THE REPORT.

The Conference report occupies a large part of this issue, to the exclusion of other things. The majority of our readers are interested in Conference proceedings and we have thought it better to give as much of the report as possible at once rather than spread it over several issues. Some notes on the session, together with other matter have to stand over for a week.

-Dr. PHILLIPS BROOKS was last Wednesday consecrated Bishop of Massachusetts. The services are deseribed as especially impressive.

-November 12th has been appointed Thanksgiving Day throughout the Dominion. The people of this country have great reason to be grateful. Rev. T. O. DeWitt called attention Every church in the land ought to be to the custom of sending ministers filled with people sincerely praising > -Scotland has a minister, Rev. Mr. Yair, who, at ninety-two years of age, is still a pastor. Though deaf and becoming blind he shows no signs of intellectual decay.

-THE ABUNDANT crop of this year should move the people to make larger contributions to christian work. Make an offering to the Lord, who caused the earth to yield so richly.

W. Downey as sions, the young people's societies &c.

> -IN NEW ZEALAND recent legislation has women made eligible as representatives. If the people choose they may send them to the Legislature.

-THE EMPEROR OF GERMANY is manifesting a good deal of interest in the religious condition of the people. He is moving to have more churches erected in the neglected sections of Berlin. He evidently believes that christian teaching will lessen the lawless socialism which centres in such sections, and which is constant nuisance.

-AN INSTANCE of cletrical heathensm and arrogance is reported from Staffordshire, Eng. A Methodist minister, at the request of two young men (brothers) who were dying of consumption, administered the sacrament of the Lord's Supper to them. The curate, hearing of this, went to the house of the bereaved parents, and asked if the report which he had heard were true. On being informed that it was so, he told them that the service would have been quite as effectual had it been conducted by the father of the young men, because the person who had administered it was 'not an ordained minister.'
