Let there be a prompt and sharp canvass all over the field, participated in by every one who desires the larger usefulness of the INTELLIGENCER, and the greater prosperity of the denomination and the cause it represents.

tions, dialogues, declamations and an address by Rev. Mr. Swim, who was here on an exchange with our pastor. Good music was furnished by the choir during the evening. Miss Olivia Worden, Miss Georgia Mott and Miss Lucy VanWart presiding at the organ in turn. The collection at the close was quite liberal, which goes into our mission fund. As a church we have adopted the monthly offering system for raising money for missions, and we have found it worked well. We have done more during the six months that we have been organized in this way than during several years previous to that time. I think our denomination is too indifferent about this branch of christian work. We should not allow our Treasury to be in need of funds to carry on the work. Let us be up and doing, and work while it is called "today," for the night cometh when no man can work.

Feb. 6th, 1890.

FROM REV. J. A. ROBERTSON.—Not having written since Conference to the paper, a few lines from my pen now may be of interest to some of the readers of the INTELLIGENCER. Bro. L. A. Cosman and I are labouring together this year; and we have been busy ever since Conference. We have taken the pastoral care of the church at Jerusalem, Hamilton Mountain, Oak Point, Brown's Flat, Kingston and Kars. This makes a quite large field for us to go over. It has been hard weather to get to our appointments, but we have made out to be at them so far. I am enjoying preaching to these churches, and find the people good and kind and attentive listeners to the word of life. I am hoping to see much good done on the whole field. There have been some sad things for me to witness; one of the saddest was the death of young Daniel Fiewelling at Oak Point, a young man that I had come to think very much of during our short acquaintance. I understood that the Sabbath morning he was drowned he started to come to my meeting at Brown's Flat; but in a short time after he left his home he was a corpse. In the afternoon I visited the home and my heart was deeply moved to see that widowed mother and two sisters weeping over their loss. There were many kind friends who felt the loss keenly. He was a good and kind young man to his mother and sisters, and all whom I have heard speak of him in that community seemed to regret the loss of such a fine young man. His cousin also got in the ice, but was rescued after being in the water about twenty minutes. He was very much chilled when taken out. Bro. Jacob Cosman of Kingston church has been quite low for some time; he is deacon of our church there, and one of our best men. Sabbath evening the 12th, after preaching I went to his home and he wished me to administer the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, which I did. There was a number present, and the Lord was present with us. Many prayers have been offered for Bro. Cosman's recovery: we hope all the brethren will earnestly pray for our brother. I was away last Sabbath to Beaver Harbour to see some of my old friends, and I enjoyed it much. I met Bro. Rideout there, and had the pleasure of hearing him preach one part of the day, and in the evening I spoke. There was a large congregation. I am at home now, and am not feeling very well. Several of our family are sick with the prevailing influenza.

JOHN A. ROBERTSON.

BEAVER HARBOUR, CH. CO.—I send a few lines for the INTELLIGENCER. I am still at Beaver Harbor. We have not had much revival lately. We had some special meetings the first of January, and some of the church members were revived, and we hope impressions were made on those who never professed religion. We are working away, trying to "hold the fort." There has been considerable sickness here this winter; La Grippe has visited most of the families, but there have been no deaths, and most of the sick are getting better. The fisherman are quite discouraged about the scarcity of fish; forty or fifty strong men have been waiting for five or six weeks, hoping that every day would bring the fish, but still the fish do not come; it makes times dull and money scarce. Rev. John Robertson came here on the seventeenth of January and stayed till after Sabbath. I was glad to see him and enjoyed his company and hearing him preach. I have not done as much for the INTELLIGENCER as I would like to have done, but I have recommended it to all the families in the place, and I hope more of them will take it. I have always liked the INTELLIGENCER, and I want to say that I like it better and better. I am very glad to hear from all the brethren who write in it, and hope that all will write as often as they can. I was quite impressed while reading the last INTELLIGENCER. I read the death of four deacons of Free Baptist churches. I was well acquainted with Deacon John Foster from the time he professed religion, he was a good man and a loyal Free Baptist; his house was home for me and all the servants of God. May God bless his family. Last night I received a letter from Mrs. Rideout saying that deacon Joseph Crain of the Bumfrah church was dead. Brother Crain was one of my best friends, and the Lord knows how many times he supplied my wants. May God bless the mourning widow and the six fatherless boys; my God reward them for all the dear father's kindness to me is the prayer of my heart. And may the Lord raise up young men to take the places of those he is calling away to the better land, and may we all be ready when the Master calls us down from the walls of Zion. It is grand to die in the Lord. My wife writes me that brother Crain was very happy in the Lord; she visited him a few days before his death and said it was good to hear him tell of the wondrous love of Jesus. Pray for us that God may bless his cause in Beaver Harbour.

