

last week to look up some of them. I went the first day to Norton. I found Bro. DeWane confined to his house and suffering a good deal with neuralgia. He speaks hopefully of his work. Wednesday I went to Sussex; as I had only a short time to stop I did not find Bro. Francis. I hope he will soon report through the paper. I then returned to St. John. Bro. John Robertson was a passenger; he had been holding special meetings at Ero Settlement; the church had been much helped and quite a number professed faith in Christ. Wednesday evening I went to the Free Baptist Church, Portland where the Lord is wonderfully blessing the labours of Bro. B. H. Nobles. I stayed two nights with Bro. Nobles, visited some of his people and assisted him what I could. The church has been very fortunate in securing Bro. Nobles as pastor; he is evidently the right man in the right place, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed. Bro. Nobles' health is quite poor, in fact he is working beyond his strength. I had intended writing something about my work here, but will have to write again.

—Coleman, the Barker House rum-seller, tells, in the Telegraph, why he doesn't like the temperance party, to which he says he belonged for eight whole months. How badly the temperance people must feel because he dislikes them! What a shame that such a man should be persecuted by a party of "cranks and hypocrites." It is really too bad. The few "decent" temperance people should make haste to rid the party of those who are so awfully objectionable to him. He might then be reconciled, and even love them. What a gain that would be! Cannot it be done? It might be, perhaps, but for the perversity of the people in declining to accept his statements as facts. They may, possibly, be doing the great and good man a grievous injustice, but they have fallen into the way of largely discounting what he says about temperance and the rum business, even when he is on oath. It is sad, but—well, how are they to help it?

CONDOLENCE.—To the Parents, Sister and Children of the late Mrs. W. K. Perry: In view of the loss we have sustained by the death of our Sister and of the still heavier loss sustained by those nearest and dearest to her, we condole with you in your hour of affliction and commend you to the consolation of Him who looks with a pitying eye upon the orphans and the bereaved. We deeply regret the removal of one who was a faithful and earnest Teacher in our Sabbath School and who in all the relations of life showed the graces that make up a Christian character. Her earnest words whether uttered in the Sabbath School, the social meeting or in her daily life will long be remembered by those who heard them; and her anxiety for the conversion of the young with her prayers of faith will we believe be instrumental under God's blessing in leading many to seek divine favor and become followers of the "meek and lowly Jesus." We assure you that you have our deepest sympathy in your sad bereavement. Signed in behalf of the Maitland Free Baptist Sabbath School.

THE PEOPLE'S BEST FRIEND is Perry Davis' Pain-Killer, because it is ever ready to alleviate suffering. NO MORE PILLS.—Campbell's Cathartic Compound is especially prepared to take the place of those nauseous Pills. A USEFUL ARTICLE. I can certify to the great usefulness of Hagyard's Yellow Oil. We use it for burns, bruises, cuts, sores, rheumatism, sore throat, croup, etc., and recommend it to all as an excellent remedy. T. W. Appleby, Wingham, Ont. All medicine dealers sell Yellow Oil. TICKLING TORTURE. Mrs. Henry M. Kitchen, St. George, Ont., says: "I had a bad cold which settled in my throat, causing a continual tickling, and I just coughed all the time. I got Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam and in 3 days was getting better, and in 10 days I went to church. Our neighbors know this to be true.

