The C. T. Act with one bold, philanthropic stroke swept this state, all or nearly all, away. And yet not withstanding your counter acts great or small—including the Judges' ultra vires, the celebrated Russel case ending in defeat in the Privy-council, and your defeat at the polls in successive elections. You have as yet failed in your efforts to regain the ground lost. But don't be discouraged; hell is on your side. So don't forget to be early at the polls on the 28th and provide a way for the cripples.

I cannot address you as rum-sellers, since the law of the city does not recognize such a disreputable occupation: And yet there are rum-sellers among you. But your position is illegal, and you are in the eyes of the law illegitimate. You are not sons, but you will find a term applicable to your case in the Epistle to the Hebrews Chap. xii.
You may not be aware that this is one of the books of the Bible. You are not expected to know much about the Bible. And yet you remember Tom Snipes' Bible. You will not easily forget poor Tom. He was, when I knew him first, a young well-to-do farmer, not far below the city. But in an evil day he became a favorite at the "House." Soon Tom had swallowed farm, horses, cattle and everything. Then Tom's popularity began to wane, his songs lost their pleasant melody, his coarse wit lost its pointed force, and finally Tom's credit was lost, and his choice seat was taken by the next promising victim. Then came Tom's pawning experience. First he brought his baby's shoes, cloak and hood. Tom swallowed 15 cents of rum on that trade. Then came his wife's wedding ring, for this deposit Tom got credit for 25 cents. Afterwards he brought his grandmother's set of teeth, and received ten cents of vile rum for them, and the laugh went round at the cheap wit of Squire Quackenbush, that the sound of the grinders is low, and that the grinders shall cease. Tom heard the cruel heartless joke and the general titter, and demoralized and brutalized as he was, they entered his soul and burnt seethed and blistered as with liquid fire. Then he brought his mother's Bible, and received for it five cents in rum. It was sent to the kitchen to kindle the fires, and it became a standing joke for months after, that Tom Snipes's Bible was the cheapest kind-ling wood, that ever came into the "House." That night Tom Snipes disappeared; his body was recovered from the river some days after and buried.

It is claimed as one of the strong arguments that some of the rich and prominent men are on the side of the repealers. That may be so. Pharaoh Meneptah was on the popular side so was Jezebel, Judas Iscariot and Benedict Arnold. This class has never lacked a representative man in any age.
And you say, "We have the resources not granted. Judas Iscariot, the prototype, was an advanced thinker and a wide-awake man, but he was a thief and carried the bag, and when he crossed the line, he took all the cash of the twelve, and it has been so ever since. The J. Iscariots held the eleven twelfths of all the money which belonges to the other eleven—to Peter and James and John and Andrew, and Thomas and Matthew and Philip and Bartholomew, and the other James and the other Simon and Judas (not Iscariot) this together with all the betrayal fees the 900 million dollars in the U. S. the 6 million in Canada, the 750 million, in Great Britain, with the unnumbered millions that are annually held and monopolized and used by the rum-traffic. All this will the Righteous Lord require at your hands. You are as you say a strong corporation, and you will be made to pay either 100 cents to the dollar in cash, or in souls even more valuable the eyes of the chief cashier at the great Counting House of the judgment.
Your cash may crumble to dust in your clutches, as it has always done but God holds your souls in security for the immense debt due to Him and his people.

You are an old and you say, an honorable fraternity; therefore remember that the repeal of the C. T. Act is in accordance with your well known principles. Be prompt on the 28th.
You say, we are good men and true; "we be no spies;" we are pious, and help on with the work of the church; we have shares in many places of Christian worship; besides there are some ministers of the Gospel on our side. That may be so; It is good to be pious. It is a satisfaction to have that inward evidence, but it appears to most men that the piety of the rum-party takes on a peculiar aspect, that it develops into strange experiences, that it runs into a channel absolutely and solely alone and unique. It cannot be better defined than in the words of a converted Penobscot Indian who in his highest style of English, spoke of his spiritual attainment, "Oh yes; I pious just like Hell." As to your ministers here and there, who draw their inspiration from the whiskey bottle they may possible draw a few heavenward, but they are sure to lead multitudes hellward. Such ministers need to be encouraged. So by all means, make their way easy by voting the repeal of the C. T. Act. on the 28th. The eyes of millions of rum-sellers and distillers are upon you.

