

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Royal Baking Powder

mence the following Friday. Tarried one night with Bro. George Recker. Next morning he went with me two or three miles to visit a young sister who had been sick for some time; we found her peaceful and happy. Going on to Midland I visited Sister Sharp who has been and yet is a great sufferer from cancer. She is, however, strong in the faith. Years ago I had the privilege of leading her into the baptismal waters. I took tea with brother and sister Walker, and then went to Norton and tarried the night with brother Milton McLeod and family. Next morning it rained, and I spent the time with brother T. Vau-wart and family. In the afternoon drove to Peticoe where I was kindly received by brother and sister Thompson. Spent the next day visiting some old friends there. I met Brother J. N. Barnes on his way to the District Meeting. We left in company the next morning for Coverdale, the place of meeting. I was kindly received at the old home of Brother Leeman. Although the father has gone to rest, the son, who was a boy when I first visited there, is now the head of the house and makes it the hospitable home of God's servants. The aged mother who is still alive but blind and very feeble remembered me. At 2 o'clock the District Meeting began, a report of which has already been given. On Monday I left in company with Bro. Barnes for Cornhill, where we spent Monday and Tuesday; we had meetings in the evenings and visited through the day. I missed many of the old people, but to my joy found the sons and daughters taking the places of the fathers and mothers and holding the inheritance they laboured to secure. Going on to Newtown I got dinner with brother and sister Goslin and family. Calling on some friends on the way, I reached Sussex, where I called on Dr. Burnett and Bro. McNinch and remained the night at Sister Slipp's. Reaching Midland again I visited until Sunday. Had meeting in the morning, and in the afternoon was at the Lake Meeting House, Kars. Resuming my journey Monday morning I passed through Upper Hampstead, and visited a few friends, and got to Upper Gagetown on Tuesday evening Wednesday morning started for Fredericton. Finding I had a week to spare I decided to spend it on the circuit where I labored last year—Prince William and adjacent places. I got home Monday the 27th after an absence of a little more than four weeks, which were pleasantly spent, and I trust to some profit. The visits I made and the meetings I attended were to me very enjoyable; I met with some I had not seen for a long time; some of them in all probability I will never meet again in time, but have the blessed hope of meeting them where we will never part.

As I have to return down the river again soon, I will spend Sunday morning the 16th of August at 11 a. m. at Lincoln, and at 3 p. m. at Mouth of the Oromocto; the 23rd at Jerusalem at 10.30 a. m., and at the Village at 7 p. m. I must also say that my friends did not forget me financially, for which I thank them, and thank God for putting it in their heart to do so.

J. NOBLE.
Woodstock, July 28th.

C. T. A. NOTES.—The petitions for a vote for the repeal of the Act in Charlotte Co., which is now on file in St. Andrews, is said to be defective in many respects. Mayor Vroom in St. Stephen, one of the most wideawake and energetic temperance men in the country, has been examining it and (we quote the Courier) "he claims that the petitions abound in irregularities and is not legally sufficient for the purpose for which it is intended. He says that there are names on the petition which are not the names of rate-payers; that there are names which were signed by persons who circulated the petition; and that some people signed through misrepresentation. He intends to bring these matters before the governor general in council and prevent, if possible, the proclamation calling for a vote."

The interest in the enforcement of the law in Sussex is increasing. A committee has been appointed to aid in the prosecution of violators. Success to them.

See advertisement of U. B. Seminary in another column.

A LARGE and important building has been erected at Hampstead as a Christian College for ladies, where they can be prepared for the different degrees of the London University. The expense is partly met by a legacy of nearly $50,000.

GEN. BOOTH has started on a tour around the world. It is stated that he has a presentiment that he will not return alive and has arranged all his affairs accordingly. A sealed letter has been deposited with his solicitors in which he gives directions in regard to the changes he wishes made in the headship of the army in the event of his death abroad.

ONE HUNDRED AND THREE YEARS OLD.—Alexander B. Carr, who was born at Burton, Sunbury Co., in January, 1788, is now living with his son at North Amity, Me. Although in his 103d year, Mr. Carr is able to move about and recently attended and enjoyed a family re-union. In 1818 Mr. Carr married Miss Jane S. Hagerman, of Queensbury, N. B., who died in 1842, leaving four sons and six daughters. One son and five daughters are still living and were present at the re-union, with sixteen grandchildren and seventeen great-grand-children.

