LOWER CANTERBURY, YORK CO.—Meetings have been continued since the District Meeting, and a good interest has been awakened. Bro. Bonnell remained, and Bro. Swin, the pastor, has been with him part of the time. We hope to hear of a good number of conversions.

REV. S. K. WEST writes of the Nova Scotia Conference: "We had a very interesting session. Some very important business was done. The reports make a fair showing. The brethren have gone to their fields determined, by the help of the Lord, to do more in His service in this year."

FROM LICENTATE S. J. PERRY.—Not having written anything for the RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCER for some time, I take this opportunity of giving you readers a few lines. I am still labouring for the upbuilding of the Master's cause on my circuit. A year has nearly rolled around since I began to labor with these churches, and the more I labor for God, the more I am impressed that I am in the right in the vocation. I have not seen as much of the awakening influence of the Holy Spirit in the churches during the present year as I could have wished, but am led to offer thanksgivings to God for what I have seen and felt, and leave the results with God.

The people on this circuit are very kind, and have made me some valuable presents, amongst which I might name a very nice set of silver-mounted single harness presented by Bro. Asa Slipp, on behalf of himself and congregation at Little River F. C. Ch. May the Lord plentifully reward Bro. Slipp, who is a noble minded man, and all the donors both in basket and store is my most earnest wish.

S. J. PERRY.

GOING TO CONFERENCE.—Several ministers, enroute to Conference have called at the INTELLIGENCER office. We were, of course, glad to see them.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.—Permit me gratefully to acknowledge the receipt of the proceeds of a donation social at Coverdale, $21 50; one from friends at Annanville Ridge of $8.00; and another from friends at Pollet River Platform of $20.50. Each was a donation.

A. C. T.

FREDERICTON.—During September the pulpit of the church in this city was supplied by the following brethren Rev. Wm. DeWare, Rev. B. H. Nobles, Rev. Wm. Downey and Licentiate D. Long. We hear that Licentiate F. C. Hartley has been asked to take the pastorate of the church, but have not learned whether he has accepted the invitation.

CORN HILL, K. Co.—Rev. A. C. Thompson delivered his farewell sermon to the Corn Hill Church on Sunday morning the 21st inst. His text was Deut. 15, 1, and 2 Cor. 13, 11—"At the end of every seven years thou shalt make a release" and "Finally brethren farewell, be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace, and the God of love and peace shall be with you." Bro. T. feelingly referred to the seven years they had been associated as pastor and people, and the many seasons of blessing they had enjoyed; that was the 292nd time he had preached to them; 85 had professed religion, and been baptized; and 97 had been added to the church. Many were affected to tears as he bade them good bye. At the close of the service; the Clerk of the church stepped forward and read the following address:

Dear Brother:—It is with feelings of regret that we meet you on this occasion; and we take this opportunity to present you an address, as we feel that we cannot allow you to leave the pastorate of our church without giving you some expression of the love and respect we have ever had for you. Looking back over the seven years of your labors with this church, and the blessings which have ever followed you, we are glad to be able to say that we have ever found you a workman that need not be ashamed. Our church has been very much blessed and strengthened through your faithful, and energetic labours. Your friendly and pleasant manner have given you a welcome place in every home. We hope, as you leave us and enter on another field of labor, that the same blessing may continue to follow you, and that the untrodden path of your life may be like that of the just, that "shineth more and more" to the end, and that you may long be spared to labor for the Master. It is something to have shared so much joy together and to have had friendships tie so strong; it is more to feel that we part as such, yet no rendered more than ever so. For "could friendship ask a stronger test, or power to tell, that it should be such a painful task to say farewell." You and your beloved wife may rest assured that we will ever have the prayers, and best wishes of your many friends at Corn Hill.

By order and in behalf of the Corn Hill F. C. Church, this 21st day of Sept. 1890.

C. M. HUNT, Clerk.

RE-ELECTED.—The Methodist Conference re-elected the editors of its two papers.—Dr. Dewart of the Christian Guardian, and Dr. Lathern of the Westeyan.

GREENLY.—A statue of Horace Greenly, founder of the N. Y. Tribune, has been unveiled in Printing House Square, New York.

THE PREMIER.—Sir John A. Macdonald is expected to speak in Halifax to-day (Wednesday), and will visit St. John the last of this week.

