

News of the Week.

NEW BRUNSWICK.

Samuel Owens store was broken into one night last week. They found no cash.

There is much Typhoid fever in Chatham.

Fire, supposed to be the result of spontaneous combustion, has broken out in the coal sheds of Winter Bros., Moncton, and 400 tons have to be removed.

Hon. G. S. Turner, of Albert Co., has resigned his seat in Local Government.

Between thirty and forty employees were discharged from the N. B. R. shops at McAdam. It is expected that this week further discharges will take place.—Beacon.

The widow of Rev. Canon Medley has been paid the sum of $3000 by the Royal Arcanum; the first call the society in Sussex has had since its inception nine years ago.

The St. Croix Courier says there is no foundation for the reports of foul play in connection with the death of Councillor Casey at Milltown.

The widow of the late James Casey, of Milltown, has retained Mr. J. L. Carleton to enter an action against the town of Milltown to recover damages for the loss of her husband.

Sussex is likely to have an electric light plant at an early day, says the Record.

St. Andrews is agitating over a better water system.

Some Montreal people are making arrangements for planting a lot of oysters near St. Andrews.

There is not much doing among lumber shippers just now, but the mills throughout the province are busy, with plenty of logs on hand since the recent rise of water.

Several counterfeit $2 bills are on the rounds.

A new freight shed 70 feet long is to be erected for the I. C. R. at Moncton.

While Mr. John McLaggan was at work ploughing, a short distance from the Irishtown bridge, Nashua, a big bear came into the field. Having no firearms, Mr. McLaggan picked up a rock and by a blow on the head knocked the animal over, and then despatched him with an axe. He turned out to be a big fellow, but very poor in flesh.—Gleaner.

The hemlock bark extract works, at Woodstock, were burned last week. The works have not been in operation since the failure of Shaw Bros., some years ago. It was, probably, set by a fire bug. The buildings were insured for $5,000. Some of the machinery and fittings were very expensive.

Application will be made for the incorporation of "The Victoria Mining Company." The object for which incorporation is sought is the prospecting for minerals within the province, and the purchasing, leasing or otherwise procuring of mining permits and privileges, etc. The amount of the capital stock is to be ten thousand dollars, to be divided into four hundred shares, of twenty-five dollars each, and the office at Andover, Victoria. The names of the applicants are as follows: John E. Stewart, of Andover, contractor; Frederick P. Thompson, of Fredericton, manufacturer; Daniel McQueen, of Woodstock, contractor; James Stewart of Andover, contractor; Chesley Yerxa, of Keswick, contractor; Richard W. L. Tibbits, of Fredericton, clerk.

Two accidents occurred on the N. B. R. Saturday. Wm. Kimbal was walking on the track near Muniac, V. Co., was struck by a train and so injured that he died in a few hours. He lived at Newburg, was 60 years old, and had been in the employ of the road several years.

The same day near Upper Kent, C. Co., a gravel train ran into an accommodation train, wrecking a passenger car. Mr. Watt, Postal Clerk received a bad fracture of the leg. The other passengers escaped.

Elijah M. Dunphy, a native of Keswick, York Co., but since 1862 a resident of Helena, Mont., died at that place on the 30th ult.

A sad drowning accident occurred on Thursday at Two Islands, Grand Manan. Many boats were engaged there in cod-fishing. In one was Richard Macquie and two brothers—Patrick and Alfred Quigg—all of Irishtown. Their boat suddenly shipped a sea and the water catching in the sail caused her to go over. All hands managed to crawl on the bottom of the boat, from which, however, they were speedily washed off. Alfred Quigg and Macquie again crawled on the boat and reached an oar towards Patrick Quigg. He could not catch the oar, and sank before the boat could reach him.

NOVA SCOTIA.

W. S. Simmonds & Co., of Halifax have had a writ issued against W. Wingfield Bonny, consul general for Italy, for goods sold and delivered to the value of $447.55. The consul general is not to be found.