Dear Sirs:—I took a severe cold in February last which settled in my back and kidneys, causing excruciating pain. After being without sleep four nights, through intense suffering, I tried your MINARD'S LINIMENT. 'La Grippe' or Lightning Catarrh.

MR. EDITOR.—"La grippe" or Russian influenza, as it is termed, is in reality an epidemic catarrh, and is called by some physicians "lightning catarrh," from the rapidity with which it sweeps over the country. Allow us to draw the attention of your readers to the fact that Nasal Balm, as well as being a thorough cure for all cases of the ordinary cold in the head and catarrh, will give prompt relief in even the most severe cases of "la grippe" or Russian influenza, as it will effectually clear the nasal passages, allay irritation and relieve the dull, oppressive headache accompanying the disease. No family should be without a bottle of Nasal Balm in the house, as cold in the head and catarrh are peculiarly liable to attack people at this season of the year, and Nasal Balm is the only prompt and speedy cure for these troubles ever offered to the public. Easy to use and agreeable. If you cannot get it at your dealers it will be sent post free on receipt of price (50 cents and $1 per bottle) by addressing

There is no one article in the line of medicine that gives so large a return for the money as a good porous strengthening plaster, such as Carter's Smart Weed and Belladonna Backache Plasters.

The great lung healer is found in that excellent medicine sold as Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It soothes and diminishes the sensibility of the membrane of the throat and air passages, and it is a sovereign remedy for all coughs, colds, hoarseness, pain or soreness in the chest, bronchitis, etc. It has cured many when supposed to be far advanced in consumption.

Mr. W. Thayer, Wright, P. Q. had Dyspepsia for 20 years. "Tried many remedies and doctors, but got no relief. His appetite was very poor, had a distressing pain in his side and stomach and gradual wasting away of flesh, when he heard of, and immediately commenced taking, Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. The pains have left and he rejoices in the enjoyment of excellent health, in fact he is quite a new man."

Dyspepsia or Indigestion is occasioned by the want of action in the biliary ducts, loss of vitality in the stomach to secrete the gastric juices, without which digestion cannot go on; also, being the principal cause of Headache, Paramelee's Vegetable Pills taken before going to bed, for a while, never fail to give relief and effect a cure. Mr. F. W. Ashdown, Ashdown, Ont., writes: "Paramelee's Pills are taking the lead against ten other makes which I have in stock."

Marriages.

Deaths.

LUTZ.—At Moncton, on the 16th January, after a short illness, Mr. John N. Lutz, aged 77 years. Deceased was a much respected resident of Lutz Mountain, W. Co.

BARNES.—At Salisbury, W. Co., Jan. 31st, at the residence of her son, H. C. Barnes, Mary Barnes, widow of the late Capt. Stephen Barnes, died of the late Capt. Stephen Barnes, leaving 2 sons, 4 daughters, one brother and a very large circle of friends to mourn their loss. Our deceased sister experienced religion and was baptized at Salisbury, N. B., by the late Rev. Wm. Sears when he was 17 years of age, and united with the Baptist church at that place. She has been in failing health for some years, consumption having laid its hold upon her some time ago. For several months she has been residing with her son at Salisbury, and as the Baptist church there is without a pastor, at her request I visited her, and was glad to find her enjoying the presence of her divine Saviour; and at her request, a few days before her death, I administered the ordinance of the Lord's Supper, which was a precious season to her.

The funeral on the 2nd inst., was very largely attended; appropriate services were conducted by the writer, who realized in some measure the truth of that scripture, "Blessed are the dead, that die in the Lord."—A. C. T.

