Joe's Victory.

BY ADELAIDE TAYLOR.

"Mamma, I wish I could get to school without passing that Charlie Haddington's house; or else I wish I could make him behave."

Mrs. Gordon looked down into the troubled little face Joe raised to hers and answered, with a smile:

A rush of angry feelings came over Joe, but he remembered his conversation with his mother just in time, and pressed his lips tightly together, determined not to say a word until he could speak pleasantly.

He brushed away vigorously for minute or two, then straightening out, he called out:

"Say, Charlie, do you want to be in our nine ?"

Charlie was surprised at Joe's friendly tone, and suspected some trick, but the question excited his curiosity, so he answered:

"Taint likely. What nine?" "Some of us fellows are going to have a base-ball nine," said Joe. "Would you like to belong to it? If Something for Boys.

Science gives the following significant facts concerning the results of smoking by boys: "In an experimental observation of thirty-eight boys of all classes of society and of average health who has been using to bacco for a periodranging from two months to two years, twenty-seven showed severe injury to the constitution' and insufficient growth; thirty-two the existence of irregularity of the heart's action, disordered stomachs, cough, and a craving for alcohol; thirteen had intermittency of the pulse, and one had consumption. After they had abandoned the use of tobacco, within six months' time one-half were free from all their former symptoms, and the remainder had recovered by the end of the year."
