

thirty, and the Adventists about fifty; all working in union and harmony with one another in the conversion and saving of souls.

There is practically but one road on the island, running along the shore, and the dwellings are built on either side of it. A drive around the island would measure about twenty-three miles. The men are mostly sea-faring people, mariners and fishermen; some are traders and mechanics. From early spring until late in the fall season the men are away from home, following their vocation,—some as commanders of steamers and sailing vessels, others as sailors, and, again, the larger number as fishermen; the women, meanwhile, attending to their household duties, and to garden and field work.

The Lord has blessed us spiritually. We have had precious seasons of revival, and have been encouraged by leading some thirty souls to the seashore for baptism, mostly young people. Last winter a glorious awakening took place on the south side of the island, and the immediate fruits included the realization of a long-entertained desire, the erection of a new Free Baptist church. There are between four and five hundred souls in that part of the island located about the center between the Clark's Harbor and Centerville churches, and from each about three miles distant,—too far for the aged and the little ones to avail themselves of church and Sunday-school services. So we went to work and built. The building is already enclosed and nearly finished on the outside. It is about 90x40 in size, and has a most comfortable basement for Sunday-school and other church purposes, with the main auditorium above it. It will cost, when finished, about $2,000. With God's help, we hope to dedicate it next winter, free from debt. I organized this South Side Free Baptist church last April, with fifty-one charter members. Until the house is ready for worship we hold our Sabbath and other services in the schoolhouse; and if any church has a church bell or a common union set to spare, they can do nothing better than send it to us as a mark of their good-will.

I now preach to the Centerville, the South Side, and Newellton churches, holding regular conference and prayer-meetings at each, with good attendance and interest in all. The Clark's Harbor church has had the pastoral services of Rev. T. H. Siddall the last six months, with good prospects of a re-engagement. Rev. E. Crowell, of the Barrington church, is doing grand work in upbuilding that interest, having had a number of accessions to the membership of that church and of the one at Port La Tour. Bro. Crowell is at present suffering severely from la grippe.

C. T. A. NOTES. — On Friday the Police Magistrate gave judgment, convicting Howard. It is said that Mr. Van Wart will appeal the case. At the same time the magistrate dismissed the charge against Coleman, on the ground that his proprietorship of the Barker House had not been established. We may expect that soon the prosecution will be called upon to establish the names of these rum-selling fellows, and following that to prove, perhaps, that such fellows really exist.

W. S. Hall, proprietor of the Queen Hotel, St. Stephen, has made an assignment. Some attribute his failure to the enforcement of the C. T. Act, and, of course, try to create sympathy on that account. While we are sorry for anybody who fails in honorable business, it is better for any man to fail if he cannot keep on without selling rum.

BIBLE SOCIETY.—A special meeting, under the auspices of the Fredericton Bible Society, was held in the Methodist church, Thursday evening. The occasion was the visit of Rev. T. Aston Bins, Honorary Secretary of the B. & F. Bible Society, who has been making a tour of Canada and the United States in the interests of the Society. He gave an admirable address, conveying much information about the steadily increasing work of the Society.

PRESIDENT CARNOT of France receives $120,000 as salary and as much more for house rent and travelling expenses. The next highest salaries are those paid to the President of the Chamber of Deputies, the President of the Senate and the Governor of Algeria, these three officials receiving $20,000 a year each.

INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION AND HORSE FAIR.—The arrangements for holding this exhibition at St. John, have been proceeding during the past few months. A new impetus has just been given to the Exhibition Association, by a liberal guarantee fund which has been subscribed by private citizens and the City Council of St. John. A feature of the work has been the manner in which both buyers and sellers are entering into the idea of the horse fair. A letter just received from Agents General Fellows, London, Eng., informs the Association that in order to secure buyers of horses for the British Army, it will be necessary that the authorities be advised as early as possible of the number and classes of horses which are likely to be offered for sale.

Grafting results are, also, noted in the Industrial section of the exhibition; already applications for space have been received from a larger number of manufacturers than exhibited last year.

