

when we die we will have Elder E. preach our funeral sermon, and he will preach us right into heaven." Where there is any doubt about the reality of the conversion of the deceased, fidelity to Christ's cause demands that their future be left to the "Judge of all earth," who "will do right." Faithfulness to the living also requires a like course, lest their fears of the danger which Christ declares to await them be hushed, and they be comforted with a comfort which is not of God.

DENOMINATIONAL NEWS.

CENTRAL ARGYLE, N. S.—The new F. B. Church at Central Argyle is being rapidly pushed to completion by the energetic contractor, Mr. Nelson Corning. It will make a very creditable appearance, and a comfortable and commodious place of worship.

RESIGNED.—Bro. Geo. A. Downey, who has for the past year been labouring with the churches at Port Medway and Port Mouton, N. S., has resigned his charge, and will seek a new field.

REV. J. J. BARNES, accompanied by his wife, has gone to Grand Manan on a short vacation. Bro. B. needs a rest and we hope will benefit much by his short holiday.

HOME MISSION REPORT.—To Rev. J. T. Parsons, corresponding Secretary for Home Missions:—

The interest on my mission continues to increase. Bro. Barnes and myself exchanged pulpits last Sunday. We baptised three converts and received them into the Long Island Church.

For the month I report sixty christian calls, seventeen sermons and two prayer meetings, collected $1.72 for the mission. Pray for the Tobique field.

FRANK A. CURRIER.

FROM REV. J. J. BARNES.—On the 30th July our people at Lower Perth, V. Co., held a Sunday school picnic and raised $90.00 which goes to paying for their organ and Sunday school library.

Bumfrah and Canaan have each purchased a library for their schools. The interest in all our Sunday schools is steadily increasing, and the work is very encouraging.

On the 17th inst., three were baptized and received into the church at Long Island, Tobique.

J. J. BARNES.

FROM REV. J. NOBLE.—After returning from Perth I spent one Sunday on my circuit, the morning at Bear Island, the afternoon at Lower Kennebec. Monday morning I left for Stanley, and got there Tuesday at noon. Found the friends all well and evidently glad to see me. Wednesday and Thursday I visited as many as I could. Friday I attended the funeral of Michael Dennison, 82 years old. He moved from Nashwaak years ago. He leaves a wife, sons and daughters to mourn their loss. The funeral was largely attended. Saturday I visited two sick people, and Sunday attended three meetings, but only preached twice. Brother Carpenter preached in the morning. He is doing well among the people. In the evening I received him into the church and gave him license. They have made a good start on their meeting house. They are doing well. I think it would be right for the Mission Board to help them.

Sept. 3rd, '90. J. NOBLE.

HOULTON.—The INTELLIGENCER editor's presence reminded me of my promise. Retrospection revealed that I had not sent an article during August. Though I have sent no account of my work, I have not been idle; and yet the work has been so ordinary that there seems to be little to report.

On Aug. 24th I had the happy privilege of doing what I had never before done. Five young ladies followed the Lord in baptism, and four of them were received into the church. The interest on my charge is at least promising. Both of the churches in Hodgdon are rousing to work. God willing, I will begin special services next week in the First Hodgdon Church.

In our prayer meeting last night in this place one young man returned to Christ, and others in the meeting were deeply affected. There are difficulties but if all would unite, the things which now hinder us would soon be removed. But with unwavering faith, there are some who intend to "hold the fort" and exalt the Saviour. Victory shall be ours, in due time.

The Sabbath School County Convention assembled last week with us. Many were hindered by reason of the exceedingly wet weather, but 95 delegates were present, and the session, though not so enthusiastic as last year's was at least as profitable. It is the opinion of the writer that Aroostock is leading the van in S. S. work. We mean this next year not to slacken our efforts but if possible make this branch of christian work more progressive and fruitful. We hear that as yet no one has been secured to fill the Fredericton pulpit of the F. B. Church.

Where is the man? Whom has God called to that field? Oh that we had many young men, whose hearts were open to this work of the ministry. No grander field for the display of ability. No greater chance for the display of self-sacrifice. No richer field for enduring reward. Men rush into law or medicine till the market is glutted, and only a few succeed, but in the ministry is an opening for earnest heart work, and it is the only profession not crowded. Men have been called. What we want are men willing to obey the call.

J. E. GOSLINE.

Sept. 3: 90.

FROM REV. G. M. WILSON.—I am settled down to my studies once more in Lewiston. To-night my mind goes off on a journey, gathering up the dear ones to whom I ministered for thirteen months on the Beaver River pastorate, N. S. How strong ties of christian friendship had formed I did not realize until the time drew near for my return to school. Only christian experience can produce this blessed fellowship of the saints. Frequently the presence of various ministers, from adjacent parts of the country was refreshing, like "cool water to a thirsty soul." The community at large paid their tribute of love to me as a servant of God. The medical doctor of Port Maitland rendered his valuable services gratis. The financial receipts were far in advance of the anticipation of the brethren. The crowning event in those months labor was the baptism of converts, among them two promising young men, who will, I trust, "let their light so shine before men that others seeing their good works may glorify their Father which is in heaven." And the last Sabbath spent there it was my privilege to lead down into the water a young girl who has forsaken father and mother, home and friends for the gospel's sake. Having been trained up a French Catholic and trusting fully in that creed for salvation, she did not see her state and standing before God, until she heard the gospel preached on my first Sabbath at that place. Would to God that the mass of unconverted protestants who attend church worship so regularly would as gladly obey their Saviour's command.

God bless the friends who so liberally assisted me in a needy hour. My heart's desire and prayer to God for them is, that they may speedily have a servant of God who will lead them out into green pastures and beside the still waters. Amen.

G. W. WILSON.

Deaths.

SLIPP.—On Monday, Aug. 25th, Deacon Geo. L. Slipp, of Sussex, passed suddenly away. Of late Bro. Slipp's health has been better than for some years, and we were all hoping that we would be permitted to enjoy his presence among us for some time yet but God saw otherwise and He, who is too wise to make any mistakes, gave him his release and took him away home.

Bro Slipp was converted when only a boy, under the labours of the late Rev. W. E. Pennington; he lived until he was nearly seventy-one years of age, and all these long years has been doing valiant service for the cause of Christ, an interest which became in his late years a part of his very nature. When a man, who for seventy long years has been giving faithful service to God, country, church and home dies, there is certainly cause for gratulation as well as for lamentation. It is gratifying to think that God gave him such a long life and so many opportunities for doing good, that he has been as Isaiah expresses it, taken away from the evil to come, and that he has at last entered it to rest. On the other hand we are all sad, and to think that henceforth we will have to do without Bro. Slipp. We shall miss his example, which shown in word and work; we shall miss his services; the denomination the church at Sussex and many individuals shall miss his wise counsels, his earnest efforts and his generous charity. He has gone, others are left; when G-d
