THE SUFFERING SAVIOUR.

—Isa. 53:1-12.

GOLDEN TEXT.—The Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.—Isa. 53:6.

THE SUFFERING SAVIOUR.—Vers. 1-3. Who hath believed our report? The speakers are the believing children of Israel, including the messengers who brought the report, in the time of Messiah. Our report: or that which we have heard. The strange story of salvation that has been reported among us. And to whom is the arm of the Lord revealed? The arm is a symbol of power, as it is the instrument by which we execute our purposes. Revealed. Made known, seen, understood. He shall grow (rather, he grew) up before him. Before God, cared for and preserved by God, even amid such unfavorable circumstances. As a tender plant. That is, a slender plant, thin and insignificant. Of no reputation, from a family nearly extinct, like a tender plant springing unnoticed from its root, hid in a barren and dry land, out of which nothing eminent was expected. And as a root (springing) out of a dry ground. The root is a shoot left in the ground after the tree has been felled. The dry ground is the corrupt character of the age. He hath no form nor comeliness. Referring to his state of abasement rather than to his own personal beauty. He had no robes of royalty, no diadem, no splendid retinue, no gorgeous army. No beauty that we should desire him. There is nothing in his appearance to make us desire him, or feel attracted to him. All this does not deny his personal attractiveness and loveliness to those who came to him, and to the poor and needy. He is (was) despised. Looked down upon by the great, by the world at large. And rejected of men. Deserted of men, one from whom men held themselves aloof, rejected by the Jews; by the rich, the great and the learned; by the mass of men of every grade and age and rank. A man of sorrows, The plural, because of their number. Acquainted with grief. Rather, with suffering. He was well acquainted with grief, its familiar friend. And we hid as it were our faces from him. We turned our backs upon him, refusing to hear or believe. "He came unto his own and his own received him not." And we esteemed him not. Did not recognize his worth. The rejection of Jesus was the consummation of his sorrow. Then his cup was full. Surely he hath born our griefs. He bore his undeserved sufferings as a sacrifice on behalf of his people. Griefs includes sorrow, but it means something more, viz., the outward punishment of sin. Carried our sorrows. Our pains. Jesus is not only loving, but divine, and still bears the griefs of his children away, by removing them, or by transforming them into blessings, and by the many ways in which the Gospel lessens the troubles and sicknesses of men. Yet we did esteem him stricken. Although all he suffered was for us, and not for his own sins. Stricken, smitten of God. These phrases evidently allude to the disease of leprosy, which was called pre-eminently a stroke, plague, and regarded as a punishment for grievous sin. But still setting forth his contrast. He was wounded...bruised. Pierced, crushed. Transgressions. Going over the boundaries of right. Iniquities. Iniquities, acting against the right of others. The chastisement of our peace. The chastisement by which our peace is won. The word peace includes all health and blessedness. The only remedy yet found for sin is Christ bearing and bearing away the sins of men, for all who are willing to receive it by repenting and believing on him.