CANADA'S INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION, St. John N. B. Sept. 23rd to Oct. 3rd. Arrangements have been completed with nearly all the Railway and Steamship Companies for low rates and special excursions during the time of the Exhibition. The Musical Society of St. John are making arrangements for repeating the mammoth concert which was given last year, on a much larger scale, and to be held in a separate building in order to avoid the crowding and noise which was a drawback of last year. Some leading soloists of the United States have engaged for this concert. The Exhibition Association have just completed their arrangements for a series of balloon ascensions and parachute drops, in addition to other attractions which have been engaged.

C. E. SOCIETIES.—A convention of Christian Endeavour Societies in the Maritime Provinces was held in Yarmouth last week. The reports say there are 247 societies, with about 10,000 members in the three Provinces. Two hundred of the societies are in Nova Scotia.

OF MINISTERS.—Rev. J. S. Phinney (Methodist) died at Gibson on Wednesday last. Though he had been in rather poor health for some time, he attended to his duties till within a few days of his death. He was 63 years old and had been in the ministry forty years. He was in his third year in charge of the Gibson church. He was a painstaking and zealous christian worker, and was held in high esteem by his brethren. A wife and three daughters survive him. The funeral was on Friday.

Rev. Geo. Howard (Baptist) who has been pastor at Centreville, C. Co., several years, has removed to Hampton, K. Co., becoming pastor there.

SUNDRIES.—In a late debate in the German Reichstag, it is said to have been stated that there are at present 11,000 persons in hospitals and insane asylums who are suffering with delirium tremens. . . . Sparrows have become such a nuisance in some parts of Germany that a reward is offered for their destruction. . . . Police statistics show that 130,000 persons are dependent upon charity for subsistence in Naples. . . . Cincinnati has a policeman who is 6 feet 6½ inches tall and weighs 208 pounds. . . . A pair of deaf mutes were married the other day at Topeka. One of the presents was an alarm clock. . . . The tea trade of Japan is constantly increasing, while that of China is diminishing.

Next to America, France employs more women in clerical positions than any other country. Their wages as book-keepers and accountants ranges between 1,000 and 3,000 francs a year.

Judge: "Guilty or not guilty?" Prisoner (dazed): "I thought I was guilty, your honor; but my lawyer says I ain't and he's proved it, and I believe it, and when you hear him talk, your honor, you'll believe it, too."

A New Yorker who has just returned from a trip through Holland says that he did not see a single beggar during his stay in that country of frugal and industrious people.

So many Jews of all tongues and from all parts of the world are returning to live in Palestine that Hebrew is once more becoming a living language. Two newspapers are now published in Hebrew in Palestine.

A minister in the States who had received a number of calls, and could scarcely decide which was the best, asked the advice of a faithful old colored man, who replied, "Massa, go where is the most devil."

Literary Notes.

Good things in August Wide Awake: the three poems—"Pope's Mother at Twickenham," the "Rain Song" and "The Burglar Bee" the three stories—"Peg's Little Chair," "The Bride's Boquet," and "The Silent Lie" by Francis E. Luepp; the three articles—"How the Cossacks Play Polo," "An Odd Set," and "Mr. Brown's Playfellow"; the Margaret-Patty Letter, "An Unanimous Opinion," the three serials by Margaret Sidney, Elizabeth Cummings and Marietta Ambrosi, and the four pages of original anecdotes in "Men and Things." Wide Awake is $2.40 a year. D. Lothrop Company, Boston.

Harper's Magazine for August opens with an interesting paper on "New Zealand," by Dr. George M. Grant, describing the scenery and resources of that country. Numerous illustrations from photographs and from drawings make the article doubly attractive. "Nihilists in Paris," has portraits and graphic illustrations. "Glimpses of Western Architecture," describes some of the monumental buildings of Chicago. Professor W. G. Blakeie contributes some new and interesting matter about "Lord Byron's Early School Days." "What is Inheritance?" explains some peculiar facts connected with the preservation and variation of ancestral traits. There is a stirring account of the work of "The Vigilantes in California, Idaho, and Montana." The Editorial Departments, are, as always, scholarly and entertaining, and unsurpassed in the variety and appropriateness of subjects.

