shed

1810.

ness, Coughs, ralgia, Tooth-nd Strains.

USE.

act that it acts and Chills.

SSED IT.

GOLA

ams.

etc.. etc.

the New

EAL.

e following

ASSURANCE

,076,350.00

,864,302.00

,214,093.43

,374,683.14

,881,478.09

,844,404.04

,030,878.77

,413,358.07

873,777.09

931,300.63

AY G DIRECTOR

on, N. B

CER, I offer Early Marble and Longfellow offake, Marble Warren bush ble Beans; All the Drumhead, Mammoth and Marblehead truces: Phin-

Marbiehead tuces; Phing Prown's Dwarf Cotatoes; Hubquashes. For a on of vegetable, sent FRER to e cover of my head, Mass.

nt.

,849,889.1

The Best Beauty.

I know a little fellow Whose face is fair to see. But still there's nothing pleasant About that face to me; For he's rude and cross and selfish, If he cannot have his way : And he's always making trouble, I've heard his mother say.

I know a little fellow Whose face is plain to see, But that we never think of-So kind and brave is he. He carries sunshine with him, And everybody's glad To hear the cheery whistle Of the p'easant little lad.

You see it's not the features That others judge us by, But what we do, I tell you, And that you can't deny. The plainest face has beauty If the owner's kind and true; And that's the kind of beauty, My girl and boy, for you. -Golden Days.

Housecleaning Melodies,

Sing a song of cleaning house ! Pocketful of nails! Four-and-twenty dust-pans, Scrubbing-brooms and pails! When the door is opened, Wife begins to sing--

"Just help me move this bureau here, And hang this picture, won't you, dear? And tack that carpet by the door, And stretch this one a little more, And drive this nail, and screw this screw; And here's a job I have for you-This closet door will never catch, I think you'll have to fix the latch : And oh, while you're about it John, I wish you'd put the cornice on, And hang this curtain when you're done I'll hand you up the other one; This box has got to have a hinge Before I can put on the fringe: And won't you mend that broken chair? I'd like a hook put up right there, The bureau drawer must have a knob; And here's another little job-I really hate to ask you, dear-But could you fix a bracket here?'

And on it goes, when these are through, With this and that and those to do, Ad infinitum, and more too, All in a merry jingle,-

And isn't it enough to make A man wish he was single? (Almost). - Good Housekeeping.

Kate's Heroism.

A TRUE STORY.

Picture to yourselves, my young readers, a small, rough house on the brow of a thickly wooded hill, commanding from its lonely position a full the lantern frame, and, bidding her view of the railroad bridge which spans a rapid stream coursing through the started out into the terrible tempest. valley below. This stream is known and important river.

from the town of Moingona, one of the would lead her to the railroad track. within the space of five miles there are bridge. no less than twenty-one bridges.

wild woods, and made himself a snug | trip. little farm on the "clearing." He was the faithful, courageous night watch- way to the long high bridge that spans husk more or less difficult to peel off, man on this dangerous section of the the Des Moines River, thirty feet and almst always concealing a sweet railroad for many years, never falter- above the raging current. Along the kernel. It may be long before he dising in duty amid the fiercest storms open approaches, over the main part covers it, and when discovered it may leave them all homeless. She took falters not. girl the family soon learned to trust.

Early in the month of July, 1881, a terrible storm visited that portion of Iowa in which Moingona is situated. an engine, for the scene of disaster. The small streams swelled into rivers, the rivers became floods. Immense Creek bridge, danger signals are at damage was done to the railroad pro- once displayed. But they must reach ed or seriously injured. devastation of the flood had culminat- they cross to the place of the wreck. ed, and while yet the condition of the railroad track was unknown, an engineer is released from his perilous engineer named Edward Wood was situation: and then Kate, weary and main." ordered to run an engine called a footsore, torn and drenched, but ascertain if any part of the track was humble home.

signals with a sharp eye. Des Moines sciousness that her prompt courage in eclat this brief excursus on dull boys. and 97.

washed away.

