congregations. The missions are in Greenland, Labrador, among North American Indians, in the British and Danish West Indies in South America (Surinam and Demerara), Central America (Mosquito Coast), South Africa, Australia, N. W. India (Thibet), Alaska. About 40,000 members of the congregations are British subjects. There are 355 European and native missionaries employed in the various fields; 20,629 scholars are under instruction in 235 day-schools, and more than 15,000 scholars in 113 Sunday-schools.

Prof. Lindsay, D. D., speaking at the meeting of the London Missionary Society, thus defined the problem presented by India, with a hundred different languages, and representing every stage of civilization, from the most primitive to the most advanced. Such differences formed a great part of the problem of mission work. Hinduism included only about a third of the 260,000,000 inhabitants of India; there were about fifty million Moslems, six million Sikhs, Parsees and Christians, and about twenty millions of aboriginal tribes. The number of Pariahs, outside caste, was, he thought, from forty to sixty millions, and these were practically for mission purposes outside the great realm of Hinduism.

It is reported that as a result of the great assistance given to the famine-stricken people of Shantung, China, in 1889, when over $200,000 were distributed and over 100,000 lives saved, a great many have been drawn to pay especial attention to Christianity as the religion which influences people for such deeds of kindness and mercy, and during 1890 it is said that over a thousand persons were baptized whose attention was drawn to the religion of Christ by the fact that the missionaries were so prominent in securing this aid and distributing it. Not by any means were all these recipients of aid, but they saw what was being done, for their fellowmen, and compared the fruits of Christianity with the fruits of heathenism.

An idea may be formed of the rapid growth of the great Protestant movement in Russia when we mention, on the best authority, that 450 persons were admitted to church membership during 1890 in the two small provinces of Cherson and the Taurida. There are no accurate statistics from the other provinces in which the movement has taken root, but we are credibly informed that the total number of new members in 1890 exceeded 1,400. In the first five months of this year, notwithstanding the terrible persecution raging against these brethren, the number of members who have joined exceeds 700. Over 2,000 in 17 months! What, then, must be the number of those who are probationers, who have left the Orthodox Church and not yet thrown in their lot with the Protestants; and, more striking still, what must be the number of the 'almost persuaded'?

Jewels On The Altar.

MISS LOUISE SHEPARD GIVES HER DIAMONDS. MANY OTHERS PRESENT DO LIKEWISE.

Foreign Missions gained $5,000 at Round lake, N. Y. camp the other day and the leading spirit in raising this amount was Miss Louise Shepard of New York. She lives at 250 West Forty-eighth street in New York city. She was converted a few months ago. Miss Shepard is a prominent member of the New York state Christian alliance, which held a ten days' annual meeting at Round lake. During this time meetings have been held daily. They have been presided over by the Rev. A. B. Simpson of the Gospel tabernacle, New York, and others.

Late in the forenoon an hour was devoted to foreign missionary work and soliciting contributions. Following an earnest address by the Rev. Mr. Simpson, Miss Shepard stepped to the platform and taking from her fingers several gold rings set with diamonds, said: "I propose now and at this time to give these to assist in carrying forward the Lord's work among the heathen. I have no further use for them, and, besides, they are useless ornaments and wholly unnecessary."

She then deposited the jewels on a table and added: "Now, who will be the next to come with their contributions?"

The spirit of giving seemed then in a quite and subdued manner, and without any extraordinary excitement, to imbue the entire assembly, and men, women, and even children moved forward and deposited money, watches jewelry of all descriptions, and other articles of value on the table, the top of which was soon covered with the contributions.

Miss Shepard again took the platform and increased her offering by giving $250 in money. A man who would not give his name laid down $400 in notes. When it was announced that the offerings would aggregate about $5,000 all joined in singing Praise God, from whom all blessings flow.

Miss Shepard is about 22 years old. She possesses a good share of intellectual force. This, coupled with her excellent educational attainments and zeal and earnestness in her religious work, has rendered her untiring in the performance of the self-imposed duties which she has discharged since she became a member of the alliance. The auditorium where the meetings have been held is a sanctuary in the woods, and is capable of seating 2,500 persons.

C. T. A. NOTES.—On Wednesday, two St. Mary's rum-sellers—H. Edgar and A. McCoy—were before the Police Magistrate. Mr. J. W. McCready conducted the prosecution. McCoy had no lawyer, and he was quickly convicted and fined $50 or two months jail.

Mr. J. A. VanWart appeared for Edgar. The witnesses, some of them the same as in McCoy's case, did not give evidence so readily in this case; they swore strangely. The case was adjourned for a week, it being necessary to get other witnesses.

That both these fellows are equally guilty of rum-selling nobody doubts. The same witnesses appear in both cases. In one case they tell enough to convict, in the other they pretend to know little or nothing beyond a certain point. For instance, according to the published report, one who swears in McCoy's case that he drank intoxicating liquor and paid for it, swears in Edgar's case that he asked for drink but did not know what it was; it might have been milk or water or liquor. Why the difference? The answer, is not difficult. If the rum-seller succeeds in evading the penalty of his wrong doing, and goes on defying the law, whose is the responsibility?

