RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCER.

"I dislike something which has the

What Would Jesus do?

A young and earnest pilgrim, Traveling the King's highway, Conning over the lessons From the guide-book every day, Said, as each hindrance met him, With purpose firm and true, "If on earth He walked to-day, What would Jesus do ?"

It grew to be his watchword In service or in fight; Helped to keep his pilgrim garb Unsullied, pure, and white. For when temptation lured him, It nerved him through and through To ask this simple question : "What would Jesus do ?"

Now, if it be our purpose To walk where Christ has led, To follow in His footsteps With ever careful tread ; O let this be our watchword, A watchword pure and true, To ask in each temptation : "What would Jesus do?" -From "The Silver Cross."

The Christian's Money.

The prayer, "Thy kingdom come, should be not only the utterance of the lips, but of the whole life. A crying need of the kingdom to-day is that Christians everywhere should awake to the duty of offering this prayer from the depths of the pocket as well as from the depths of the heart. A few words on this subject may well accompany the replies to the question re specting church expenses presented on the first page.

Money may almost be said to be as necessary to human achievement as air is to human life. We talk of money as the "sinews of war." So it is; and it is the sinews of warfare for the kingdom as well as of political warfare. But is not our prayer for the kingdom a matter of faith? Do we not ask God the rich. Those who are poorer must salvation of souls. cease hiding behind the rich, and where they give pennies they must give dimes; and where they give dimes they must yourselves and undervaluing others, give dollars. God can work no farther and no faster than his people will g)." -Morning Star. they are not sent of God, but even that they are dead-dead to God, and walk-They also Serve who only Stand and Wait."

ないが深

God alone knows how many of us are called upon to "only stand and wait." To how many of us has come the great refiner, suffering, in the midst of joyous Gospel; and as if not only all clergy, active life, and touched now one, now another, just as we have sometimes seen little children do when choosing utter darkness.

"I dislike something that has the and exceeding precious promises tions. their companions for a game. "You, and you, and you;" as they touch first appearance of enthusiasm; overvaluing that God will supply all their need out one and then another, until they are feeling and inward impressions; mis- of his fulness. Reader, are you one taking the mere work of imagination of "Jesus Christ's people"? satisfied that the circle is complete. for the voice of the Spirit; expecting Ah! it is with design that we are chosen! The Master desires to complete the the end without the means, and undervaluing reason, knowledge, and wisdom circle of our lives. He sees a gap here and there of which we never dreamed. in general.

"I dislike something that has the It is well for us if we respond to the appearance of Antinomianism; not gentle leading, and suffer our weary, magnifying the law and making it storm-tossed souls to rest upon the honorable; not enough valuing tenderbosom of the loving Saviour. Which ness of conscience and exact watchfulof us has not at some time been subjectness in order thereto; using faith rather ed to this crucial test? I appeal to you, as contradistinguished from holiness is not the white heat of suffering exthan as productive of it. But what I perienced in the struggling and wrestmost of all dislike is your littleness of ling of mind and body with the invisible Refiner? What a holy calm takes posmeekness, gentieness, long-suffering; session of our souls when we relinquish the hand to hand combat, and subject your impatience of contradiction, ourselves to the purifying process of counting every man your enemy that the searching fires ! We cannot con- reproves or admonishes you in love; template the great, throbbing, lacerat- your bigotry and narrowness of spirit, ed heart of humanity without having loving, in a manner, only those that our sympathy aroused to its utmost love you; your censoriousness, pronetension. Do we realize the import of ness to think hardly of all who do not Shelley's beautiful sentiment :---earnestly agree with you; in one word, your divisive spirit. Indeed, I do not "They learn in suffering believe that any of you either design What they teach in song?"

or desire a separation. But you do not confidence in God and your zeal for the Those who belong to Christ have him them back. No prayers nor tears nor in the heart as the hope of glory. They repentant sighs can give us that which are freedmen who have been delivered when we had it, we idly cast away.

To-day God gives us time, and with appearance of pride, of overvaluing from the slavery of sin and brought into the glorious liberty of the children it opportunity. The precious gift is in particularly the preachers, thinking of God. "No man can serve two mas- our hands; the past can not be recall-that not only are they blind, and that ters." "Ye cannot serve God and ed; the future cannot be foreseen. Mammon." To belong to Christ is to To-morrow, of which we so often boast be a witness and worker for Christ in ourselves, may never come to us. We ing in the way to hell; that they are the world. The love of Christ in the do not live to-morrow. We can not, going one way, you another; that they heart makes those who possess it that find it in title deeds. The man who days are evil. - Christian at Work.

