troubles in Uganda, arising from the conflicting interests of Catholic and Protestant missionaries have had to do with the opening of the negotiations. According to reports the whole blame is laid upon the Protestants. We cannot believe that the Protestants wantonly attacked the Roman Catholics on account of their religion. We suspend judgment until we hear the Protestant version of the affair.

FORT FAIRFIELD.—I have just returned from Fort Fairfield having spent a week there laboring with the new church of that place. On Sabbath 17th inst., I baptized seven persons, who with two others were added to the church. Others are to be baptized on the first Sabbath in August next, (D. V.)

J. J. BARNES.

SEVENTH DISTRICT.—Blank forms have been forwarded to all the churches comprising the District to be filled up by the churches and Sunday Schools.

The several churches will please be particular to have the reports ready in time, and send them forward by their delegates to the D. M., to be held with the Church at Carleton, Saint John, commencing at 10 o'clock a. m. on the fourth Saturday in August. Ministers to attend: Revs. E. B. Gray, J. T. Parsons and David Long. Let there be a full representation from the churches, and full reports including that on Baptist Union.

HOME MISSION REPORT.—As I have been labouring in this church for more than a month, it is right that I should report to the Home Mission board.

I came to the Upper Hampstead Church on Saturday June 11th, and found myself heartily welcomed by the friends in this vicinity. The people were hungry for the Word, and wondered whom the Lord would send. They were both surprised and pleased to know that the Board had sent some one to labour among them. Since the above date I have preached twice each Sabbath in the Upper Hampstead Church, started a prayer meeting for each Wednesday evening, and organized a Sabbath School. Though this appears but a little, yet it is really more than it seems, for since the departure of Bro. S. J. Perry, in the spring the church has been entirely closed—no meeting of any kind except an occasional funeral. The people, were, to a certain degree, discouraged, and somewhat despondent. But they are feeling a little better, and I hope and pray that the community may exert itself more vigorously in the cause of Christ.

I have made thirty-eight calls, and wherever I went I found the people pleasant and kind. Whenever I left a home I received strong invitations to come again.

I have held ten preaching services, three prayer-meetings and three sessions of the Sabbath School. The work has its pleasures and its discouragements, but I am trusting that good shall be done in the name of the Master.

The church held a business meeting, warmly accepting my services for the summer, and immediately started a good subscription list to raise my salary.

I have found an excellent home at Bro's. Jos. and Chas. Ebbett's house, and my address is Lower Gagetown, Queens Co. N. B.

W. R. REUD.

FROM REV. J. NOBLE.—Permit me a little space to let my friends know where I have been, where I am now, and how I have been the past two months. In the first place, my health has been good; I have not done much but drive around and visit old friends and attend some meetings. I left home the 11th of June to attend the monthly conference in Lower Brighton. This church was organized about 62 years ago. My eldest sister was, I believe, one of the charter members, and is the only one now living. Their conference and Sabbath meetings have been kept up from the first, whether they had a preacher or had none. I was with them on the Sabbath. That week I spent in Brighton; attended prayer meeting in Upper Brighton on Wednesday evening and in Hartland on Thursday evening, Friday visited two old friends, and in the evening reached Windsor where the District

