thank you," and may our God richly bless you. To the many friends outside our own denomination I wish to say that I have ever valued their esteem, and I now thank them for their interest and kindness. To my brethren in the ministry whose appreciative words and loving and sympathetic letters have been more pleasant and gratifying than I can tell, I wish, with breaking heart, to express my brotherly love. Brethren, God bless you and be with you, granting you great success.

To the people with whom so pleasantly and gladly we have dwelt and labored with during these years of precious memories, "Good bye." We part in peace, sharing each other's goodwill, and hoping that prosperity will attend those who go and those who abide. Our hearts and prayers are with you, that God will send you speedily another pastor, and abundantly bless him. We ask for him the same regard you have been pleased to grant to us. Uphold his hands, and, in earnest co-operation, do all possible to build up the interests the Master has committed to you.

"God bless you and cause His face to shine upon you," and "may the God of peace sanctify you wholly, body, soul and spirit" is the prayer of

T. H. SIDDALL.

P. S. Mrs. Siddall desires to thank the ladies of Port La Tour most heartily for their many gifts, especially for the handsome satin dress. The many acts of kindness and tokens of goodwill will ever be held in grateful remembrance by her.—T. H. S.

ADDRESS.—The following, largely signed, was presented Rev. T. H. Siddall, prior to his departure.

PORT LA TOUR, Oct. 10th, 1888.
To the Rev. T. H. Siddall.

DEAR SIR, It is with mingled feelings of pleasure and sorrow that we address these few lines to you. Of pleasure, because we feel that you are enabled to say that you have done your duty nobly while you have been among us supplying our spiritual needs. Of sorrow, because it is hard for friends, but more especially for brothers and sisters in Christ to part.

Since your departure is inevitable, we cannot refrain from giving you some idea of the estimation in which your services have been held. You have been going in and out among us for the past 9 years, and during all that time, from the pulpit, and the platform, and in private you have been faithfully instilling into our minds the love of Christ "that love which passeth all understanding" and exhorting all to repent. In like manner, you have ever held before us, the importance of total abstinence from every thing that can intoxicate, and indeed the importance of morality in all its phases.

While we are aware that it was your duty as God's ambassador to dispense these blessings, we cannot avoid expressing our gratitude for them.

We pray also that God will amply reward you, and that He will endow you with health, strength and spiritual fervor to continue the good work in your new sphere of action. You have the assurance to comfort you that no earnest worker in God's vineyard ever rested from his labor unrequited.

What, however, we wish more particularly to do in this address is not simply to point out the amount of work you have done while you have been with us, nor the nature of it; nor simply to express our gratitude for it, and appreciation of it, but also to tell you of our deep regret that you are so soon to leave us. Our humble prayer to Almighty God is that His blessing may rest upon both you and yours, and that your efforts in the cause of religion and morality in your new charge in the neighbouring republic may be crowned through His grace with happy results.

In conclusion, we would remind you that this is a very imperfect expression of our feelings as at a time like this words fail us. Rejoiced would we be to learn that you have reconsidered the matter and decided to remain with us, but "God's will be done."

We remain

Yours faithfully etc.

P. O. ADDRESS: Rev. T. H. Siddall's address is Racine, Wisconsin.

CRIME DIMINISHING.—Recent reliable statistics show that crime is decreasing in England. The official Blue Book, containing judicial statistics for 1887 for England and Wales, shows in the number of indictable offenses reported by the police, and in the number of persons sent for trial at assizes and sessions, a decrease of 5.6 per cent. and 4.8 per cent. respectively. In the total commitments to prison there is a decrease of 3.8 per cent.; but in the number of persons summarily proceeded against for minor offenses there is an increase of 3.7 per cent., which may show greater activity on the part of the police rather than an increase of crime. But the most gratifying fact is that the numbers of the known criminal classes have decreased within ten years from thirty thousand to twenty-eight thousand, notwithstanding the steady growth of the population, while there has been a corresponding decrease in the number of juvenile and female criminals.

