Rev. B. F. Simpson, M. A., of Morgan Park, Illinois, the newly appointed Principal of the Baptist Seminary, arrived in St. John on the 12th, with his family en route to St. Martins. He is expected to take an active part in the proceedings of the Teachers' Convention held in St. John this week.

A Californian exodion, who has lately returned home, reports that more of them will follow as quickly as they can procure sufficient funds to bring them back. They say they have all been completely deceived as to the country, by the land agents who deceived them thither by the most gross misrepresentations.

The Prize Winners in the examination held in the Deaf and Dumb Institution at Fredericton, on Thursday last week, were Ernest E. Prince of St. John, Edward Morse Wheary of Keswick and Frank Louis Coates of St. John.

The National Division, Sons of Temperance, fixed upon Saratoga for the next annual meeting. The following officers were elected:—M. W. patriarch, Rev. R. A. Alder Temple of Nova Scotia, M. W. associates, A. A. Baldwin of Connecticut, M. W. scribe, B. R. Jewell of Massachusetts, M. W. treasurer, J. H. Roberts of Massachusetts, M. W. chaplain, Rev. E. R. Young of Ontario, M. W. conductor, S. B. Paterson of St. John, New Brunswick, M. W. sentinel, E. B. Caldwell of Tennessee.

A largely attended committee meeting, representing the different temperance organizations, was held at St. John in the Y. M. C. A. rooms. It was decided to invite the celebrated Francis Murphy to visit the city, provided he make arrangements to commence a campaign on the 23rd inst.

New Potatoes have made their appearance in St. John market and are selling at 50 cents per peck.

NOVA SCOTIA.

A Pictou man named Monroe was killed last week while working at the Croton aqueduct in New York state. He fell from a cage a distance of 225 feet.

The Egerton Gold Mining company at Fifteen-Mile Stream, N. S., have taken out 103 ounces of gold this month and 105 last.

The Halifax Echo says:—The schooner "William Alton" is ashore at House Harbor, Magdalen Islands, and full of water. The cargo has been landed in a damaged state. The vessel is insured in the Boston Marine for $1,800. The cargo is insured in other American agencies for about $2,000. The vessel was from Halifax with a general cargo shipped by John Tobin & Co.

Willbert Frander, aged 17, was drowned off Big Lorraine today. He was fishing with Nelson Wilcox. They went out in a small boat to overhaul nets in an easterly breeze and heavy sea. After leaving the nets the sea broke over the boat and filled her, taking Frander overboard, and Wilcox could do nothing to save him as the boat was drifting with the sea and wind rapidly on the breakers. Two men named Thomas and Daniel McLean happened to see the spar sticking out of the water and bore down and rescued Wilcox in an exhausted condition just as the boat was going into the breakers.

The Nova Scotia S. S. Company met yesterday, but adjourned until tomorrow. It is intimated that the company will abandon the Bay route, and that the Secret will be withdrawn on August 1st. L. E. Baker, of Yarmouth, it is said, has telegraphed to the government, and if his offer is accepted either the Dominion or Alpha will take the Secret's place, until a new boat is secured.—[Globe, 11th.

The grist, carding and saw mill, with all lumber, at Oak Point, owned by George T. Seely, was totally destroyed by fire on Tuesday last; loss over $3,000.

Rev. Mr. Gaetz preached an eloquent and impressive farewell sermon at Wesley Church, Milton, on Sunday morning, and in Providence Church in the evening. He then left for Halifax bearing with him the esteem of all classes in Yarmouth.

The 24th of this month is the time set for the launch of Robertson's great timber ship on the Joggins shore. The ship will contain, when finished, 21,000 pieces of timber averaging 38 feet in length, and an average of 12 inches at the large end. It is understood that steps are being taken to have excursion trains on the I. C. R. to connect with the Joggins Railway, and a steamer at the Joggins to take visitors to the scene of the launch.

The Intercolonial is a good customer to the Nova Scotia collieries, having contracted for a supply of 195,000 tons for the year ending 1st July, 1889. The Spring Hill mines will supply 125,000 tons, the lion's share.

OTHER PROVINCES.

The Examiner of P. E. Island says Hugh Macleod went into the woods at Granville, New London, to fell trees, and was struck in the head by a falling limb, receiving injuries which resulted in his death Sunday. Mr. Macleod was about 45 years of age and unmarried.

A slight shock of earthquake, accompanied by a dull rumbling noise, was felt at Madoc, Tweed, Markworth and Belville Ont., on the 8th inst.