Meeting was to convene the next day an account of which meeting has already been published. Being appointed, with other brethren, to look after some weak churches, on Wednesday I went to Lakeville to help them get a start in repairing their Meeting House, in which we made a good beginning. The next day I left for Aroostook County, Maine, to visit some friends who had moved from Hampstead, Queens Co.; made a short but pleasant visit and attended the Presque Isle Quarterly meeting; and it was a season of refreshing from the presence of the Lord. The meeting on Saturday was as good as the one at Windsor the Saturday before, and all who were at that know what a blessed season that was; for the Lord was with us. The Sunday morning prayer meeting was good too. Brother Foster, their former pastor, who now is located at Caribou, preached a good and helpful sermon; in the afternoon I spoke, and, after the communion, left. I enjoyed the exercises and the spirit of the meeting much. I returned home on Monday, and left the next Thursday for the Fifth District Meeting at Tenants Cove, Kings Co., and the Sixth at Kierstead Mountain. I did not reach the first named in time for the first meeting, but was told it was a very good meeting but rather weak in spirit. The reports of the churches show the District as a whole rather weak, I think. Brother DeWare gave a good sermon in the evening. Friday I started for the Sixth District meeting, taking Brother John Perry with me. At 2 p. m. the conference commenced; we had a good meeting; old and young testified to the Lord's goodness; more than fifty took part; in the evening Bro. Samuel Perry preached a good sermon. Saturday was devoted to business, Sunday evening I went to Penobscot with brother Currie. Monday morning I spent with Bro. Long, and in the afternoon went to see Sister Sharp, who still lives waiting patiently till her change comes. Giving up the idea of going further east, having learned that the places I had intended to visit are now supplied, I turned my face up the country. The day was so hot that I laid by all the afternoon. The next morning I crossed the Lake, drove over to Jemseg and up the interval to St. Marys, crossed at Fredericton, and home the next day. I am intending now to do some work allotted me by the second District Meeting, and then I think I will go to Beaver Harbour and Campbell, and remain until the Third and Fourth District Meetings.

J. NOBLE.
Woodstock.

VACATION AND DONATION.—The Carleton F. C. Baptist church has granted their pastor, Rev. G. A. Hartley a vacation and presented him with a well-filled purse. Mr. Hartley leaves the city today with his friend, T. S. Simms, for their old tenting ground at Camp Liberty, Birch island, North Branch Lake, Oromocto. They will this year miss the pleasant company of Rev. Mr. Parsons, who has been one of the party for several years.—The Sun.

SUNDRIES.—The first mention of w. i. d. g. is found in Exodus xvii. 14. If all the money in the world were equally divided among civilized people, every person would get six dollars as his share.... The value of the oysters consumed in London yearly is about $3,000,000.... There is nothing like having one thing show great adaptability. The new German tent is divisible into two portions, each of which can be converted into an overcoat in case of rain.... A woman of Caribou, Me., tendered a Confederate note of $20 in payment for goods recently, and was indignant when the shopkeeper refused to take it.... It cost the present emperor of China to get married no less a sum than £2,000,000.... It is estimated that $3,500,000 theater tickets are issued in the United States every week at fifty cents each. The total sum expended every year for this form of amusement would amount to $91,000,000.... There are 10,000 Chinese shoemakers in California.... Philadelphia has 725 miles of paved streets. The material used is principally cobble stones.... Canada was discovered by Cabot in 1499; explored by the French, 1508, 1524 and 1534; settled, 1540; Quebec built, 1603; taken first by England, 1628.... A gold brick recently shipped from Yuma, Arizona, to San Francisco is said to be worth $90,000.... The people of Rome get their supply of water, which is said to be remarkably pure, from the Apennines through an aqueduct that was constructed 2,000 years ago.... An electric railway is projected which it is to run from St. Petersburg to Archangel, Russia, a distance of more than 800 miles.... One of the keepers of the Philadelphia Zoo says that an elephant will tremble with fear at the sight of a mouse.

CORRECTION.—The Clerk of the Fifth District wrote in his report of the meeting, printed last week, that "592 are resident members." We hope the types did not say too much when they made them out "excellent" members.

TEA-MEETING. A Tea meeting will be held at Gordonsville, C. Co., on Wednesday August 24th. The proceeds are to be appropriated to furnishing the F. C. B. Church. Tickets 50 cents; children under 12, twenty-five cents.

Literary Notes.

In order to stimulate American composition, The Ladies Home Journal has just made public an attractive series of liberal prizes for the best original musical composition by composers resident in the United States and Canada. The prizes call for a waltz, a piano composition, a pleasing ballad and a popular song, an anthem and the four best hymn tunes. The competition is open until November 1st, next.

