loyal members; they need help and frequent requests are made to Rev. J. J. Barnes to help them; but he (Barnes) is really doing about two men's work now, and cannot respond to the calls. He came to this District two years ago, commenced sowing the good seed, and now he is gathering the sheaves. He began holding special meetings here (Lower Perth) the first of March; the church has been wonderfully blessed. Back-sliders were restored, sinners were converted, and five were baptized and added to the church. The interest now is good. The Sabbath School is in good condition. Bro. Barnes attended school last Sunday, and preached for us twice. His labor has him greatly blessed this spring.

F. C. BLOODSWORTH.

GRAND MANAN.—Since last reporting, I have received one into the church at Seal Cove, and on the 11 inst, I baptized another who will join the church. There are others who will soon follow in the divine command. I received two into the North Head church by letter last evening. There are some at Grand Harbour who have been converted, and who ought to be baptized, and I think will be soon. They will be a strength to the church. Our congregations all over the island are large and attentive.

Deacon Flagg, who is now 83 years of age, is quite feeble, having had La Grippe, but he tells of the hope which is as an anchor, the blessed, blessed hope of the Christian. How cheering!

T. O. DEWITT.

REV. J. J. BARNES has moved from Perth to Bath, C. Co. His correspondents will please remember the change in his P. O. address.

Rev. A. H. McLeod, of Dover, Westmorland Co., has left for Deer Island, Charlotte county, where for four weeks he will be engaged in home mission work for the F. C. B. church. He is accompanied by Mrs. McLeod. Rev. Mr. Burr will supply in his circuit. —Telegraph.

FROM REV. J. T. PARSONS.—I know my friends everywhere will be glad to learn that I have so far recovered my health as to be able to take my regular appointments. For the last three Sabbaths I have not been dependent upon outside help, but have, with the charitable consideration and kind co-operation of the members of the church and congregation, been enabled to get through fairly well. As everybody knows the 1st of May in this city is a specially busy time, it being the general moving day, the whole city seems to be on the wing. We always expect that at this time there will be a large decrease in the attendance of the public services. This year, though some fifteen or twenty of our families changed their residences, our conference meeting, held on the 4th, was largely attended and of more than average interest. On Sabbath the 11th it was my pleasure to baptize two—a brother and sister, who have given themselves to Christ and his cause, and united with the church. At the close of the evening service on the same day, the ordinance of the Lord's Supper was administered. It was a season of great solemnity and much spiritual comfort; about eighty of God's people, with one heart and one mind, loving Jesus and each other, sat at the table of the Lord to commemorate his death.

At no time in the history of this church has there been so much sickness and death in the same time among its membership as during the last six months. A number are still sick, some of them dangerously so; but they are rejoicing in the abiding presence of Him who has declared "I will never leave nor forsake you." We are all praying, if it can be for the glory of God, and the good of these afflicted ones, that the sympathizing Jesus will touch them with his healing finger and give them with restored health to their families, and friends, to his church and the world.

While I was sick I was prevented from administering that consolation and comfort that it was in my heart to bestow upon loved ones passing through affliction. I felt this especially when Bro. Jacob Belyea and his wife were again called to taste the bitterness of the cup of bereavement. Within two years they have buried two sons, both young men, victims of consumption, a grand-child—a lovely boy; last February their son-in-law, the late John A. Wallace of Penobscot, passed away; and then his widow, their eldest daughter, only two months after the death of her husband, passed over to greet him on the other shore. She seemed to have but little desire to live. Heaven had for her more attractions than earth. The thought, that the ties so recently torn asunder by death would so soon be reunited in the land where joy is without sorrow and companionship is eternal; seemed to thrill her whole being with inexpressible pleasure. Her illness was very brief, only a little over a week, but the messenger found her ready. Sister Wallace had the pleasing faculty of making friends easily and retaining them. Her early death is sincerely mourned by scores who knew her only to love her.

It seems a little extraordinary to one who takes the trouble to think, that the prosperity of a city like Fredericton is thought by some people to be dependent upon two men being permitted, in violation of law and in opposition to the moral sentiment of the town, to sell rum; and that when their rum-shops are closed, and they are in jail, the prosperity of the town is sacrificed. We think that those who have solaced themselves with such notions, will be thoroughly ashamed of it, and themselves.

THE UNIVERSITY.—The following are the results of the examinations for medals and scholarships at the N. B. University:

Junior Class.—Harry F. McLeod wins the Governor General's Gold medal for pass and honour examinations in Philosophy and English; D. L. Mitchell, being the only essayist, gets the Douglas Gold medal; the mathematical scholarship goes to L. Lee Street; Miss Henry gets the Alumni Gold medal for a Latin essay; and W. A. H. VanWart wins the microscope in Science.

