Edward Long, of Ludlow, Northumberland County, met with an accident in the woods a short time since. He was felling a tree and it struck another in falling and slipped back catching his leg between the knee and ankle crushing the bone. It is not as yet known whether amputation may be necessary.

Rev. Mr. Mathers has returned from his hunt for the lad William Apt, who stole $500 and a lot of valuable papers from the Wiggins Male Orphan Asylum a short time ago. He was unsuccessful in his search, but entertains strong hopes that the police will capture the in the shaft and she was instantly out Germany. young thief.

Nearly all those injured in the mill explosion at South Bay have recovered. On Thursday the young man Armstrong, who was so badly scalded, was discharged from the hospital and taken to his home in Carleton. He is improving rapidly and will be around soon again. The lad P. Harrington, who was badly crushed, is still at the hospital and will be for some time, but he, too, is getting better.

Report reaches the Truro News of a sad affair at Taylorville, Upper Stewiacke, recently. A woman named Bates bolstered her babe up in a cradle near the stove to remain while she attended to the milking. On her return she found the babe enveloped in flames caused by the three-year-old boy playing with fire, and setting fire to the cradle clothes. The child was so terribly burned that it died in a few hours thereafter.
