

DENOMINATIONAL NEWS.

FREDERICTON.—One member was received into the church last Sabbath.

REV. R. FRENCH called on us Monday. He was on his way up river, where he intends to remain till after the Second District Meeting. He is in very good health for a man of his age—81 years.

SEAL COVE, GRAND MANAN.—The Lord has favoured us with some revival at Seal Cove. The church has been blessed. Last Sabbath Brother Babcock came to our assistance, and preached a very impressive sermon, after which he baptized three converts. We hope and pray that the Lord will continue to bless us.

H. A. BONNELL.
May 24th.

STANLEY.—Rev. Jos. Noble returned from Stanley last week. He spent two Sabbaths there. He reports encouraging signs, and is hopeful of the future of our church there. The brethren have it in mind to build a place of worship. Bro. Noble intends to be with them again the third Sunday in June. He is now in Upper Hampstead.

REV. J. A. ROBERTSON writes (May 27th): "I have been unable to be out for some time. The doctor says that I have acute rheumatism, and that it will be some time before I ought to go about much. I am hoping, however, to be able to attend my appointments in a week or two."

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONCERT.—A very good audience listened to the concert given by the Sunday school pupils in the church at Clark's Harbor, Sunday evening. Dr. Sturgis had taken his usual pains to make it edifying, and in the opinion of all he was highly successful. The floral decorations and other arrangements for scenic effect were in very good taste and lent a new interest to the performance. The programme was not over-crowded, but embraced many choice selections of music, recitations, dialogues &c. Dr. Sturgis believes in concerts as a powerful adjunct in Sunday school work and the progress of the school under his care seems to bear out that belief.—Cape Sable Advertiser.

Temperance Notes.

—Temperance workers in Sweden are petitioning for the total prohibition of the liquor traffic.

—There are 14,900 divorces in the United States during the last twenty years caused by drunkenness.

—Of the 580 Wesleyan ministers in Australia, 500 are abstainers; and of 400,000 adherents, 350,000 abstain.

—Dr. Guthrie says: "Whiskey is a good thing in its place. There is nothing like it for preserving a man when he is dead. If you want to keep a dead man, put him in whiskey; if you want to kill a live man put whiskey in him."

—There is no force in the plea that prohibition does not prohibit. The sufficient answer is that the laws punishing crime do not abolish crime; that thefts, violence, cruelty, injustice, and murder still continue. But the law is enforced, crimes are punished; and the law-abiding are protected from the criminal class. Moreover, it is true that in proportion to the limitation of the liquor traffic is the reduction of crime.

—The late Dr. J. G. Holland said: "It is a cruel thing to send a boy out into the world untaught that alcohol in any form is fire, and will certainly burn him if he put it into his stomach. It is a cruel thing to educate a boy in such a way that he has no adequate idea of the dangers that beset his path. It is a mean thing to send a boy out to take a place in society without understanding the relation of temperance to his own safety and prosperity and that of society. The national wealth goes into the ground. If we could only manage to bury it without having it pass thitherward in the form of a poisonous liquid through the inflamed bodies of our neighbors and friends, happy should we be. The more thoroughly we can instruct the young concerning this dominating evil, the better it will be for them and for the world."

—Two young men, about eighteen years old, one of them brother of the saloon-keeper, undertook to drink a pail of whisky, the other day, at the brother's saloon. Here is a part of the account of the affair as given in a local paper: "They emptied the bucket between them and were soon in a state of drunken hilarity. This gave way to stupor and later to convulsions. Their features were horribly distorted and they were twisting and writhing their limbs in great agony. One died after two hours in great agony, and the other was not expected to live through the night." Such is the stuff in which the saloon deals, and such is its work everywhere, yet the very paper which gave the above horrible account has nothing but abuse and misrepresentation for every man who is active in trying to abolish the saloon. Reader, are you winking at this unmistakable wickedness?

—The Mencton Y. M. C. A. is about to erect a building to cost about $10,000. Subscriptions are being received.

ANOTHER.—A peculiar religious sect has stirred up a commotion in Tuscola, Ill., County. They call themselves the Pentecost band. They have broken up several families at Carnago and induced several wives and young women to travel with them. Two of the preachers were mobbed.

A SCHISM.—A division of sentiment arose among the Bishops and delegates in the General Conference of the United Brethren in Christ at their recent session in York, Pa., which resulted in a schism, one Bishop and several delegates withdrawing and forming a new organization. The rock on which the split occurred was the secret society question. The majority of the members of the Conference appear to have adopted liberal views, and opened the door to members of secret orders, while the dissenters continue to maintain the original position of the Denomination on this subject.

St John's Newfoundland is being scourged by Diphtheria. The schools, churches and other places of public assembly have been closed to prevent the spread of the disease.

The imports of Canada for the past ten months aggregate $86,000,000. Duties collected $19,000,000, an increase of $1,500,000 over the same period last year.

Mr. W. A. H. VanWart has been chosen to represent the University Y. M. C. A. at Moody's Convention of College Association Students, which is to be in Northfield, Mass., during the summer. Mr. V. will worthily represent his fellow students.

