Through the kindness of Mr Heath, general passenger agent of the N. B. Lailway, the pupils of the deaf and dumb institution had a pleasant day's pickerel fishing at Fredericton Junction on the 24th.

out of order for the past month or so.

The last few days the caterpillars have wrought sad havoc among the apple-trees in the vicinity of Woodstock. Last year these pests caused consider-able damage, but this year they have commenced their work of destruction earlier and in greatly augmented numbers. One of Mr. Sharp's orchards within five days has been completely stripped of foliage. Though the trees may survive the crop for this year is destroyed. Others are damaged, though to a less extent, yet very seriously.

William Steen, of Starley, was killed t Gibson's drive on Nashwaak Wednesay. The accident took place during he breaking of a jam of logs at a place n the Nashwaak called Hell's Gate.

The dry weather continues and most the drives have been abandoned. he following is the position of the up-ver lumbermen: Cunliff's drive from he Allegash reached Edmundston today; Connors has one boom of his logs in Temiscouata lake and is progressing slowly toward the main river; Stevens's drive for E. L. Jewett is at the Allegash Falls; Cyrus Dickey, for Stetson, left his drive at Seven Islands; Gillman Bros. left their lumber in Big Black River; James Tenea is reported out of Fish River; William Boyd, for Miller & Woodman, is reported in Long Lake, Fish River.'

The Bathurst Courrier says several of Messrs. Burns & Co.'s drives in n Gloucester will be hung up for want of water in the streams.

The Str. Florenceville has discontinued running to Woodstock till the water rises.
