Literary Notes.

The August Wide Awake has a fanciful story entitled "The Princess Rosetta and the Pop-Corn Man," with seven illustrations. Another of the same kind is "Three Little Candles." As a contrast come "The Hat of the Postmaster," "Cy Hope's Victory," the story of a Canadian Indian boy at school, and Miss McLeod's Acadian tale, "The Story of Bloody Creek." "A Game of the Senses," suggests the development possible to the senses through the using of them. The small girl of the household may prefer "Home made Furniture for Doll Houses." There is a group of Lily articles. "The New Seniorat Overture," is attracting attention, and is worthy the interest it excites. "Men and Things" gives anecdotes and talks, and the "Margaret-Patty Letter" is worth the while of young people who are careless of grammar and spelling in conversation and letter writing. Wide Awake is $2.40 a year. D. Lothrop Company, Publishers, Boston, Mass.

NOT IN THE "BOOK TRUST."—The statement has been widely circulated, probably by parties who wished it might be true, that John B. Alden,

A Scaly, Itching Skin Disease, with Endless Suffering Cured by CUTICURA Remedies.

If I had known of the CUTICURA REMEDIES twenty-eight years ago, it would have saved me $200.00 and an immense amount of suffering. My disease (psoriasis) commenced on my head in a spot no larger than a cent. It spread rapidly all over my body, and got under my nails. The scales would drop off of me all the time, and my suffering was endless and without relief. One thousand dollars would not tempt me to leave this disease over again. I am a poor man, but feel rich to be relieved of what some of the doctors said was leprosy, some ringworm, psoriasis, etc. I cannot praise the CUTICURA REMEDIES too much. They have made my skin as clear and free from scales as a baby's. All I used of them was $5 worth. If you had been here and said you would have cured me for $200.00 you would have had the money. I looked like the picture (No. 2, page 47) in your book, "How to Cure Skin Diseases," but now I am as clear as any person ever was. Through force of habit I rub my hands over my arms and legs to scratch once in a while, but to no purpose. I am all well. I scratched twenty-eight years, and it got to be a kind of second nature to me. I thank you a thousand times.

DENNIS DOWLING, Waterbury, Vt.

Publisher of New York, Chicago, and Atlanta, had joined the "Book Trust," which is trying to monopolize the publication of standard books, and to increase prices from 25 to 100 per cent. Mr. Alden sends us word that he has not joined the Trust, and there is not and never has been any probability of his joining it. The "Literary Revolution" which has accomplished such wonderful results within the past ten years, in popularizing literature of the highest character (no "trash" ever finds place on his list), still goes on. Instead of increasing prices, large reduction in prices has recently been made, particularly on copyright books by American authors. A catalogue of 96 pages is sent free to any applicant. One of the latest issues from his press is "Stanley's Emin Pasha Expedition," by Watters, a very handsome, large-type, illustrated volume, reduced in price from $2.00 to 50 cents. This work tells a most interesting and complete story, beginning with the conquest of the Sudan, and continuing through years of African exploration, the revolt of the Mahdi, the siege of Khartoum, with the death of Gordon, the return of Dr. Junker, besides the story of Stanley's own adventures, including his successful Relief Expedition. It is one of the best and most complete works issued upon the subject. Send Alden your address, and you will receive his 96-page catalogue, and from time to time specimen pages of his new publications. John B. Alden, Publisher, 393 Pearl St., New York, also Chicago and Atlanta.

"KNOWLEDGE." A NEW WEEKLY MAGAZINE. Knowledge, a new weekly magazine, occupies a new field, and if it accomplishes what it undertakes, it ought to be indispensable to every owner of a Cyclopaedia. It proposes to answer the almost infinite number of questions upon which one ordinarily consults a Cyclopaedia, and fails to find the answer, generally because the Cyclopaedia is not "up to date"—it was published, probably, five years ago, or, maybe, ten or more years ago. "The world moves," and the most important questions that want answers are of today, not of yesterday. For instance, Capri succeeds Bismarck as Chancellor of Germany; who is Capri? How do you pronounce his name? A terrible storm at Apis. Where is that? How do you pronounce it? A revolution in Brazil a few weeks ago. What is the new status? And so on. If you consult any Cyclopaedia, and fail to find the answer to your question, or you find authorities differing, send a post-card to Knowledge, and find your answer in the next week's issue. The magazine is published in handsome and handy form, and a complete index is promised twice a year, with bound volumes a nominal price to its subscribers. A specimen copy of the magazine will be sent free to any applicant. The price, like all the issues of this publisher, is hardly more than nominal—$1.00 a year. JOHN B. ALDEN, Publisher, 393 Pearl St., New York, also Chicago and Atlanta.
