throbbing? When they come near enough to Christ, they will surely feel a great wave of pity roll over them for perishing souls; then another wave of love; then another of patience. What patience one must have to seek after and help souls down in the slums of our towns and cities. There are so many tendencies to drag men and women downward. The very air they breathe is tainted with sin and death.

What we want to-day is men and women, dead to the world and so filled with Christ's spirit, that they shall be willing to come out from their homes of comfort and refinement; willing to go down into these lower haunts and, with their own hands, administer practical help to the sick and dying. We must reach their souls through their bodies. Christ's mission was one of healing the sick and making the body comfortable. He knew it was very little good to tell them they had souls until their poor, suffering bodies were relieved.

Let us try to come near the poor, forsaken, discouraging mothers, whose bodies are wasting away for the bare necessities of life. Let us come with kindness and sympathy written on our faces, and tell them we are God's messengers, sent by him to administer food and medicine and raiment. And see if it won't teach them faith in God? Then when their faith is increased, they will teach it to their children and those around them. Christ's life touched the lives of the common people. So must our home missionaries know how to get close to the lives of the poor and wretched if they would win them to Christ. And how do they learn this gift of gifts? By suffering loss of some kind, crushed and bleeding. Then finding that Jesus alone can heal, when he has healed, they will be anxious to tell others "Jesus saves."

Our Lord and Master gives to everyone his work. Some are called to give their time, some to give of money and stores. Those who go out to labor among the poor must be equipped with means. God help the home missionary who goes among the sick and suffering with no means to help them. Only God can understand how the hearts of workers must ache to see suffering and not be able to relieve it. Alas! how the work is crippled for want of means. Christian men and women living in homes of comfort, who know no hunger, cold or want, let me appeal to you in the name of our Heavenly Father, whose whole being is love, and in the name of Christ our Saviour, to give of your money, food and raiment to the wretched, and despised, remembering he has said, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

EXPERIENCE.

Mission News and Notes.

—There is in Japan one missionary to every 65,000 natives.

—The Canadian Baptists are meeting with signal success in their Telugu Mission.

—Within two years the Church Missionary Society has sent 150 new missionaries into the various foreign fields.

—Native converts in Japan, with average wages of less than twenty-five cents a day, contributed last year $27,000 to mission work.

—The first Christian building in Tokio was erected twenty-five years ago. There are now ninety-two Christian churches and chapels there.

—David Livingstone could say, "People talk of the sacrifice I have made in spending so much in Africa. Say, rather, it is a privilege. I never made a sacrifice."

—There are now about twenty-five missionaries of the Church of England of various other bodies carrying on work among the lepers in different parts of the world.

—A Chinese clergyman was asked how many clergy he thought there were in England. "Perhaps 1,500," he said. When he heard that there were 24,000, "Can you not," he asked, "spare 1,000 for China?"

—It is twenty years since the London Missionary Society sent its first workers to New Guinea, and the progress during this time has been something wonderful. If, as we ought, we reckon Australia as a continent, New Guinea, is the largest island in the world. Port Moresby has been one of the principal stations, but recently a new island, Kwato, has been occupied and an institution is to be established there for the training of native teachers. The summary of the missionary work in the island is given in the Chronicle of the London Society, as follows: "There are fifty-three stations dotted along the southeast coast, a staff of six missionaries, over thirty South Sea Island teachers, and some twenty New Guineans. There are more than 2,000 children under instruction, and between 400 and 500 church members; while church members; while last, but not least, Rev. W. G. Lawes, the senior of the New Guinea, staff of missionaries, during his recent visit to England, took through the press the whole of the New Testament in the Motuan dialect, all of which things are fraught with encouragement and promises for the future."

Denominational News.

REV. J. N. BARNES passed through this city last week, on his way to the First District where he is expecting to spend this year. He is in good health, and goes to the new field in the faith of the promise, "Lo, I am with you always."

FROM REV. T. S. VANWART.—I was more than glad to hear that the Conference was so good. The days that the brethren were at Conference were sad days to me; but I have become accustomed to such experiences. Thank God He is a present help in time of trouble; I know Him to be to the needy soul all He has promised to be.

I expect to spend the year with the Waterville pastorate, which comprises Waterville, Charleston, Seventh Tier and Lakeville. Pray for us.

T. S. VANWART.

Literary Notes.

The October Wide Awake is a real "Discovery Number" alike in text and illustrations. Its frontispiece is a unique and dainty drawing "In 1492," and shows a group of children waving their good-bys to Columbus as he sets sail on his quest for a new world.

There is a brief story of the coming of the discoveries from an Indian boy's standpoint. An ode and chorus, "In 1492," fifty introduces this "Discovery Number." The rest of the number is full of excellent things. There is a southern story, "The Bee Hunters," an astronomical story, "The Youngest Planet and how he became a Comet," the story of Cinderella, modernized; a description of that rough and tumble college sport "A Canoe Rush," "I Spy," a boy's story; an account of the life of "The Diver," "Some Simple Astronomy," a sketch of adventure "On Board a Pirate Junk," and chapters in the two serials, "The Coral Ship," and "That Mary Ann." This number is of especial value as a memento of the historic month it commemorates. Price 20 cents a number, $2.40 a year. On sale at news stands or sent postpaid on receipt of price, by D. Lothrop Company, Publishers, Boston.

