

OUR SCHOOLS.—The report of the Chief Superintendent of Education is out. It appears from the tables given that, compared with the corresponding term in the previous year there was a gain in the first term of 17 schools, 48 teachers and 2,286 pupils. In the second term there was a gain, computed on the same basis, of 12 schools and 20 teachers. Much and long continued sickness among the young caused a decrease in the number of pupils of 1249 for this term. The number of schools, teachers, and pupils is given in the following table:

	Sec. Term.	First Term.
Schools.....	1,665	1,517
Teachers.....	1,657	1,617
Pupils.....	56,385	58,570

The number of different pupils in attendance during the year was 68,523. Mr. Crockett is, however, far from being satisfied with the number of pupils enrolled, or with the percentage of enrolled pupils who find their way regularly to the school house.

The superintendent thinks that not less than twenty five per cent. of the youth of the province between the ages of five and fifteen are deriving no direct benefit from the school system, while of those enrolled not much more than half are daily present.

FARMERS' ASSOCIATION.—The Provincial Farmers' Association met in this city on Tuesday of last week. The attendance was fair. Various subjects of interest to farmers were discussed. Sheepraising was considered, and the following resolution adopted:

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this meeting that sheep husbandry is an important and profitable branch of farming, and should be engaged in to a greater extent than at present by the farmers of New Brunswick; and further, that the municipal authorities should pass and enforce such by-laws as are necessary for the protection of sheep against depredations by dogs; and it is further

Resolved, Should there be an importation of sheep, for breeding purposes, that among the different breeds adapted to our country we especially recommend the Shropshire Down, Cotswold and Leicester.

Prof. Robertson, of the Experimental Farm, Ottawa, was present and made an address. Governor Tilley, also, attended and spoke. The officers for the ensuing year are:

Howard B. Trueman, president; W. W. Hubbard, cor. secretary; J. F. Fletcher, treasurer; W. J. Owens, recording secretary; Vice-presidents—J. H. Reid, York county; Chas. L. Smith, Kings county; Capt. H. M. Campbell, Carleton county; Peleg Smith, Queens county; B. Taylor, Westmorland county; David Curry, Victoria county; J. D. Wilmot, Sunbury county; J. S. Magee, Charlotte county; J. B. Ham, St. John county; Ezra Steeves, Albert county; Theo. Goto, Kent county; J. Barbare, Restigouche county.

Finance committee—Messrs. Alward, White and Peters. Programme committee—H. B. Trueman, W. J. Owens and W. W. Hubbard.

THIRTY THOUSAND.—The Provincialists in Boston and vicinity have contributed $30,000 to the fund for the relief of the Spring Hill sufferers.

CHURCH BURNED.—The Knox Presbyterian church in St. Mary's, Ont., was burned to the ground on Tuesday of last week. Loss $15,000.

MORMON EMIGRATION.—There is a very considerable movement among the Mormons in Utah looking toward emigration to Chihuahua in Mexico, where they have secured a tract of land 125 miles long and 15 miles wide. It is estimated that some two thousand families will leave Utah in the course of the coming season.

LA GRIPE.—According to the report of the Board of Health of New York 5,000 persons died of LaGrippe in that state in 1890.

INSANE.—Justice Stephen, one of the most distinguished judges of England for many years, has become insane, and is obliged to leave the bench, but will be retired on a pension equal to his salary, which is $25,000 a year. The judge has been a great worker, and one of the highest criminal authorities in England.

MR. BLAKE'S first letter was understood by some to mean that he was in favour of the political union of Canada and the United States. A second letter from him denies that he meant this, and says that he does not regard political union with the United States as our "ideal" or "as yet inevitable" future. Whereupon the Canada Presbyterian makes the following very pertinent suggestion:

"Perhaps the honourable gentleman may find time before long to take his countrymen into his confidence and tell them what he does think would be our ideal state of political existence. No one should know better than the Hon. Edward Blake that destructive criticism of proposed remedies will not cure the ills of the body politic. When he has hurled his last shaft at the N. P., and said all that can be said against Unrestricted Reciprocity, there will still be five millions of people here who must be governed in some way. If Mr. Blake knows of anything better than our present state of political existence, he should lay his plan before his countrymen at once. A patriotic citizen is always willing to say what he thinks is best for his country."

TWINE.—The statement is made that it costs the United States Government $72,000 a year for twine to tie up the mail packages.

GOT A VERDICT. In Guelph, Ont., a man named Clark while intoxicated was killed by a train. His widow sued the brewer at whose place her husband got drunk. The case was tried last week, and she got a verdict of $750 damages against the brewer.

