

DENOMINATIONAL NEWS.

YARMOUTH, N. S.—Church work with us is progressing. Our Christmas sale realized $75.00. Rev. W. C. Weston has removed from Barrington, and now occupies his new residence here.—N. J.

REV. JOS. NOBLE was in town a few days ago. He is now in charge of the pastorate comprising Lower Prince William, Dumfries, Lower Queensbury and Bear Island churches. He is in good health, and is evidently enjoying his work.

LICENTIATE BONNELL has been confined to his home by illness for about ten days. He hopes to be out again in a few days.

DONATION. We hear that a number of the members of the St. John Free Baptist churches recently made a friendly call on Rev. F. Babcock who has lately moved to the city (West end) and made him a donation of $52.50.

FROM REV. S. K. WEST. The New Year finds us in good health and with tangible tokens of the good-will of our friends. On the morning of the first day of the year we enjoyed a good meeting, the presence of the Lord was with us. In the afternoon we were quite surprised and greatly pleased at seeing a loaded team drive into our yard, containing provisions for our winter needs. For this we are thankful. "Hitherto the Lord has been our helper."

Bro. Freeman's labours during his recent visit to Kemptville have been attended with good results. He baptised four, and a good spiritual interest exists. I expect to visit Riverdale this week, and then Forest Glen.

S. K. WEST.

FROM REV. J. W. FREEMAN. I spent December in Kemptville, Yarmouth Co. While there I baptised four, and others made a start. There were good indications for further revival. I could remain no longer, as I had my old pastorate in Argyle and Pubnico. The last of this month will end four years pleasantly spent on this pastorate. I enjoyed laboring with Bro. West in Kemptville. I was glad to hear him urging the claims of the INTELLIGENCER upon our people. I, too, have called and will call attention to it both in public and private.

J. W. FREEMAN.

A UNION DONATION.—On the evening of Dec. 30th a pleasant time was spent at Raymond's Hall, Port Maitland, N. S., by a good representation of Free Baptists, Baptists, and Methodists. The object of the gathering was to promote the happiness of one another in the bonds of christian fellowship, which was fully realized by all present. Bro. Harvey Perry was elected chairman, and ably filled the position. Inspiring speeches were made, which added much to the pleasure of the occasion. The Rev. Mr. Robinson's (Baptist) address was timely and much appreciated. Mrs. G. M. Wilson improved the opportunity in thanking the lady friends for their very acceptable Christmas gift to her. At an advanced hour of the evening Bro. T. W. Curry stepped forward and presented Rev. G. M. Wilson with the amount of twenty dollars, also with a bountiful donation of domestic articles, which were thankfully received. The choice selections by the choir contributed largely to the enjoyment of the evening, and to the singers a vote of thanks was extended. It was an occasion not soon to be forgotten. The friends returned home rejoicing to know that they had made the horse's load heavy but the minister's heart light.

ST. JOHN.—We are trying to enter into a generous rivalry with Fredericton as to who can keep the coolest. Last night it is said we scored 26 below the cipher. That intensity of cold, emphasized by a 20 mile breeze, made our door life not at all pleasant. It was the first time, for 21 years at least, that the annual meeting of the B. and F. Bible Society had to be postponed. It will be held on Friday 17th inst. The meetings of the week of Prayer, thus far, have been largely attended, and of fair interest. This evening they are to be held in three churches—Carmarthen, Methodist, Main St. Baptist, N. E., and Waterloo St. F. C. Baptist. Tomorrow evening the closing meeting of the series will be held with the Union St. Congregational church. One cannot help but feel, in attending these meetings, that they are lacking in the genial social element that should characterize meetings of this kind to make them enjoyable, as well as profitable. Perhaps this objection would be removed if more of the lay members of the churches, both male and female, could be induced to take part in the services.

During the past month death has entered our church circle, and two of our members have ceased from toil and entered into rest. One of them had perhaps attained the greatest age of any upon our church rolls. Brother John Stone, aged 86, went out from his surroundings here with the closing days of the old year, and began the new year in our Father's home. His end was serene and peaceful; "faithful unto death," he receives a "crown of life." The other Sister Susie, beloved wife of Conductor M. Burgess of the N. B. Railway, died in the 25th year of her age. Thus in the very prime and vigor of her young womanhood, is the "silver cord loosed and the golden bowl broken;" consumption, the disease "that wasteth at noonday," claimeth another victim. She left a sorrowing husband and a dear little girl to mourn their sad bereavement. During the lingering illness of our sister she was most graciously sustained by the Saviour she so dearly loved, and when she knew she was standing on the margin of the river of death, without a murmur or a fear, clasping the promises of Jesus to her heart, she calmly stepped into its tide and passed triumphantly to the other shore.

Sister Mary Jane Gardiner, another member of our church and widely known among our people generally as a faithful worker and consistent christian, is lying very low, also of consumption. She is patiently passive in the hands of her heavenly Father. If it is to live, she will have Christ with her, if to die, she will be with Christ. So if she has a preference, it is, like the apostle, in having a desire to depart, and be with Christ, which is far better.

The meetings of the church are very encouraging, and we are praying and looking for a special manifestation of God's power in the conversion of sinners.

