A Singer's Royal Guest.

HOW MADAME ALBANI ENTERTAINS QUEEN VICTORIA AT AN INFORMAL TEA.

Once every summer Queen Victoria drives over from her Balmoral Castle to the Scottish Highlands home of Madame Albani-Gye, the famous prima-donna, where the latter entertains her at an informal tea. For years the Queen has made a practice of this, a compliment which Her Majesty her Refined Iron; her woman in the 160 bars Refined Iron. ent matter. Subscription, $1.00 per bestows upon no other woman in the kingdom. It is a return for Madame Albani's appearance each year at Court to sing before the Queen, and to the prima-donna it affords an exceptional glimpse of England's royal sovereign. No outsiders are ever present, says Madame Albani, and I see Victoria as
