

yet held by the society. The devotional exercises consisted of singing, Scripture reading by the President, and prayer by Rev. F. Babcock.

The Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. C. W. Weyman, read her report. (Report to be published next week.)

The adoption of the report was moved by Miss Perley, seconded by Miss Weyman, and adopted.

Mrs. John March, delegate from the United Baptist Societies of the Maritime Provinces, was introduced, and made an admirable address. She told of the work of the society she represented, and spoke words of cheer to her sister workers.

Mrs. Dr. Second addressed the meeting in tender and earnest words.

Mrs. Babcock read an excellent paper on "The motives to missions." It will be published in a future issue. Another business meeting was held on Tuesday.

The question of having a column in the INTELLIGENCER devoted particularly to the work of missions as carried on by the women was considered. It was decided that such a column would have a good effect, and Miss L. Fuller, Mrs. Babcock and Mrs. Alexander were appointed a committee in charge of the work.

In response to the request of Mrs. March for a delegate of the society to the Baptist Women's Society, Mrs. Babcock was appointed.

We have not the Treasurer's report for publication, but may have it later. We learn, though, that the receipts for the year were encouraging, quite up to preceding years. The society has never had the unpleasant experience of a deficit—a fact which is much to the credit of the earnest women engaged in this work, indicating the systematic and careful manner in which they make collections and manage their affairs.

There are now, seven District Societies, one for each District in the denomination. Each of these is holding its own in the number of local societies, and is aiming to increase the number, and also the interest in the mission.

Executives etc.

The following were accidentally omitted from the Report of Conference proceedings in last week's issue.

"The Nominating Committee's final report was as follows:

DENOMINATIONAL NEWS.

Rev. G. F. Currie spent last Sabbath at Campo Bello.

Rev. W. H. Perry preached a farewell sermon on the 21st inst. to the Johnston, Q. Co., church, of which he has been pastor. He has received a call from the Blissville pastorate, and thinks he will accept it.

PORTLAND.—Rev. Benj. Nobles preached his first sermon on Sunday, 21st inst., in the Portland Free Baptist church after accepting the call to the pastorate. The congregation last night elected officers for the year as follows: L. Dunphy, W. S. Whittaker and R. Ebbett, deacons; M. Kimball, J. Thorne, S. Corbett, S. Cody, G. Black, assistant deacons; R. VanWart, treasurer; J. L. Mansbridge, clerk; J. Thorne, W. Whittaker, M. Kimball, J. Caldwell, R. VanWart, trustees.—Sun.

DONATION.—Rev. T. O. DeWitt has received a donation of $30.00 from friends at McAdam Junction, where he has for some time preached one Sabbath in each month and held frequent week night services.

FAREWELL SERVICE.—Last Sunday evening, (21st inst.) will long be remembered in the history of the Temple (Free Baptist) church of this place, (Barrington.) The occasion being the farewell address of the pastor, Rev. T. Siddall, who is about to remove to Racine, Wisconsin. Before the hour of service the house was well filled with an interesting congregation representing the several religious denominations of the place with whom Mr. S. is held in high esteem. It is estimated that about 350 persons were present.

The service consisted of the following programme:

Doxology.—By Choir;
Reading—Scripture;
Hymn—"Jesus Lover of my Soul";
Reading—Scripture;
Prayer—Rev. J. I. Porter;
Hymn—"God is Love";
Sermon—Acts 20 & 32.

Address—Rev. J. I. Porter;
Hymn—"Blest be the tie that binds";
Benediction—by the Pastor.

The sermon was very able and instructive and will long be remembered by those present as some excellent advice was given to the hearers. At the close Mr. S. heartily thanked his friends for the kindness shown him during his stay among them, and expressed the desire that his successor might receive the same. Rev. J. I. Porter then made a few remarks expressing his regret at the departure of his co-worker, and referred to the many pleasant hours they had spent together. The anthem "God be with you" was ably rendered by the choir during which Mr. Siddall seemed greatly affected. He has been residing in Barrington for the last nine years, and with Mrs. S., has made for themselves a large host of friends who deeply regret their removal from among them and whose best wishes will follow them to their far off Western home.—Cape Sable Advertiser.

