

was one of the finest mornings I ever remember enjoying in December. The stream was open, the sun warm, and all seemed bright externally, as well as internally. Five of the candidates are married people, three of them being over sixty years of age. All were happy. Seldom have I witnessed such a scene at the water side. The wife of one of the brethren who was baptized, who had belonged to a Baptist church elsewhere, was received into the church, making an addition of nine members. It is hoped others will be converted, and that I, or some other, will, ere long, be called upon to render like assistance. Brethren Myers and Patterson, the deacons, being well advanced in years, it was thought best to appoint a younger man as a third deacon. To this place, Bro. George Myers, who seemed a most suitable brother, and who certainly has the confidence of all the people, was unanimously chosen. After a suitable charge was given, the new deacon entered upon the duties of his new position as though he meant to "play the man for God." Bro. W. H. Myers, late of Advocate, N. S., is back to Dutch Valley, his native place, and is rendering good assistance in this work. Let us all pray for our young ministers and their work.

I may add that my son speaks of encouraging indications all over his pastorate. Bro. John Perry writes that he is working hard, doing a good deal of pastoral work, and hopes to be made a blessing to the church at Wilson's Beach, Campo Bello.

The Carleton church feels encouraged and is hopeful. The pastor enjoys both preaching and pastoral work. He has made over one hundred and thirty pastoral visits, in about one hundred and twenty families, in two months. A few homes are yet to be entered before the list will have been gone over. Rev. F. Babcock and family have moved to Carleton. Bro. B. having no enjoyment on the island, thinks it better for himself and for the cause that he should be on the mainland, so that he might get to the churches through the country without having to cross so much water. We had our dear brother, with his estimable wife and their interesting children, a hearty welcome to Carleton. The brethren of the Sixth District are greatly pleased and encouraged by having such an accession to their strength as Bro. T. S. Vanwart. I feel like congratulating the churches over which he has settled.

G. A. HARTLEY.

Dec. 19th 1889.

FROM REV. G. SWIM.—There seems to be a steadily increasing interest in Christian work all over my pastorate. The preaching services and prayer meetings are well attended. I expect to begin special meetings soon. The field is large, and will require careful attention; but I hope, by the blessing of God, to do some good. This will be my last report for this year. How quickly the time goes! And soon we must pass away. God help us to be faithful to the end.

In conclusion I wish the editor and readers of the INTELLIGENCER a merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

GIDEON SWIM.

A PRESENTATION.—On Wednesday evening Mr. W. O. Slipp, of the West End, was surprised by a visit from a number of members of the bible class which he teaches in the F. C. Baptist church. They brought with them a valuable gold headed cane, which was presented to Mr. Slipp with the usual wishes for a merry Christmas. The present was wholly unexpected and was a graceful recognition of Mr. Slipp's valuable services.—Telegraph.

A PRESENT.—Some of his friends of Sussex a few days ago presented Bro. F. C. Hartley, the pastor, with a fine fur coat, the cost of which was $4.00. Bro. H. is, of course, grateful for the thoughtful kindness of his friends, and comfortable shirt-in from the cold.

A SUCCESS.—The sewing circle of the F. C. B. church, North Head, held a sale the 8th inst. Tea, coffee and refreshments were on sale, and ample notice was done the rich viands provided by the ladies. The sale was a success, and realized the neat sum of $80.00. They made Elder Babcock a present of $30.00, and presented the organist with $10.00, and paid the faithful and painstaking sexton $10.00. A good time was enjoyed and all seemed happy. These willing workers must win; success to them.—Com.

McMILLAN'S ALMANAC for 1890 is out. It contains the information usually found in an almanac, and prepared especially for this Province and P. E. Island. We have to thank the publishers for a copy.

All hail with uncontrolled delight and generous love, the happy night that to the cottage as the dawn brought tidings of salvation down."

Of Persons.

The Rev. B. N. Hughes (Baptist) has again been placed on the sunny side by a donation of $30 from the Spring Hill K. Co., section of his church.

The Christian Scientist, Miss Whitlock, says the Gleaner, has gone to her home in St. Stephen. She was very ill when she left. At the station she had to be helped from the coach into the car. Her illness has now lasted for several weeks and there is as yet no sign of improvement.

The editor of the Albert Co. Maple Leaf, Mr. W. J. Jones, has retired from the chair editorial. He made the paper fresh and independent.