stops. The engineer waits till the Weekly. signal comes that the track is all right, that none of the timbers of the bridge are displaced, then he goes on. He has passed the centre of the bridge, when suddenly the timbers give way with a fearful crash, and engine and men plunge down amid the gloomy darkness into the surging waters. Escaping as by a miracle Mr. Wood tries in vain to swim a place of safety. He is finally thrown upon a sand-bank by the restless waves, and lies there surrounded by water on every side. His voice, call ing for help, rings through the midnight air. But who is there to come at such an hour and in that lonely spot? The flood rages about him. Will he not be swept away before morning? And that express train almost due! Oh that he could save it from destruction! But he is shrouded in darkness. A single step may plunge him into deep marshy bogs or deeper waters, even if he were able to take that step. Suddenly a light gleams through the dark woods, and he thanks God, and again calls for help. Presently, by the dim shining of a lantern, he sees a girl's face peering through the broken timbers of the bridge into the dark flood below, and a clear, young voice pierces the gloom :-

"Who's there? Who are you?" "Ed. 'Wood, engineer of No. 11," was the answer shouted back through the noise of the rushing waters. "The bridge is broken. An express is almost due. Who are you?"

"Kate Shelley," was the quick reply. And here we will go back and tell you how Kate reached the bridge. Late in the evening of that fearful storm, she had gone down the hill to the stable, and, finding it rapidly filling with water, released the cattle, that they might go to higher land. She could hear the waters dashing against the bridge, and felt certain that it could not stand. She returned to the house, and with a pale face, but resolute heart, told her mother that she must go and give an alarm, that the bridge must fall.

Even while she was talking there came a crash, a weird knell from an engine-bell, a fierce, hissing sound that told of disaster. The only lantern in the household was lacking some essential parts; but Kate hastily fastened an old miner's lamp in the bottom of weeping mother and sisters good-bye,

A rushing flood swept down the as Honey Creek, and is situated in the hillside through the gullies. The soakcentral part of the State of Iowa. Close ed underbrush made a treacherous by it flows the Des Moines, a large footing, and more than once in the dense darkness she lost her way be-The little farm-house is not far fore she reached a path that she knew stations on the Chicago and North- The route was nearly a mile in length, western Railway. And so crooked so that with her besc speed it was some are the rivers in this vicinity that time before she reached the broken

Kate hesitated not an instant when This isolated spot was the home of she learned from Edward Wood that Mrs. Shelley and her daughters, - an express train was hurrying to de-Kate, a girl of eighteen, being the struction. She must go to Moingona. eldest. When Kate was but three She must get help for the engineer. years old, her father settled in these She started at once on the hazardous vested and carefully tended the little the track along the embankment to their brightness was found. herd of cattle upon which much of the station. She gives the alarm; and their support depended; and in the quick signals of danger are sent to the the foot of his class, was kicked by the skilful management of this young trains that are rushing toward the yawning vortex.

Kate's task is not yet done. A party of rescuers start with her, upon When they come to the broken Honey perty. Eleven bridges between the opposite shore in order to rescue Moingona and Boone - a distance of the engineer, and the intrepid girl hoped it might be Isaac." five miles—were either totally destroy- guides them over a long, crooked route, through dense, soaked under-On the night of July 6, before the brush, to another bridge, by which

By five o'clock in the morning the Kate's heroic deed won her friends About midnight he starts, slowly who make life easier and brighter for leon and Wellington were dull boys at EDWIN GRISWOLD, Port La Tour, and cautiously, watching for danger her; but her best reward is the con school, I am conscious of closing with N. S., solves all of No. 15, except 96

River bridge is safely passed, and the that midnight storm saved many engine approaches Honey Creek and precious lives. - Iliustrated Christian

A True and Sad Story.

