tricts and counties may be worked systematically; each market town, village and hamlet within prescribed limits being visited within a certain time. After a suitable time these books are taken up and others left in their place, and so on from month to month. A central depository is to be rented in which to keep the books prepared for lending and also a stock of them for sale. The fund subscribed by the native Christians will cover the wages of the book-lenders, rent of the depository and all other expenses arising out of the working of the scheme except the purchase of the books. The educated, intelligent and governing element are to be reached thus."

Revivals.

—Rev. E. P. Hammond is holding revival services in Washington.

—Mr. Moody's special work in Boston and vicinity closed last week. It has been a work of great interest and power, and the number of conversions is believed to be large.

—From Cornwall, England, comes reports of a great revival. Throughout the length and breadth of the county, the Wesleyans, the Bible Christians, the Primitive and Free Methodists are experiencing a work of grace. The account says: "More and more it spreads and grows." The year is sure to be long remembered as that of "the great revival."

—The revival in the Baptist church in this city continues. Last Sabbath Rev. F. D. Crawley baptized six more converts.

DENOMINATIONAL NEWS.

BARRINGTON, N. S.—The first Barrington church has bought a parsonage near the meeting house, from Capt. M. O'Brien.

TRACEY MILLS, C. Co.—Four more converts were baptized by Rev. J. W. Clark on the 22nd ult. The special meetings have been closed. Others will, probably, be baptized later.

SNIDER MOUNTAIN, K. Co.—Rev. Wm. Deware is holding special meetings in the F. C. Baptist church, Snider mountain. Seven converts were baptized by him on Sunday morning last.—Telegraph.

RUSIAGORNISH, S. Co.—Rev. Wm. Downey has been holding special meetings in Rusiagornish for about two weeks. A deep religious interest has been awakened. Last Sabbath he administered baptism to several converts.

BLISSVILLE, S. Co.—We are having some interest at Blissville. Two were baptized yesterday, and three received into the church. The cloud is lifting. May God give us a widespread revival.

W. H. PERRY.

March 30th.

REV. T. S. VANWART writes that he did not go to Long Point, K. Co. to hold special meetings as he had intended. His health would not permit. He is still feeling the effects of LaGrippe which he had more than a year ago. He sometimes fears that he will have to relinquish his charge, which he regards a very inviting field. We hope he may be better as the warm weather comes, and be strong enough for the work.

HAMILTON MOUNTAIN, QUEENS CO.—Some of my friends may be desirous to know of my whereabouts and why I have not written for the Denominational News department. Well, to do so is not easy for me, having so poor eyesight; but I am thankful to God for what I have. I commenced holding meetings here about the middle of February, and the Lord was pleased to bless us in the conversion of sinners and the reclaiming of backsliders, and in greatly reviving of christians. Thirteen have been baptized, and others are expected to be soon. In this place there was a branch of the Jerusalem church, but it was thought best to organize a church here; so, after getting the dismission of the branch members, we organized a church of thirty members on the 23rd, March. It was a day of much strength and blessing among the people.

J. G. MACKENZIE.

STANLEY, YORK CO.—The revival is still going on in Stanley. Sinners are coming to the Saviour. Last Sunday was a day of rejoicing; an old man 64 years of age came out in the afternoon meeting. Others including heads of families are coming; there is prospect that a large revival will be seen. All denominations are at the meetings, and much good has already been done. Bro. B. R. Vidito, an Evangelist, is here, and has greatly helped me. He is a young man, of twenty-three, but is well prepared for the work, and a whole hearted christian labourer. Satan's ranks are falling, and the banner of King Jesus is at present waving over this community, while soldiers are daily enlisting. God help them to come is our prayer. Last evening thirty-five came forward for prayers. Meetings are held on alternate nights, at Green Hill and Maple Grove; we have crowded houses every night. As soon as the work is done here we will visit Woodland and Kingsley, and try to win souls for Christ there. Give us your prayers, brethren and sisters, that God may be with us in all our doings and that His name may be glorified.

R. W. CARPENTER.

March 24th.

C. T. A. NOTES.—A fellow named Canty, who keeps a place on Regent St., this city, was last week convicted of a second rum-selling offence, and was fined $100.

The Moncton rum-sellers' counsel contended that the stipendiary magistrate there had no jurisdiction in Scott Act cases. The court has just decided against this contention.

The court has not given judgment in the Coleman and Edwards fourth offences cases yet. Why not? And when will they?

Charlottetown, P. E. I., which repealed the C. T. A. is now practically under the rule of free rum. It will not take long for the people who cried out against the C. T. A. and helped repeal it to discover that they have helped to bring a great curse on the city. And reflection on their responsibility for the evil state of things is not likely to afford them much comfort.