The Empire's special cables say the success of Newfoundland £235,000 four per cent. loan is considered beyond doubt. The minimum price is 102. It is the first time Newfoundland has appeared before the London market.

At a public meeting held in Kingston Ont., presided over by Mayor Strong, addresses were made against the desecration of the Sabbath by the opening of canals and resolutions deploring the proposed change in the rest of the Sabbath were unanimously passed.

Six Canadian laborers on the Grand Trunk at Port Huron, Fort Gratiot and other points on the St. Clair River, who crossed to and from their homes morning and evening, have been compelled by Collector Ward to cross to Canada and return no more. This was done under the provisions of the alien labor law.

It is said the Canadian imports from Great Britain show a falling off during the past half year of sixteen per cent., principally in cotton and worsted goods. The exports have also declined thirteen per cent., being principally in live stock and flour.

The immigration returns for the half year just ended show 84,000 arrivals against 70,000 for the same period last year and 40,000 actual settlers against 36,000 last year.

Great brush fires are raging in North Victoria. Many farm houses, barns and much standing grain have been burned.

Serious Indian disturbances are threatened in British Columbia, owing to the arrest of an Indian for murder, and the local government propose sending a detachment of C battery to Skeena. It is said that the lives of the whites in the district are at the mercy of the Indians.

An order in council has been passed amending that portion of the fisheries act which relates to fly fishing for salmon, by substituting the following: "Provided always that it shall be lawful to fish for, catch and kill salmon with rod and line in the manner known as fly-surface fishing, between the first day of February and the fifteenth day of August in the provinces of Quebec, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia." This is to take effect from the 15th August, 1889.

The government have given notice of appeal in the Ayer case.

About four hundred employes of Booth's lumber mills here are on strike, but no serious trouble is anticipated. Only one arrest has been made and the police are keeping a vigilant oversight of the strikers.

UNITED STATES.

Two hundred members of Dr. Talmage's congregation will leave New York on the 14th inst. on the steamship Servia on a European excursion, which will include England, Ireland, Scotland, Paris and other continental cities. The expenses will be $285 for each person. One half the party are ladies.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 11.—The freshet in Monongahela river is unprecedented. Great damage has been done to river craft and property along the river, from the head waters to this city. Residents in the lowlands have been compelled to live in the upper storeys of their houses and some have sought the hills for safety. A rough estimate of the loss places it at half a million dollars. This morning a saw mill with the machinery passed down the river having been swept from Belle Vernon, Penn. Telegraphic communication is cut off with Monongahela Valley district.

At Alpena Mich. all buildings on the east side for a space of three blocks wide and half a mile long were burned this afternoon; loss about $300,000. Fifteen hundred persons are homeless. Many were seriously hurt and burned. Mrs. L. McLaine was so badly burned that she will die.

The Globe says:—A few nights ago Conductor J. Holt, of the New Brunswick Railway, put up in Presque Isle, at the Presque Isle House. He had about him at the time a considerable sum of money, some his own and some belonging to the railway. On retiring for the night he left, it is said, about $400 or $500 of his own money in his trousers' pockets and put the railway money under his pillow. He neglected to lock the door when he awoke in the morning his own money was missing. It is reported that there is a clue to the robbery.

Parkersburg, W. Va., July 11.—The storm of Monday night was most disastrous. The loss of property in the range of twelve counties hereabouts is estimated at a quarter of a million.

Latest estimates of the damage put the whole at over a million dollars. Wheeling reports damage in the vicinity of Grafton, W. Va., at $250,000 and about Fairmount much more. The loss at Brownville, Pa., is over $125,000 and at Rowlesburg, W. Va., $125,000. In this neighborhood it exceeds $100,000.

The flooded district covers an area of 250 miles. At McKeesport all mills are closed down and hundreds of homeless persons destitute.

A Wheeling despatch says nearly every house and most of the fencing on all low lands between that point and Clarksburg on the west and as far as Grafton on the Valley river, have been swept away. The channel of the Monongahela is constantly filled with houses, fencing, timber, saw logs, shocks of wheat; parts of bridges and other debris. The river is now falling at the head waters and the worst is over.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

O'Leary, the ex-Fenian, in a letter to the Freeman's Journal, says he does not approve of Parnell's proposal to retain representation for Ireland in the British house of Commons, as it would simply keep open the sore between England and Ireland.