Queen's College, Kingston, Ont., has conferred the degree of L. L. D. on the Governor General.

Bishop Medley entered his 86th year last Thursday. He is still a remarkably well and vigorous man.

The Emperor of Germany has an ear trouble which gives him much pain. It has recently grown worse.

DEATH OF A YOUNG NEW BRUNSWICKER.—The following is from the News-Advertiser of Victoria, B. C. The fatal accident took place in New Westminster, B. C.

The News-Advertiser of 5th inst. reported a runaway accident on Douglas street, on which occasion Frank Emerson was thrown forward, after heroic efforts to hold the frightened horses in control, and catching in the tugs between the horses was dragged along until the team was at last stopped on Columbia street. He was taken to the house of his uncle, Mr. Walter Gilley, on Queen's Avenue. Surgical assistance was at once sent for, and the case was not at first considered at all a dangerous one. Alarming symptoms, however, soon accrued, and the patient became rapidly worse. It was found that the brave boy had received fatal internal injuries, which resulted in his death on Thursday, 7th inst. Mrs. Emerson, who was on her way from New Brunswick westward at the time of the accident, arrived just in time to see her boy before he died. Frank Emerson was 21 years of age, a carpenter by trade, and was a youth of steady, temperate and industrious habits. He came here from New Brunswick 6 months ago, and in that short time had made many friends.

The young man was a son of Mr. Martin Emerson for many years resident at Oromocto, S. Co., and who will be remembered by many of our brethren as for several years the official Clerk of the Fourth District. To Brother and Sister Emerson may be assured of the sympathy of the many here who knew them and esteemed them for their Christian love and zeal.

G. A. HARTLEY.

A CURIOSITY.—This is the trend of the nineteenth century. Charlottetown, P. E. I. has been regarded as a place of average good sense. And yet it has a City Council one member of which is silly enough to write and the rest to endorse the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted by the Council recently. Just read, and then laugh or do anything else the thing provokes:

Whereas, Woman in all ages, savage and civilized, has been an object of love, affection and respect; and

Whereas, a woman in this city has been imprisoned for a breach of an enactment not supported by public opinion and contrary to British freedom, justice and liberty; and

Whereas, The breach of said enactment consisted in the introduction of beverage freely used by all classes, from Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen, who is Head of the Church and Defender of the Faith to the humblest of her most loyal and most dutiful subjects; and

Whereas, The various legislatures in the British dominions, exercising authority delegated to them from the people, legalize the importation and manufacture of such intoxicating beverages by imposing thereon a specific charge;

Therefore resolved, That in the opinion of this council, imprisonment of a woman for a breach of an enactment destructive of individual liberty, opposed to the spirit of the age and of the highest standing, is an act worthy of the days of the Star Chamber and the Jeffreys.

Barium ought to have that Council.

ELECTION NOTES.—The politicians are getting ready for a possible Provincial Election. The M. P. P's are moving about their several constituencies.

In Westmorland a requisition is being circulated among the French voters asking Dr. Gaudet to be a candidate. Messrs. C. E. Knapp and Geo. Steadman are new candidates in Albert Co., and have issued their cards. Mr. J. E. Lynott, a former Speaker of the Assembly, intends to seek election. By the time the date of election is fixed there will be candidates enough in every County.

Christmas sends us to press a little earlier than usual this week.

PROPOSED DONATION.—The friends of Rev. Wm. Downey have arranged to hold a supper and donation at his residence, Month Keswick, on Thursday of this week. Supper ready at 6 p. m. All his friends are cordially invited to be present.

THE VERDICT.—The verdict in the St. John poisoning case is about what the public generally expected. Though the evidence was wholly circumstantial it seemed to point quite clearly to McDonald; but nobody has believed that he was sane.

Literary Notes.

The Homiletic Review for December is good. The paper on Beneficiary Education for the Ministry will specially interest many. The Monumental Book of Revelation (the fourth on Egyptology) possesses interest to all Bible students. Prof. Painter discusses Protestantism and Popular Education. The Literature of the Office and Work of the Holy Spirit will be helpful to ministers. Dr. Pierson's Suggestions from Latin Proverbs are rich and apt. The Sermons of which there are eight in all—are by such preachers as Drs. Thwing, Gibbon (London), Reed, Guinness, Nicholls and Anthony. Dr. Hoyt's Prayer Service and the Holiday Services are timely. Dr. Stuckenberg continues to make the European Section of value to thoughtful readers. The editors' contributions are always worth reading. The number closes with a full index to the volume. The Review never stood so high in the estimation of the ministry as at the present time. Published by Funk & Wagnalls, 18 and 20 Astor Place, New York. $3.00 per year; 39 cents per single number.

