most earnest and sincere regard. They are true Free Baptists, in spirit and purpose, in generosity and kindness. To know them is to esteem them for their intelligence, Christian worth, self-sacrifice and unbounded hospitality. They are glad to be of us and with us; may we all be of the same mind and be "ye helpers together in the Lord."

Special mention should be made of the music and singing by the choir, so helpful, and so excellent. Their efforts to add to the interest of the services were both most praiseworthy, and most heartily appreciated.

Denominational News.

REV. J. V. FREEMAN, of the Nova Scotia Conference, has just returned to his work from a visit of about three weeks at his old home in Southampton, York Co. We were glad to meet him. He reports the work generally in the N. S. field encouraging.

STANLEY, YORK CO.—I once more take my pen to inform the brethren that although I have not written for some time the work of the Lord has been going on in the hearts of the people of Stanley. Some deeply impressive meetings have been held, and the church still holds on, much strengthened by the steadfastness of those who professed religion last Fall. I am glad to say that their voices are still heard in prayer and exhortation at every opportunity afforded them, which greatly helps myself and the rest of the church. God grant that they may continue faithful through all the journey. The spirit is moving the hearts of sinners, and we are looking and praying for their conversions soon. Brethren pray for us. I have to ask the brethren to forgive me for not reporting sooner. Desiring the prayers of my brethren that God may bless and keep me I am resolved to do all I can for Him. I will hold special services here during this month hoping the results may be the conversion of souls. Some have already started.

R. W. CARPENTER.

ADVOCATE, N. S.—The dedication services last Sabbath were greatly appreciated by the members of the church and the people of this entire community. The meetings throughout the day were excellent. The power of the spirit was manifest. There were present besides the visiting ministers, Mrs. Hennigar, Mrs. Potter, and Charles Miller Esq. and wife of Canning; Dea. Z. West and wife, Mrs. Roscoe, and Bros. Akerley and Roscoe of Hall's Harbor. We were glad to have them with us. Our thanks are due to Bro. Downey for his kindness in securing conveyance across the Bay. Bro. Siddall remains with us until tomorrow. Monday evening he lectured to a good audience. Subject, "Life in London." All present were highly pleased. He is to preach this evening. Our people are greatly encouraged by the visit and services of our brethren. Collections taken on Sabbath and at the lecture amounted to $35.00.

D. T. PORTER.

FROM REV. G. SWIM.—The religious interest in my churches is not what it ought to be, and yet I think it is gradually increasing. Our church at Connell is small, but we have some good meetings. I preach there once a fortnight. They have a prayer meeting every alternate Sunday morning; they have a good Sabbath school; and conference meeting is held once a month. One sister was recently received into the church. We are hoping and praying for better days.

The church at Somerville is in very good condition. A spirit of harmony prevails. Preaching service is very well attended, the prayer and conference meetings are seasons of refreshing. The brethren and sisters are faithful, and we believe that God will pour out a blessing according to His promise.

There is a faithful few at Victoria Corner, contending for the faith. We have a very good congregation at the preaching service every Sunday evening. The people are very attentive, and evidently are interested in the preached Gospel. Our prayer and conference meetings are kept up. We are encouraged when we know that our labour is not in vain in the Lord.

We have a number of good Christians in the Third Tier church. The preaching service is quite well attended; we have good conference meetings and an excellent Sabbath School. Our prayer is that God will revive us again, and there are signs to this end.

Thus I have briefly referred to the interest and my work in connection with these four churches. I have sought to sow, and shall continue to sow the good seed, and patiently wait for results. God will give the increase. I have not yet made plans for another year. I shall wait for Divine direction.

GIDEON SWIM.

FROM REV. JOS. NOBLE.—I again report myself. Since I have been able to be around I have been to Caverhill and Campbell Settlement. I found the people at Caverhill very much encouraged. The day I was at Campbell Settlement it was raining, and only a few were out, but we had a good meeting. In the afternoon I was in Southampton. The cause is low there. Friday, 27th April, I left, with my sister, for Bridgewater, Maine. Saturday and Sunday I was with brother Thompson; at Knoxford, in the morning, I spoke to the people; in the afternoon we went across the line to East Blaine; the interest keeps good there. Monday was a Memorial Day, when the people met to decorate the graves of the soldiers who fell in the battlefield or died from their exposure in the war. The ceremonies were solemn and impressive. The order of the day was as follows: the people gathered at their Hall and walked in procession to the grave-yard, the old soldiers leading the way, the children of the Sabbath Schools coming next, each carrying with them a flag and a bunch of flowers; all gathered around the grave, the commander read a very impressive service and the chaplain offered an appropriate prayer; a bunch of flowers and a small flag was left on each grave. Returning to the Hall a lunch was served, provided by the people. At 2 o'clock the meeting was called to order by the commander, a chairman was appointed, and Rev. A. C. Thompson was called upon to deliver the address. He had been three years in the Army and on the battlefield and had heard the cry for water many times by the wounded, and the groans of the dying. It was said by the people it was the best address they ever listened to there on such an occasion. After the address a concert was given, consisting of recitations, singing and reading, all having a good moral, the Sabbath School taking a prominent part in it. They have a Post whose duty it is to look after the poor and provide for their needs; the Ladies C. T. Union Society is auxiliary to the Post. One thing was very interesting the temperance volunteers performing their part, all wearing badges and costumes representing different nationalities, children from six to twelve years old, doing their part with much credit to themselves and their teacher. The whole proceedings were carried out in an unsectarian, non-political party spirit. The W. C. T. U. has much to do with it.