The Supreme Court met on Saturday and delivered some judgments. But no mention was made of the C. T. A. cases which have been in the hands of the Court for fifteen months. Such treatment of a community is inexcusable. There is no good reason for the delay. The question is a simple one, viz., is there such a thing as a fourth offence provided for in the law? and might be decided by any judge in a very short time. And yet fifteen months have passed since the question was submitted to the Court, and all this time the law has been in a degree obstructed.

We would be sorry to have to think that the Court is designedly the ally of the illegal rum-sellers of this city, but that the delay in giving judgment in their cases has practically the same bad effect as if the Court intended to help them cannot be disputed.

CANADA'S INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION will be opened at St. John N. B. on Sept. 23rd, and continued until Oct. 3rd. All applications for space should be made at once. The competition is open to the world. Space and power are furnished free.

The attendance last year was the largest that ever visited an exhibition in the Maritime Provinces, but is likely to be much larger this year owing to the special features to be introduced.

WHY HE WAS UNWILLING.—One of the puzzling things about the rescue of Emin Pasha by Mr. Stanley, was Emin's reluctance at being rescued, and his immediate return to the interior after being rescued. It is now reported that he had half a million dollars worth of ivory hid away, of which he did not like to make mention, and which he did not like to leave. He has already sent a large share of it to the coast.

SEVENTY-FIVE MILLION DOLLARS is contributed yearly in the United States to the sustenance of the church, $31,000,000 more being given for purposes purely devotional. Within the century now drawing to a close 150,000,000 copies of the Bible have been printed in 226 different languages. Fifty years ago there were 503 missionary stations in foreign parts; there are now 5,765. Fifty years ago there were 633 ordained missionaries; to-day there are 6,696 such servants of the Lord. Then there were but 1,226 other laborers and helpers abroad; now there 40,552.

THE Y. M. C. A. BUILDING in Moncton will be dedicated on the 8th August. Governor Tilley is announced to take part in the exercises.

CAMP MEETING.—The Methodist Camp Meeting will be held at Berwick, N. S., Aug. 5-11.

FATHER CURCI, a reformer who followed in the footsteps of Savonarola by holding that reforms must come from within the Church, is dead. For declaring that the temporal power had been justly withdrawn by Providence he was expelled from the Jesuit Order and for a work in which he described the Vatican regime as the cancer-worm of the Church he was suspended from his priestly functions, proscribed from receiving the sacrament, and reduced to absolute beggary. In 1834 he recanted, and since then has dropped from public notice.

THE SEMINARY.—The Calendar of the Union Baptist Seminary has been issued. Dr. Hopper will be glad to furnish copies to all applicants. Address him at St. Martins. The Calendar contains the information required by students, as to course of study, cost &c. The next term begins Sept. 10th. There is likely to be a good attendance.

TEA MEETING.—The ladies of the Marysville F. B. Church had a successful tea-meeting and sale on Thursday evening. The day was fine and the attendance large. The Marysville band gave their services gratis, and contributed much to the enjoyment of the evening. The proceeds are to be used in repairing the church.

THE TRIPLE ALLIANCE, by which Germany and Austria and Italy bind themselves in 'close and sincere friendship,' has been renewed for another six years. The Italian Prime Minister, announcing the fact, declared that these alliances would assure the peace of Europe for a long time to come. As for the relations between Italy and England, they had been accurately described in the British Parliament by Sir James Fergusson. The identity of the views of the two countries could not be called in question; and they had proposed to co-operate for the maintenance of peace and the status quo—above all, in the Mediterranean.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—A mass meeting of the citizens of Sussex will be held in the F. C. B. church on Sunday p. m., 26th inst., at 3 o'clock, for the purpose of discussing the temperance situation in the community. Rev. E. J. Grant will preach on the occasion. All of the pastors of Sussex will be in attendance to assist.—Com.

THERE ARE ENTIRE COUNTRIES in Illinois and Wisconsin where the English language is scarcely ever heard outside of the large towns. The church services are conducted in a foreign tongue, and instruction is given in it in the schools. The intellectual condition of the people who occupy farms is not above that of the lowest class of laborers in our large cities. The townships they inhabit seem like detached portions of Central Europe put down near the centre of the New World. Nominally, these men may be citizens, for town politicians have had them passed through the naturalization mill; but they know little and care less about the institutions of the country.—Forum.

DE. SUTHERLAND, who was offered the Presidency of Mount Allison College, has declined. Dr. Sprague is now mentioned in connection with the office.

REV. MR. MOWATT is announced to preach in the Presbyterian church in this city next Sabbath. He is sure of a cordial welcome not only from his old congregation, but from the citizens generally.

THE POPE is reported ill.

THE GRAND JURY SYSTEM. Some months ago Sir John Thompson, Minister of Justice, sent a circular to all the judges of Canada asking their opinion on the abolition of grand juries. A summary of the replies gives 48 in favor of abolition, 14 against abolition, and 12 doubtful.