Be true to your cause. The devil and hell expects you to do your duty; therefore vote for the extension of of want and misery and destruction and ruin and wailing and woe to your fellow men. Don't forget the 28th of November.

DENOMINATIONAL NEWS.
MILLSTREAM, K. Co.—The session of the General Conference in 1890 will be held at Lower Millstream, K.
Co.

REV. T. W. CARPENTER passed through this city this week on his way to Carleton Co. He will remain up-river a few days. He is in good health.

KINGSLEY, YORK Co.—Licentiate R. W. Carpenter has been in Kingsley for the last ten days. He is holding special meetings, and a good interest has been awakened. The church members have been much helped, and there are earnest seekers, too.

Bro. Carpenter intends (D. V.) to be in Stanley next Sunday.

REV. J. W. FREEMAN spent a couple of weeks after Conference at his old home in Southampton, York Co. He preached several times during his visit, and had an enjoyable time amongst his relatives and the friends of his boyhood. Mrs. F. was with him, her first visit to this Province. They returned to Nova Scotia last week. We were sorry to be absent when they passed through this city.

FROM REV. G. F. CURRIE.—At the last Conference I was one who promised to report frequently through the INTELLIGENCER. Accordingly, I now send my first budget.

Last Sunday I closed my labours with the church at Wilsons Beach, Campello. The year was one of much enjoyment to me in the Lord's work in that community. Many ties were formed with dear friends which I found hard to sever. May God bless that people in my prayer.

Next Sunday I commence my duties as pastor of the Moncton and Lutz Mountain churches. With these churches I have engaged to labour till next General Conference. My address is Moncton N. B., Box 244.

G. F. CURRIE.

Oct. 25th.

FROM REV. J. PERRY.—As I promised to write a few lines monthly for the Intelligencer I now pay my first installment. Thursday morning after the Conference, I met with several of the brethren according to appointment and we made a number of our downtrodden fellows creatures very happy.
I then returned to Woodville and took the steamer "Star" for Washademoak.
The day was fine and the lake smooth.
While steaming up that beautiful sheet of water my mind went back sixty years when, a little boy eight years old, I first went down the lake in company with two brothers who were then young men, one of them has passed away to the better land I hope, the other is still living being now in his eighty-fifth year, and, although somewhat feeble physically, yet mentally he seems as bright and smart as ever.
We arrived at the Narrows in good time. There I met a number of old friends, and preached that evening to quite a congregation. Had a fair meeting. A number took part and testified for the Lord. Next day I visited my friends and preached again in the evening. Saturday my nephew, T.
William Perry, drove me to Butternut Ridge, where I visited my brother, who is very low with cancer, so the doctors say. Although it was sundown when we got there, the news soon went round, and next morning the meeting house was nearly filled with people who listened most attentively while I talked on the great subject of religion, after which a goodly number testified for the Saviour. In the afternoon Abraham Perry drove me to Corn Hill, where I spoke again to a large congregation; a goodly number of the brethren and sisters took part in the meeting, and it was a good time.
I returned to the Ridge and preached in the evening to a full house. Next morning I visited my other brother, who lives on Butternut Ridge; he and his son own a fine farm there. We then drove to Midland by the way of the Millstream. I stopped on the way at the homestead of the late Rev.
Edward Weyman. His son, C. Wesley, lives there, and owns the farm.
I found him and his amiable wife well, and glad to see me. More next month.

JOHN PERRY.