The Missionary Review of the World for December closes the second year of this magazine. Its career has been successful in an eminent degree. It is the acknowledged authority on world-wide missions, and has really become a power in the church. The present number abounds in matters of interest and information. We can only notice its contents in a general way. Among the eight leading articles are Christian Unity and Christian Missions; the Ministry of Money; The Land of Esther; the Current Conflict with Slavery; and Roman Catholic Encroachments on Protestant Missions. Then follows a mass of Missionary Intelligence. The Editorial Notes are timely and good. The Statistics of Missions are a marvel in variety and fullness. The last reports of 23 Missionary Societies are analyzed and presented, together with four full pages of the Missionary Statistics of Christendom. These tables represent weeks of patient, pains-taking labor, and will prove invaluable to the friends of missions. There is a full index of the entire contents of the year.

Published by Funk & Wagnalls, 18 and 20 Astor Place, New York. $2.50 per year; 25 cents per single number.

A CHARMING SOUVENIR.—Youth's Companion Double Christmas Number is a charming souvenir. Its delicately colored cover encloses a wealth of stories and pictures that are intensely interesting to readers of all ages. Some of the features are: "Christmas in a wagon," a story of pioneer life in the Rocky Mountains; "A Double Decker," a story for boys, and another for girls, entitled "Beth's Memorial Stocking," an interesting description of the famous "Minot's Ledge Light"; "Sleep of Plants and What it Means"; "Attacked by Cheyennes," a story of wild western life; "A Christmas Night's Sensation," and "Alice's Christmas," both fresh and appropriate to the season; editorials on "Thoroughness" and "Stanley's Return," with a beautiful page for very young children, together with anecdotes and bits of fun, combine to make a complete treasury for the whole family.

DEDICATION.

The F. C. Baptist church at Mill Settlement, Sunbury Co., will be opened for Divine worship on Sunday the 29th inst. Services will be held at 10.30, and 2.30 and 6.30. Collections will be taken at all the services for the benefit of the church. It is expected that Revs. Messrs. Hartley, Foster and others will be present. The public are cordially invited to attend.

W. H. PERRY.

For Mission Fund.

The Treasurer of the F. M. Executive greatly regrets that a package of the lists of names of contributors to the Foreign Mission fund missed getting into the hands of the printer of the Year Book. He now publishes them as the best amends he can make. The several churches are credited in the general account, and the account is all correct, only the names were omitted.

BABY ONE SOLID RASH

Ugly, painful, blotched, malodorous. No rest by day, no peace by night. Doctors and all remedies failed. Tried Cuticura. Effect marvellous. Saved his life.

Cured by Cuticura

Our oldest child, now six years of age, when an infant six months old was attacked with a virulent, malignant skin disease. All ordinary remedies failing, we called our family physician, who attempted to cure it; but it spread with almost incredible rapidity, until the lower portion of the little fellow's person, from the middle of his back down to his knees, was one solid rash, ugly, painful, blotched and malodorous. We had no rest at night, no peace by day. Finally, we were advised to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES. The effect was simply marvellous. In three or four weeks a complete cure was wrought, leaving the little fellow's person as white and healthy as though he had never been attacked. In my opinion, your valuable remedies saved his life, and today he is a strong, healthy child, perfectly well, no repetition of the disease having ever occurred.

Boy Covered with Scabs.

My boy, aged nine years, has been troubled all his life with a very bad rash, which appeared all over his body in small red blotches, with a dry white scab on them. Last year he was worse than ever, being covered with scabs from the top of his head to his feet, and continually growing worse, although he had been treated by two physicians. As a last resort, I determined to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and am happy to say they did all that I could wish. Using them according to directions, the humor rapidly disappeared, leaving the skin fair and smooth, and performing a thorough cure. The CUTICURA REMEDIES are all you claim for them. They are worth their weight in gold.