Sin Its Own Punishment.

Did vou ever imagine how a sinner

own vileness, deformed by the hideous throes of its own passions, miserable in the consciousness of its own perverted

pure and strong and beautiful beings,

glory of perfect truth and perfect holi-

a soul feel? Would it be happy ress. It stands in the midst of this have no life in them; your speaking of they shall be neither barren or un- owns whole blocks of real estate, and yourselves as though you were the fruitful in the Master's work. This great ships on the sea, does not own a only men who knew and taught the relation to the risen Saviour gives single minute of to-morrow. It is a strength for battle and comfort in suf- mysterious possibility not yet born. but all the Methodists besides, were in fering, and sheds the light of immortal It lies under the sea of midnight, behope on the future. They have great hind the veil of glittering constella-

> Now, in the living present, is the hour of probation, the opportunity for improvement, the way of salvation. Let us redeem the time, because the

A Tested Remedy.

It is related that Bishop Kavanaugh was one day walking, when he met a prominent physican who offered him a would feel, if admitted into the full seat in his carriage. The physican was light of heaven's sinlessness? Dwell an infidel and the conversation turned on the thought for a moment. Here upon religion.

'I am surprised,' said the doctor, is a being steeped in the slime of its 'that such an intelligent man as you should believe such an old fable as that,' The bishop said, 'Doctor, suppose powers and forfeited possibilities. It years ago some one had recommended love to your brethren; your want of to you a prescription, and, taking it ac- comes suddenly into the presence of cording to order, had been cured of a terrible disease, what would you say of whose garments are white as the light, the man who would not try your prescription ?'

'I should say he was a fool.'

'Twenty-five years ago,' said Kavanaugh, 'I tried the power of God's grace. It made a different man of me. All these years I have preached salvation, and wherever secepted, have never known it to fail.'

What could the doctor say to such iness? Ah, no! It would be like

JUNE 11, 1890

INTERCOLONIAL RAILWAY

WINTER ABRANGEMENT. 1890. 889.

O N and after MONDAY, 30th Decem. ber, 1889, the trains of this Railway will run daily (Sunday excepted), as follows :--

TRAINS WILL LEAVE ST. JOHN.

Day Express for Hallfax and Camp-Accommodation for Point du Chene 11.10 Fast Express for Hallfax 13,30 Fast Express for Quebec & Montreal 17.00 Express for Sussex..... 16.30

A parlor car runs each way daily on express trains leaving Halifax at 7.15 and St. John at 7.30 o'clock. Passengers from St. John for Quebec and Montreal leave St John at 17.00 and take sleeping car at Moncton.

The trains leaving St John for Montreal on Saturday at 16 20, will run to destination on Sunday.

TRAINS WILL ARRIVE AT ST. JOHN.

Express from Sussex Fast express from Montreal and Quebec

Fast Express from Halifax 15.50 Express from Halifax and Campbellton..... 19,25

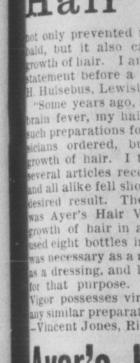

Express from Halifax, Pictou and Mulgrave 23.30

The trains of the Intercolonial Railway to and from Montreal are lighted by electricity and heated by steam from the locomotive.

All trains are run by Eastern Stand ard Time. and whose faces reflect the peace and

D. POTTINGER, Chief Superintendent Railway Office, Monston, N. B. 27th December, 1889.

shining company, and the full flood of heavenly radiance pours upon it from the throne of God. How would such Would it rejoice that it had gotten into Rail Line to heaven at last, in spite of its unworth- All Short Line to Montreal, &c

JUNE 11, 1810.

restoring gl romoting a

hair from fa and abundant

v, and free fro

versal testim

has no equ erefore, indispe

ned toilet.

have used Ayer

and it has work

led with da

bald; but s

perfectly cle

sed coming owth, of the

oung woman

any one suffe

of hair to use A "- Mrs. L

"some time ago n

ome out quite freely

Ay

ston. Me.