NORTHERN HARBOR, DEER ISLAND. I came to this Island in 1887 for the first time, and have remained here ever since as pastor of this church, except that part of last summer I spent with the church at Holdville, K. Co. When I first spoke of coming here some of my friends tried to persuade me to not come, saying it was a hard place, and that I would not do anything, and that I would return feeling worse than I ever did before. My answer was, "God's will be done"; and by doing his will I have been blessed abundantly. I have proved this to be a not very hard place. The people here are among the most benevolent I ever met. They are not afraid to put their hands in their pockets. They have given me a very good salary, besides presents I have received. Last Thursday one Bro. Benj. Simson gave me a present of five dollars. Last spring I held special meetings through March, and the Lord blessed abundantly. I have now commenced special services again, and God is blessing us. We have had the pleasure of seeing three young men obeying God's divine command by being buried with Christ in baptism. The ordinance was administered by Elder W. K. Butt Ph. D., a member of the Christian church. He is pastor of the Lord's Cove and Leonardville churches, and has kindly come over to assist us. He is a faithful worker and is highly esteemed for his work's sake. Last evening we had a glorious meeting; the power of God was manifested and, a wonderful thing to say, every cheek was bathed in tears; seven young men and women were crying to God for mercy. Brethren pray for us, that God may continue to bless us, and that we may go on growing in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

OF MINISTERS.—Rev. J. A. Gordon has been called to the pastorate of the First Baptist Church, Charlotteown, P. E. I. Rev. Mr. Thomas (Baptist), is about leaving Sheffield to become pastor of the St. Andrews church. A few days ago a parcel arrived in Chatham for Rev. N. McKay, (Presbyterian), which proved to be a suit of broad cloth, as a token of esteem by his former congregation at Summerside, P. E. I. HORSE WHIPPED.—A mother entered a Springhill N. S. rum shop one night recently, and horse-whipped her seventeen-year-old son out of the shop, and all the way home. Served him right. The good work would have been complete if she could have horse-whipped the brute of a rum-seller who enticed her boy and harboured him in his den of iniquity. Rev. J. H. Erb.—Writing from San Antonio, Texas, on the 15th inst., says: "We are all well. Everything is Spring-like; the peach trees are in bloom, and the grass and prairie flowers are looking beautiful."

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.—I wish to express my thanks to the friends in New Ireland for a donation of $9.75 recently received from them. J. G. MacKENZIE. MAGAZINE NOTES.—A hitherto unpublished chapter in the life of Edgar Allan Poe will appear in Harper's Magazine for March. The old lady who was the heroine of this early love episode of the poet gave Mr. Augustus Van Cleef permission to write down and publish her reminiscences of it provided her identity should not be revealed. She declared that the portrait of the poet which is reproduced in this Number of Harper's was "the best one she had ever seen, and had his expression." She died in the West in 1887, over seventy years old. Moncton Church Debt. An open letter to the friends, brethren and sisters who gave their notes for the Liquidation of the debt on Moncton F. C. Baptist Church, and to the collectors who kindly consented to hold and collect said notes: We wish first of all to most heartily thank all who have promptly paid their notes as they fall due, and to especially thank those collectors who have given the necessary attention to the work of collecting. We are glad to note the fact that in nearly every instance where this has been done the whole or nearly all has been collected. But we regret to find that out of $1,500 subscribed there remains yet nearly $600 unpaid. I am aware that there have been cases, which by some have deemed sufficient reasons for delay in making payments as agreed viz., because the title was not vested in General Conference and a strong "Sanctification" Party existed in the church so that for a time it was an open question whether the property would continue F. C. Baptist. But we are happy to state that that matter has been decided once for all, and that the "Sanctification" Party have left the house, and that it is now owned and occupied by loyal F. C. Baptists. The balance of the money is needed now to pay off the debt. Will not the collectors who hold the notes make a good earnest effort immediately to collect the amount due on the notes in their hands and forward the money to Rev. G. A. Hartley Carleton St. John, as he is still Treasurer of the Fund and interested in getting the debt paid off. And will not you all, kind friends, who gave your notes and have not fully paid do your utmost to pay with as little delay as possible, as the money is now needed very much. If you cannot pay all now, pay a part, and the balance three months hence. By so doing you will monthly oblige all concerned and especially the agent. WM. DOWNEY. Keswick, Feb. 1889.