Littell's Living Age. The numbers of The Living Age for July 9th and 16th contain The French Decadence, Quarterly; Society in Corsica, and The Gaucheries of Tenerife, National; Our Parish in Ireland, New Review; Glimpses of Carlyle, Fortnightly; Sketches from Eastern Travel, and the Yarrow of Woodsworth and Scott, Blackwood; An Over-Administered Nation, and A Noble Lady, Macmillan's; Concerning Leigh Hunt, Cornhill; An Episode in the Life of Gounod, Temple Bar; Punch's Understudy, Speaker; with instalments of "Rosemary for Remembrance," "Aunt Anne," and poetry, $8.00 a year.

The August Century will contain an illustrated article on "An Ascent of Fuji the Peerless." Japan's great sacred mountain is called variously Fuji-san, yama, Fuji-san, Fujiyama, Fusi-yama, and Fuji plain and simple, but the first two are considered the proper spellings.

Prof. David P. Todd, will describe in the August Century an ascent of Fuji-san, the sacred mountain of Japan. His expedition was one of several which have been made possible by the bequest of a wealthy and eccentric Boston gentleman, who left a fortune of $200,000 to a Board of Trustees, with discretionary power, to employ it in establishing and maintaining an astronomical observatory on some mountain peak. The fund is now managed by the Harvard College Observatory, and experimental research has been conducted at high altitudes in different parts of the globe in order to show the precise nature of the improved conditions of vision, and to ascertain the best location for the mountain observatory.

The Missionary Review of the World for August presents a number of papers and discussions of particular interest. Among them are: "Father Angelico of Polina," "Boniface, The Apostle of Germany," "The Greatest Work in the World, A Plea for Missionary Enterprise," "Ireland and Foreign Missions," "Praying for Missions," "The Reflex Influence of Giving to Missions," "The Empress of China and the Missionaries." The International Department and the other departments are rich in interest and cover a broad field.

Published by the Funk & Wagnalls Company, 18 and 20 Astor Place, New York. $2 per year; 25 cents for single numbers. In clubs of ten, $1.50.

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

Marriages.

FRAZER-CARSON.—At the residence of the bride's father, July 19th, by Rev. Abram Perry, Oliver Frazer of St. John, to Eliza, youngest daughter of James Carson, of Havelock, K. Co.

WEBB-DEWITT.—At the Free Baptist parsonage, Fredericton, July 22nd, by Rev. F. C. Hartley, Austin Webb, to Elizabeth DeWitt, both of Blainville, Sanbury Co.

DUNPHY-DEAFER.—At the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. H. A. Bonnell, Mr. Frank W. Dunphy, of Kingsclear, to Miss Johanna, daughter of George Draper of Southampton, York Co.

Deaths.

McFARLANE.—At Campbell Settlement, York Co., July 6th, Henry McFarlane, aged 75 years. His end was peace.

BABCOCK.—At North Head, Grand Manan, July 13th, of general debility, Alethea, wife of Albert Babcock, aged 42 years and 7 months. "They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and the word of their testimony."

BELETA.—At Wickham, Queens County, July 10th, John Beleta, aged 78 years, leaving a widow and one brother to mourn their loss. Funeral service conducted by Rev. C. E. Lewis.

BUNKER.—At Woodstock, July 2nd, Percy, infant son of Merton and Lillie Bunker, aged 3 months and 24 days.

NOBLES.—At St. John (North End) June 20th, of Cholera Infantum, Guy P., son of Rev. B. H. and Autta A. Nobles, aged one year and five months. Though only a child, he had endeared himself to all who knew him. Bright and promising, he was the joy of the home. The affliction was made more sad by the fact that Mrs. Nobles through all of Guy's sickness and his death, was confined to her bed. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved parents by many friends. A very impressive service was conducted at the parsonage by Revs. J. W. Clarke and S. Welton. The body was taken to Bellisle, the old home of Bro. Nobles, for interment. The funeral service was conducted by Revs. J. W. Clarke and W. G. Corey. "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

PORTER.—On May 16th, Deacon Daniel B. Porter, of Springville, Digby County, passed away in the 81st year of his age. At the organization of the Beaver River F. B. church, Bro. Porter was chosen deacon by his brethren and he held that position until his demise. In his death the church has indeed sustained a great loss. The Sabbath School has lost an earnest worker. For a number of years he was teacher of the Bible class and he was beloved and respected by all. During the few days of his sickness he was very cheerful, and several times said, "That I should be laid to rest in the arms of my dear friends, and be with Christ; but he was willing to stay here and work for the Lord if his word was not done." But the Master saw fit to translate his soul from this earth to heaven, and his gain will be our loss." The funeral service was attended by Revs. Kinney, Comman and E. W. Robinson. A wife and five children are left to mourn the loss of a loving husband and affectionate father. ARTHUR G. JONES.