Electro-neering Methods.

That Lord Sackville should have been "given his passports" by the Washington authorities will surprise no one. If such action, indeed, had been taken by a country whose politicians felt bound by the ordinary rules of international intercourse its conduct would be inconceivable, but United States authorities have taught the world to look upon them as utterly irresponsible beings capable of any outrage—at election times. The two great parties have proved themselves to be exactly on a level in this matter. The Republican party deliberately committed forgery to entrap the British Minister into writing a private letter, that they might violate its secrecy in order to hold the President up to odium for the crime of being friendly or even just to the British Empire. * * * Then the Democrats, with President Cleveland at their head, take their turn. * * * The President pretends to be aggrieved by a British Minister being rash enough to declare his opinion that the President did not send a lying message to the Senate on the Fishery Treaty, but meant what he said officially. On the pretence that he and his country were wronged by this declaration of his good faith, the President adopts as his own weapon the insult to the British Empire, forgery, trap, breach of faith and all. Then to vie with the Republicans in their bid for the anti-British vote he proceeds to enter for it by a further insult to our country in withdrawing recognition from the insulted British Minister. It is a pretty tangle and highly characteristic of United States electro-neering, with its choice methods of forgery, breach of faith and international rudeness.—The Empire.

ALL SORTS.

It is said that Mrs. Cleveland is growing weary with writing notes to people who have named their babies after her. We suggest a printed circular or an Edison phonograph.

A news item states that "an umbrella has been made in Glasgow for a king in East Africa measuring twenty-one feet in diameter." The dimensions of the umbrella are not given.

Mr Moody's boys' school at Mt. Hermon, Mass., has 318 students, over 300 having been refused. The girls' school has about the same number, over 400 having been turned away. In these two schools there are about sixty teachers.

The Queen of England never sends her personal correspondence through the regular mail as her subjects do. Every trivial communication, whether of a personal or private nature, is delivered at its destination by a Queen's messenger. She is the only European sovereign who does this.

Literary Notes.

The melancholy days have come, but Harper's Magazine for November brightens them perceptibly. There is no flavor of decay about it, and its leaves are as fresh and clean as in summer-time. The range of subjects is wide, and there is catering to many kinds of literary taste. Two articles, "Invalidism as a Fine Art," and "The New Orleans Bench and Bar in 1823," can hardly fail to charm every one who reads them. The illustrations are all through most artistic, and the Departments show their usual sweetness, light, and common-sense.

The Missionary Review of the World for November is on our table. Its table of "Contents" is brimful of interesting matter. Among the 12 papers we note "The Mission Tour of Scotland," "Home Missions," and the "Miracles of Missions," all by Dr. Pierson. The second paper on the "Basel Mission" is of interest. So are "Missions Among the Mormons," and "Early Mission Work Among the Indians." The article on "Medical Missions" is good. Starbuck's paper, giving the cream of all the foreign missionary magazines, translated into English, is valuable. There are, also, the last reports of 11 leading missionary societies; correspondence from various countries; the "International Department," with paper from Dr. Gracey, Dr. Cyrus Hamlin and others; the "Monthly Concert," "Progress and Results of Missions" in all the fields of operation, and the "Statistics of Missions," containing tables of statistics and a classified catalogue of all the missionary societies of the world.

Geo. Kennan's change of views.