TRACY MILLS, C. Co.—The meetings continue good. Baptized nine last Sabbath. Bro. Phillips was with us three days last week and helped us much. Bro. Noble was with us last evening, but has to go away today. We have had a good revival, and are hoping for much more. Expect to baptize again next Sabbath. J. W. CLARK. Feb. 20th. PLYMOUTH, N. S.—Although the weather was somewhat unfavorable, a goodly number accepted the invitation, given by the ladies of the F. B. Sewing Circle to their entertainment and social on Friday evening last. At 7.30 the church was completely filled. Concert opened with singing and prayer; programme for evening consisted of readings, recitations, dialogues and singing by the church choir. The whole programme was well carried out; but a recitation and song by Miss Tedford and readings by Misses Wilson and Johnson, were particularly noticeable. At the close of the entertainment the audience were invited to the vestry of the church, where an abundance had been provided. All present expressed themselves as having spent an enjoyable evening. Proceeds $21.—Yearly Notes. Things About Town. —The erection of the building for the Deaf and Dumb School is to be proceeded with at once. —The Legislature is to meet next week, Thursday. —The Tea-meeting of the W. C. T. U. last Wednesday was a success in every respect. —Organized crime is what the rum-sellers of the city are guilty of. —Still waiting for the rum trials to be resumed. Bishop Medley's health is reported better. —A young man, very drunk, was found nearly helpless in the snow storm the other night, at the lower end of town. When asked about him self, he muttered about Grieves'. He was taken there, but they would not let him in. The police came along and took him to the lock-up. Rum-sellers never care what becomes of their victims—not even if they perish of cold. Heartless creatures, all of them. —Rev. Mr. Dobson preached on perjury last Sabbath evening. Has there been any perjury in this city lately? Some people think so.

PERSONAL. John Bright has suffered a relapse. The King of Holland continues in very poor health. The King of Bavaria is insane. Ex-President Grevy of France is seriously ill. RECEIVED.—The Report of the Department of Militia and Defence of Canada, 1888; Twenty-first Annual Report of the Department of Marine; Report of the Auditor General on appropriation accounts for the year ended June 30, 88; Report of Simeon Jones, Commissioner to South America with respect to the Argentine Republic Uruguay and Brazil; Preliminary Abstract of the business of Canadian life Insurance Companies in 1888; Report of the Indian Department of Canada; Estimates for the Fiscal Year ending June 1890. SUNDRIES.—Queen Victoria has handed over to St. Catharine's Hospital the sum of £70,000, as the surplus of the Women's Jubilee offering. By the new census of St. Petersburg, it appears that the population has fallen off 80,000 in eight years. "Not settled, but lit," is the way some one out West spoke of a minister who had lately gone to a new place. There are about 70,000 lace-makers in Normandy, and in all France there are nearly 200,000 women engaged in this industry. About 200 persons were killed and 1000 injured by the recent earthquakes in Costa Rica. Alden & Faxon, Newspaper Advertising Agents, Nos. 66 and 68 West Third Street, Cincinnati, Ohio, have just issued a very neat Catalogue of the leading American & Canadian newspapers. It is very attractively gotten up, the typographical work being above reproach. A very interesting feature of this catalogue is the publication of sample advertisement, and instructions to new advertisers as to the best method of making money out of newspaper advertising. This list will be sent free on application. PRESENT.—The regular meeting of the sewing circle of the F. C. Baptist church, of Carleton, was held on Thursday evening last at the residence of Ald. A. C. Smith, and an event happened which added considerably to the pleasure of the gathering. During a short pause in the business of the evening, Mr. Smith stepped forward and on behalf of the congregation presented Rev. Mr. Hartley, pastor of the church, with a handsome life size india ink sketch of himself, the likeness being excellent. The picture was incased in a beautiful plush and gilt frame. Mr. Hartley, who was very much surprised, feelingly returned thanks for the present. Mr. Hartley has been for over 30 years in charge of the F. C. Baptist church of Carleton and during that time he has enjoyed to the fullest extent the confidence of his own congregation and the good will of the general public.—Globe. The present was, we understand, on the fifty-eighth anniversary of his birthday. A very pleasant way of celebrating it, certainly!