C. AYER

Sold by Drug

B

Burdock

fect regulating pimple to the combined with

sing and pu

tions of the n, render it un

ples, blotches

Which of us has not felt this, when to send it? Yes, we do; but it is a part of the Divine plan to make the citizens only a lighting up of the eye with that of the kingdom workers together with tender look of compassion which speaks the King, and unless they work with to us in an unwritten language unutterhim, he cannot work. His promise to ably more effective than speech? Are send the kingdom in answer to our not our noblest aspirations, our loftiest prayer is conditioned on our coflights of thought, unspoken? Not so operation. their influence, which reveals itself in

But one kind of co-operation that he the language of pure and holy lives. waits for, he points out with perfect Have you ever thought that it is only distinctness, when he says, "Bring ye by experiencing the tenderness of all the tithes into the storehouse." We earthly friends that we can, in any deoften hear men quoting that passage gree, approximate the divine compaswhen they are looking for a revival, as sion of the Man of Sorrows? We do if bringing the tithes into the storenot fully appreciate the power with house meant bringing in their testiwhich we are armed by suffering. In monies, coming out to the meetings, and the hushed and silent chamber, or in taking an active part. It means the burden of pain which we silently nothing of the kind. The expression carry about with us as a daily cross, we is no figure; it means exactly what it become deep students in the school of like the praying fervently and largely says. God's law in the Old Testament life. Upon which of us has been conis explicit in its reiterated and emphaferred the highest of degrees-"Made sized requirement that every Jew perfect through suffering?" It has should put a tenth of his income into the Lord's treasury. As much pains might fitly have been claimed, that God seems to have been taken to teach the rarely appoints His children to a great people that lesson as to teach them to work without first disciplining them by sacrifice and to pray. The prophet permitting them to become pupils in had just been accusing the people of the rigid school of suffering. Then let robbing God in tithes and offerings; us submit cheerfully to His loving not what you want Your affirming and now thus saith the Lord, They guidance, for will it not draw us nearer may pray ever so long and sing ever so to the pierced side of Him in whose loud, but the windows of heaven will presence there shall be no more pain? not be opened and a blessing poured Surely suffering, when patiently enout, till they have untied their pursedured for His sake, is richer, deeper strings and paid in those titkes. service than even the active employ-Jehovah took thousands of years bement of all our talents. "They also fore Christ came, to teach the world, serve who only stand and wait."-Illusamong other things, that no man could trated Christian Weekly. serve God and leave out his pocketbook. Before our Lord uttered those words, "After this manner pray ye," the people to whom they were spoken had received lessons enough to know that the iman who prays, "Thy king- found in Moore's Life of Wesley : dom come." with his hands in his pockets clinging to his purse, is uttering a mockery. When a person has himself entered the kingdom of Christ, I dislike in your doctrine, spirit, or whether he serves the Lord as clerk or mechanic, merchant or missionary, there is for him but one business in the world, whatever his daily occupation; that is to extend the kingdom. that consequently it is instantaneous When he ac cepts Christ as his, he gives (though preceded and followed by a himself to Christ; and when he gives gradual work), and that it may be now, himself he gives all he is and all he has. at this instant. But I dislike your Said old Jeremy Taylor, "What right | saying a man may be as perfect as an | is a matter of immense interest has a man to think he has given him- angel; that he can be absolutely perfect, everyone to determine whether he is enough fear, abhor, and detest it, shud- a testimony as this? And such testi- some foul-plumaged, scavenging, shad perhaps not a word has been spoken, dering at the very thought. All the preceding tempers tend to it, and gradually prepare you for it.

> "3. As to your outward behavior, I like the general tenor of your life, devoted to God and spent in Joing good.

"I dislike your appointing such meetings as hinder others from attending either the public preaching or their class or band.

"I dislike your spending so much time in several meetings, as many that attend can ill spare from the other duties of their calling, unless they omit either the preaching or their class or band. This naturally tends to dissolve our society by cutting the sinews of it. "As to your more public meetings, I of men. -Selected.

for all the blessings of God: I know much good has been done hereby, and I hope much more will be done. But been said by one by whom this honor I dislike several things therein: The using improper expression in prayer, sometimes too pompous and magnificent, extolling yourselves rather than God, and telling Him what you are, people will be justified, or sanctified just now. Your affirming they are, when they are not. The bidding them say, 'I believe.' The bitterly condemning any that oppose, calling them wolves, etc., and pronouncing them hypocrites or not justified.

before the Lord in prayer. So shall has ever known, has been the divine the evil cease and the good remain. And you will then be more than ever united to "Your affectionate brother, J. WESLEY.

"Canterbury, Nov. 2, 1762."

"Jesus Christ's People."

A missionary lady, writing from India, says, "Once as we drove along a narrow street, some boys called after us, saying, 'Jesus Christ's people.' We suppose this was used as a term of reproach, and yet what title is more honorable than this? It is a striking and suggestive name for Christians. Christ has a people in the world. I monies are what men need to turn them ow-loving bird set loose in the splendor from the error of their ways, to the of a lighted palace. It would crouch personal experience of the saving power of the Lord Jesus Christ.

of Christ ?' said some ministers to a were examining.