CLYNNICK.—At Central Southampton, on the 21st of January, Amanda M. Clynnick, aged 24 years, youngest daughter of George and Loretta Clynnick, died of the late George and Loretta Clynnick, leaving 2 sons, 4 daughters, one brother and a very large circle of friends to mourn their loss. At the age of fourteen the deceased was converted, she was baptized and united with the Free Baptist church at Central Southampton, and was a worthy member. She was a pious young woman and adorned her holy profession by a well ordered life and a godly conversation. Her life attested to the fact that she loved Jesus; she walked worthy of the Lord, her life was hid with Christ in God. She was a favourite with her associates, and was respected and beloved by a large circle of friends. She was a regular attendant at the services of the Sanctuary, and when opportunity was given was ready to testify for Jesus. She presided efficiently at the organ, and sang sweetly the praises of God. We shall miss her in the house of God. She was loyal to the church of her choice, and deeply interested in all its work. She was well fitted for her work as a school teacher, and for five terms she taught at home. She was taken sick Christmas day. In the morning she was at church, and in the afternoon was taken ill. At rest she was laid in her grave, and was buried after a few days she seemed to get worse; a doctor was called and he said she had a heavy cold and needed rest, and thought after a few days she would be better. And she did get a little better, but suddenly there came a day and she gradually began to fail. Her pastor visited her often, she seemed anxious to live if it was the Lord's will; she was very patient, and not once was she heard to murmur. She was graciously sustained; she met death calmly, and at the last peacefully fell asleep in Jesus. The pastor of the church was away at the time of her death, and in his absence Rev. C. T. Phillips conducted the funeral service. He preached an excellent sermon from Rev. 3:5. The funeral service was conducted by the writer, assisted by Rev. Jos. Noble. Text 1 Tim. 4:16.
G. SWIM.

HALLET.—At Bear Island, on the 2nd inst., of Cancer, Annie E. daughter of the late James Hallett, aged 33 years leaving a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. The deceased professed faith in Christ 16 years ago, was baptized by the late Rev. J. E. Reid, and united with the Free Baptist church at Bear Island. She was a consistent Christian life, and was ready at all times to give a reason of the hope within her. She was taken sick about two years ago, and at intervals during her sickness she suffered great pain, but she was graciously sustained, and when the end came she peacefully fell asleep in Jesus. The funeral service was conducted by the writer, assisted by Rev. Jos. Noble. Text 1 Tim. 4:16.

GARDINER.—On the 24th of January, in Saint John, of consumption, Mary Jane Gardiner, aged 42 years. Twenty three years ago, in a revival of religion at Hampton, N. S., under the labours of Rev. G. A. Hartley, with a large number of others, our dear sister gave her heart to Christ, was baptized and united with the F. C. Baptist Church at that place. She remained an active and highly esteemed member of that church until her removal to Saint John, when she transferred her membership to the church in this City. Her Christian life was characterized by a constancy, firmness, earnestness and loving faithfulness that was to her a perpetual adornment. To know the will of her heavenly Master and to do it, was her highest ambition, and in earnest prayer. For a number of years her health has been gradually failing; frequently she has seemed to "brush the dew from Jordan's banks," and loved friends have again and again felt that the "crossing was very near;" but the Lord mercifully spared her to give him twenty-three years of willing, efficient service. Her affection for the denomination of her choice, and her uncompromising loyalty to its principles, were ardent and unshaken; and in all its work for the extension of the Redeemer's Kingdom it had her hearty sympathy and earnest prayers. At the General Conference of last autumn, held at the church in Saint John, she was permitted to give her attendance, and in the meeting on Saturday morning gave a clear and strong testimony for Christ. Even had she known that never again would she assemble at yearly meeting with God's people, her testimony of the faithfulness of God in the fulfilment of his promise, and earnest entreaty for sinners to be reconciled to God, could not have been more emphatic, or pathetically earnest. She was permitted to meet with her brethren and sisters in the church in Saint John only once after her return to the city. In the conference meeting of November she gave us her last report and what proved to be her dying testimony. Almost immediately she was confined to her bed, from which she never arose until she left the sheltered tabernacle of clay, and entered the "house not made with hands." During her lingering illness she was peaceful and patient, resting upon the promises of the Gospel with such sweet assurance, that no doubt dimmed her vision and no fear marred her enjoyment. She talked of her death, which she knew was only a question of a few hours, with the same joyous anticipation that a home-sick child would talk of being speedily restored to the affectionate embrace of loved ones at home. She was clear in her thought up to the very last, and peacefully fell asleep in Jesus. It was her request to be buried at her old home in Hampton, and also that her pastor should officiate on the occasion. All this was conducted in accordance with her wish. On Saturday, the 25th ult., at 3 o'clock, p. m., a sermon was preached by the writer in the F. C. B. church at Hampton, to a large and sympathetic audience. Sister Gardiner leaves two brothers and three sisters, all of them deeply feeling their bereavement. There is much of which death can rob us, but thank God it cannot touch the rich treasures of the soul, the service rendered, the triumphs won, the graces inherited, the hearts converted, the souls saved—these treasures it cannot reach. All that was wise in thought, noble in purpose, beautiful in spirit, rich in experience, sacred in memory, our sister carried with her into the Spirit world, while she leaves behind her the fragrance of a godly life and the wealth of a pious example; She rests from her labours, and her work do follow her.—J. Y. P.