THE FUNERAL OF Sir John A. Macdonald took place on Thursday. The burial was in Kingston, Ont., where his boyhood was spent, and which he had represented since his entrance into public life. His body lay in state in the Senate Chamber, Ottawa, till Wednesday, when it was removed to Kingston, there lying in the City Hall till the hour of burial. At both places many thousands of people took a last look at the long familiar face of the departed leader. Signs of mourning in flags at half-mast, buildings draped in black, closed stores and tolling bells on the day of the burial, &c., were in every part of the Dominion. All the Provinces of the Dominion were represented officially at the funeral, either by their Governors or members of their executives, or both. Hon. Messrs. Blair and Pugsley represented the N. B. Government. Sir Leonard Tilley had been in Ottawa to see the Premier—his long time colleague and leader—before his death, and was not able to stand the fatigue of another journey. Messages of sympathy came from every where, from the Queen to her humblest subject. Her Majesty sent a floral wreath and was represented at the funeral. Touching and appreciative reference was made to the death of the Premier in the British Parliament by Lord Salisbury and others; and a service was held in Westminster Abbey in his memory and honour on the day of the burial.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—On Thursday last, Deacon Samuel Barker, of Bath, C. Co., started out from his home with his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Thatcher Barker, and his little grand child, six or seven years old, to give them a short drive. As he left the barn to descend the hill he noticed that he had neglected to fasten one of the side-straps. The horse was young and wild, and when the carriage ran on him, he became uncontrollable, ran away, kicking the carriage to pieces as he went. The occupants were thrown out. The child's hurt was slight, except a few bruises about the body and a cut on the arm and head, she was uninjured. Mrs. Barker was not fatally hurt, though receiving a severe shock. Of the extent of Bro. Barker's injuries little is yet known. Drs. Atkinson and McManus were in attendance as soon as they could be got there; and they decided that two of his ribs are broken, and his whole body generally injured. Inflammation is feared now. He is very uncomfortable, suffering much pain.—J. J. BARNES.

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING Agencies are not in the habit of giving away much, but the Wilson Advertising Agency is sending out a very pretty newspaper rule, a useful article to publisher and advertiser. This Agency has only been in existence a few years and has already worked up a good connection in controlling advertising for some of the largest houses in the United States and Canada. Intending advertisers who are not decided regarding the placing of their announcements, can be saved both time and money by placing their business in their hands.

CONGREGATIONAL COUNCIL.—A World's Council of Congregational churches will be held in London, next month. At this council there will be large representations from all parts of the world, including 100 delegates from the United States, twelve from Canada, and about an equal number from Australia. Rev. Wm. McIntosh, pastor of the Tabernacle Congregational church at Yarmouth, N. S., left last week for England. He is the delegate of the Maritime Congregational churches to the World's Council.

RUM MEN'S METHODS. A well known Winnipeg minister, Rev. Mr. Morley, went to Portage La Prairie to conduct the prosecution of some hotel men who had violated the law by selling rum. Conviction was secured. When the minister was leaving the court room he was mobbed, but escaped with slight injuries, taking refuge in the Methodist parsonage. When he arrived at the depot to take the train for Winnipeg later in the day, the liquor men covered his clothes with rotten eggs, and followed this indignity with an assault, in which the reverend gentleman was badly injured. A clergyman who went to his assistance had his nose broken, and was otherwise roughly injured.

The foregoing is the story, as told by the papers. It is just such brutal conduct as might be expected of men engaged in a brutal traffic. They are the same here and everywhere, so far as they dare be.

It is a nice thing to be their friend and defender, to be their tool in efforts to evade the righteous penalties their wrong-doing incurs, to profit by (in cash), and to go over their violations of the law and their defiance of the moral sense of the community, to be a partner in all the iniquity they do. It is so eminently christian!

THE NEW GOVERNMENT. The death of Sir John A. Macdonald dissolved the Government. From the time of his death up to Friday last, there was much speculation about his successor and the composition of the new Government. Sir Hector Langevin, Sir Chas. Tupper, Sir John Thompson, Hon. Mr. Abbott were all mentioned as likely to be called upon to form the new Government; and it was believed that whosoever should be entrusted with the duty would retain the members of the administration as under Sir John's leadership. On Friday, the day of the burial of the late Premier—the Governor General summoned Hon. Mr. Abbott, and asked him to assume the responsibility of forming a cabinet. Mr. Abbott was a member of Sir John's government, being its leader in the Senate. He accepted the trust, after consultation with his colleagues. The names of the members of Government will not be officially announced till the House meets this (Tuesday) afternoon; but it is generally understood that the portfolios will be held by the ministers who served under Sir John's leadership.

FOR THE PAST THREE YEARS E. B. Biggar, of Montreal, has been gathering anecdotes and facts relating to Sir John Macdonald, and the result is an anecdotal life of Sir John, which will be issued in a short time. Before going to press Mr. Biggar will be glad to receive any authentic anecdotes or reminiscences on the subject that have not yet appeared in print. Mr. Biggar's address is the Fraser Building, Montreal.