Charles G --- was the only son of a widowed mother. He was a frank, generous, unselfish boy, and a great comfort to her. Everybody who knew him said he was a promising boy, and his mother was very proud of him. When he finished school a situation with a good, reliable man was found for him, and for a time he was faithful in the discharge of every duty. But by and by he seemed to be growing away from his mother. She noticed that he did not give her his confidence as in former days. He hurried off after he had finished his supper, and he neglected his business, and he did not come home until late. Anywhere else seemed to be pleasanter to him than his home. His mother did all she could to make the home attractive, and talked kindly with him about his neglect to her. But, as she once said, 'It seemed as if the bey was way off somewhere, he didn't act like himself." One day he was missing. There was no trace of him for months. A boy with whom he had formed a strong intimacy, and one of which his mother did not approve, was missing at the same time. For months that mother prayed, and watched, and waited, listening every hour for the footstep of her much-loved boy. She could not sleep, or eat, so great was her anxiety. At length a telegram came to her, and as she read it she fell to the floor. The shock was so terrible to her. This is what it said: "Your son is very ill, come at once." The name signed to it she had never heard, and the telegram was dated from a small town in Texas. It was a long journey, and she had but little means, but kind friends helped her, and the midnight train bore her off alone with her anxiety and sorrow to the far off State. Oh, how fervently she prayed that her boy might be spared to her, that if he must be taken from her, he might live till she got there, and be able to recognize her, and give her some assurance of his repentance. Her prayer was granted. "God was very merciful," she said. "My boy knew me, and I heard from his own lips his bitter repentance for what he had done, and his hope that the Lord had forgiven him." The poor mother was so thankful for even these few words, that they kept cheering her on the long journey home when she was taking her child's body to the burial place in her native town. What brought all this about, do you ask? Dime novel reading. After her son's death the mother found the most sensational dime novels in the garret with the name of her boy's friend on the cover. "Ranch Life in Texas" was full of unreal adventures, schemes for making money any way but by honest work; and "Seeing Life" had fascinated her boy in such a way as to lead to the sad results which that poor mother must bear to her grave. - N. Y. Evangelist.

Hope for the Dunces There are many dull boys who are like cloudy mornings before bright days. It is the safer plan for an edu-Following the track, she makes her cator to assume that dulness is but a and wildest gales. But night exposure of the bridge itself, with the angry not lie in the usual form of school life. wore him out, and a few years ago he flood surging beneath her, she must A man and his wife bought a music step from tie to tie. But Kate stops stool. After a time they brought it This sorrow came not alone. One never a moment from fear of danger. back to the upholsterer, declaring with day the son, upon whom the hopes of She is already on the bridge, when vexation that they "could make the widowed mother rested, was suddenly her flickering light goes out, nothing out of the old thing; they had drowned in the treacherous stream. and she is left in total darkness, amid twisted it to right and left, and set on Kate, then about fifteen years old. impending perils. A single misstep its head, and rolled it on its side, and bravely met the emergency which will be fatal; but she says to herself, never a note of music could they get threatened to crush her mother and "The express! the express!" and out of it." And yet the music stool was a good stool. For the comfort of upon herself the superintendence of God guides the footsteps of the the mothers of dull boys let me record the little farm. She rose early and brave girl, and she crosses in safety. a few instances of such lads who turnworked hard. She planted and har- Then with quickened pace she follows ed out bright men when the key to Isaac Newton, being then a boy at boy above him. He fought the bully, and beat him, out of which victory arose the thought that as he had beaten him with his fists, he might also do it with his brains. And he did.

Isaac Barrow, the divine, was a quarrelsome, idle boy. His father said of him that "if it pleased God to take away any of his children, he

Dr. Chalmers was expelled from the parish school at St. Andrews as an "incorrigible dunce."

Walter Scott, at Edinburgh University, was labelled by Professor Dalzell, "Dunce he is, and dunce he will re-

John Howard was an illustrious "pusher" from Moingona to Boone, to happy at heart, goes back to her dunce, "learning nothing in seven And when I record that both Napo- Queries.

Did you never, dear old members of "The Family," in some moment of good fortune and elation, feel that the whole town ought to share, in some way, in your rejoicing? If you have ever had such a feeling you will not blame the small hero of this story:

Do You Blame Him?

Laddie had got out of skirts and into knicker-bockers, and the first morning when he appeared in the more dignified vestments, he was proud indeed.