News comes from Cambridge, Hants Co., N. S., of the fatal shooting of Mrs. John Hiltz. She was going to look for two cows, which had strayed away from home and a bear having been reported in the woods in the vicinity, she was loading a revolver to take with her when it went off, the ball entering her stomach. She lived in a conscious state several hours and then expired.

Henry Marks of Halifax was sent to Rockhead for beating his wife. When he got out he beat her again, and when his sister interfered, seized her hand and bit one finger off.

The imports at the port of Windsor for the quarter ending 30th of Sept. were valued at $53,922. The exports $55,908.

Stellarton, N. S. has voted in favor of incorporation.

Shipbuilding, formerly one of the great industries of Bridgetown, N. S. is to be resumed this fall.

A Mr. Moore of Kings Co., N. S. has sold peaches to the value of $6.00 this year, the produce of one tree. This tree, therefore represents a capital sum of one hundred dollars at 6 per cent.

A Truro correspondent says: Truro leads the province in a new enterprise again. The stores at the west end are now to be heated by steam, as well as lighted from a central station. Pipe laying is now commenced.

The Nova Scotia authorities are looking for an escaped prisoner named Peter Ogden, who was arrested at Sheet Harbor, on September 30th, on a charge of having attempted murder, assault, and breaking into a house here on the 5th of September. While being taken to jail he escaped and has not since been captured. The Halifax papers describe Ogden as an able-bodied negro Indian ruffian, about five feet nine inches high, and between thirty and forty years of age.

Mr. R. Manning of Parrsboro, N. S., has exported 500 pounds of spruce gum to United States since last October.

The steamer Newfield will lay the submarine cables across the Petite and Grand Passages as soon as she has laid a short cable in the Gulf, which she will proceed to do at once.—Digby Courier.

Buckley Peers, of Pugwash, lost his barn and about 40 tons of hay by fire, Tuesday. Supposed to be from a spark from the engine while pressing. No insurance.

For many years the "Picturesque Canada" cases have been before the Nova Scotia courts. Beldon Bros. of Toronto sued a number of Cumberland people whom they alleged subscribed. The cases have finally been settled in favor of defendants in all courts and Beldon Bros. are saddled with a large bill for costs because of the dishonesty of their agents.

Ann Hardy, aged 88, lived with her sister Mrs. Lepotilman, aged 90 in one of the filthiest and most dilapidated shanties in Halifax. They were once well-to-do, but now, though helpless and destitute, they were too proud to receive aid and refused admission to all callers. On Sunday, after eating soup from bones gathered from the street, Miss Hardy went to bed and died. The sister slept with the corpse two days before realizing the position.

An Italian was working on a cutting of the new railway between Annapolis and Digby when the embankment gave way, completely entombing him and partly covering two others. Efforts were at once made to extricate them, and on removing the earth one was found with his leg broken and having received severe internal injuries.

The N. S. Normal School will open Nov. 6th.

Thursday, November 7th, will be Thanksgiving day.

Amherst finds itself obliged to provide additional school accommodation.

The deposits in the Dartmouth school banks by pupils in September amounted to $135.15.

Pictou has over $350,000 on deposit in the savings bank.

A man has been arrested and lodged in Truro jail who is supposed to be the party who burglarized McLeod's jewelry and other stores at Amherst last week. His name is James Campbell. He is also wanted for horse theft.

Samuel Hitch, sentenced to one year in Truro jail who is supposed to be the party who burglarized McLeod's jewelry and other stores at Amherst last week. His name is James Campbell. He is also wanted for horse theft.

At Amherst, on Thursday, James Smith was given twenty years at Dorchester for causing the death of George Barron. Reilly and Neville, burglary at shoe factory were given three years each. John McClellan, assault on jailer Burke, two years ago, after which he escaped and was lately re-arrested, was given three years. James Hurley, assault on Constable Latta, two years.

There has been robbery at Tidnish. James McDonrid claims that his summer wages, over $300, was stolen from him at La Beef's hotel while he lay asleep.