Sophomore Class.—Ernest Ruel wins the English Scholarship; and Frank Burton gets the Hazen Silver medal for French.

Freshman Class.—K.—D. Lottimer wins the Classical Scholarship.

THE CONCERT in St. John by the pupils of the St. Martins Seminary was highly creditable to those who took part in it and to the Institution. Though a very rainy evening, there was an excellent audience, and the entertainment was evidently much enjoyed.

PILLS.—Recent investigation has shown that the people of Great Britain swallow over 5,500,000 pills a day, or one pill a week for every person in the population. The pill consumption for one year would weigh 178 tons, and would fill thirty-six freight cars, which it would take two powerful locomotives to pull. Placed in a row the pills would reach nearly 6,500 miles, or from Liverpool to New York and back again.

SCORD.—Suddenly, on the 9th inst., at Upper Greenfield, K. Co., Emma C. G. Scord, eldest daughter of Captain A. Scord and the late Emma Scord. She died trusting in Jesus. Funeral sermon by the Rev. J. A. Robertson.

CRAWFORD.—At Bridgewater, Me., on the 26th of April, Mahala, relict of the late Jabez Crawford, in the 76th year of her age. Sister Crawford was a daughter of the late Elder Cronkite, and for three score years was a professor of the religion of Christ, being baptized, at the age of sixteen, by the late Elder Nutt. She was a good woman, and a faithful and devoted Christian. She was ready when the Master called, and was greatly loved by the Lord's people and was always pleased to meet with his servants. One brother, two sisters and many relatives survive her.

J. W. C.
VANWART.—At Prince William, York Co., on the 10th inst., Jared R., in the 25th year of his age, younger son of Deacon Wm. VanWart. The deceased had suffered long and severely, but through all had been sustained and cheered by the Divine grace, of which he had experienced from his early years. He was baptized at 16 by the late Rev. J. E. Reid. He was a most exemplary young man, a devoted Christian, active in Sunday School work, and deeply and practically interested in everything that concerned the kingdom of Christ. While he loved all Christians, his own church and denomination were very dear to him, and he was constantly solicitous for their prosperity. He was esteemed in the church and community, and will be much missed and sincerely mourned. His parents and other members of the family feel deeply their loss, but have the comforting assurance that for him "it is better." Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord; they rest from their labours, and their works do follow them." The funeral, which was largely attended, was conducted by the pastor, Rev. Jos. J.

WHEATON.—At Wheaton Settlement, W. Co., 11th inst., Elizabeth, widow of the late Thomas Wheaton departed this life in the 83rd year of her age, leaving 9 children, 73 grand children, 45 great grand children and numerous other relatives and friends to mourn their loss. Our deceased sister was a daughter of John Lutz, one of the old settlers of the vicinity of Moncton, who she was born Sept. 23, 1809. Nov. 15th, 1831 she was married to Thomas Wheaton, and shortly after they removed to North River settling there in the woods, which has since become a thriving settlement, bearing his name. She experienced religion under the labours of Rev. E. McLeod, but was not baptized at that time. Some years later, about 35 years ago, she was baptized and united to the North River F. C. B. Church by Rev. G. A. Hartley, of which church she continued a member up to her death. She was universally respected for her kindness and her sterling christian character. She lived an exemplary christian life, being one of those that live their religion. One of the evidences I would here cite is the fact that from its first number she has been a subscriber and reader of the INTELLIGENCER, and in my visits to her I invariably noticed that her loved and often used Bible and the RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCER were kept near at hand. Both the parents are now dead, but the children are all living, the eldest son being J. A. Wheaton, railway contractor and builder. The funeral services, on the 14th inst., were conducted by the writer, assisted by Bro. Abram Perry, the pastor of the church.—A. C. T.

Allen's Lung Balsam was introduced to the public after its merits for the positive cure of such diseases had been fully tested. It excites expectoration and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; changes the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action; and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is warranted to break up the most distressing cough in a few hours' time, if not of too long standing. It contains no opium in any form and is warranted to be perfectly harmless to the most delicate child. There is no real necessity for so many deaths by consumption when Allen's Lung Balsam will prevent it if only taken in time. For Consumption, and all diseases that lead to it, such as Coughs, neglected Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma and all diseases of the Lungs, ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM is the Great Modern Remedy. For Croup and Whooping Cough it is almost a specific. It is an old standard remedy, and sold universally at 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. The 25-cent bottles are put out to answer the constant call for a Good and Low-Priced COUGH CURE. If you have not tried the Balsam, call for a 25-cent bottle to test it.