The following is an extract from a letter written home by Mr. Kennan while he was in Russia investigating the exile system for The Century magazine:

The exile system is much worse than I supposed. Mr. —'s examination of prisons and study of the exile system were extremely superficial. I cannot understand how, if he really went through the Tiumen and Tomsk forwarding prisons, he could have failed to see that their condition and the condition of their wretched inmates were in many respects shocking. Nobody here has tried to conceal it from me. The acting governor of this province said to me very frankly yesterday that the condition of the Tomsk prison is "ochoznoi" (awful), but that he cannot help it. What I have previously written and said about the treatment of the political exiles seems to be substantially true and accurate, at least so far as Western Siberia is concerned, but my preconceived ideas as to their character have been rudely shaken. The Russian liberals and revolutionists whom I have met here are by no means half-educated enthusiasts, crazy fanatics or men whose mental processes it is difficult to understand. On the contrary, they are simple, natural, perfectly comprehensible, and often singularly interesting and attractive. One sees at once that they are educated, reasonable, self-controlled gentlemen, not different in any essential respect from one's self. When I write up this country for The Century, I shall have to take back some of the things that I have said. The exile system is worse than I believed it to be, and worse than I have described it. It isn't pleasant, of course, to have to admit that one has written upon a subject without fully understanding it; but even that is better than trying, for the sake of consistency, to maintain a position after one sees that it is utterly untenable.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of Cutting Teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it; mothers there is no mistake about it. It cures Dysentery and Diarrhoea, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the Gums, reduces Inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething is pleasant to the taste and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. July 16th

We find the best Condition Powders are "Maud's."

CURED BY E. E. WHEN ALL ELSE FAILED.

Mr. Samuel Allan, of Lisle, Ont., states that he tried all the doctors in his locality while suffering for years with Liver and Kidney trouble; nothing benefited him until he took Burdock Blood Bitters, four bottles of which cured him.

VALUABLE TO KNOW.

Consumption may be more easily prevented than cured. The irritating and harassing cough will be greatly relieved by the use of Hagar's Pectoral Balsam that cures coughs, colds, bronchitis and all pulmonary troubles.

AMONG THE INDIANS.

"While my husband was trading in furs he came across an Indian who was taken to his lodge to die. He had inward pains and pains in all his limbs. He gave some Yellow Oil internally and applied it externally and cured him. It also cured my husband of rheumatism, and I find it valuable for coughs and colds sore throat, etc." Mrs. A. Beasw, Cook's Mills, Serpent River, Ont.

THE MODUS OPERANDI.

The mode of operating of Burdock Blood Bitters is that it acts at once and the same time upon the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, Kidneys and the Blood, to cleanse, regulate and strengthen. Hence its almost universal value in Chronic Complaints.

A QUARTER OF A CENTURY.

For more than twenty-five years has Hagar's Yellow Oil been sold by druggists, and it has never yet failed to give satisfaction as a household remedy for pain, lameness and soreness of the flesh, for external and internal use in all painful complaints.

A RARE COMBINATION.

There is no other remedy or combination of medicines that meets so many requirements, as does Burdock Blood Bitters in its wide range of power over such Chronic diseases as Dyspepsia, Liver and Kidney Complaint, Scrofula and all humors of the blood.

Deaths.

GOODWIN.—At Lower Argyle, N. S., on 3rd Oct., Mrs. Rebecca Goodwin, in the 83rd year of her age, leaving a large number of relatives to mourn their loss. The deceased had been a faithful Christian for a long number of years. She had a strong faith and firm confidence in Jesus until the last.

McLAREN.—At Lower Argyle, Oct. 22nd, Reuben R., in the 19th year of his age, son of Capt. Benj. McLaren. Before departing this life, he frequently talked of and declared his faith and trust in Jesus.

SIPPELL.—At Somerville, C. Co., on 19th ult., of consumption, Lilla, only daughter of Deacon Abner and Ruth Sippell, in the twenty-first year of her age. Her health had been failing for some months, but her friends were still hopeful of her recovery. Some ten days before her death she became conscious her end was near, and she rejoiced in the fact, that for her to depart was to be with Christ, which would be far better. Some 24 hours before her death it was the happy privilege of the writer, together with the sad hearted parents and numerous relatives and friends to commemorate with her the death of the dear Saviour; to us a very solemn and to her a very happy hour. She retained consciousness till the last and fell asleep without a struggle, trusting in the merits of her Redeemer. The writer, assisted by Rev. S. W. Shaw, conducted the funeral in presence of a large concourse of people.