ANDRE CUSHING. In the death of Mr. Andre Cushing last week St. John loses one of its most public spirited citizens and enterprising business men. He has always taken an intelligent and active interest in the temperance reform and will be much missed in the councils of temperance workers.

Kid Gloves and Handkerchiefs for Easter at John J. Weddall's.

CANADA FISH.—At the exhibition in Jamaica the 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th prizes for dry and pickled fish were taken by Canadian firms.

NOT ENFORCED.—The "Presbyterian Witness" says the liquor law in Halifax is not carried out with any approach to efficiency. The authorities seem to excel in illustrating "how not to do it."

AN EXAMPLE FOR CHRISTIANS.—Both the ancient Jews and the heathen of to-day set an example of liberality to Christians. Look at the Jews—their costly service and liberal contributions for the tabernacle and temple. Look at the heathen. "I once visited the Rajah of Burdwan," writes Rev. J. J. Weibrecht, "and found him sitting in his treasury. Fifty bags of money, containing $500 each, were placed before him. 'What are you doing with all that money?' He replied, 'It is for my god. One part is sent to Benares, where I have two fine temples on the river side, and many priests who pray for me; another part goes to Juggernaut, and a third to Gaya.' And thus one native is spending $25,000 annually from his income on idle Brahmins."

SUNDRIES.—According to statistical reports 130,000 married women are engaged in business pursuits in Germany. It is stated that fifteen ministers are employed on the daily press of New York City. The raisin growers of Fresno County, Cal., expect to realize $4,000,000 this year for their crop. The snow fall in Colorado and New Mexico this season is the greatest for twenty years. In sixteen cities of Virginia the negroes own property worth $3,324,542, the greater part of which is in real estate. A Kansan, 99 years old, has just secured a pension. He feels that his days were shortened by exposure in the army. It is reported that $40,000,000 of British capital is invested in Paraguay. The London atmosphere is slowly destroying Cleopatra's Needle. More than 5,000 people were run over in London during the year 1889. Telephonic communications between London and Paris is a recent modern improvement. Rev. Phillips Brooks, D. D., is now Acting Bishop of the Diocese of Massachusetts.

Literary Notes.
THE COLUMBIAN CYCLOPEDIA.—The Columbian Encyclopedia is the new name and new form of what has heretofore been known as Alden's Manifest Encyclopedia, and which has won great popularity by its high merit, combined with its amazingly low price. The Columbian Encyclopedia will comprise 32 volumes, of about 800 pages each (the Manifest was 40 vols., of 640 pages each), being about equal in size to Appleton's Encyclopedia, and about 50 per cent. larger than Johnson's. The entire set will contain about 7,000 illustrations; it is very handsomely printed and bound, and, like the Manifest, is almost fabulously cheap, the entire set being furnished in cloth binding for $25.00, with easy installment terms to those who want them. Of course, subscriptions to the Manifest will be completed in uniform style with the early volumes delivered.

Whoever is interested in cyclopedias will do well to secure (free) specimen pages of the Columbian, which may be had by addressing The Columbian Publishing Co., 393 Pearl St., New York, or 242 Wabash Ave., Chicago. In the March number of The Homiletic Review the paper, "Regeneration," will prove interesting to all readers. "The Divine Authority of Scripture versus Rationalistic Criticism," concludes series which has won high commendation. Dr. Pierson gives some new suggestions in behalf of a thorough "Study of the English Bible" in colleges and seminaries. "Pastoral Visiting," by Dr. John Hall, ably sets forth the benefits of this work. In the Sermonic Section there are "Sight and Faith," "Blessed and Tragic Unconsciousness," "The Religion Man Needs," and "The Unknown Quantity in Christ," "Easter Selections" from a new and attractive feature. The "Living Issues" treat "Coffee Houses in Cities," "Exchanging Views" and "Editorial Notes" are full of suggestive items, and "Blue Monday," with its anecdotes, gives a pleasant finish. The "Prayer-Meeting," "Palmer," "European" and other permanent departments are sustained.

Littell's Living Age. The numbers of The Living Age for February 28th and March 7th contain American Fiction, Edinburgh; Gaspard de Coligny, Church Quarterly; Aristotle as a Naturalist, Contemporary; The Father of all the Goats, and The Decline of Indian Taste, Nineteenth Century; Nonconformists and Unionism, Fortnightly; Random Roaming, and An Evening with Schliemann, Notional; The Education of Genius, English Illustrated; Voltaire and his First Exile, Temple Bar; Maxims for Novel Writers, Murray's; A Pompeii in Bohemia, Cornhill; My Witches Caldron, Macmillan; Meisnioner, Saturday Review; Frozen to Death, St. James Gazette; Royal Surmises, Speaker; Modern Fighting and Firearms, Army and Navy Gazette; with instalments of "Madeleine's Story," "The Shrouded Watcher," and poetry. For fifty-two numbers of sixty-four large pages each (or more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($8) is low. Littell & Co., Boston, publishers.