OTHER PROVINCES.

Donald Morrison, the Megantic outlaw, has been convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to 18 years in the penitentiary.

The Globe says that 289 of the 1,474 geese recently shipped from P. E. Island to Boston by S. H. Jones, died before the journey was completed. They were about three days without water.

Thieves broke into the St. Martin post office, Chateaugay county, Que., and stole registered letters containing $200 and notes amounting to $1,000. Howick station has also been robbed.

Christopher Harris, who had recently escaped from the Kingston lunatic asylum, secured an iron crowbar with which he repaired to the Baptist cemetery, where he made a desperate effort to resurrect his mother-in-law. Failing in this, he commenced an attack upon the tombstones, and had dismantled or destroyed nearly 200 before he was recaptured. It is estimated that $3,000 will not repair the damage done.

The American mining engineers arrived this morning. During their trip through the Dominion they have examined the Capelton copper mines and indeed all the ore-producing centres of the Dominion and express themselves very much pleased with the result of their investigations, and think that there is a great future in store for the mining industries of the Dominion.

The British government has advised the government of the Dominion that every precaution should be taken to prevent the introduction of cholera, especially on the Pacific coast, as it is now raging in Turkey, Greece and parts of Hungary. The report states that the disease is following its usual course toward Central and Western Europe with great rapidity.

Smith's furniture factory, at St. Jerome, Que., was completely burned Thursday night. Loss $20,000, with only $8,000 insurance.

The corn pack of the Portland Packing Co's factory at Cape Tormentine this season is 450 cases of two dozen each. The corn used was Early Minnesota and Early Crosby. The farmers who tried the experiment of raising corn for the factory are well satisfied with the results.—Patriot.

UNITED STATES.

The great fertilizer factory of G. Obner, Sons & Co., Locust Point, Baltimore, was burned on Thursday. Fully $260,000 worth of damage was done.

Typhoid fever is epidemic in several towns in Michigan.

At least 500,000 pounds of tobacco in Flemingsburg, Ky., have been entirely destroyed by the frosts of the last three nights.

Prairie fires are making progress towards St. Cloud, Minn. During Wednesday afternoon they burned to within a few rods of Manitoba, on the west side of the track and city limits. Nothing but a heavy rain can prevent tremendous loss.

The hydraulic and Tyler cotton compresses, with five warehouses and 4,000 bales cotton, at Savannah, Ga., were burned on Wednesday. The loss is estimated at $400,000; insurance on buildings, presses, etc., $86,500.

One of the notable men in Pauliske county, Va., is William Craig. He is 85 years old and the father of 21 children, the youngest being 29 years of age and the oldest 69. His wife is 84. He works on his farm every day and says he feels as young as when only 40.

Charles F. Orrin, of Buffalo, N. Y., aged 28, shot his mother while she was sleeping and then committed suicide by cutting his throat.

A note written by Orrin stated he was tired of living, and, as his mother could not get along without him, he ended her sufferings also.

Pestilence has followed the flood in the Conemaugh Valley, and the horrors of the typhoid fever now confront the stricken people. As near as can be estimated 200 persons are sick with this disease and kindred fevers.

Extreme drought has caused failure in the crops in Ramsey county, Dak., and in consequence hundred of families are reported to be without any means of subsistence during the coming winter. Relief measures are being taken. There has been three failures of crops in succession, and many hundreds are not only on the verge of starvation, but without sufficient clothing to protect them from the weather. For weeks these people have been subsisting upon roots or herbs until now their supplies are wholly exhausted.

The spread of prairie and forest fires in Minnesota is becoming alarming. The fires are eating their way in every direction and thousands of acres of pine and prairie land will be burned unless there comes a heavy rain. The drought is the most extended ever known in Minnesota.