'What ?' said he, puzzled by the most exquisite anguish. question.

of Christ?"

triumphant reply.

But to give this answer one must be

Overcome Evil with Good

This is the divine method of correcting evils in this world. We keep chaff out of a basket by filling it first with wheat. We deal with tares in sometimes too bold, if not irreverent; the field, not by pulling them up and ruining the entire crop, but by sowing wheat elswhere in greater abundance. We best destroy our enemies by making them our friends. We tear down evil by building up that which is good and right and pure, and we thus overcome that which is wrong, displacing it and substituting something better. There are many who see little ad vantage in the preaching of the Gospel > method of revolutionizing society, elevating humanity, blessing mankind, saving souls. It is by the "foolishness of preaching" that the Lord has been pleased to save them that believe. The proclamation of the glad tidings of great joy and salvation through Christ has lit the lamp of hope for those who sit in darkness and the shadow of death, and has changed the aspect and character not only of in-ties and races. We often best overcome evil, not so much by assailing it, as by counterworking it, and establishing positive good in its place. We do not drive out darkness with brooms, or clubs, or pitchforks, but by letting in light; goodness.-Hugh Miller. and many of the evil things which as-MOSES HAD ASTHMA. sail and disturb us, will vanish from our view if we abhor that which is evil and let our light shine in the darkness, and show that the divine Lord is mightier than all the powers of wrong or evil. - The Armory. ----Lost Time.

and cringe, and strive to hide its face away from the searching light. Heaven

'How would you prove the divinity would be a thousand times worse hell for it than the pit which had concealed young backwoods preacher whom they its own deformity; and the very presence of God would be the source of the

Thus sin is its own punishment. 'How would you prove the divinity | The curse of it is, that it unfits the sinner for a state of spiritual blessed-'Why, he saved my soul,' was the ness. The penalty of transgression is ingrained in the transgression itself, not imposed from without. Even if a saved, and know it in his heart, and sin-polluted soul could be admitted show it in his life, and he then be- into the shining company of the blest, comes a living epistle, known and read its one anguished prayer would be, "O God, let me go unto my own place !"

> -Z. Herald. Random Readings

Doing good is the only certainly happy action of a man's life. -Sir P. Sidney.

Modesty seldom resides in a breast that is not enriched with nobler virtues. - Goldsmith.

Sins are like circles in the water A. J. HEATH when a stone is thrown into it-one produces another. -Matthew Henry.

Trust him little who praises all ; him less who censures all, and him least who is indifferent about all .- Lavater. As pupils in God's school we should of Christ to the world, but this means, pass no day without being learners nor can we, if only we make use of our opportunities.

> I love that tranquility of soul in which we feel the blessing of existence, and which in itself is a prayer and thanksgiving .- Longfellow.

The man who is most sensible of his moral weakness will be most likely to watch against temptations, and keep himself out of their way.

It is not by change of circumstances, but by fitting our spirits to the circumstances in which God has placed us, that we are to be reconciled to life and duty.-Robertson.

Prayer is so mighty an instrument that no one ever thoroughly mastered all its keys. They sweep along the infinite scale of man's wants and God's ARRANCEMENT OF TRAINS In Effect April 7th, 1890.

Eastern Standard Time.

LEAVE GIBSON.

BRISTOL'S

PILLS

THE INFALLIBLE REMEDY

For all Affections of the

27 KING STREET.

Made-up Scarfs, Pongees, Braces,

EW Long Scarfs, Silk Handkerchien

points north

s a purely vegetal LEAVE FREDERICTON. 3.05 A. M. - Express for St. John, and intermediate points, to Vanceboro, Bangor, Portland, Boston, and of the system, and ions. It so purifi points West ; St. Stephen, St. Andrews, Houlton, Woodstock, and points north. 1.20 A. M -For Fredericton Junction, St. John and points east.

20 P. M. -For Fredericton Junction, St. John, connecting at the Junction with Fast Express via Short Line for Montreal and the West, Houlton and Woodstock.

eases of the RETURNING TO FREDERICTON. From St. John 6.15, 8.55 a. m.; 4.45 p. m.; Fredericton Janction 7.45 a. m.: 12.50, 6.25 p.m.; McAdam Junction, 11.05 a. m.; 2.20 p. m.; Vanceboro, om one to two 10.45 a.m.; 12.10 p.m.; St. Stephen, 9 00, 11.55, a. m.; St. Andrews, 6.30

d all the simp m two to four l ARRIVE IN FREDERICTON. eczema, shing cesses, running se 8.55, a. m., 2.00, 7 20 p. m. t is noticeable th

