Ayer's Sarsaparilla PREPARED BY DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass. Sold by Druggists. $1, six $5. Worth $5a bottle.

Said Farmer Jones in a whining tone, To his good old neighbor Gray, "I've worn my knees nigh through to the color. bone, But it ain't no use to pray." Your corn looks just twice as nice as mine,

Though you don't pretend to be A shinin' light in the church to shine, An' tellsalvation's free.

Hoeing and Praying.

'I've prayed to the Lord a thousand tin es For to make that 'ere corn grow; An' why yourn beats it so, an' climbs,

I'd gin a deal to know."

Said Farmer Gray to his neighbor Jones, In his easy quiet way;

When prayers get mixed with lazy bones, They don't make farmin' pay.

Your weeds, I notice, are good an' tall In spite of all your prayers;

1.ou may pray for corn till the heavens fall,

I you don't dig up the tares.

I mix my prayers with a little toil, Along in every row;

An' I work this mixture into the soil Quite vig'rous with a hoe:

'An' I've discovered, though still in sin, As sure as you are born; § This kind of compost well worked in Makes pretty decent corn.

"So while I'm praying I use my hoe, An' do my level best

To keep down the weeds along each row, An' the Lord, he does the rest.

'It's well for to pray both night and morn, As every farmer knows;

But the place to pray for thrifty corn Is right between the rows.

'You must use your hands while praying, though, If an answer you would get; For prayer worn knees an' a rusty hoe, Never raised a big crop yet.

"An' so I believe, my good old friend, If you mean to win the day, You must hoe as well as pray." Christian Leader. The Sabbath-School.

There are few who have not heard of this wonderful bank. Here are a few facts about this institution which may be new to some readers :

The Bank of England doors are now so finely balanced that a clerk, by pressing a knob under his desk, closes the outer doors instantly, and they can not be opened again except by special process. This is done to prevent the daring and ingenious unemployed in the metropolis from partment of this and other banks is nightly submerged several feet in water by action of the machinery.