A big conspiracy has been unearthed in connection with the Cronin case in Chicago. Attempts to bribe jurors have been discovered and two court bailiffs and three outsiders have been arrested. A number of other arrests is expected. The district attorney says the conspiracy is widespread and implicates many prominent men whose connection with the plot will be a surprise to the world.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

Despatches from Damarland says that the paramount chief has ordered all Germans to quit the country. He has seized German missionaries as hostages for the safety of native agents imprisoned by the Germans.

After destroying a large number of letters, Mr. Gladstone has selected 60,000 for preservation and has built for them a fire-proof room.

The Daily News prints a letter from Crete, which confirms the report that Chakir Pacha, governor, allowed Turkish troops to pillage and persecute the Christians after gaining their confidence by promises of protection. The letter describes the atrocities in detail.

The semi-official Noroe Vremya says the Czar's visit to Berlin will not affect the political situation. The grave injuries that Russia has suffered through constantly favoring the aggressment of Prussia is now known and keenly felt by the Czar, who has finally renounced his policy of unrequited compliance. Germany will derive no advantage from the interview between the two emperors beyond the removal of uneasiness arising from the repeated postponements of the Czar's visit.

The national conference of miners has declared in favor of a working day of eight hours, to go into operation on January 1st, 1890. The miners throughout Great Britain have taken a ballot on the question and have decided to strike if the demand is not granted.

A California engineer, recently took hold of a supposed played out mine in New South Wales. He has uncovered another lode, the ore of which is estimated at $10,000,000.

A large quantity of ivory from the Upper Congo is now being received by every steamer from Banana. This season is the first in which any considerable quantity of ivory from the upper Congo has reached Europe by way of the west coast. The present movement of ivory down the Congo is the result of the influx on the upper river of white traders, who, in spite of Stanley's opinion that the upper Congo would not be worth a penny until a railroad around the cataracts was built, have established themselves in unexpected large numbers.

Thirty-five hundred coal miners are on strike at Lens, in the department Pas de Calais.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT.—The statement of Canada's revenue and expenditure for the last fiscal year gazetted last Saturday, says the revenue is $38,700,000 and the expenditure $36,800,000; surplus $1,900,000—exactly the amount anticipated by the finance minister in his budget speech. The showing for the first quarter of the present fiscal year is equally satisfactory. The revenue is $9,900,000, an excess of $400,000 over the corresponding quarter last year. The expenditure was $5,500,000, a decrease of $1,200,000 as compared with the corresponding period last year; surplus, $4,400,000. The net debt has decreased during the last month $2,400,000.

If the Sufferers from Consumption, Scrofula and General Debility, will try Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, with hypophosphites, they will find immediate relief and a permanent benefit.

Dr. H. V. Mott, Brentwood, Cal., writes: "I have used Scott's Emulsion with great advantage in cases of Phthisis, Scrofula and Wasting Diseases. It is very palatable. Put up in 60c. and $1 size.

ATTACKED THREE TIMES.

HAVING been attacked for the third time with Inflammatory Rheumatism, which kept me in bed six weeks under medical care, without relief, I resolved to try Burdock Blood Bitters, and before I had finished the third bottle I was able to work again."

C. C. RICHARDS & Co.

Gents.—I took a severe cold, which settled in my throat and lungs and caused me to entirely lose my voice. For six weeks I suffered great pain. My wife advised me to try MINARD'S LINIMENT and the effect was magical, for, after only three doses and an outward application, my voice returned, and I was able to speak. In the Army that night, a privilege I had been unable to enjoy for six weeks.

OUT ON THE PLAINS

the wonderful virtues of Nasal Balm, are known and appreciated. W. M. Armstrong, of the mounted police, Fort Saskatchewan writes:—I have been using Nasal Balm as directed and find it to be all you claim for it—"A sure cure for Catarrh, Easy to Use, Pleasant and Agreeable. It gave me relief from the first application. Everybody suffering from Cold in the Head or Catarrh should use Nasal Balm.

A PLEASING DISCOVERY.

I SUFFERED with neuralgia and obtained no relief until advised to try Hagyard's Yellow Oil. Since then I have found it to be an admirable remedy also for burns, sore throat and Rheumatism.
