Mr. Greener says his discoveries which have been made within the past two years have given the Provincial Government a coal-bearing area of 100 square miles, where land was previously looked upon by experts as valueless. He located the first seam, and then took the measurements between the seams on the opposite coast now being worked, and found the second seam to correspond, and so on with the remainder. The mines extend under the sea, and ships sail over the spot where the miners are at work.

On Monday night last week, one of the most distressing and heartrending shipwrecks that has ever occurred on our coasts happened at Little Harbor, N. S., by which 16 men lost their lives. The barque Melmerby, Capt. Olsen, and crew of 22 men set sail on Wednesday, Oct. 1st, from Quebec bound for Greenock with a cargo of square timber. Sunday night, the 5th, she encountered a heavy gale from which the ship sprang a leak, and there was soon six feet of water in the hold. The pumps were kept going all night, but the barque became water-logged, drifted about and finally struck on the ledge near Roy's Island. The captain and 15 of the crew put off in a boat, but she swamped and all but one were drowned. Subsequently two seamen, Samuel Cory and James Fletcher, swam ashore.

During the last two weeks more than fifty men have been "held up" on Chicago streets by women and robbed of all they had. In most instances the women are big and strong, and on even terms would be a match for their victim, but two or three together can make short work of a man who is bold enough to resist. The majority of robberies have occurred near police headquarters. The police officials have issued orders to arrest every known streetwalker and thief, and are making every effort to put a stop to the robberies.

The damage by floods in West Virginia will probably reach $400,000. Reports of great damages come from the valley of every stream emptying into the Ohio between Steubenville and Parkersburg. In one county eight bridges were carried away.

The Leland Hotel, in Syracuse, N. Y. was burned to the ground at an early hour Thursday morning. Several persons were burned to death, or so injured that they died in a few hours; several others were more or less seriously injured. Many lives were saved by the patent fire escape—a piece of webbing and rope—with which each room is equipped. Some of the scenes witnessed in the burning building were agonizing in the extreme. On the fifth floor four women appeared at a window. Their screams for help were heard above the din and roar. A hook and ladder was placed in position, but the overhead wires prevented the raising of the ladder, and minutes seemed hours while a ladderman mounted the rounds and cut the wires. While the men were hoisting the ladders one of the women jumped, evidently with the hope of reaching the net which was held beneath, but she struck the wires and fell to the sidewalk seven feet from the net. Death was instantaneous. When the ladder was put up it was too short for the women to reach, so one ladderman ran up the ladder, and standing on the topmost round, heroically reached up and helped down three women. On all sides men and women could be seen dropping from the windows or sliding down the fire escapes.

The recent earthquakes in Central and South America seem to have been exceptionally severe. Almost simultaneously with the shocks at Granada, Nicaragua, the Mombacho volcano toward the south burst out in eruption, much to the terror of the people. Earth tremors were subsequently felt at Guayaquil, and as far south as Serena, Chili, on September 14 and 19 respectively.

Mail advices from Grenada, Nicaragua, report a terrible state of affairs there on account of earthquake shocks, which began Sept. 11 and continued with greater or less violence and frequency for over two days. LONG NAMES. It is high time, says a contemporary, that a protest were entered against the absurd length of the names bestowed on many of the religious and philanthropic societies. One of the latest is "The Christian Union for the Severance of the Connection of the British Empire with the Opium Traffic." If Charles Lamb had come across the ingenious author of

A BURNING SORE LEG.

Ulcers Form. Hospitals and Doctors Useless. Cured with Pain. Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

About eight years ago I wrote you from Wilkesbarre, Pa., describing how wonderful remedies cured me of a wonderful case of eczema or salt rheum. I must now tell you what CUTICURA REMEDIES have again done for me. On the 22d of last September, I had the misfortune to bruise my leg, and I put a piece of sticking plaster on it. Inside of a week I had a terrible leg. My wife became frightened and advised me to go to a surgeon. I went, and doctored for two months, but no good was done me, besides costing me big money. My leg had by this time formed into an ulcer, and got worse every day. I could not stand it any longer, and made up my mind to go to a hospital and see if I could be helped. I went to several here in the city, in turn, but none could do any good. I had a terrible leg, with a hole in it as big as a dollar, and pain that almost set me crazy. I got scared about it, and determined to try CUTICURA REMEDIES. I obtained a set, and inside of five weeks my leg was healed up as well as it ever was, except the terrible scar it left for a reminder of what was once a terrible sore leg. These REMEDIES are worth their weight in gold.

this title, he would probably have suggested the propriety of examining his bumps. According to the hideous but often compulsory plan of using initials only, this new society would figure as "The C. U. S. C. B. E. O. T." Let us hope that, in spite of its grotesque name, it may accomplish something towards the removal of a national disgrace; but we should be more sanguine as to its success if it could shorten its title.

The Poor-House Ruined.

"Ely Perkins," who was lately making observations in Iowa, was "interviewed" as he was passing through Sioux City. He had been at Ackley the day before for the first time in nine years. Nine years ago it had seventeen saloons, and the banks and farmers sent twenty-five thousand dollars to the East annually to pay interest on farm mortgages. Now he found no saloon or sign of a saloon, and a banker told him that they only sent twenty-five hundred dollars East during the past year to pay interest on farm mortgages. Not a policeman there now, and not a pauper in the poor-house nor a criminal in the jail. The only bankruptcy there has been in Ackley, is the bankruptcy of the poor-house. Poor old poor-house, it had to give up business, and the jail is full of cobwebs! "Yes," declared Eli, "temperance has hurt the poor-house and jail in Ackley. It has ruined these institutions." Iowa will endure such ruin with great complacency.—National Temperance Advocate.

It was Mr. Emerson who said "the first wealth is health," and it was a wiser than the modern philosopher who said that "the blood is the life." The system, like the clock, runs down. It needs winding up. The blood gets poor and scores of diseases result. It needs a tonic to enrich it.

A certain wise doctor, after years of patient study discovered a medicine which purified the blood, gave tone to the system, and made men—tired, nervous, brain-wasting men—feel like new. He called it his "Golden Medical Discovery." It has been sold for years, sold by the million of bottles, and people found such satisfaction in it that Dr. Pierce, who discovered it, now feels warranted in selling it under a positive guarantee of its doing good in all cases. Perhaps it's the medicine for you. Your's wouldn't be the first case of scrofula or salt-rheum, skin disease, or lung disease, it has cured when nothing else would. The trial's worth making and costs nothing. Money refunded if it don't do you good.

Nature has Provided

A new and wonderful discovery has recently been made by means of which tens of thousands will be freed from pain. Polson's Nervine is the most prompt, certain, and pleasant pain remedy in the world. Try Nervine for toothache, neuralgia, cramps, &c., always safe and efficient.

Gents.—I took a severe cold, which settled in my throat and lungs and caused me to entirely lose my voice. For six weeks I suffered great pain. My wife advised me to try MINARD'S LINIMENT and the effect was magical, for after only three doses and an outward application, my voice returned and I was able to speak in the Army that night, a privilege I had been unable to enjoy for six weeks.