RAYMOND.—On the 10th inst., Brother Eleazer Raymond of Port Maitland, Yar. County, passed away in the 75th year of his age. Bro. Raymond had been ailing for several weeks and the pain at times that he endured was intense, still he was a patient and lay waiting for his Lord's coming. He was converted between fifty and sixty years ago and joined the Beaver River F. B. church of which he was an honored member until his death. He will be missed, not only by his church, but by those who reside in the community to which he was so much attached and had lived in for so many years. Those friends who have called to visit him and to dispense comfort—have indeed sat by his bedside and instead of comforting, they have been comforted by his words. The way was not dark to him, for he knew that his Christ was leading him on, and all was light. He leaves a widow and eight children to mourn the loss of a kind and loving husband and affectionate father. Funeral service was conducted by Revs. A. Kinney, W. H. Robinson and the writer. ARTHUR G. JONES.

RODGERS.—At the residence of her daughter, Mrs. John Sullenger, Cambridge, Mass., July 12th, of cancer in the face, Mary Jane Rodgers, widow of the late Thomas Rodgers, aged 76 years. Sister Rodgers was for many years a resident of St. John, N. B. More than 30 years ago she professed religion under the labours of the late Rev. A. Taylor, who was at that time conducting a series of revival services in the old Temperance Hall, Portland, and united with the Waterford St. F. C. B. church, during the pastorate of the late Rev. E. McLeod. Since that time sister Rodgers has lived a consistent christian life. For something more than a year she has suffered more than tongue can tell. During the months of her illness she often spoke of her trust in Jesus, and of her desire to depart and be with Christ. She endured unto the end, therefore she thought that she is saved cheers those who mourn. We sorrow not, as those that do. Sister Rodgers leaves 9 children, 6 of whom are in the U. S., and others are in N. B. There are 33 grand children, and 15 great grand children. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Kelly, Baptist. We laid grandmother Rodgers in the Cambridge cemetery, to await the sound of the Trumpet of God. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints." "He giveth his beloved sleep." W. J. HALSE.

ARLINGTON, R. I.
DUNFIELD.—Deacon John B. Dunfield, died at his own residence, 21st inst, of apoplexy after a seven week's sickness, aged 51 years. He leaves a wife, seven children, two grand children, four brothers and two sisters to mourn their loss. He suffered much at times during his sickness; when conscious he spoke with confidence of hope in God and his prospect of the future bright prepared for his redeemed people in heaven. Deacon Dunfield was a good man, strong in faith, giving glory to God. Faithful in his attendance at all the meetings, his testimonies were good, clear and scriptural with a point to them. He professed religion under the labours of Rev. Benjamin Sherwood some 19 years ago and was baptized and joined the church at Corn Hill, K. C. Our brother was one of the few who for a number of years, worked faithfully to have the finances of the church in a good healthy condition and we are happy to say that to see his hopes realized. Deacon Dunfield was a faithful husband, a good Father, a kind neighbour and a true citizen. His house was a home for all of God's dear servants. He was a lover of good men. Not only his beloved companion, his children, his brothers and sisters and the church has sustained a loss, but the entire place feels it as well. The sorrowing ones have the heart-felt sympathy of the people generally, we believe. May the blessed Lord sustain them in this sad bereavement. His prayer. This is the third deacon that the church has been called to part with by death in less than three years. May their mantle fall on some other with double power. The funeral was largely attended. Ministers in attendance were Rev. A. Perry, Rev. Mr. Brown (Baptist) and the writer improved the occasion from John 16: 21.