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

Marriages.

FLETCHER-PHILLIPS.—At the Parsonage, Fredericton, Oct. 13th, by Rev. F. C. Hartley, Joseph Fletcher to Effie Phillips, both of Ruskomish, N. S.

RECKER-MORRELL.—At the residence of the bride's father, City Road, on the 12th inst, by Rev. J. W. Clarke Mr. Mont Rieker to Miss Alice May Morrell, both of St. John.

Deaths.

BELEY.—In Chelsea, Mass., on the 10th inst, Mrs. Mary A. Beley, aged 77 years, formerly of this city.

GOSLINE.—In Carleton, on the 3rd August, Thomas Harold, son of Hartley Gosline, aged 1 year and 5 months.

VANWART.—At Fort Fairfield, Me., on the 4th inst, D. W., aged 38 years, eldest son of Rev. T. S. VanWart. His remains were brought to Waterville, C. Co., and buried beside his brother. He leaves a young widow, parents, one brother and five sisters besides a large number of relatives and friends to mourn their loss.

ELDRIDGE.—At Beaver Harbour, Char. Co., Sept. 30th, 1892 George Eldridge, aged 78 years and 4 months, after a long and painful illness, which he bore with christian resignation. He was for many years an active member of the F. C. B. church, having experienced religion in the year 1862, under the teachings of Rev. A. Taylor. Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord. He leaves a sorrowing wife, three sons, four daughters and a large circle of friends to mourn their loss. The funeral on Sunday was largely attended. The services were conducted by Rev. F. C. Wright, who gave an able and interesting discourse. Text—John 11:25, 26.

WEST.—At Centerville, C. Co., on the 10th inst, of consumption, Mrs. Edward L. West, in the 30th year of her age, leaving a sorrowing husband, 3 children, 2 sisters and a very large circle of friends to mourn their loss. Our departed sister was the 3rd daughter of James Fitzherbert of Tracey Mills, C. Co. Twelve years ago under the labors of Elder Taylor she professed religion and was baptized by him, and united to the Tracey Mills F. C. B. church of which she continued a respected and much loved member up to her death, which we can only regard as being a transfer from this branch of the church militant, to the church triumphant at ve. For nearly two years the fatal disease was at work, slowly but surely bearing her down to death. But during all her suffering she was remarkably patient, and with steadfast faith and trust in her Saviour, she could look death in the face, and fear no evil, being fully conscious of His presence with her. Almost her last words were, "Lord Jesus take me home," and the Lord very graciously answered her petition. Many sadly mourn her loss, yet we can but believe it has been great gain to her. The remembrance of her strong, positive christian character must work for good to those that knew her. The funeral on the 12th was very largely attended. In the absence of the pastor appropriate service were conducted by Bro. Phillips assisted by Bro. E. B. Grey, Rev. Thomas Todd (Bap.) and Rev. Mr. Parkins (Meth.). A. C. T. ## Electors of York.

GENTLEMEN:

At a large and influential Convention representing the temperance societies of the County of York I had the honor of being nominated by unanimous vote as a candidate for the representation of York County in the Local Legislature, and at a large convention of Orangemen this nomination was most heartily endorsed.

It is believed that the time has come when more attention should be given to temperance legislation in both the local legislature and in the federal parliament.

If elected I shall regard it my chief duty:

1st. To endeavor to secure a provincial plebiscite on the question of "for or against the prohibition of the Liquor Traffic," for the purpose of definitely ascertaining the wish of the people regarding this question.

2nd. To secure by all proper and lawful means a full enforcement of the Scott Act in this County.

3rd. To maintain every present restriction upon the traffic, in the belief that drinking is proportionate to the sale of intoxicating liquors, and that every restriction tends to diminish the consumption.

4th. To agitate for the enactment of a law which shall totally prohibit the importation, manufacture and sale of all alcoholic liquors as beverages in this province if it is within the jurisdiction of the Provincial Legislature, and in the Dominion through the Federal Government.

5th. To maintain the Free School Act in its integrity, to stand as an exponent of the principles of "equal rights to all and special privileges to none," and to strenuously oppose any government or party giving special favors to any religious denomination.

On all general questions my attitude will be strictly independent. I will support, irrespective of party, all legislation which is in the public interests, and which will oppose all that is detrimental to the moral and material welfare of the people, always having in view the best interests of York County. There will be no shirking responsibilities in the way of voting.

My appeal is to the unpurchased and unpurchasable voters of the County.

The time being short it will be impossible for me to visit all parts of the County before election day but I feel that I may safely rely on the friends of the principles represented in my candidature, to rally to my support.

Sincerely Yours,

HERMAN H. PITTS.
