The Tired Wile, All day the wife had been toiling From an early hour in the morn, And her hands and feet were weary With the burdens that she had borne; But she said to herself : "The trouble That weighs on my mind is this-That Tom never thinks to give me A comforting hug or a kiss.

'I'm willing to do my duty. To use all my strength and skill In making the home attractive, In striving my place to fill; But though the approval of conscience Is sweet, I am free to say, That if Tom would give me a hug and a kiss, 'Twould take all the tired away."

Then she counted over and over The years she had been Tom's wife, And thought of the joys and sorrows She had known in her married life; To be sure there was money plenty, And never a lack of food,

The Vineyard rented to Husbandmen. Our Privileges.-Vers. 33. There was a certain householder master of a family, owner of property. He represents God as the creator and owner of all things. Which planted a vineyard. Palestine was a vine-growing country.

A marvel of efficiency and economy. Quality never varies. The purest and best for all house-hold purposes; washing and cleaning without injury to hands or fabric. No boiling, scalding or hard rubbing necessary. The saving of fuel alone pays for the soap. Makes white goods whiter, softens woolen goods and mekes colored goods brighter. One soap for all purposes, Toilet, Bath, Laundry, Scrubbing, &c. Read the directions plainly given on each wrapper and lears the new "Surprise" way of washing clothes, saving time, money, labor and worry of the old way. Wash day is made a pleasure by the use of SURPRISE SOAP and joy and smiles take the place of tired looks. Save 25 Surprise wrappers, send to the manufacturers with your address and get a handsome picture for them. Ask your grocer to show you the picture. Sur-PRISE SOAP is sold by all leading grocers. If not obtainable at your home send 6 cents in stamps to us for sample bar.