A VICTORY.—Last week St. Stephen elected C. N. Vroom, Esq., its mayor. The issue was straight temperance, and Mr. Vroom, who has for years been a foremost temperance man and a most uncompromising enemy of the rum trade and traders, was elected by a good majority over Hugh McKay. We congratulate Mayor Vroom on his deserved honor, and St. Stephen on its good sense and moral strength.

NINETY.—About ninety rum-selling licenses were issued in St. John last week. Poor St. John.

OF MINISTERS.—Evangelist "Sam" Jones is in poor health, and is reported quite doubtful of his recovery. . . . Rev. R. McDonald has been called to the pastorate of the Warren Avenue Baptist church, Boston. He is a Nova Scotian, was born in Liverpool, N. S., is a graduate of Acadia, and has been preaching in Massachusetts five or six years. . . . Rev. Mr. Floweth, congregational minister at Sheffield, is ill with the grippe. . . . Rev. David Freeman, one of the oldest Baptist ministers in Nova Scotia, died in Florida, a few days ago, where he had gone for the benefit of his health. He was one of Acadia's early graduates, an earnest christian minister, and a godly man.

SUNDRIES.—The colored editor of the Richmond Reporter ten years ago drove a dump-cart. . . . One hundred Edinburgh cabmen are abstainers. . . . It is said that Green Howell, a Savannah Negro, is gradually turning white. The process has been going on for years. . . . While Europe and America have been suffering a terribly severe winter, Iceland, up to the middle of January at least, had been free from ice or snow, and everything wore a summer-like aspect. . . . The announcement that 289 school children in Germany committed suicide during the past six years, indicates serious defects in educational methods. . . . Mr. Joseph Cook has delivered his 222d Monday lecture in Boston.

DENOMINATIONAL NOTICES.

N. S. CONFERENCE.—A special meeting of the Free Baptist Conference of Nova Scotia will be held at Clark's Harbor, F. B. church, Shelburne, Co., on Saturday, April 25th, 1891, at 10 a. m., under the provisions of Article XII of the Constitution.

CARPENTER.—At Woodstock, on the 18th inst., Jennie Maud, aged 3 weeks and 3 days, daughter of Charles and Esther Carpenter. "Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not."

ACTON.—At the School for the Blind, Halifax, N. S., on the 18th inst., Grace, aged 12 years and 6 months, daughter of Andrew and Isabel Acton of Upper Brighton, Carleton County. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved parents, as their little girl was an exceptionally bright and talented child, and a universal favorite. She was taken ill while attending the School for the Blind at Halifax. She made arrangements for her funeral, which was largely attended at her late home at Hartland.

WILCOX.—At Norton, King's Co., on the 18th ult., after two years' suffering from dropsy, Sarah E., relict of Deacon Andrew Wilcox, aged 71 years. Sister W. publicly professed faith in the Saviour 58 years ago, and was baptized by the late Rev. S. Hart and united with the F. C. Church, Studholm, K. C. She leaves 4 children, besides a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. Her confidence in the faithfulness of Christ was firm to the end of life.—T. S. VANWART.

CAMPBELL.—On the 21st ult., Mr. Samuel J. Campbell, of Studholm, K. C., in the 41st year of his age, was young and married, leaving five motherless children, beside many friends to mourn their loss.—T. S. VANWART.

PATRAQUIN.—At Norton Station, K. Co., on the 23rd ult., of consumption, Frank, youngest son of the late Lewis and Elizabeth A. Patraquin, in the 19th year of his age. Frank was a young man much esteemed by those who knew him, and died trusting in the merits of his Saviour. He leaves two brothers and a large circle of friends to mourn his early death.—T. S. VANWART.

CHANDLER.—At Brookville, Car. Co., on 21st of March, a short illness, James A. Chandler, in the 66th year of his age, leaving an aged mother, a sorrowing wife and five children to mourn their loss. Our deceased brother was baptized by the late Elder S. Hart, 32 years ago, since which time he maintained a daily worship. He will be missed in the church, as he was a useful member, but our loss is his gain.—H. H. GALLUPE.

At his residence, Chattanooga, Tenn., on the 11th of Feb., after five days' illness, of LaGrippe, Amos R. Gallupe, aged 48 years. The deceased was the son of the late Amos Gallupe, Esq., of Victoria Corner, N. B. He left his childhood's home 28 years ago; during most of that time he has resided in the South. Twenty years ago he visited his native home and friends for the last time. He leaves a wife, an aged mother, with brothers and sisters, to mourn his early death.—(Woodstock Press please copy.)

