The three page poem by John G. Whittier, which will appear in the November St. Nicholas Magazine, commemorates the visit of a party of young | country in the world. girls to the poet's home. It contains the following lines, which have a peculiar significance now that the good Quaker poet has passed away:

"I would not if I could repeat A life which still is good and sweet year 1892-3 a better year than any A not uncheerful step with time. And, grateful for all blessings sent, go the common way, content good work in his vineyard this On easy terms with law and fate, For what must be I calmly wait, And trust the path I cannot see,-That God is good sufficeth me. And when at last upon life's play The curtain falls, I only pray That hope may lose itself in truth, And age in Heaven's immortal youth And all our loves and longing prove The foretaste of diviner love.

The Century Magazine will take up the Bible and Science controversy. In answers the question "Does the Bible contain Scientific Errors?" with an emphatic no. He says: "Literary and textual obscurities there may be upon meads our thoughts and knows our the surface of Holy Writ, like spots upon the sun, or rather like motes in the eye; but scientific error in its divine purport would be the sun itself extinguished at noon. Such a Bible could not live in this epoch."

Professor Shields's article will be followed by one in the December Century on "The Effect of Scientific Study upon Religious Beliefs."