J. NOBLE.

SALE & C.—The Sewing Circle of Cross Creek, York Co. have decided to hold their fancy sale on Tuesday June 21st at 2 o'clock, also a tea to begin at 5 P. M., and a concert in the evening. Proceeds to go towards the completion of the new F. C. Baptist Church.

R. W. CARPENTER.

THE MAINE CENTRAL.—We have received the programme of the twenty-fourth anniversary exercises of the Main Central Institute (Free Baptist), at Pittsfield, Me. The anniversary was on the 9th, inst. Mr. E. S. Parker, a licentiate of the N. S. Conference, was in the graduating class, and wrote the class ode. The Institute is evidently doing good work.

ORDINATION.—Dr. DeBlois, Principal of the U. B. Seminary, was ordained at St. Martins on Wednesday last. The following was the order of service:

Invocation—Rev. John Coombes, of Rothesay.
Hymn—Read by Rev. M. C. Higgins, B. A., of Wolfville, N. S.
Reading of Scripture—Rev. David Long, of Norton.
Prayer—Rev. A. E. Ingram, of St. John.

Reading of hymn by Rev. W. D. Manzer, of Hampton.
Sermon by Rev. G. O. Gates, M. A. of St. John.
Ordaining prayer by Rev. B. N. Hughes, of Havelock.

Hand of fellowship by Rev. C. W. Williams, M. A., of St. Martins.
Charge to the candidate by Rev. E. J. Grant, of Sussex.
Addresses of welcome on behalf of the Free Baptist denomination by Rev. G. A. Hartley, of St. John; on behalf of the Baptist denomination by Rev. Dr. Day, of Sheffield.
Reading hymn by Licentiate G. P. C. White, B. A.

Benediction by Rev. Dr. DeBlois. The sermon was earnest and inspiring, from the text, "A Servant of Jesus Christ."

Dr. DeBlois enters upon his important duties as principal of the seminary at St. Martins with the sympathy and confidence of all members of the two denominations whose interests are joined in its support.

NORMAL SCHOOL.—The final examinations at the Normal School are taking place this week.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY of the Presbyterian church in Canada is in session in Montreal.

The Congregational Union of Canada is holding its annual meeting in the same city.

C. T. A. NOTES.—The law is being well enforced in Northumberland now. The present inspector is pushing prosecutions with good effect.

One sign that the law is uncomfortable for the rum men is that they are starting a petition to have a repeal vote. The friends of the law and sobriety need to watch their repeal movement very closely.

In this city, last week, John Goodreau was sent to jail for two months for furnishing rum to Indians. What about the fellows who furnish it to others than Indians? It might be well to look after them just a little.

RETURNED.—Rev. E. W. Kelly (Baptist), for ten years missionary in Burmah, is home for rest. He was pastor of Lienster St. St. John Baptist church before entering the missionary services.

BEREAVED.—Rev. Wm. Downey received a despatch on Friday announcing the death of the wife of his son, Rev. G. A. Downey, of Canning N. S. Bro. Downey visited his son about three weeks ago, and says that his daughter-in-law was then in good health, and he has not yet received any particulars of the illness resulting in her death. The bereaved husband and children, and others touched by this death, will have the profound sympathy of many friends, in which we join.

THE METHODIST CONFERENCE of N. B. and P. E. I. begins at Charlottetown next Wednesday.

THE WESTERN BAPTIST ASSOCIATION of this Province is to meet in this city on the Saturday of next week.

SEMINARY REPORT.—After the report printed in this number was in type, and too late to make any change, another in some respects fuller account of the proceedings at the Seminary closing came to hand. We will endeavour to give next week the portions of it not included in the report given.

A VALUABLE WORK.—The St. John Sun has just issued a sixteen page illustrated supplement dealing with Fredericton and Marysville, N. B. There are over one hundred engravings, including views of the two towns and glimpses of adjacent scenery, views of the public and private buildings and numerous portraits, the latter including those of the Lieutenant-Governor and Lady Tilley, His Lordship the Metropolitan of Canada, all the Members of the Provincial Government and nearly all the Members of the whole Legislature, and all the Judges of the N. B. Supreme Court, each portrait accompanied by a brief biographical sketch. A quaint feature among the portraits is the picture of Sachem Gabe, the Millicet Indian guide who has piloted the Prince of Wales and many other notables by stream and forest in New Brunswick.

Views of Fredericton's famous Cathedral, the N. B. University, Normal School, Government House, Victoria Hospital, all the Churches and a number of Historical Views also embellish the issue. Perhaps the most interesting pages are those which treat of Maryville, the marvellous town built by Alexander Gibson on the Nashwaak, with its great Cotton and Lumber Mills, and of which a series of large views are given. Whoever sees and reads this number will desire to add these interesting towns and the other delightful places along the beautiful River St. John to the list of places to be visited. The Sun's supplement is historical and descriptive. It is well written and the illustrations are of high class photographic work, artistic and faithful, both in general execution and in detail.