The young people of the congregation presented Bro. Siddall with an address and a writing desk; and the Division of S. of T. presented him with a complimentary address, expressing appreciation of his services in the temperance cause.

IA Question.

To the Editor of RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCER:—

Dear Sir, I was much pleased with your remark in a late issue to the effect that while people should not mix politics with religion, they should not forget to carry their religion into their politics.

But, judging by this standard, what are we to think of the conduct of a good church deacon who, at our last parish election, locked hands with an avowed infidel, and went to the poll and worked for him all day in opposition to an old standing member of his own denomination, a man who had represented the Parish at the council Board for a number of years with credit to himself and the Parish, and who had also befriended him more than any other man in the County.

These books are circulated among the graduates of the Institution in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, P. E. Island, and Newfoundland; they are also distributed to those persons who have lost their sight after having reached years of maturity, and who have learned to read at home. Many an hour that would otherwise be tedious has been pleasantly and profitably spent in the reading of these books, in some instances by persons upwards of sixty years of age.

The friends of the blind throughout the Maritime Provinces should keep this Library in mind, and when its advantages can be extended to any person deprived of sight, an application should be mailed to the Librarian of the Halifax School for the Blind, for a list of the books in the Circulating Library, and a copy of the regulations governing their distribution.

Must Have Them.

The saloon must have boys, or it must shut up shop. Can't you furnish it one? It is a great factory, and unless it can get 2,000,000 boys from each generation for raw material, some of these factories must close out, and its operatives must be thrown on a cold world, and the public revenue will dwindle. "Wanted—2,000,000 boys," is the notice. One family out of every 5 must contribute a boy to keep up the supply. Will you help? Which of your boys will it be? The minutiae of Crete had to have a trimme full of fair maidens each year, but the minutiae of America demands a city full of boys each year. Are you a father? Have you given your share to keep up the supply for this great public institution that is helping to pay your taxes and kindly electing public officials for you? Have you contributed a boy? If not, some other family has had to give more than its share. Are you selfish, voting to keep the saloon open to grind up boys, and then doing nothing to keep up the supply?—Western Advocate.

Rev. Mr. Walsh, pastor of the Reformed Episcopal Church in Ottawa, has joined the Church of England, and has been employed in mission work.

EXACTLY.—The London papers, commenting on the excitement of the President and his supporters over the letter of British Minister West, do not seem disposed to censure the Minister, although they agree that he cannot much longer remain in Washington. The Times puts it about right when it says:

"We are not prepared to censure Sackville West. A British minister whether at Washington or elsewhere must be an English gentleman, and be forgiven if he is not up to the dirty tricks of American politicians."

IMMIGRATION.—The department of agriculture has issued the immigration returns for September. The arrivals during the month were 15,666 as compared with 14,817 in the same period last year. The settlers in Manitoba since January 1st number 7,899, as against 4,032 in the same time in 1887. The arrivals in the dominion since January last reached 132,994 compared with 119,494 in the corresponding period of the previous year.

SUNDRIES.—Mr. Spurgeon will take refuge from the November fogs at Mentone. The Pope is about to institute an order of knighthood for women. Rev. Dr. Pentecost, the evangelist, has gone to England, and will probably remain a year in England and Scotland. Scotland has one hundred and thirty-seven post-offices kept in places where intoxicating liquors are sold. A great brewer in Japan, a native, has closed his brewery on becoming a Christian.

Literary Notes.