ROBERTS.—Miss R. Annie Roberts, died in Lynn, Mass., Jan. 8th, aged 32 years. She was born in Kemptville, Yarmouth Co., N. S. She gave her heart to the Lord, and together with her sister, was baptized by the Rev. Chas. Knowles and joined the Free Baptist Church in Kemptville. Ten years ago she came to Lynn. Her death was sudden and her sufferings great, which she bore bravely and was resigned to die although wishing to live. Her funeral was largely attended and the love of her shop-mates and friends was manifested in the beautiful floral tokens which adorned her casket, one piece—the gates ajar, being most beautiful, the masses of the flowers and smiling being crowned by a white dove and the words "our friend." Sister Annie leaves a father and mother, two brothers and sisters, with a host of friends to mourn her loss. She rests in peace.—W. J. T.

KIMBAL.—At Jacksonville, C. Co., on the 13th Jan., William Kimbal, aged 36 years, leaving a widow and three children to mourn their loss. Bro. Kimbal professed religion and was baptized by his uncle, Rev. G. T. Hartley, and united with the F. C. Baptist church at Third Tier, when only 10 years of age. His illness was long and severe, but was borne with patience and resignation to the Divine will. His hope and faith were strong, and until he grew too weak to talk, his words cheered the Christian and warned the unconverted who visited him. With the utmost composure he made arrangements for his funeral, selecting the text to be used—Rev. 3:6. The funeral was unusually large and impressive.—C. T. P.

CRANE.—At Bumfrah, C. Co., on the 27th ult., Joseph Crane, aged 52 years. A widow and six sons, a widowed mother, three brothers and eight grandchildren. His health had been failing for a year, and for several months he knew that his days were numbered. But with great calmness, confidence and even joy he met death triumphing through Christ whom he loved and whom he had served faithfully for many years. Thirty-four years ago he was converted, and was baptized by Rev. E. Sippell. For many years he was deacon of the Bumfrah Free Baptist church, and was a true and devoted member. He was a leader in the life and work of the church. Rev. J. J. Barnes, pastor of the church, being unable on account of illness to attend the funeral, the services were conducted by the writer. The sermon was from a text selected by the deceased brother—Isa. 60:20. There was a large attendance of people who sincerely mourn the death of a good man.
E. B. GREY.

WHAT THEY SAY

is the name of a small circular which we have just issued, giving a few quotations from customers about the musical instruments which they bought from us during our first year in the Piano and Organ business.

We have also printed thereon the names of all who purchased a Piano from us, and about three-fourths of our Organ customers. Perhaps you will know some of them and would like to have their opinion of the instruments they have. If so, send us your name and post office address on a postal card, and add whether you want a Piano or Organ, then we will mail you a copy of

and also an illustrated catalogue.

We have been doing very well since New Year's, amongst the rest selling two Pianos in St. John against the strong local competition. Reason why? we sell a good piano and sell it at a reasonable profit.

If you would like to have one of our salesman call to see you write to that effect to