Deaths.
COATES.—At Graves' Settlement, W. Co., on the 9th inst., Beverly M. Coates, aged 21 months. Funeral on the 11th. May God bless and comfort our bereaved brother and sister.—A. C. T.

DAVIDSON.—At Portage, King's Co., on the 14th inst., after a lingering illness of about two months, John Davidson, of heart disease, in the 71st year of his age, leaving two brothers, three children, eight grand-children and numerous other relatives and friends to mourn their loss. Our deceased brother was born and brought up on the Portage, and about 40 years ago settled for himself on the place where he has since lived and where he died. By his industry, perseverance and good management, he had succeeded in gathering about him one of the finest properties on the Portage. He was a good citizen, an obliging neighbor, and was highly respected by the entire community. He was a member of the Church of England, having been confirmed by Bishop Medley about 15 years ago, and he remained a member of that church up to his death. I was glad to learn from him, when calling upon him during his illness, that he had a good hope as to the future. He rested on the right foundation—Christ and His atoning work. His funeral on the 14th was conducted by the writer; the services were solemn and impressive. Out of respect to the church to which our brother belonged, I used the burial service at the grave.—A. C. T.

BREWER.—Mrs. Eulalia Brewer, wife of Alonzo G. Brewer, died in Brookline, Wednesday, March 11th, aged 30 years and 10 months. She was the daughter of Zebulon and Mary Ann Birmingham, and was born at Victoria Corner, New Brunswick, in May, 1860. From early childhood she was religiously inclined, and at the age of 15 years made a public profession of religion, and engaged in the active duties of the Christian life. Married at the early age of 17, she met with womanly judgment the responsibilities of the conjugal relation. Though modest and retiring, she won the favor of acquaintances and made lasting friendships. Her religious experience was clear and assuring, characterized by steady confidence rather than joyousness. She was devoted to her family, and to the church, generous to the poor, and abundant in unselfish labors for those needing her aid. Many, stimulated by her example to consistent living, will long remember her unblemished life. Her health became impaired about two years ago, and for months constantly declined, till, in the early spring of '90, she left Brookline for her native place in the place of her nativity. Familiar scenes and the greetings of friends ever dear, seemed for a time to give renewed strength, but the insidious foe did not relinquish his grasp. In cloud and sunshine, relentless consumption was doing its fatal work. Soon after her return to Brookline, last autumn, she showed encouraging signs of returning vitality, but these were illusive. A stern battle for life was waged from that time until her decease. At times her suffering was severe, but her patience was equal to the intensity of the struggle. She endured without a murmur. In all the trying contest she expressed strong confidence in the Lord, and showed a Christian spirit of surrender to his will. Her light and joy increased as the final hour approached, and just before her departure she expressed unusual animation and joy as in the presence of the glorious Saviour.

KEITH.—At Corn Hill, K. Co., on the 13th inst., Deacon John Keith, in the 71st year of his age, leaving a wife, 8 children, twenty-three grand-children, other relatives, and a very large circle of friends to mourn their loss. Our deceased brother came to Corn Hill (removing from Butter-nut Ridge to that place), about 45 years ago. He settled on a small farm, and with an energy that ever characterized him, he very soon brought it from forest under tillage. About 35 years ago he experienced religion, and was baptized by Rev. Joseph Noble. He was one of the original members of the Corn Hill church. About seven years ago he was elected one of its deacons. He continued a loved and honored member and officer of that church up to his death, which was simply a transfer from the Corn Hill church to the church triumphant in glory. About 19 months ago our brother was stricken down by a severe shock of paralysis, from which it was then thought he could not recover, but his strong constitution stood him well in hand, and he slowly recovered from it. Last summer and fall he was able to do considerable work; and during the winter his general health was fairly good. About 24 hours before his death he complained of a distressed feeling in his chest, but continued about the house as usual; a few moments before noon Friday he laid down on the lounge, and shortly after his wife came in and found him peacefully and quietly breathing his last, entering into that "rest prepared for the people of God." The funeral on the 15th, was very largely attended. Text, Job 5:26, "Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn cometh in his season." Services were conducted by the writer.—A. C. T.