Manifold Cyclopædia. The eighth volume of Alden's Manifold Cyclopædia extends from Ceylon to Club-Foot, and is fully equal to its predecessors—its handsome type, numerous illustrations, handy form, neat, substantial binding and more than all, its skilful editing, which brings within such convenient limits such a vast amount of knowledge, so well adapted to popular needs, are a satisfaction and a delight to students. Not only in its marvellously low price, but in every other respect, this seems better than any other Cyclopædia suited for use in the homes of the masses, and in our public libraries. A specimen volume, to be returned if not wanted, may be had in cloth binding for 50 cents, or in half Morocco for 65 cents; postage 10c. Address JOHN B. ALDEN, Publisher, New York, Chicago, Atlanta, Ga., or San Francisco.

Alden's Illustrated Weekly Magazine, Literature, is one of the handsome as well as one of the most interesting and instructive periodicals of the day. In its plan of giving illustrated biographical and critical studies of popular authors, recent issues have been devoted to Guizot, the historian and statesman; Paul Hamilton Hayne, the brilliant southern poet; Ralph Waldo Emerson, philosopher and transcendentalist; and Wm M Thackeray, novelist and humorist. Each subject is well presented a biographical and critical sketch followed by copious characteristic selections from his works. $1.00 a year; specimen free. JOHN B. ALDEN, Publisher, New York, Chicago, Atlanta, and San Francisco.

The Homiletic Review for October presents in its Review Section several noteworthy articles. The paper on "Apologetics in the Pulpit" is masterly, and ought to be studied by every preacher. Prof. Murray, descants on "Wordsworth's Poetry." A timely paper is that on "The Public School System and the Ministry." "On the Care of the Body," is a paper on a subject too little understood by literary men. Dr. C. S. Robinson closes his series of on the Creation, his final topic being, "Was Adam Created by Progress of Evolution?" The sermons, eight, are by such preachers as Dr. Stryker, Dr. Ounston, Dr. Storrs, Dr. Thomas Hill, Dr. Braslin, and others. The Exegetical, Homiletical and Study Table departments are of the usual interest. The Prayer-Meeting Service is instructive, and the other features of The Review present the usual variety and fullness. Published by Funk & Wagnalls, 18 and 20 A-stor Place, New York. $3.00 per year; 30 cents per single number.

PRICE.—On the 18th inst., at Lower Perth, V. Co., Lewis Price, aged 77 years. LONDON.—At Wickham, Ball Hill, on the 29th of August, the widow of the late William London, in the 86th year of her age. After years of infirmities she fell asleep in Jesus. Sister London experienced religion many years ago under the labor of Elder Wornwood, and remained a faithful witness for God until her death.—T. W. C.

HENDERSON.—At Wickham, Henderson Settlement, at her own home with her sons, in the 76th year of her age, on the 5th inst., the widow of the late William Henderson. Sister Henderson experienced religion in early part of the life of the late Samuel Hart in that part of the country, and was one of the first members that constituted F. B. Church in that place, to which she had a strong attachment until her death. Their house has always been a home for the Christian.—T. W. C.

GOODWIN.—At Yarmouth, N. S., Oct. 19th, after a lingering illness, Capt. Moses Goodwin, in the 70th year of his age, leaving a sorrowing wife, sons and daughters and other relatives and friends to mourn their loss. A few weeks ago he had gone from his home at East Pubnico in his usual health, but was taken sick in Yarmouth where he remained at his daughter's until removed by death. His remains were conveyed to East Pubnico and interred there. Bro. Goodwin professed religion fifty-three years ago, under the labours of the late Rev. Chas. Knowles, and united with the F. B. Church at the place where he has lived all his life. He was chosen deacon by the church a number of years ago, and remained a true and earnest christian and faithful officer of the church. The church has lost an active member, the community a good neighbor, the widow a kind husband and the children an affectionate father. His purpose in life and his hope in death were, "For me to live is Christ, and to die is gain." A short service was held in Yarmouth before his friends left with his remains, conducted by Rev. Edwin Crowell, assisted by Rev. Mr. Fisher (Methodist). At East Pubnico, the funeral was conducted by pastor of the church, and was largely attended.—J. W. F.