All who desire to learn something concerning these towns should secure a copy of this valuable publication. No more attractive work of this class has been issued by any Canadian journal. It sets forth admirably the advantages of the St. John River Valley as a resort for summer tourists.

An estimate of the charitable bequests and gifts, in England last year, exclusive of Baron Hirsch's immense benefactions, places the amount at fifteen millions of dollars, as against eleven and a half millions in 1890.

Deaths.

CULBERTSON.—At Waterville, C. Co., on the 21st ult., Susan, beloved wife of William Culbertson, in the 65th year of her age. Sister C. professed religion some 40 years ago, and was baptized by the late Rev. W. Pennington, and then united with the F. C. B. Church, and remained a consistent member during life. Her funeral was very largely attended. The services were led by the writer, assisted by Revs. Perry, Phillips and Swim.—J. S. W.

KIMBALL.—At his residence, Third Tier, Car. Co., on the 3rd inst., of heart disease, Mr. Jedediah Kimball, aged 68 years, leaving a widow, four sons and two daughters, two sisters, and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. Bro. Kimball was only sick a few hours, but during that time his sufferings were intense. Medical aid was summoned, but all was of no avail, and in a short time he passed away. Our brother professed religion and was baptized by Elder Pennington 49 years ago, and united with the Free Baptist Church, Third Tier, of which he was a worthy member until death. Bro. Kimball lived and died a Christian, respected and beloved by all who knew him, and by a consistent walk and a godly conversation, adorned the profession he had made. He walked in the fear of God, and by the Grace of God he endured unto the end. He loved all Christians and yet he was loyal to his own church. Interested in the success of the church, he did not forsake it in adversity. He did his part to sustain the cause of God willingly and cheerfully, but he did it all for Jesus' sake, whose he was and whom he served. The INTELLIGENCER was a welcome visitor to his home, and very often has he spoken words of commendation concerning it and its worthy editor. His sudden death has cast a gloom over the community where he lived. We shall all miss him, but God has taken him to himself. "Thy will, O Lord, be done." It was my privilege, with the members of his family to stand beside his dying bed, and, although he suffered very much, yet we heard him say these words quite often, "Precious Jesus, come and take me; Jesus save me," and when the end came he peacefully fell asleep in Jesus. May God graciously sustain the grief-stricken widow and family. The funeral, which was very largely attended, took place Sabbath afternoon the 5th. The service at the house, church and grave was conducted by the writer, assisted by Rev. C. T. Phillips. Text—Numbers 23:10.—GIDEON SWIM.

HOLMES.—At Connell, C. Co., May 27th, of chronic dyspepsia, Charles Holmes, aged 61 years, leaving a widow, five sons and three daughters, brothers and sisters and numerous relatives and friends to mourn their loss. Bro. Holmes was converted and baptized by Rev. J. N. Barnes, about 32 years ago. He was a good man. He loved Jesus and walked in his love. He was a kind husband, a loving father and a good neighbor. He will be missed in the church, for he was one of the faithful ones. But our loss is his eternal gain. He suffered very much during his last sickness, but bore it all with Christian fortitude and patience. When the end came he was ready and he died in the triumphs of the Gospel. God bless the bereaved ones, and help them to say, "Thy will be done." A large concourse of people attended the funeral, which was conducted by the writer, assisted by Rev. J. N. Barnes and Elder Raymond (Adventist). Text—Hebrews 4:9.—GIDEON SWIM.

McNUTT.—At Waasiss, S. Co., on the 5th inst., of consumption, Samuel McNutt, aged 36 years and 9 months. May the dear Saviour sustain and bless the sorrowing wife and little son.—G. W. F.

CONROY.—At Centreville, on the 4th inst., at the residence of her mother (Mrs. Isaac Tracey) Mrs. Thomas Conroy, widow of the late Thomas Conroy, in the 28th year of her age, leaving one son, mother and other relatives and friends to mourn their loss. Our deceased sister under the labours of Bro. Clark about 18 months ago, made a profession of religion, though she did not follow the Lord in the ordinance of baptism. During her weeks of illness the Lord was with her, and she died happy in his love. The funeral, on the 5th inst. was very largely attended; appropriate services were conducted by the writer at the home, and in the Tracey Mills Church, assisted by Bro. Harvey.—A. C. T.

CAMEROON.—Oak Point, K. Co. May 13th, at the residence of her sister, Mrs. John Flewelling after a lingering illness, Amelia G. Cameron, aged 27 years and eleven months, youngest daughter of the late John and Abigail Cameron of Hampstead Queens County. She professed religion under the labours of the late Rev. B. Werritt and united with the Church of Upper Hampstead, of which she remained a member until her death. She leaves three brothers and three sisters to mourn their loss. She died trusting in Jesus. Funeral sermon was preached from Psalm 16:11, by Rev. I. A. Cosman who visited her in her sickness.
