the week of prayer, and have held them until the past week. Bro. McLeod of the INTELLIGENCER came to our help for a few weeks, and did us good service; his work will not be forgotten. Ten were baptized at that time. Bro. Palmer, pastor of Albert St. Baptist church, induced evangelist Whittier to come here. The Presbyterians united with his church and ours, the other churches of the town were represented as well. Mr. Whittier is a good preacher, and an earnest, faithful, worker; and the longer he remained, the better we liked him; his spirit is good, his methods safe, and his theology is orthodox, and we in this town if anywhere, are competent judges of "doxies." Last Sabbath I baptized 23 candidates, and will baptize others next Sabbath. A large percentage of the converts are young persons, and with proper training will prove effective workers. The more experience I have as pastor the more do I realize the importance of bringing the children into the churches; it is so hard to reach those who have grown to manhood and womanhood, resisting the truth.

I am sorry to report that Bro. Noble is not well; he has tested his strength too much during the past winter and is not able to attend to his pastorate all the time but will be stronger as the warm weather comes.

Bro. Conner has moved into town, and will be a help to us, he intends to unite with the church next Sabbath. There is a good deal of sickness in town now, and a number of our church and congregation are suffering from la gripe and pneumonia. Bro. and Sister E. J. Clark has been very ill. He is better, but Sister Clark is still very low, and her many friends are very anxious about her and many prayers are offered for her recovery, as she is one of the best of Christian workers.

C. T. PHILIPPS.

C. T. A. NOTES.—Last week a fellow named Hugh McKenna, of St. Stephen was sent to jail for a third offence against the C. T. Act. Let more there and elsewhere receive the same punishment.

A charge having been laid against Edwards, of the Queen Hotel, for violation of the C. T. Act—the complaint being made as a fifth offence, the case came before the Police Court on Saturday. Mr. Jas. A. Vanwart appeared for Edwards, pleaded not guilty and asked for a postponement of the trial for a few days on the plea that the defendant's father is seriously ill. The magistrate adjourned the further bearing of the case till Tuesday afternoon.

We presume nobody seriously objects to a postponement on account of illness of Mr. Edwards senior, who is a very worthy man, held in respect by the community, if that is the real reason. But some people will be inclined to ask whether the accused has postponed selling rum during his father's illness. Does anybody believe that he has?

TALMAGE'S NEW TABERNACLE was dedicated on the 26th ult. It is an immense building, with sittings for about 5000. There is still a large debt on it, about $225,000.

AN APPALLING RECORD.—A N. York lady who has kept a record of the wife-murders perpetrated by drunken husbands, which have been reported in the daily papers for a year, says that 3,004 cases have occurred during that time. Now let some one tell us how many sons, daughters, brothers, sisters, fathers, mothers, and neighbors have been murdered by drunken men. Then let us find out how many broken limbs and heads and fortunes and hearts have resulted from the use of strong drink. When one begins to estimate the aggregate of mischief wrought by rum, he is puzzled to comprehend the indifference of the people to the presence of such a mighty engine of destruction. Many are profoundly stirred on this subject, but few are fully awake to the peril that besets us.

RUSSIAN AFRICA.—Russia proposes, says the Boston Herald, to have a slice of Eastern Africa. She has selected southern slopes of the Abyssinian highlands, and, by permission of King Menelek, will claim a "sphere of influence" there. The region in question is one almost unknown to European travelers. It comprises something over 200,000 square miles, lying between the British and the Italian sections, and is said to be fertile and thickly peopled. As King Menelek is not entirely pleased with the behavior of the Italians, to whom he granted extraordinary concessions, he may prefer as did his predecessor, King John, an alliance with the Czar; in which case King Humbert might have something to say. The Italians and the Russians would not make good neighbors, unless there was some natural geographical boundary between them.

THE COMMONS.—A study of the list of members of the Canadian House of Commons shows that there are 82 members who were not in the last Parliament, 69 of whom never set in Parliament before, a greater number of new members, it is believed, than after any previous general election. An analysis of the professions and callings of the new Parliament is interesting. It shows that, as usual, the gentlemen of the long gown preponderate, numbering not less than 58. They are closely followed by the farmers, 38 of whom have seats in the House, while 34 merchants and 21 physicians have received mandates to represent the people. The other professions are: Journalists, 9; manufacturers, 7; lumbermen, 6; notaries, 4; millers, 2; mining managers, 2; contractors, 2; machinist, 1; distiller, 2; railway employees, 1; banker, 1; shipowner, 1; provincial land surveyor, 1. Thirteen are described as gentlemen and eleven as Cabinet ministers.—Globe.

BISHOP MCINTYRE (Roman Catholic) of Prince Edward Island died last week while on a visit to Bishop Cameron of Antigonish, N. S.

POPIH INFLUENCE.—The Evangelical Churchman, Toronto, says:

"We suffer in Canada from Popish influence upon our leading papers. It was said not long ago that one paper in Protestant Toronto was perfectly free from Roman Catholic influence or dictation. Whenever any influential journal is offered for sale, there is always some Romanist with capital ready to purchase the control of the paper. Our teachers should place before our Protestant youth the need of journalists who will be faithful to Reformation principles, and should always speak of journalism as a useful and an honorable career."