8.00 A. M. - Mixed for Woodstock and DIS ARRIVE AT GIBSON.

Woodstock, and 5.55 P. M.-Mixed from re nearly alway points north. ng, but this F. W. CRAM, oval of the di

Gen. Man & Gen Pass. & Ticket Agent.

ix bottles used cation (dilu affected part mission of , kidneys, be lity and wro nd to open the carry off all as, allowing nd remove with

n to graver yet j lache, drops ies of disea er, kidneys, a guarantee ald any pers e first bottle. pplication pers mation provi e above nam OT. MILBUI

BELL

'() H

No duty on Chu

dividuals, but of families, communi-

"Read this calmly and impartially so different from anything heathenism self to God, if he has not given his that he can be infallible, or above beone of Christ's people or not. Christ' possessions?" So in Christ's dispensa- | ing tempted; or that the moment he is people are those who have accepted tion the Lord's claim is not discharged | pure in heart he cannot fall from it. Christ as their Saviour and who have trusted in him for forgiveness and rewhen the tenth is paid. The Christian's "I dislike your directly or indirectly newal. He that has not a living, permoney is the Lord's money- the whole depreciating justification, saying a of it to be used as a trust. Ought not justified person is not in Christ, is not sonal faith, which unites to the Re-Christians, then, to hold their posses-, born of God, is not sanctified, not a deemer and controls the whole life. temple of the Holy Ghost, or that he bringing forth the fruits of righteoussions as administrators for God, handling these trust-funds on the principle cannot please God, or cannot grow in ness, is not one of Christ's people. that of all they have, every dollar, grace every cent, is to be employed in the "I dislike your saying that one Church, but with Christ himself which way that will best honor God ? saved from sin needs nothing more constitutes the test of discipleship.

John Wesley on Sanctification.

The following characteristic letter from Mr. Wesley to Mr. Maxfield is "Without any preface or ceremony,

which is useless between you and me,

I will simply and plainly tell you what

"1. I like your doctrine of perfection, or pure love-love excluding sin; your insisting that it is merely by faith;

outward behavior.

Yes, the time has past when the lay- than looking to Jesus, needs not to "Jesus Christ's people" are conformed men in the church can turn the king- hear or think of anything else; believe, to the image of their great Example. dom of heaven over to the parson, as believe, is enough; that he needs no They walk in his steps; they keep his Dr. Pentecost expresses it. "If God's self-examination, no times of private commandments; they show forth his work," he adds, in words appropriate, prayer; needs not mind little or out- spirit. The spirit of Christ is a spirit in conclusion, "is to be done in this ward things; and that he cannot be of unselfish benevolence and loving may be measurably restored by peniworld and done according to his mind | taught by any person who is not in the | consecration to service. If there is and heart, our laymen must awaken same state.

out of their sleep and from their dreams of worldly wealth, and give themselves | fied persons in general persecute them | of the love of Christ in actual inter- | priceless hours that have escaped us in to God and His service. Where they that are saved from sin, and that they course with the world, that man's re- our listlessness, our idleness and our give dollars they must give hundreds have persecuted you on this account. ligion is vain. "If any man have not folly, no toils can win them, no wealth fort. A man can't stand everything. and thousands. This is a measure for "2. As to your spirit. I like your the spirit of Christ, he is none of his." can purchase them, no effort can bring One pill a dose. Try them.

It is not the union with any particular no conformity to the character of once lost is lost forever. The moments

"I dislike your affirming that justir | Christ, no manifestation of the power | that are gone come back no more; the

Lost wealth may be restored by industrious and frugal endeavor; wrecked health may sometimes be regained by temperance and self-denial; forgotten knowledge may be brought back by earnest study ; friends who have been alienated may be won again by assiduous attention; forfeited reputation tence, humility and fidelity; but time

Erench Braces, Rug Straps, Courier Bags Dressing Gowns Floves, Marino Shirw MY HUSBAND had asthma for eight years with severe cough, and Drawers. and his lungs also were affected. He could neither rest, work, nor get relief from any medicine he tried. Some time ago we got Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, and after taking six or eight bottles his cough is entirely cured, the asthma greatly relieved, and his lungs greatly benefited. MRS. MOSES COUCH, Apeley, Ont.

Sufe, Certain, Prompt, Economic. -These few adjectives apply with peculiar force to Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oila standard external and internal remedy, adapted to the relief and cure of coughs, sore throat, hoarseness and all affections of the breathing organs, kidney troubles, excoriations, sores, lameness and physical pain.

If you are tired taking the large old fashioned griping pills, try Carter's Little Liver Pills and take some com-

Studio Frederict

HA