"They're better than skirts, aren't | Rheumatic and Bone Liniment, etc. they, mamma?" he inquired, looking complacently down at his chubby legs.

"Very much better." "Do you suppose folks will notice

"A very few, perhaps." "Mamma," said he, a moment later, remembering one unfailing indication of very important occasions, "do you s'pose the shops will be closed."

Young Lolks' Column.

Conducted by C. E. BLACK, CASE SETTLEMENT, KINGS Co., N. B.

Attempt the end, never stand in doubt Nothing's so hard, but search'll find it out." IF A WEARY TASK YOU FIND IT,

PUZZLE DEPARTMENT.

PERSEVERE AND NEVER MIND IT. The Mystery Solved.

(No. 16.) No. 101.-1. 2. Saml. xi. 2. David. 2. Jer. xxix. 22. Zedekiah and Ahab. 3. 1 Saml. viii. 17.

No. 102.petra patient

No. 103.—Tertullus.—Acts 24:1.

J-abesh-Gilead ...... 1 Saml. 31. S-imon.....Luke 22:31. U-zza...... 1 Chron. 13:10. S -amuel .... 1 Saml. 28:15.

E-leazer.....Numb. 20. T-imothy ..... I Tim. 5: 23. "Jesus wept."-John xi: 35.

No. 105.—Bed. No. 106.-

2. Azhazereth.

5. Zamzuminims. No. 101.-R U D D ULEA

1. Zarohabel.

DAMN

DERM

The Mystery-No. 19.

No. 120.-ENIGMA. (BY ETHEL J. KERR, Williamsburg.)

Fifty is my first; Nothing is my second; Five just makes my third, Fourth's a vowel reckoned. Now to fill my whole Put all my parts together,-I'd die if I got cold, But I never mind cold weather.

No. 121.—Cross-Word Enigma. (BY CARRIE WADE, Cross Creek.) In blossom, but not in bud; In thought, but not in word; In throat, but not in lip; In vast, but not in thin ; In James, but not in John.

Whole, a useful article in every house No. 122.-PI,

(BY B. v. c., Highland Village, N. S.) "Ym tearh sallh tisdlo emomirse pkee, Keli osme rnow aes hisle rfmo hte ase And all COLLEGES in the Mari-Dillfe thiw hte sumic fo hte pede."

No. 123.—PIED CITIES. (BY MABEL GILMORE, Williamsburg.) Inaevn. 2. Cmoswo. 3. Ardimd. 4. Taebsolosp.

No. 124.—BIBLE QUERY. (BY MARY CLARKSON, Williamsburg). Where is "oaks" mentioned?

No. 125, -DIAMOND PUZZLES. (BY R. L. GALLAGHER. Williamsburg.) I. A letter; an animal; a Bible name; to prepare leather: a letter. II. A vowel; the whole; a boy's name; part of a machine; a letter.

The Mystery solved in three weeks. The Mystical Circle.

"A FRIEND," Carlton, N. S., solves 95 (1) and 100. Thanks for Bible

M. McLEOD, MANUFACTURER

-ARE -

MANUFACTURERS' AGENT. No. 36 Dock Street.

McLeod's Absolutely Pure Flavoring Extracts: Extracts Jamaica Ginger,

Dr. Noble's Great Cure for Summer Complaint, Cholera, etc.; McLeod's Quinine Wine: Tonic Cough Cure;

McLeod's True Fruit Syrups.

Contains no Alcohol, Artificial Coloring or other foreign ingredients.

Strawberry, Raspberry, Lemon, Lime Juice,

Special Blend and Imperial. IMPERIAL and SPECIAL Blend are my own specialities which I can highly recommend -being of combinations of the flavors of the choicest fruits of the Tropics

berry Ask your dealer for McLEOD'S with that of our own Matchless Straw-

EXTRACTS AND SYRUPS.

LONDON HOUSE WHOLESALE. Spring 1889.

WE have received early shipments of the following lines of goods to which we would direct the special attention of the trade:

Ginghams, Seersuckers, Shirtings, White Cotton Terry, Silesia, Linings, Jeans.