New York City employs 3,543 school teachers. General Butler can repeat the four gospels from memory. Princess Clementine, the youngest daughter of the King of Belgium, has decided to become a nun, it is said. At Monticello, Ill., a bridegroom dropped dead of heart disease at the altar on the conclusion of the wedding ceremony.

Three thrones in Europe are now occupied by child-kings, those of Spain, the Netherlands and Servia. In the present century there have been four other child-sovereigns, Isabel Second, grandmother of the present baby King, by a curious coincidence, was also on the throne when a little maid of three. She ruled for thirty-five years thereafter. Maria de Gloria, Queen of Portugal, came to the throne in 1826, when only seven years old, and ruled 27 years. Charles Second of Parma ascended the throne at the age of four in 1803. And it is well known that Napoleon the First abdicated in favor of his son, who was a baby of three. The little Napoleon, however, was never a sovereign de facto.

BIOGRAPHY OF SIR JOHN MACDONALD.—Mr. W. E. Earle of the Earle Publishing House, St. John, N. B., has completed arrangements with Colonel J. Pennington Macpherson, A. D. C. for the prompt publication of his Biography of the late Sir John A. Macdonald. The Colonel is a nephew of the late Premier. He has information which will enable him to write a more interesting and correct book than any other could. Mr. Earle's firm controls the sale exclusively so that the book will be sold only by subscription through duly authorized agents. Mr. Earle is visiting Toronto and other cities to open branch houses. The biography will doubtless have a large sale.

Literary Notes.

Poulney Bigelow, who was a school-mate of the German Emperor, will contribute an article to the August Century on the first three years of the Emperor's reign. Mr. Bigelow believes that "once Frederick the Great no king of Prussia has understood his business like this emperor," and he gives what he considers the secret of the power of William II. with his people, and contributes many facts regarding his life. The illustrations of Mr. Bigelow's paper will include a number of views of the palaces at Berlin and Potsdam, and portraits of the Emperor and Empress.

Just before her bereavement, Lady Macdonald, completed her first ambitious literary effort in a series of articles for The Ladies' Home Journal, the first one of which will appear in the August number of that periodical. Last summer Lady Macdonald, with a party of friends, traveled in her private car through the most picturesque parts of Canada, and in a delightfully fresh manner she describes her experiences on this trip, in these articles to which she has given the title of "An Unconventional Holiday." Illustrations, furnished by Lady Macdonald, will accompany the articles.

A fine portrait, on heavy plate paper, of the Hon. J. J. C. Abbott, the new Premier of Canada, is issued as a special supplement with the last number of that excellent journal, the Dominion Illustrated. There is also a sketch of his life, and views of his Montreal residence, as well as of Earncliffe, Ottawa, recently leased by him from Lady Macdonald. There are in the same issue a number of fine military views. Among general articles, "A Day at Monaco and Monte Carlo," is illustrated.

The Homiletic Review for August opens with a contribution upon one of the questions of the day in the theological world, The Inerrancy of Scripture. The subject is handled in a conservative way. Dr. Gordon on the Preacher's Use of Illustrations will have the more weight because he is himself a prince among illustrators. There is a brief article on Preaching Politics. The Review Section closes with an interesting study of The Hiding of God in the Book of Esther, from the pen of Dr. A. T. Pierson, in which he indicates the reasons for the apparent absence of the name of God from this book. The Sermonic Section has its customary interest. There are suggestive sermons from representatives of the American pulpits. The Miscellaneous Section contains contributions on How I Manage Church Offerings; on John the Baptist; and on "Our God is a Consuming Fire."

Published by Funk & Wagnalls, 18 and 20 Astor Place, New York. $3.00 per year; single copies, 30 cents.

BAD ECZEMA ON BABY

Head one solid sore. Itching awful. Had to tie his hands to cradle. Cured by CUTICURA.

Our little boy broke out on his head with a bad form of eczema, when he was four months old. We tried three doctors, but they did not help him. We then used your three CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after using them eleven weeks exactly according to directions, he began to steadily improve, and after the use of them for seven months his head was entirely well. When we began using it his head was a solid sore from the crown to the eyebrows. It was also all over his ears, most of his face, and small places on different parts of his body. There were sixteen weeks that we had to keep his hands tied to the cradle and hold them when he was taken up; and had to keep mittens tied on his hands to keep his finger nails out of the sores, as he would scratch if he could in any way get his hands loose. We know your CUTICURA REMEDIES cured him. We feel safe in recommending them to others.

SIR JOHN MACDONALD'S PORTRAIT. Every person in the Maritime Provinces has heard of the late premier of Canada, Sir John Macdonald, but not one in ten has seen the great leader. Progress of St. John, N. B., the splendid sixteen page paper that has won deserved popularity so quickly, has no politics, but, for half a dollar in stamps, it offers a handsome cabinet photograph of Sir John and a three months' subscription to Progress. It will not be surprising if thousands of persons—on both sides of politics—take advantage of this offer, and thus secure a good picture of the man who has governed Canada so long. The portrait is a perfect copy of one now in possession of Sir Leonard Tilley, governor of New Brunswick, who received it a few days before Sir John Macdonald's death.—4 ins.
