> IN REPLY to the question, Is the W. C. T. U. a partisan or political body? Miss Willard said; You will have to make up your own minds about that. In my individual opinion we have certain leanings that way. So far as our constitution and our departments of work are concerned we are colorless, but in our annual camp-fire we are apt to express ourselves in favor of that body of men who devote themselves to the cause, and we believe they ought to have our influence and encourage. ment.