As has been the case in the past years of my pastorate here, so again this year, the members of my church and congregation have made me sensible of their continued affection, by tangible expressions of their good-will sent into the parsonage in the shape of turkeys &c., and on Christmas night, at the close of our service, the members of my Bible class, accompanied a very flattering address, with the presentation of an elegant seal for cap. May God's blessings rest upon them all in my earnest prayer.

J. T. PARSONS.

KESWICK, YORK CO.—Many of the brethren have well redeemed their promises at Conference to report for the Denominational Column. But I—well, "I this day remember my fault."

Since Conference I have had so much sickness at home, and consequent increase of care, that I have had little time for anything else. My wife was taken sick before the close of Conference, and returned home seriously ill. Her illness soon developed inflammation of the heart, which brought her to death's door. By the skillful treatment of Doctors Brown, Coburn and Morehouse she partially recovered, when typhoid symptoms set in, and she was seven weeks confined to her bed. I watched by her side forty nine consecutive nights. During this time I received an injury, by being thrown from a wagon, that compelled me to go with a crutch for three weeks. Thanks to an all-merciful and kind providence, my wife is able to be about the house again, with fair prospects of restoration to her usual health. I have slight attacks of lameness occasionally in my injured limb, but nothing very serious. My pastoral engagements were renewed, immediately after Conference, with the Douglas, Marysville and Peniac churches. I have been able to keep my Sabbath day appointments with few exceptions, notwithstanding the sickness and care at home. The church at Peniac was last year numerically weakened by the withdrawal of some eleven members, who, with a few others at Marysville, were formed into a "Reformed Baptist church." It was feared that the church would have great difficulty in raising the usual salary, as two of the moneyed men were among the seceders; but to our surprise and gratification, the salary never was more promptly paid than this year. There are faithful and loyal ones left in this community, who mean to "hold the fort." They were never more united and resolute than now, determined to hold fast, without wavering, "the faith once delivered to the saints." Marysville church, also, lost a few members on account of the secession, but has sustained no serious loss. This is a loyal, determined church, possessing some members and outside friends who, for perseverance, liberality and determined purpose, cannot be excelled by any other people. Their attachment to their pastor and their liberal and thoughtful anticipation of his wants have been proverbial, and date back to the early days of the sainted Rend.

Douglas church, situated at the Mouth of Keswick, moves on in its uniformly steady pace in well doing. It is at this point that I have my very comfortable home. These people know just how to appreciate and use a resident minister. They not only faithfully pay the salary, but are ever anticipating his wants and making frequent contributions of their means for his comfort. During the last three months I have had renewed tokens of the kindness and liberality of this community, including all denominations. Vesuvius Lodge of I. O. G. T. led off by making us a donation of $30.00 the proceeds of a basket social. On the 26th ult., some fifty of our friends, members of the church and community, came to our home, took possession, spread the table, and furnished a most sumptuous tea, and, after spending a very pleasant evening retired leaving us some $35.00 richer by their fraternal visit. Subsequently Doctors Brown and Coburn made us a donation of their respective bills for medical attendance; the former, three visits from the city which would have been ordinarily $24.00; the latter, seven visits which according to regular rates would have been, including medicine supplied, some $15.00 or $20.00 or more. Such oft-repeated tokens of the kindness and sympathy of the people among whom we are permitted to live place us under deep obligations of gratitude and thankfulness.

I have held no special services yet this year in any part of my pastorate, as many of our young and middle aged men are engaged in the lumber woods for the winter.

Deaths.

GRANT.—In Palmer Settlement, C. Co., on the 17th ult., Ebenezer Grant, in the 72nd year of his age. His wife preceded him to the better land a little over a year ago. He leaves three sons four daughters, three brothers, four sisters, with a large number of relatives and friends to mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate father, a dear brother and sincere friend. He professed religion at Wakefield, in 1843, and was baptised by the late Elder Pennington. He united with the Church at Palmer Settlement, but recently worshipped with the people in Charleston, who feel that they have sustained a great loss. His earnest and soul-stirring exhortations will be long remembered by many. His sickness was quite protracted, during which time I visited him. He was resigned and trusting alone in the merits of Christ, passed peacefully away to his home on high. May the Lord graciously sustain the bereaved ones. His funeral was conducted by the writer, assisted by Revs. C. T. Phillips and H. Hartt. The esteem in which he was held was shown by the host of people that attended the funeral.

E. B. GRAY.

McDONALD.—At Mount Pleasant, C. Co. Oct. 28th, '89, Mrs. Sarah J. McDonald, widow of the late George McDonald, departed this life aged 73 years, deservedly regretted by all who knew her. She professed religion when a young woman, was baptised by the late Elder Cronkite, and united with the F. C. Baptist church at the Nashwaak, where she then lived. She and her husband moved up the river and settled at Mount Pleasant. Her husband and two children have since passed away to the better land. She leaves one daughter and one sister, with many other friends, to mourn their loss. Our dear sister, a few days before she died, expressed her confidence in God, saying she believed she had a part in the first resurrection: "On such the second death hath no power." Her funeral was attended by the Rev. S. Shaw and brother W. R. Reud.