THE NEED OF ATONEMENT. All we. Every human being. Like sheep have gone astray. Sheep without a shepherd which have lost their way, and that in the country where they are exposed to the ravages of wild beasts, are the very picture of helplessness; and such was and is the condition of man, needing to be sought as well as saved. We have turned every one to his own way. Following his own pleasure, and not what was right. And the Lord. As part of his plan of redemption. Hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. The sorrows that were due for our iniquity, the punishment that we escape, has fallen on him. He took our place of his own free choice. And as he was really God, God himself thus bore our sins, and is our Redeemer. He was oppressed. All his ill-treatment was unjust and oppressive. He was afflicted. Rather, he submitted himself to affliction; he accepted it voluntarily for the sake of saving men. He is brought as a lamb to the slaughter. The essential truth taught here by the figures of the sheep and lamb is the quiet non-resistance with which Christ submitted to all the indignity put upon him. He was taken from prison. By oppression and judgment he was taken away; through a judgment accompanied with oppression "he was taken away by a violent death." Who shall declare (or consider) his generation? Who can describe the wickedness of the men of this time; And he made (they made) his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death. Jesus was put to death with the wicked on the cross, and they thought to bury him in a criminal's grave. They appointed his grave with the wicked, but by a striking providence the same authority gave permission to a rich man, Joseph of Arimathea, who provided him with an honorable burial in his own rock-hewn tomb. Because he had done no violence. He did not deserve to be classed with the wicked. He was sinless. Yet it pleased the Lord. Not, it was pleasant, delightful, but it was the Lord's will. It was not an accident, but the divine plan, which no evil men could overrule. He had joy in the suffering only because the results were so surpassingly joyous, and could be gained in no other way. When thou shalt make. The construction in the margin, when he shall make, is the one now usually adopted. His soul. His life, his own heart's blood. An offering for sin. A guilt offering, a trespass offering. As in ver. 5, the divine Servant is represented as a sin offering, his death being an expiation; so here he is described as a guilt offering, his death being a satisfaction. He shall see his seed. His spiritual children, those born by the Spirit into a holy and divine life like his. He shall prolong his days. His days, which seemed to be brought to an end prematurely, shall be prolonged by a joyful resurrection. The pleasure of the Lord; the salvation of men, their redemption from sin, and the flourishing of the fruits of the Spirit—love, joy, etc. All these shall prosper in his hand, or under his government or direction. No power has ever yet been found like Christ for producing in men the character and the deeds which please the Lord. He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied. It is here promised that he shall behold the blessed effects of those sufferings, and be satisfied with them. By his knowledge. By the knowledge of him. By his sacrifice of love being made known to men, and by the experimental knowledge of him in their hearts, the spirit of knowledge bestowed on the Messiah. My righteous servant. The righteous one, my servant. None but a perfect being could make atonement. Justify many. Cause them to be treated as just or righteous before God, and also make them truly just in heart and life. And those thus saved shall not be few, but many. For he shall bear their iniquities. All this shall be by means of the atonement which shall have force all down the ages. Therefore. Because he suffered for men. Will I divide him a portion with the great. His kingdom should rule among the nations. He shall divide the spoil with the strong. There shall flow to him and his kingdom the wealth, the strength, the numbers, that the strongest nations possess. Because. Again referring to the vicarious atonement as the means.

W. C. T. Union.

OUR MOTTO.—If God be for us, who can be against us.

Fourteenth Annual Report.

The Secretary, Mrs. Sampson, presented at the last meeting, the following report of 1891:

The first work of the New Year was providing a dinner for a hundred boys and girls, the union was ably assisted by generous contributions from the public. Several addresses were given, each little one went home laden with gifts of fruit and candy.

The first meeting of the year took place on Wednesday Jan. 7th, a prayer service occupied the first hour, after which was the election of officers. With one or two exceptions the whole staff was returned.

President, Mrs. L. W. Johnston; First Vice President, Mrs. Boyce; 2nd, Mrs. Beek; 3rd, Mrs. McLeod; 4th, Mrs. Shenton; 5th, Mrs. Randolph; Treasurer, Mrs. Philips; Auditor, Mrs. Hatt; Cor. Sec., Mrs. Steadman; Rec. Sec., Mrs. Sampson.

Superintendents of departments, Evangelistic, Mrs. Tweedie; Literature, Mrs. Steadman; Lumber camps, Mrs. Hatt; Scientific Temperance Instruction, Mrs. Johnston; By special vote, the dept. of Social Purity and White Cross, was adopted.

A class in Calisthenics for young girls was formed under the supervision of Mrs. Hatt, in Temperance Hall, with Sergeant Gregory Instructor. Proceeds presented to the Union amounted to $38.00. At Easter the Union proposed to devote a portion of time to drill in parliamentary usage, the first was held under the leadership of Mrs. Frank Rastean.

The sum of $50.00 was donated to Springhill Union in aid of the sufferers from the mining disaster, which was gratefully acknowledged by the secretary.

During the spring months a lively debate on Woman's Suffrage was incited, by the circulation of a petition to Parliament for the extension of the franchise to these subjects of her Majesty, and was being generally signed. Mrs. Steadman took the affirmative, and Mrs. Shenton, the negative. The debate occupied several meetings, and elicited a large amount of talent on each side. The vote resulted in 27 for the affirmative, and for the negative, 7. In April the Union received a cheque for $9.80, from Mr. McCready, being a legacy from his late wife whose early death was regretted by every member of our Union.

In common with all others the W. C. T. U. felt deeply for the bereaved by the disaster at Springhill mines, and unanimously voted the sum of $50.00 to be expended for the benefit of the survivors.

In this month our first effort was made to establish a Mother's meeting. One afternoon each month was to be devoted to readings, and conversation on selected topics, previous to making it a regularly organized department. A very interesting address was given by Mrs. Philips on the subject of her department, Scientific Temperance Instruction in the public schools, followed by a discussion in which several members took part.

Two delegates were sent to Chatham County Convention, which was held in May. A new impetus was given to the work in that place from this gathering of earnest, Christian women.