THE SWEDISH AFRICAN TRAVELER.—Dr. Westmark, recently gave details on his recent explorations along the Upper Congo, especially among the cannibals of Bangalad. The country is a veritable paradise, but man is exceedingly vile. Slavery flourishes, polygamy is practiced; a man can sell wife and children according to his own sweet pleasure; the women work while the men spend their time in eating, drinking and sleeping. Cannibalism in its worst shape predominates. Young women are considered special delicacies, particularly girls' ears, prepared in palm oil. In order to make the flesh more palatable, the unfortunate victims are kept in water up to their necks for three or four days before they are slaughtered. On great festive occasions such cannibalism is practiced to a terrible degree. The religious views of these cannibals are exceedingly crude; their highest object of adoration being Satan, whom they represent to be white. Westmark is a rather severe critic of Stanley. At the close of his address he expressed the profound conviction that only Christian missionary work can elevate these poor unfortunate blacks on the Upper Congo.

It is said that between the Island of Madagascar and the coast of India there are 16,000 islands, only 600 of which are inhabited. In any of these islands a man can live and support his family in princely luxury, without working more than twenty-five days in the year. In fact, on some of these islands, he needn't work at all, as nature provides the food, and no clothes are required. It is strange that the great fraternity of lazy men have not drifted to these islands; or it would be if they were not so lazy.

An Egyptian scythe, recently unearthed, is exhibited among the antiquities in the private museum of Elinders Petrie in London. The shaft of the instrument is wood, supporting a row of flint saws, which are securely cemented into it. This discovery will set at rest the speculations which have been made as to how the crops of the land were gathered in the flint and early copper age. It has long been suspected that such an instrument as Mr. Petrie has brought to light was used, but there was no direct evidence.

Deaths.

COHOON.—At Port Medway, Queen's County, N. S., June 2nd, after a brief illness, Eunice, wife of Eldred Cohoon, aged 70 years.

DARRAH.—In St. John, May 30th, infant daughter of William and Margarette Darrah. The remains were brought to Sussex for burial.

PORTER.—At the residence of her brother, Mr. Charles A. Porter, of consumption, Maud M., aged 16 years, youngest daughter of the late John and Sarah Porter. Just before her death she expressed herself to her pastor in the language of the apostle, "For me to die is gain." Buried at Green Hill, York Co., at 3 p. m., June 8th, from St. John, 2310. Services by the writer.—R. W. CAMPBELL.

BYRNS.—On the 14th April, at Maitland, N. S., Mrs. Maria Byrns. Sister Byrns was the only surviving daughter of Deceased Thomas W. Curry of Port Maitland Free Baptist church. She professed religion when about fourteen years of age, was baptized by Rev. Charles Oram, and united with the F. B. church of Bay River and Port Maitland. The remaining thirty-six years of her life were spent in the bosom and fellowship of this church. Her life was so exceptionally worthy that we cannot say too much of her. In early life she was married to Capt. E. Byrns, to whom she bore six children.—Four daughters and two sons, all of whom survive her, except one of the sons, who passed a few years ago to Him who said, "Suffer little children to come unto me." Our sister was a splendid and prudent housekeeper. Her husband's vocation called him from home a greater part of the time, thus throwing the care and education of the family on the mother. Those children, an honor to society, show how well she bore this responsibility. As a member of the church she was thoughtful and sympathetic, and by these qualities gained the love and good-will of all. Her last illness was long and tedious, but was borne with Christian fortitude and patience. Death had no sting for her. Peacefully she fell asleep in Jesus on the 14th April last. Her funeral was attended by a very large concourse of people. The services were conducted and sermon preached by the writer from II Peter 1:19. There were also present the following clergymen:—Rev. Mr. Robinson, pastor of the Baptist church of Port Maitland; Rev. A. Kinney, pastor of Reformed Baptist church of the same place; Rev. Mr. Cogswell (Baptist); Rev. Mr. Reeder (F. B.), all of whom made appropriate addresses. The three first-named were well acquainted with the departed one and spoke of her in a tender and most touching manner. To Capt. Byrns, who was in Australia at the time of his wife's death, and to his aged mother we would express our deepest sympathy, also to his sorrowing children. The loss of this beloved daughter was a heavy stroke to Bro. Curry who, from ill health was unable to attend the funeral. God grant that the sweet and exemplary life and her peaceful end may inspire all the mourning ones and the brethren and sisters of the church to pure and holy lives.—WM. M. KNOLLIN.
