Sow with a generous hand;

Pause not for toil or pain

But wait till the autumn comes

Scatter the seed and fear not,

Sow while the earth is broken,

What matter if you are too weary

For the hungry must be fed.

Sow, -while the weeds are lying

In the warm earth's bosom deep,

They will stir in their quiet sleep;

And your warm tears fall upon it,

And the seed must fall to-day;

Or if you shall have passed away

Before the waving corn fields

Shall gladden the sunny day.

Sow, -and look onward, upward

Where the starry light appears,

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for some time and it has worked wonders for me. I was troubled with dandruff and was rapidly becoming bald; but since using the Vigor my head is perfectly clear of dandruff, the hair has ceased coming out, and I now have a good growth, of the same color as when I was a young woman. I can heartily recommend any one suffering from dandruff or loss of hair to use Ayer's Hair Vigor as a dressing." - Mrs. Lydia O. Moody, East Pittston, Me.

not only prevented my wife from becoming bald, but it also caused an entirely new growth of hair. I am ready to certify to this statement before a justice of the peace."-

H. Hulsebus, Lewisburgh, Iowa. Some years ago, after a severe attack of brain fever, my hair all came out. I used such preparations for restoring it as my physicians ordered, but failed to produce a growth of hair. I then tried, successively, several articles recommended by druggists, and all alike fell short of accomplishing the desired result. The last remedy I applied was Ayer's Hair Vigor, which brought a growth of hair in a few weeks. I think I used eight bottles in two years; more than was necessary as a restorative, but I liked it as a dressing, and have continued to use it for that purpose. I believe Ayer's Hair Vigor possesses virtues far above those of any similar preparation now on the market." -Vincent Jones, Richmond, Ind.