T. VANWART.

HOPKINS.—On Oct. 15th at sea, while on his way from Mexico, South America to Boston, Captain Joseph Hopkins of Barrington aged 32 years, leaving a wife and one child and a very large circle of relatives and friends to mourn the loss of a most affectionate son, devoted father, faithful husband and true friend. Our brother was a member of the Temple Church (Free Baptist) in Barrington, and was esteemed by all for his exemplary conduct and Christian integrity. Wherever he went he was the center of attraction, his features expressing the calm of his inner spirit and his peacefulness of mind. The funeral took place on Friday the 20th. There was a large company of relatives and friends present. The writer, assisted by Rev. J. J. Porter, conducted the service, speaking briefly at the house from "It shall be well with them that fear God," which fell before him. It was an impressive service and though one of sadness it was full of bright hope of a blessed reunion. The widow and family of our dear brother have the sincere sympathy of the church and community. Our prayer is that all may be sustained and comforted by the thought of all grace and consolation. "They are gathering home one by one." They die but to live in the city of rest, the goodman's home of lighted peace and love. God grant us all the bright hope of meeting when trials and sorrows are done with. "Be thou faithful unto death and I will give thee a crown of life."—S.

JAS. G. McNALLY,

November 7.

"The Great Monthly Magazine of the World." (Pacific Churchman).

THE CENTURY MAGAZINE IN 1889.

Why has it such an enormous circulation? Experts estimate that between two and three millions of people read each number.

Because THE CENTURY is above everything a leader. It led the development of wood-engraving in America and it has fostered American authors. It is alive to the issues of to-day. What it prints sets people to thinking and talking.

Because whatever other periodicals may come into the family, the great reading world has found out that "no household can keep abreast of the times without THE CENTURY." Its success is explained by its contents.

Because the greatest writers of the world like to have their work read by the greatest number, and therefore to such a magazine as THE CENTURY the best naturally comes. It was for THE CENTURY that Gen. Grant first wrote his reminiscences of important battles.

Because is publishing the life of Abraham Lincoln, by his private secretaries. Of this it has been said, "The young man who is not reading it robs himself of that which he will one day hunger for." The coming year presents the most important part of this great history, which may be begun at any time.

Because it is printing those remarkable articles on "Siberia and the Exile System," by George Kennan, which are attracting universal attention and are being reprinted in hundreds of foreign newspapers, but are not all well to enter Russia. The "Chicago Tribune" says that "no other magazine articles printed in the English language just now touch upon a subject which so vitally interests all thoughtful people in Europe and America and Asia." They are "as judicial as the opinion of a Supreme Court tribunal, as thrilling as the most sensational drama."

BECAUSE during 1889 the CENTURY is to have a series of engravings of the greatest pictures of the old Italian masters, made by Timothy Cole, the leading wood-engraver of the world, who has spent four years in Italy on this work; a series of "Strange True Stories of Louisiana," by George W. Cable; occasional richly illustrated papers describing the scenes of the current International Sunday-school lessons; interesting illustrated papers on Ireland, and a series of humorous and pathetic Irish-American stories; a striking illustrated novelette, "The Romance of Dollard," by a new writer, and other novelettes to be announced later; supplemental war papers, untechnical and descriptive of special incidents; "Pictures of the Far West," by Mary Hallcock Foote, etc., etc. We have not space here to announce all the new features. Let us send you (free) our "Catalogue of Special Publications," with original illustrations, containing full prospectus, special offer of back numbers to beginning of the Siberian papers, etc. The November number, which begins the new volume, is for sale everywhere after November 1st. THE CENTURY costs 35 cents a number; $4.00 a year. Address THE CENTURY CO. 33 East 17th Street, New-York.