RELIGIOUS LIBERTY IN PERU.—So blessed a gift is religious liberty—freedom to worship God—that in a country like our own where all enjoy it, all learn to prize and praise it, as if it ought to prevail everywhere. Even our Roman Catholic brethren are charmed with it, and are not slow to proclaim its charms. We are sorry that it takes very long in Roman Catholic countries to appreciate this great blessing. Only a very short time ago mobs of Ultramontane Mexicans murdered a number of Protestants, and did so without even the paltry excuse of provocation. The converts were Presbyterians—ministers and members of the Presbyterian Church.—Peru is a Roman Catholic country. Last summer Mr. Penzotti established a religious service in the basement of a warehouse. A small company gathered to worship with him and hear him preach the Gospel. Rev. Jose M. Castro, a Roman Catholic priest, informed upon him, and prosecuted him. He was not punished. But he was kept in prison by appeals from court to court, for eight months. He was in a dungeon with the worst criminals. At last—on April 3—he was discharged. It is clear then that where our Roman Catholic brethren hold full sway, without being at all held in check by Protestants, they have no friendly feeling for liberty of worship or equal rights. Their advanced ideas in British and American countries are due to the happy and benign influence of the Reformation.—Pres. Witness.

REVIVALS.—As a result of evangelistic meetings held in Washington for five weeks, by the Rev. E. P. Hammond, hundreds have professed conversion.

The churches at Haverhill, Mass., have been enjoying a series of evangelistic services under the lead of Dr. L. W. Munhall. The results were made manifest in three hundred additions to the churches.

PROTESTS.—In this Province petitions have been filed against the election of Messrs. A. J. Gilmour, G. G. King, G. E. Foster and Dr. Colter.

EVERYBODY IN NEED of carpets and house-furnishing goods, or dress goods, will notice the free trip advertised by Fred B. Edgecombe in this paper, good during the month of May.

Temperance Notes.

—DR. NORMAN KERR estimates that the deaths directly and indirectly caused by drink in Great Britain each year number 120,000.

—DURING the last eight years the liquor saloons of Paris have increased from 24,000 to 39,000. In the last thirty years the consumption of alcohol has been trebled; in the last ten years doubled.

—SPEAKING from his experience as a commanding officer, Colonel Moody, of the English army, writes that nineteen twentieths of the crime in the army is directly traceable to drunkenness.

—A WISCONSIN LEGISLATOR is reported to have said: "I think every man should take his boys to saloons and teach them to use beer temperately." Why not at the same time teach these boys how to set fire to a wheat-stack so that the flames will burn up the straw but leave the grain?

—HON. HENRY WILSON, while vice-president of the United States, and just before he died, said, "All other issues before the American people dwindle into insignificance compared to the issues involved in the temperance question."

—DR. GROSVENOR, of the Buffalo Medical Journal, says that grave responsibility rests upon the medical profession in the use of alcohol as a medicine, on account of its deleterious influence upon the system, and the liability of the patient to contract the habit of using it as a beverage. He also states that alcohol is neither a tissue-forming nor a heat-producing substance and as a narcotic and anesthetic is much less valuable than several others.

—BISHOP FOSS says:—As a Christian minister, I oppose drink because it opposes me. The work I try to do it undoes. My charge against it is single and simple. It is an obstacle to the spread of the gospel. Nay, it is an enemy which assails the gospel, and whose complete success would drive the gospel from the earth. There is not a sinner on the face of the earth so unlikely to be saved by the influences of the gospel as the habitual drunkard. The salvation of a thorough drunkard is one of the mightiest miracles of almighty grace.

DROST.—Almira, beloved wife of Albert Drost, and youngest daughter of Oliver and Sarah Rideout, died at her residence, Upper Kent, Carl. Co., at the age of 37, on the 11th day of Dec., 1890. In the 18th year of her age she professed religion through the instrumentality of the late Rev. J. R. Shaw, and was baptized by Rev. A. Kinney, and united to the F. C. B. Church, Victoria Corner. She departed this life under the inspiration of Christian hope. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."—J. J. B.

PATTERSON.—At Patten, Maine, April 22nd, Charles A. Patterson, aged 31 years, was killed by a blow of logs at which he was working. The deceased was the fourth son of Andrew Patterson, of Patterson Settlement. He leaves father and mother, five brothers and one sister to mourn their loss. His body was brought home and buried in the Patterson Settlement burying ground, April 27th. Funeral sermon by the writer, text Job 14:20. "Thou changest his countenance and sendest him away." This sad event has cast a deep gloom over the community. May God comfort the heart-broken family.—W. H. P.

NEVER.—Deacon Allen Nevers died in Lincoln, S. Co., on the 30th ult., aged 73 years. He had been sick only a few days and died very peacefully. Of his family only one son and one daughter survive him. Several children and his wife preceded him into the life beyond, his wife having died about five years ago. Bro. Nevers had been a discipled of Christ many years, and for a long time was a deacon of the Lincoln Free Baptist church. He was a sincere lover of the Saviour, warmly attached to his church, and interested in the cause of Christ at large. He attended most of the meetings recently held in Lincoln, and enjoyed them much, being greatly pleased that the church was quickened and souls converted. He will be missed in the church, whose services he attended with great regularity, and in whose work he was a burden-bearer; and the community, too, will miss him as a man of warm heart, ready to help. His funeral was on Sunday, conducted by Rev. Jos. McLeod, and attended by a large number of people.