KELLY.—At Fairville, St. John, Feb. 17th, of inflammation of the brain, E. Eugenia, aged 6 years, only daughter of George H. and Mary I. Kelly. Her remains were taken home to the Millstream Mountain burial ground, where they laid her to rest. The funeral was conducted by Rev. Wm. DeWare, and an appropriate sermon was preached from John 11:28. "Suffer little children to come unto me, for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

MILLS.—At Tracey's Mills, Carleton Co., N. B., March 21st, 1891, Sarah Jane, wife of Rev. H. H. Woodcock, and daughter of Deacon Cornelius Connolly of Jackson town, aged 61 years. Our deceased sister professed faith in Jesus Christ when only a girl, was baptized by Rev. Thomas Todd, and united with the First Baptist Church, Woodstock. For more than twenty years she had lived at Tracey's Mills, where she regularly worshipped with the Free Baptists. She was a good woman and a thorough Christian. While the loss to the family, of which she was the true and faithful life, the kind and loving mother, is great, much also is the loss of the community and the church in this place. Her sickness, which was paralytic, was short, and her death was triumphant, for she desired to be with Christ, which is far better. A sorrowing husband, three sons, two daughters, and many relatives and friends mourn. The funeral services were conducted by the writer, assisted by Rev. J. G. Harvey (Baptist). Text: Hebrews, 11:16.—J. W. C.

DUNN.—At Millville, York Co., March 22nd, Mary A., beloved wife of Thomas Dunn, leaving a husband, four children, brothers and sisters, and a large circle of friends to mourn their loss. Sister Dunn professed faith in Christ 20 years ago, and was baptized by Rev. G. W. Macdonald, and united with the Free Baptist church, Tracey's Mills. Having subsequently married and settled at Millville she was, by letter, with the Free Baptist church at that place, of which she remained a worthy member until her death. Sister Dunn lived a consistent Christian life; she knew whom she believed, and was ready at all times to give a reason of the hope within her. She took a deep interest in the work of the church, and was always ready to do her part in Christian work. She was a loyal member of her church, and a true friend to the church and its members, and did not forsake it in adversity. For about a year she did not enjoy good health, but her friends did not anticipate any danger until about three months ago. After that time she gradually failed, though she had the best medical aid. Her suffering was intense during the last few days, but not once was she heard to murmur. If it could be the Lord's will she desired to live, but her language was, "Thy will, O God, be done." The Saviour was very precious to her in her last hours. She commended her husband and children to God; some of her last words were, "What could I do without Jesus," "Jesus, precious Jesus," and then she peacefully passed away to be with Christ, which is far better. May God sustain the stricken family. By her request the writer conducted her funeral, which was largely attended. Text, Phil. 1:21.—GIDEON SWIM. (Gleaner please copy.)

SMITH.—At Middle Coveadale, A. Co., at the Smith homestead, on 20th. Mrs. Wm. Smith; widow of the late Wm. Smith in the 89th year of her age, leaving five children (3 sons and 2 daughters), three brothers, one sister and numerous other relatives and friends to mourn their loss. Our deceased sister was a daughter of James Wallace, who upwards of 70 years ago, came to this country from Donnegal, North of Ireland. He lived to the ripe old age of 97. She had three brothers and seven sisters, only one of the sisters survives here; the three brothers are still living, one of them being Mr. John Wallace, ex M. P. of Hillsborough. About 45 years ago Mr. and Mrs. Smith settled on what is known as the Smith homestead, where they both lived and died; our sister survived her husband a few days over 25 years. She experienced religion when quite young. About 40 years ago she was baptized by Rev. James Herriot, and united to the Lower Coveadale Baptist church. This her husband was a long time one of the deacons. About 14 months ago our sister was stricken with a shock of paralysis, from which she never fully recovered. On Sunday the 18th inst. she was again stricken down; from this she rallied, however; but a third shock, three days later, rendered her unconscious, and after two days she peacefully passed away and, as we fully believe, into that rest prepared for the people of God. For a woman of her years she was remarkably well preserved; her memory was so clear that she was able to recite several short poems, committed several years before; and in calling upon her some days previous to her illness, I was especially gratified to hear her recite three of them; she had recently committed to memory a piece from the INTELLIGENCER of the issue of Jan. 28th, entitled "An Appeal to Christians to take a stand for Temperance." She lived and died a christian, greatly beloved by all that knew her. The funeral, on the 23rd inst., was largely attended. At the request of the relatives of the deceased appropriate services were conducted by the writer.