"I SLEEP like a babe since taking 'Dyspepticure' is quite an ordinary remark, for many nervous sleepless sufferers have found out that 'Dyspepticure' causes sweet, natural sleep. This remedy contains no narcotics whatever, but quiets the nerves and gives sleep by soothing the irritated coatings of that Great Nerve Centre—the Stomach. Try 'Dyspepticure' for Sleeplessness.

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS.

Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

ON FIRE WITH ECZEMA

Terrible Sufferings of Little Baby. Seven Doctors and Two Hospitals Fail. Cured by CUTICURA.

My baby boy five months old, broke out with eczema. The itching and burning was intense, the eczema spread to his limbs, breast, face, and head, until he was nearly covered; his torturing agonies were pitiable to behold; he had no peace and but little rest night or day. He was under treatment at different times at two hospitals and by seven doctors in this city without the least relief; every prescription of the doctors was faithfully tried, but he grew worse all the time. For months I expended about $3 per week for medicines and was entirely discouraged. I purchased CUTICURA CUTICURA SOAP and CUTICURA RESOLVENT and followed the directions to the letter. Relief was immediate, his sufferings were eased, and rest and sleep permitted. He steadily improved and in nine weeks was entirely cured, and has now as clear a skin as I see in a fair boy as any mother could wish to see. I recommend every mother to use it for every Baby Humor.

Deaths.
SHAW.—At Moncton, on the 23rd July, John W. Shaw, aged 7 years.
McLEOD.—On the 22nd ult., at Sussex, Mrs. William McLeod, at the advanced age of 81 years. She was one of the few remaining old inhabitants of this part of King's Co. Other family two sons and two daughters, with an aged widow sister and one brother, survive her. A large circle of relatives mourn for her. Her remains were interred in the beautiful grave yard at Penobscus, where thirty years ago her husband and twenty-seven years ago her beautiful daughter Louisa, were buried by the same minister who attended her. She was a true friend and a good woman. Rev. A. McNinch assisted Rev. G. A. Hartley in the funeral services, which were largely attended.

MITCHELL.—Nehemiah Mitchell, born at Campbellton in 1808, died aged 83 years and 3 months, after a severe sickness of one month, at his home, North Road, Campbellton. He was an exemplary man in many respects, one worthy of the entire confidence of his friends. He was a member of the F. C. B. Church for 45 years, and a deacon of the North Road church 38 years. Mr. Mitchell, or "Uncle Nehemiah," as he was generally called, was a warm-hearted and fearless christian. He was conscious even in the last moments and was strong in the assurance that "My Redeemer liveth." He leaves 26 grand-children, 28 great-grand-children, one brother, one sister, as well as 8 children (one of whom is the wife of Captain Alonzo Calder, of Deer Island), besides a wide circle of friends to mourn their loss. Rev. Mr. Colborne of the North church, Eastport, Me., conducted the obsequies, and preached an appropriate and excellent discourse. So are the old landmarks passing away, and the F. C. B. church at North Road sustains a great loss.

SMITH.—One of the saddest funerals ever held on Cape Island was the one over the remains of Miss Ella Smith, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Smith, who died in Boston, Mass., July 10th, of injuries received by her clothes taking fire, whilst she was in the act of lighting a coal stove. Miss Smith was only 21 years of age; she had experienced her new birth in Christ a few years ago, and with all the ardour and zeal of her young soul she labored faithfully in the vineyard of her Lord, both in the church of her adoption, and in the Sabbath School. The last few weeks before her sudden death, she ministered as a loving daughter only can, to the comfort of her sick and suffering mother, who had made a visit to Boston, to obtain relief from her sickness there; and even when death was close at hand her anxiety for her mother was touching. She was a Sunday school teacher, and had a class of promising boys for whom she felt a deep solicitude, and regretted the disappointment they would experience the next Sabbath when they should learn that God had taken her home. A large number of her relatives and friends met the remains as they were transferred from the steamer to the wharf, and accompanied them to their last resting place. The services were solemn and impressive, especially to the young people present, to whom Ella Smith had become endeared by long acquaintance, and by whom she was loved as only those are loved whose character and whose virtues shine forth as bright and shining exampers in active christian duty and devotion. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord." Thus in life's most hopeful hours, buoyed up by youth's most ardent expectations, died our young sister, Ella Smith, a child of God, resigned to her Heavenly Father's will, knowing that "He doeth all things well."—COM.