Owing to the sharp advance on all Cotton Goods, we would respectfully urge our Customers and buyers generally to place their orders at once, as we are quoting lower prices for many lines than the agents of the mills will sell for to-day.

Daniel & Boyd.

Hides, Leather, Oil!

WILLIAM PETERS.

EATHER Manufacturer, and dealer Li Hides and Leather, Cod Oil, Neat Foot Oil and Finishing Oil.

Tanners' and Curriers' Tools and Findings. Lace Leather and Larragin Leather a

Hides and leather bought and sold on

240 Union Street, - St. John, N. B

HOUSE

74 Princess & 143 Germain Sts., 3. Mamnitanaimus 4. Zaphnathpaaneah SAINT JOHN, N. B.

A. N. PETERS, PROPRIETOR.

TELEPHONE COMMUNICATION. HEATED BY STEAM I HROUGHOUT

DR. FOWLER'S ·EXT: OF · ·WILD · TRAWBERRY CURES holera Morbus OLIC-ano-RAMPS

AND ALL SUMMER COMPLAINTS

AND FLUXES OF THE BOWELS IT IS SAFE AND RELIABLE FOR CHILDREN OR ADULTS.

1888 UNIVERSITY 1888

New Brunswick time Provinces.

The Plays of Moliere, at Hall's Book Store The Plays of Racine, The Works of Corneille, The Works of Chateaubriaud. Turrell's Lecons Française, Pujols French Class Book, G ammaire Française par F. P. B." Le Luthier De Cremoue by Coppee, "La Joie Fait Peur, by De Girardin," Causeries Avec Mes Eleves par Sauvear, Saintsbury Primer of French Literature, Spier and Surennes French and English Dictionary, French Treser by De Porquet, Sequel to French Treser by De

Porquet, Elementary French Grammar-Duval, In addition to the above we have the following— GERMAN BOOKS.

Cooks, Ottos German Grammar, " Ottos Materials for Translating English into German, Key to the above, The Joynes Otto German Course, " Key to Ottos German

M. S. HALL, Next door to Staples' 'drug store, Fisher's

Professional Cards.

J. ARTHUR FREEZE

BARRISTER-AT-LAW. Accounts collected and Loans negotiat

on good securities. OFFICE—OPPOSITE POST OFFICE

----FREDERICTON, N. B.----

G. H. COBURN, M. D., Physician and Surgeon.

143 KING ST., -BELOW YORK FREDERICTON, - - -

D. M'LEOD VINCE,

BARRISTER-AT-LAW

NOTARY PUBLIC, etc.

Office-Connell's Wooden Block, Queen Street, Woodstock.

J. A. & W. VANWART

BARRISTERS, &c.

Offices -- Opposite City Hall, Fredericton, N B.

BUCKEYE BELL FOUNDRY WARRANT D. Catalogue sent Free.
VANDU? N & TIFT, Cincinnati, O.

THE KEY TO HEALTH.

Bowels, Ridneys and Liver, carry ing off gradually without weakening the system, all the impurities and fool humors of the secretions; at the same time Correcting Acidity of the Stomach, curing Biliousness, Dys. pepsia, Headaches, Dizzines Heartburn, Constipation, Drynes of the Skin, Dropsy, Dimness of Vision, Jaundice, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Scrofula, Fluttering of the Heart, Nervousness, and General Debility; all these and many other similar Complaints yield to the happy influence of BURDCCK BLOOD BITTERS.

T. MILBURN & CO., Proprietors, Toronto

Nova Scotia Hotel,

Reed's Point, Prince William

JAS. L. BELYEA, Proprietor

Permanent and Transient Boarde accommodated on the most reas nabla This Hotel is in close proximity to the American and Nova Scotia steamers.

TAPLEY'S REMEDY

NEURALGIA, SCIATICA,

NERVOUS HEADACHE, etc. Persons who have been troubled with the above distressing complain have been relieved and cured by Tapley's Remedy

JOHN M WILEY,

196 Qneen St., Fredericton. RELIABLE NORLD SOUDBY DRUGGISTS

German is yet in its infancy. When you want a book, order it of Building, Fredericton.