Rome, July 10.—The recent meeting of Irish Bishops which seemed to reopen questions closed by the Papal rescript surprised and displeased the Vatican. Archbishop Walsh of Dublin, has forwarded to Cardinal Simeoni a report stating that in their double capacity of priests and citizens the Irish Bishops thought it their duty to indicate measures that might prevent the extension of existing evils. Mgr. Persico reports that although the bishops were too inconsiderate, they were impelled by a desire to improve the situation. The Pope has decided to take no further active steps at present.

Mr. Patrick Joseph O'Brien, member of Parliament for the north division of Tipperary, was released from the Tullamore Jail, Wednesday, his time of service having expired. He was immediately taken in charge by officers and conveyed to the Kilkenny Jail, where he will undergo a further imprisonment of three months for an offence of the same nature.

A BOTTLE of the "Lotus of the Nile" is a most acceptable present to a lady.

There is danger in neglecting a cold. Many who have died of consumption dated their troubles from exposure, followed by a cold which settled on their lungs, and in a short time they were beyond the skill of the best physicians. Had they used Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup before it was too late, their lives would have been spared. This medicine has no equal for curing coughs, colds and all affections of the throat and lungs.

Mr. Thomas Ballard, Syracuse, N. Y., writes: "I have been afflicted for nearly a year with that most-to-be-dreaded disease Dyspepsia, and at times worn out with pain and want of sleep, and after trying almost everything recommended, I tried one box of Parmelee's Valuable Pills. I am now nearly well, and believe they will cure me. I would not be without them for any money."

FOR BRONCHIAL and Throat Affections, Allen's Lung Balsam is unequalled.

THE "ROYAL FLAVORING EXTRACTS" are made of great purity and strength. Take no other.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN-KILLER.—Its effects are almost instantaneous, affording relief from the most intense pain.

CAMPELLE'S CATHARTIC COMPOUND is pleasant to the taste, and more satisfactory than Pills.

James Cullen, Pool's Island, N. F., writes: "I have been watching the progress of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil since its introduction to this place, and with much pleasure state that my anticipations of its success have been fully realized, it having cured me of bronchitis and soreness of nose; while not a few of my 'rheumatic neighbors' (one old lady in particular) pronounce it to be the best article of its kind that has ever been brought before the public. Your medicine does not require any longer a sponsor, but if you wish me to act as such, I shall be only too happy to have my name connected with your prosperous child."

Messrs. Parker & Laird, of Hillsdale, writes: "Our Mr. Laird having occasion to visit Scotland, and knowing the excellent qualities of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, concluded to take some with him, and the result has been very astonishing. We may say that in several instances it has effected cures when ailments had been pronounced incurable by eminent practitioners."

CAUSING AN IMPRESSION. Many cures made by B. B. B. have been those of chronic sufferers known throughout the district through the very fact of their having been afflicted for years. This naturally creates a strong impression in favor of this valuable family medicine.

AN OLD TIME FAVORITE. The season of green fruits and summer drink is the time when the worst forms of cholera morbus and bowel complaints prevail. As a safeguard, Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry should be kept at hand. For 30 years it has been the most reliable remedy.

A DYING WISH to try Burdock Blood Bitters is often expressed by some sufferer upon whom all other treatment has failed. Marvelous results have often been obtained by the use of this grand restorative and purifying tonic under these circumstances.

BE PREPARED. Many of the worst attacks of cholera morbus, cramps, dysentery and colic comes suddenly in the night and the most speedy and prompt means must be used against them. Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is the remedy. Keep it at hand for emergencies. It never fails to cure or relieve.

A SAD LOSS. Loss of appetite and the attendant low spirits, dullness and debility, are of very frequent occurrence. Regulate the bowels and improve circulation and digest on by using Burdock Blood Bitters whenever these symptoms are present.

INDISPENSABLE. "I have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for summer complaints and have given it to my friends. It gives instant relief when all other remedies fail. I would not be without it in my house." Mrs. T. Boil, Weidman, Ont.

Mr. T. C. Wells, Chemist and Druggist, Port Colborne, Ont., writes: "Northrop and Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure sells well, and gives the best of satisfaction for all diseases of the blood." It never fails to root out all diseases from the system, cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, etc., purifies the blood, and will make you look the picture of health and happiness.

Food For Consumptives. Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, is a most marvelous food and medicine. It heals the irritation of the throat and lungs, and gives flesh and strength quicker than any other remedy known. It is very palatable, having none of the disagreeable taste of the crude oil. Put up in 50c and $1 size.

PARSONS' PILLS

These pills were a wonderful discovery. No others like them in the world. Will positively cure or relieve all manner of disease.