METHODIST FIGURES.—The statistical committee of the Methodist Conference presented the following figures: Ministers and probationers $1,748 Members..... 233,868 Sunday schools..... 3,173 Officers and teachers..... 28,411 Scholars..... 226,050 Churches..... 392 Total value of church property..... 11,597,491 Raised during the quadrennium for ministers' support..... 2,771,941 For missions..... 857,086 Total amt. raised for the church for all purposes... 8,063,967

A LAND OWNER.—Bismarck is one of the largest land owners in Prussia. His cattle and geese industries yield him an annual profit of $3 500 to $4,500, and the annual income from his yeast business, the most important item in the ex-chancellor's income, is about $34,000.

THE JUNCTION P. O.—Investigation into irregularities against the Fredericton Junction Post Office was made a few days ago. Of these charges no opinion can be expressed till the result of the examination is known.

But there is a charge that must be kept before the people and pressed on the attention of the authorities till the wrong is removed. The P. O. is kept in a rum shop, by a rumrunner. It would appear that the agitation has already had some effect. Mrs. Sheehan has been appointed postmistress, the appointment having been made in August. This fact came out in her evidence in the examination referred to above; it was not generally known before. Sheehan having been convicted of rumselling, it was probably thought inexpedient to keep him longer in office, so the duties were transferred to his wife. Do the P. O. authorities imagine that such a sham change alters the condition of affairs? Whoever has managed this must think the people easily humbugged. Sheehan is a convicted lawbreaker; it is believed that he continues to sell rum; the Post Office is in his house, which is not less a rum shop because his wife instead of himself is in charge of it. It is the duty of the Post Master General to take the P. O. away from them. The M. P. for the County can have it done at once if he chooses. If he does not act promptly the people of the community served by the office owe it to themselves to make their will known to him in an unmistakable way. It is simply an outrage that any department of the public service should be quartered in a rum shop, and be in the hands of a persistent violator of law.

TEA MEETING.—The Free Baptists of Stanley are to have a tea meeting to-morrow (Thursday) at Cross Creek. The proceeds are to be given towards the erection of the new church building there.

THE GOVERNOR GENERAL is to be in St. John tomorrow (Thursday.)

THE EXHIBITION in St. John is a success. The exhibit of the products of British America is extensive and interesting, and in manufactures there is a fine showing. The attendance has been large, and taken altogether the exhibition is voted a decided success.

SUNDRIES.—Genoa is preparing for a Columbus anniversary celebration in 1892. . . . A machine for making shoe strings out of paper is a recent Philadelphia invention. . . . Queen Victoria's family circle now numbers 50 living descendants, including sons and daughters, grandsons and granddaughters, great-grandsons and great-granddaughters. . . . A young woman at Ashland, Wis., after suffering four years from supposed consumption, has just coughed up a shingle nail. . . . Alaska has the largest gold mine in the world. It is lighted by electricity and is worked day and night.

VON MOLTKE will be 90 years old on the 26th inst. He is held in the highest esteem throughout Germany.

RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE.—The members of the Sabbath School at Chocolate Cove, Deer Island, manifested, by a unanimous vote, their desire to place on record, through their Committee, their high esteem of a brother who has recently been called from his labours.

We were deeply pained by the death of our dear brother, and teacher, Silvenus C. Haney. As a member of our church he was respected and loved by all, a good worker, and one who always acted for his Master.

But especially do we miss him in the Sabbath School, where as an energetic and earnest teacher, he many time stirred us with his enthusiastic words. We had looked forward to a time, when, with health regained, we could again have his help; but he is now doing a far more glorious work, and we must carry our burdens without him.

It is needless to say that those who were with him, in his dying moments, saw a solemn but beautiful death, a perfect resignation into the hands of his Saviour.

His mourning widow has our sincerest sympathy. We mourn with her, some of us as relatives and others as friends, in the loss of a kind husband, and one who had in his short life-time made many friends.

ALL SORTS.

A priest the other day, who was examining a confirmation class in the south of Ireland, asked the question, "What is the sacrament of matrimony?" A little girl at the head of the class answered, "Tis a state of torment into which souls enter to prepare them for another and a better world."

"Bein'," said the priest, "the answer for purgatory." "Put her down to the fut of the class," said the curate. "Leave her alone," said the priest. "For anything you or I know to the contrary she may be perfectly right."

In France, if a patient who is under chloroform shows any sign of heart failure, those in attendance hold him head downward till he is restored. This method is said never to fail; and so convinced are some surgeons of its efficacy that they have operating tables made in such a fashion that one end can be elevated at a moment's notice, and the patient be practically made to stand on his head for an instant or two.

Cut out from the same piece as the story of the man who in describing an address said: "His speech was funny enough to make a donkey laugh and I laughed till I cried," is the following which happened in a class of natural history. The professor is nettled at the inattention of his pupils: "Gentlemen, I demand your attention. I am giving you an interesting lecture on the personal peculiarities of the monkey. The least you can do is to look at me."