A public meeting was held in the City Hall on the evening of the 24th of May, the president, Mrs. Johnston in the chair. Several of the officers and members of the Union with ministers and members of the different churches took seats on the platform. Address were given, and papers read. Collection $18.00. Net proceeds were sent in response to appeal, to Evanston, Ill.

The usual monthly prayer meeting in June was varied by readings from Senator Blain's work on the effect of alcohol on the brain, and passages from Miss Willard's life. An interesting leaflet was read by Miss Tibbitts, and a short sketch given by Mrs. Boyce, was followed by discussion.

There were no meetings held for the two weeks in June while Dominion convention was in session at St. John.

Crusade day was observed by making a special effort to reach the absent members, many of whom never attend the regular meetings. A committee was formed, and visited the homes of our women, giving to each a copy of the Special Union Signal of Sept. 10th, also a prayer service was held in the parlour, when the presence of the Holy Spirit was made manifest. Mr. J. A. Nichols, the celebrated temperance lecturer occupied the City Hall three nights, his Sunday evening address was a decided success, in drawing large numbers. His visit was under the auspices of the Union, which realized after all expenses the sum of $17.00.

Another very interesting Mother's meeting was held early in November, at which Vice President Mrs. Boyce gave a very earnest and touching address. Special prayer was offered for the success of the World's Convention about to be held in Boston.

On the 17th an all day prayer meeting was held in the parlour, while the election for and against the Scott Act was taking place in Charlotte Co. The result proved a great triumph for temperance, the Scott Act was sustained by an overwhelming majority.

In reviewing the year's work we have cause for gratitude, as well as regret that we have accomplished so little. We are thankful that the zeal and activity of our members in the usual lines of work have not diminished. Our committees pursue their prescribed duties with self-denying zeal. The jail has been regularly visited, and supplied with good reading matter.

The aged poor in the almshouse were cheered by the visits of their friend and sympathizer, Mrs. Tweedie, Superintendent of Evangelistic work, who was welcomed also by suffering patients in the hospital wards.

The literature committee supplied Barracks, Railway depots, Hotels and other places of public resort, from the ever multiplying stores of literature coming regularly through the mails, or supplied from private stores. The Union subscribe for five weekly, and two monthly Journals. In addition to almost numberless periodicals the Superintendent of Literature is constantly receiving. The absence of our President during the summer, and the meetings of Dominion and World's Conventions interfered with the regular order of business somewhat, but difficulties serve to strengthen the spiritual and mental muscles, and we come through for future efforts, determined to fight courageously along the old lines, until there shall be no further need for aggressive warfare.

The Union numbers, some eighty members, there have been some renewals during the year, and one has passed away to the better land. Four new members have been added.

From reasons before mentioned the numbers present at the regular meetings was small, and the average would give the wrong impression of the actual interest taken in our weekly meetings. Collection for Relief fund Eight Dollars and six cents.

The last public act of the closing year was to entertain the members of York County Teacher's Institute then in session in the Normal School building. Mrs. Philips the zealous Supt. of Scientific Temperance Instruction, with a view to the interests of her department invited the visiting and resident Teachers and officers to an evening's social intercourse in the ladies' parlor. A large number accepted the invitation, and thoroughly enjoyed the hours of friendly intercourse. Coffee, cake and such light refreshments were dispensed during the evening. The pledge book was not forgotten, and the subject of temperance had due prominence.

CULLEDEN CULLINGS.

GENTLEMEN.—In 1888 I was severely afflicted with gravel of the kidneys from which I suffered great pain. I was recommended to take Burdock Blood Bitters, which I did, finding great relief, and after taking 4 bottles can truly say I am cured and have not since been troubled. I highly recommend it.

PETER WEST, Culleden P. O., Ont.

Their gentle action and good effect on the system really make them a perfect little pill. They please those who use them. Carter's Little Liver Pills may well be termed "Perfection."

No family living in a bilious country should be without Parmelee's Vegetable Pills. A few doses taken now and then will keep the liver active, cleanse the stomach and bowels from all bilious matter and prevent Ague. Mr. J. L. Price, Shoals, Martin Co., Ind., writes: "I have tried a box of Parmelee's Pills and find them the best medicine for Fever and Ague I have ever used."

A Remarkable Case.—Mr. Walter Wheeler, of the Washington Mills, Lawrence, Mass., for two years afflicted with varicose veins, accompanied by a troublesome eruption, was completely cured after taking only eight bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.