THE TURKS appear to be intent upon once more exciting the indignation of the civilized world by their barbarian.
Crete must now be added to Armenia as a scene of Turkish atrocities, and Chakir Pachia raving Mousa Bay in villany. The Cretans at first welcomed Chakir and his banditti, believing that he really had come, as he declared, to redress their grievances. But as soon as Chakir says The London News correspondent in Crete, he seized all the strategical points in the island, he inaugurated a reign of terror. The Christians were denounced by the Mohammedans, and, on any or no evidence, banished to the prisons of Rhodes and Asia Minor to the number of 1,100, or punished with the knout, whilst at least three unarmed persons, whose names are given, have been plundered and killed by the brutal soldiers. The leaders of the people—the judges, army officers, deputies, village chiefs—are either imprisoned or driven into exile. With the courage of despair, twenty terribly wronged women have protested to the Consuls at Panures. Terror reigns throughout the island, which may yet prove the spark that will ignite the inflammatory material of the East, and bring on the war which threatens Europe.

THE ARMY.—The Messenger and Visitor has the following to say about a recent exhibition given by the Salvation Army in St. John:

As is usual new and sensational features were introduced. On this occasion the leading show was an open carriage along by men and women, chiefly the latter. It was not easy to determine whether those in the traces or those in the seat of the carriage, best represented the beast. What particular fact or feature of Christianity was thought to be set forth by this performance is not apparent; and what but a most harmful work this institution can do in the civilized world is quite as difficult to determine.
This performance is a plain object lesson of the fraudulent tyranny of the leaders of this movement, and the abject and ignorant servitude to which its votaries are reduced. That which is most to be lamented in the case is that all these quacks are gotten up in the name of the religion of the Bible, and in the pretence of doing good, when by this foolery they are violating the plainest teachings of Scripture.
Their military travesty gives them the better opportunity to entice and control the ignorant and unwary, and so to perpetuate their debasing practices.
A soul destroying irreverence for holy services is the legitimate and certain fruitage of this religious burlesque.
By a constant and persistent disturbance of our congregations as they assemble for the worship of God on the holy Sabbath day, by their drumming and fanatical shouting around our church doors, these people give unmistakable proof that the master they serve is no friend to the religion of the Lord Jesus Christ.

SONS OF TEMPERANCE.—The Grand Division of the S. of T. held its annual session in St. Stephen last week. The reports of the Secretary and Treasurer show the order to be in a flourishing condition. The following resolution was passed:

Whereas, the law known as the Canada Temperance Act is in force in a considerable portion of the province, and

Whereas, efforts are being made in some sections to repeal this law, and bring these communities under a license law;

Therefore resolved, that we look upon any movement towards the return to license laws as a retrograde movement, and declare any license for the sale of intoxicating liquors, either high or low, as contrary to the principles of the order, and call upon all Sons of Temperance, as a matter of duty, to oppose it.

The officers elected for the present year are Grand [Worthy Patriarch, H.
J. Thorne, St. John; Grand Worthy Associate, S. Webber, St. Stephen; Grand Scribe, David Thomson, St.
John; Grand Treasurer, W. C. Whittaker, St. John; Grand Chaplain, Rev.
J. C. Berrie, Milltown; Grand Conductor, John McFadden, Shediac; Grand Sentinel, Richard G. Magee, St. John.

Thos. W. Smith has completed his fall stock, and has one of the finest in his line in Fredericton. See his advertisement in this paper.

Hospital Remedies.

There is a new departure in the treatment of disease. It consists in the collection of the specifics used by noted specialists of Europe, and America, and bringing them within the reach of all. For instance the treatment pursued by special physicians who treat indigestion, stomach and liver troubles only, was obtained and prepared. The treatment of other physicians, celebrated for curing catarrh were procured, and so until these incomparable cures now include disease of the lungs, kidneys, female weakness, rheumatism and nervous debility. Ask your druggist for them.
Those who cannot procure these remedies from their druggist may remit the price to Hospital Remedy Co., 303½ West King St., Toronto, and the remedy will be shipped to them direct.
(The price is one dollar each.) Des-
