saw some awakening among the people and hope some good was done.

The church gave me a call to labour with them for one quarter of my time until next General Conference, which I accepted, and hope to see much good accomplished during my stay with them. I made a short visit to Shannon,

Wickham, and found the church low.

The travelling was very bad and the weather cold, so that the meetings I held were very small. I came to attend my appointment with the Perry Point church the first Saturday in this month, and then my mind led me to make a visit to Upper Hampstead, which I did. I found a very kind and hospitable people, though they complain that the cause is low. I attended two Sabbaths with them and tried to hold up Christ to them. They gave me a call to labour with them for one half of my time until October next, which I have accepted. The more I try to work for God, the more I am convinced that I have not started without a call to "go and work in his vineyard." When I look over a number of the churches and see their need,

I am led to cry out from my heart, "Lord revive thy work." Pray for me, brethren.

"SUNNY SIDE."—On the evening of the 14th inst., Rev. Mr. and Mrs.

West were visited at their home in Rockingham, N. S., by the members of the A. C. F. Society with others of their friends, from Kempsville. After partaking of a tea provided by their visitors, and an evening spent in singing and pleasant conversation, Miss Lelia G. Hurlburt, in behalf of the company, presented Mrs. West with a valuable dress for which she tendered a suitable acknowledgment. Then Mr.

Baltie Randall, in behalf of the A. C.

F. Society of Kempsville and others, presented Mr. West with a purse containing a sum of money, which was thankfully received.

FROM REV. J. HENDERSON.—For the last thirty years I have enjoyed the reading of the RELIGIOUS INTELLI-GENCER. The denominational news has always been especially interesting.

It seems to me like a letter from home.

We are in christian fellowship, and are glad always to hear of brethren sharing largely in the blessings of God.

If any are sick we want to know that we may sympathize with them; and if any have passed over to the better land we want to know the time of their entering into rest. But perhaps some brother may say that brother H. likes to read better than he likes to write.

Well, it may appear so. I have been labouring with the churches at Geary, Victoria, Waterville and Upper Gagetown since the first of the year. I found them in a weak state, but there are a few trying to walk humbly before the Lord. My appointment for Sabbath 23rd was in Gagetown, but because of bad health and stormy weather I could not get there. My next appointment in Gagetown will be Sabbath after next. I have been trying to advocate the cause and claims of our denominational organ, and I feel I must try harder for I am sorry to say that a number of our people do not take the paper who ought to have it. I wish I could send it gratis to a number for three months; I think after that they would subscribe for it themselves.

DIED FROM HOME.—We are sorry to hear of the death of the son of Mr.

Adam Sharp, caused by accident in the mines in South Dakota.

He had been away from home about 20 years, and only a few days before his death had written his father that he intended visiting home this year. We remember him as a bright and genial school-boy, and extended sympathy to his parents and the family in their bereavement.

THE PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE is called to meet for the despatch of business on Thursday, March 13th.

POSTMASTER McPEAKE.—All citizens were made sad by the death of Postmaster McPeake of this city, which occurred on Wednesday last. His life among the people during all the years of his residence here had been that of Italians are said to be building extensive factories in East Africa.

accommodate me, if they will send them to me by mail. If they send their address I will send the mailing

EXPLANATION.—In case a question may arise as to the absence of the mourning lines from the notice of the say that it was an oversight of the printers. The article was so marked that they overlooked the directions.

a loss in the death of our esteemed brother, loss is his eternal gain. He leaves a sorwith many friends, to mourn his death.

the 14th inst., Jonathan Nason, aged 23 years. He was the only son of our esteemed brother and sister, Israel W. and Olive

A. Nason. He came to his death, very suddenly. He was struck by a falling tree on Thursday and died on Friday. His death is a sad blow to his parents, and extends to them our heart-felt sympathies in this hour of bereavement. May they be sustained by the all sufficient grace, and find the mourners' friend, the sympathizing

Jesus, who wept at the grave of Lazarus, to be with them in their hour of trial; and may they with christian resignation "Kiss the rod" that has smitten, and meekly bow under the Divine Will. Funeral services by the writer.—G. W. F.