The chief analyst of the dominion government in his annual report states that he analyzed 150 samples of baking powder during the year, and found 45 genuine, 102 adulterated and 3 doubtful. Other analyses were: Butter, 24 genuine and 7 doubtful; cream of tartar 79 genuine, 63 adulterated and 3 doubtful; lard, 189 genuine, 192 adulterated and twelve doubtful; milk, 164 genuine 40 adulterated and 2 doubtful; vinegar 62 genuine and 25 adulterated; whiskey 6 genuine and 6 doubtful.

A Texas doctor gives the Medical Bulletin an account of the ease with which doctors are made in that State. He took a six-hour ride with a Texas villager, who asked him a great many questions about the remedies used for certain diseases then prevailing in the locality. On the following week he had occasion to visit a neighboring village, where he found his recent companion with his shingle out as a full-fledged doctor. He had graduated in that six-mile ride.

Many of the huts which have been sent to the South African gold fields, and other places where portability is important, are made of wire-woven waterproof sheets. The sheets are less than half the weight of twenty-four gauge corrugated iron, for which they are mainly intended as a substitute; and, being composed of stout paper-mache, with fine steel wire foundations, they are excellent non-conductors of heat and cold. The weight of a settler's hut, 14 feet by 10 feet, is thus brought down to a little over half a ton.

Literary Notes.

The Missionary Review of the World for October, opens with a scathing article on Cardinal Lavigerie and his Anti-Slavery Crusade. There follows a graphic sketch of a Foreign Missionary of Old Testament Times. The story of the introduction of Christianity into Korea by Roman Catholic Missionaries, many of whom suffered martyrdom for the faith is interesting. Undenominational Mission Work is a timely presentation of that subject. The Prayer for Laborers, will touch many a heart. Results of Modern Missions is a good paper. There is a valuable article on Mahdism and Missions in the Sudan. Besides the papers in the Literature section, there is a sketch of the Foreign Missions of the Moravian Church, and a terse description of Missions and Sects in the Turkish Empire. In addition to correspondence, and editorials; there are nine pages of General Missionary Intelligence and latest news from all lands. It is fresh and good number.

Published by Funk & Wagnalls, 18 and 20 Astor Place, New York. $2.00 per year; in clubs of ten, $15.00. Specimen numbers, 20 cents.

In Harper for October Theodore Child's series of South American papers is continued in an article on "Agricultural Chili," describing the farming resources of that country, methods of cultivation and irrigation, wages of laborers, etc. The reare fourteen illustrations. "Antoine's Moose-yard" (illustrated) gives an interesting narrative of hunting adventures in the wilds of Canada. Joaquin Miller relates a story of a visit to the historic neighborhood of Sherwood Forest, and of some "Nights at Newstead Abbey" spent in the haunted bed-chamber of Lord Byron. Among the poems are six "Sonnets by Wordsworth," "The Dream of Phidias," and "An Autumn Song." The subjects treated in the Editorial departments include some reflections on Christian ideals and the Peace Congress, critical remarks on certain modern novels, Mr. Henley's essays, and other recent publications.

Deaths.

CROWELL.—At Shag Harbour, N. S., Aug. 30th, Mercy, the beloved wife of Philip Crowell, aged 88 years. Sister C. united with the F. B. Church a number of years ago. From that time until her death, she was faithful to God and the church, always ready for every work that would advance its interest. In her death we have lost a faithful sister. But we would be subservient to the Master's will, for we know she has gone to her reward.—W. M.

VANWART.—At Hampstead, Q. Co., on the 15th ult., Ella G., aged 23 years and six months, daughter of Isaac and Fanny VanWart. Early in her maidenhood she was stricken down with a very malignant type of that much dreaded disease, diphtheria. She had become sufficiently convalescent to lead her relatives and friends to think that the danger had passed, but the seeds which the disease had sown seemed to make death inevitable. So, notwithstanding she had the best medical treatment, and the most careful nursing, on Monday, the 15th ult., she sweetly passed from this scene of tears to H's right hand, where there is fulness of joy and in whose presence there are pleasures for evermore. Three years ago last winter she professed faith in Jesus and was baptized by the writer. Since then her life has been marked by Christian consistency, ever living to have the vision of her soul clear and unclouded towards God, and tender and fraternal towards her fellow-man. She was a favorite in the community, and beloved by all who knew her. She leaves a father and mother, two sisters and two brothers to remember her Christian walk and kind words. Our deepest sympathy and most fervent prayers are offered for the grief-stricken. The funeral was attended by the writer. Text: "I know in whom I have believed," etc.—B. H. N.