JOHN BRIGHT.—There are several projects on foot to raise a memorial of the late John Bright. A movement has been started by the leading parliamentarians of both sides of politics in the House of Commons to commemorate by a suitable tribute the long career of the dead statesman. Associated with the project are the Conservative leaders, Mr. W. H. Smith; the Opposition leader, Mr. Gladstone; and the Liberal-Unionist leader, Lord Hartington. It is a way the English have of honoring their illustrious men when party strife is hushed by death.—Empire.

LAURA BRIDGMAN.—The case of the famous Laura Bridgman, who has just died at the South Boston Asylum, furnishes an instructive illustration of the power of the mind to adapt itself to its environments, and overcome great physical disadvantages. Miss Bridgman, the born with all her senses in the normal condition, when an infant lost the senses of sight, hearing, taste and smell, leaving nothing but the sense of touch as the medium of intercourse with the outer world. Dr. S. G. Howe, at an early period, became interested in her case, and she was consigned to his care for education. The result is that, having lived to the age of sixty years, she died a cultivated and refined woman. She had lived a happy life, and was a member of the Baptist Church at the time of her death. It of course required great ingenuity and pains to educate her in spite of such physical disadvantages; and yet the effort was successful. Her mental nature concentrated all its receptive force upon the sense of touch, and, by intensifying and increasing the use of this sense, compensated largely for the loss of the other senses. The senses are, after all, merely facilities for mental action in the present life, and by no means the seat of such action. The mind is superior to the body which it uses, and is not dependent upon it for its existence. The case of Miss Bridgman is replete with striking suggestions in respect to the independence and powers of the mind.—Independent.

What a—(Story)!

For Neuralgia, a novel cure—which we hardly believe if true, will ever become popular—is vouched for, it is said, by a correspondent of the New York Sun. An Irish girl in Paterson, N. J., had suffered with Neuralgia of the head and face until almost frantic with pain; actually beating the wall with her head to cause insensibility. Her employer having heard that a Dr. Terc had cured rheumatism by the sting of a wasp, asked the girl if she would try it. With courage born of despair, she exclaimed "Any other torture would be a pleasure beside this." A yellow wasp was obtained, and vaxed into stinging her face. Within a few moments the pain ceased, the girl fell asleep, and strange to say, never again had an attack of neuralgia. Well, we don't blame her. The remedy was probably too heroic for a second dose. A learned specialist when told this yarn remarked, "The pain may have stopped temporarily, but it could only have been temporary." Continued he, "it is a fact that a sudden shock to inflamed and painful nerves will stop pain," but the remedy is worse than the disease, as many unthinking people in after years find out, who apply fiery and dangerous compounds externally to cure Neuralgia and Rheumatism. They only continue to shock their nervous system, ignorant of the fact that, as in the morphine or alcohol habit their mental and moral nature is thus gradually being destroyed. "Make haste slowly, if you expect to cure any nerve disease" was the advice to a lady by a friend who had been cured of chronic Neuralgia by using for some time Johnson's Anodyne Liniment inhaled, taken internally, and applied externally, as advised in the wrapper around every bottle. Neuralgia is a fever or inflammation of the nerves, and only by degrees can any inflammation be cured; and only by an anodyne treatment. Old Dr. Johnson had this in mind when he devised his Anodyne Liniment; a remedy now known to nearly every one, as it deserves to be. Surely, a medicine without real merit could not have survived for eighty years, as this one has done.

The Difficulty Experienced

In taking Cod Liver Oil is entirely overcome in Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites. It is as palatable as Milk, and the most valuable remedy that has ever been produced for the cure of Consumption, Scrofula and Wasting Diseases. Do not fail to try it. Put up in 50c. and $1 size.

COVETOUSNESS IN DISGUISE. The wonderful success of James Pyle's Pearlina has given rise to a flood of imitations with an "ine" to their names, evidently to have them sound like Pearlina. Enterprises of this sort are quite liable to be more selfish than beneficial.

The great lung healer is found in that excellent medicine sold as Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It soothes and diminishes the sensibility of the membrane of the throat and air passages, and is a sovereign remedy for all coughs, colds, hoarseness, pain or soreness in the chest, bronchitis, etc. It has cured many when supposed to be far advanced in consumption.

MANY THANKS.

"My age is 58 and for 20 years I have suffered from kidney complaint, rheumatism and lame back, and would have been a dead woman if it had not been for Burdock Blood Bitters, of which two bottles restored me to health, and strength." Miss Maggie Hendry, Half Island Cove, N. S.

STEEL WIRE NAILS.

I HAVE added to my stock of nails a complete line of Steel Wire Nails. I particularly call the attention of the carpenters and builders to the fact that Wire Nails run 50 per cent. more to the pound than the corresponding size of cut nails, and do not destroy the fibre of the wood as cut nails do. Will not break in driving, being stiff and tough. Will not split the wood, but will finish work better and stronger. They are cheaper than cut nails, being more to the pound. Use of steel wire nails unnecessary.
