SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT!!

Advance Payments.

NOW IS THE TIME! We are glad to be able to say that December and January were good months both in renewals and new subscribers. This month, so far, has been encouraging also. There ars, however, some hundreds of subscribers from whom we have not yet heard. Some of them are in arrears in various amounts, large and small; but the most of them were paid up to the end of 1887.

These, we feel sure, are intending o send renewals soon. Some of them will have reached us even before these lines are printed.

to make now is this: Subscriptions received prior to March 1st will be regarded as advance payment. Those not paid by that date will have to be charged at $2.00 a year.

We greatly prefer to have the pay ments now at the lower rate. W brust those interested in this announcement will not fail to appreciate the importance to us and the advantage to Wm. Wadman, 76; Samuel L themselves of making their payment | Wadman, 74; Robt. Wadman, 72 within the specified time.
