Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Dominion Parliament.

Hon. John Costigan introduced a bill to further amend the Inland Revenue act. He explained that this bill was to make the act applicable to the Northwest Territories.

The house went into committee on an act respecting fishing vessels of the United States. This is the modus vivendi bill.

An amendment was made to the bill by Hon. Mr. Tupper, which was the effect that parliament should be notified ten days after its meeting, if not in session, as to the issue of a proclamation renewing these licenses.

After recess the house went into committee of supply, taking up the question of immigration.

Sir John Thompson gives notice that he will introduce the Redistribution bill Tuesday.

Mr. Smith, of the dominion lands commission, has been appointed chief of the immigration branch department.

A deputation of 'varsity men have urged the government to allow books for university libraries to enter duty free.

Dr. Colter of Carleton, was introduced by Hon. Mr. Laurier and Mr. Gilmore.

Sir John Thompson introduced a bill relating to witnesses and evidence. This is a bill to permit a person charged with a criminal offence to give evidence in his own behalf.

The house then went into committee on an act to amend the Steamboat Inspection act. One clause of the old bill made it compulsory to use metallic life boats and metallic buckets on steam boats. The new bill made the enforcement of these provisions optional with the governor-in-council.

After recess the house went into committee, taking up the militia estimates and afterwards going into the agricultural department and proceeding with experimental farms. The item of $75,000 for experimental farms was passed.

After a long discussion, which elicited the fact that two rows of barley were being grown with success in Canada, the committee rose.

The redistribution bill will give an additional representative to Toronto and Montreal. Alberta will be divided. These changes will necessitate the wiping out of two county constituencies in Ontario and one in Quebec.

The project of building the ship canal from Georgian bay to Toronto was presented to the government Thursday.

Many years have gone since a good family doctor originated Johnson's Anodyne Liniment.

At exhibition 1891, K. D. C. has been awarded a Silver Medal and five Diplomas—the highest awards for any medicine.

Can Dyspepsia be cured? Yes! K. D. C. is a positive cure, "a safe cure," "a complete cure," "a marvelous cure," "the best cure," and a guaranteed cure.

News of the Week.

New Brunswick.

A Queens county man reports that unless there is some rain very soon a big lot of logs will be hung up in Salmon river.

Edward Peters, a colored man in the employ of Benjamin Kilburn, King's clear, was found dead in his bed a few days ago. He was about seventy years of age and had been with Mr. Kilburn for over fifty years, a faithful industrious old man.

Tuesday the Kingsley boiler company turned out two of their celebrated boilers of one hundred and twenty horse power for Miller & Woodman's mill at Pokiok. The boilers are of superior finish. These boilers are becoming very popular.

Campbellton town election was held on Wednesday. W. A. Mott, barrister, was elected mayor by a majority of 20 over A. E. Alexander, the late mayor. The councillors-elect are as follows: Ward one—G. E. Asker and Howe Taylor. Ward two—Richard Parker and A. G. Adams. Ward three—Adam Duncan and James Sproul.

The maple sugar making business at Queensbury, York county, is a failure this season. Not one-third the usual quantity has been made and the season seems over as maple trees are already dry. The parish is actively engaged in this industry. From B. McNally's to G. Dykeman's some 10 farms, a distance of about a mile, there are 7,000 sap cans or kettles in active use. There is hardly any part of the parish that is not possessed of maple sap sufficient to carry on this manufacture. —[Herald.]

Some person made a most dastardly attempt on Monday night last to destroy W. E. Wilson's fishing privileges on Navy island. When Mr. Wilson visited his weir Tuesday morning he saw no signs of any fish, but noticed oil on the water. Thinking some person was endeavoring to destroy the fish, Mr. Wilson began grappling and in a short time brought to the surface a large bag filled with cotton waste thoroughly saturated with kerosene oil. A big stone in the bag kept it in position. A short time after the removal of this and the disappearance of oil from water, the fish made their appearance again as usual.

The ice is still firm in Grand Lake.

The mill of Messrs. Knight at Musquash will begin sawing next week. The firm will manufacture about three millions of lumber this season.

William Stafford, an old man who was working at the schooner Clifton at Morrison & Lawlor's wharf, York Point, received injuries Tuesday afternoon which necessitated his removal to the hospital. Stafford was picking up coal on the wharf and as one of the coal tubs was swinging from a derrick to the vessel it struck him on the head. The blow knocked him overboard, but he was quickly rescued by a number of cartmen. When taken into a small office in the coal shed on the wharf it was found that he had been badly cut on the head and considerably bruised.

The C. P. R. is making great improvements on the Robertson mill property, Carleton. One portion of the wharf has been thoroughly repaired and workmen are now engaged in clearing down another part preparatory to building it up in a solid manner.

There is trouble among the moulders at Moncton, six union men having been discharged from the Record Foundry and Machine works.

The lumber operators at the head of the bay are looking anxiously for rain, in order that steam driving may be begun.

A movement is on foot to secure a packet service between St. John and Fredericton for freight purposes. It is proposed to make a round trip once a week. The venture is receiving general encouragement here, and it is not unlikely that in a few weeks a packet will be on the route.

For the fourth time within five years, Mr. Linus Seely, Waterville, C. Co. was burned out on Thursday evening of last week. The fire was discovered in the shed about 10.00 p. m., and notwithstanding the efforts of neighbors, the dwelling house and shed, with most of the contents of the former, were burned. Loss estimated at $1100 or 1200; dwelling insured for 550. The origin of the fire is unknown.

At Oak Point, K. Co., on Sunday a boat, in which were four sons of Jas. Ganong, was upset. Two of the boys—Edgar and Willie, aged respectively 8 and 12 years—were drowned. The other two succeeded in reaching the shore.

A boy about six years of age, a son of Robert Brown of the Long wharf, north end, was run over by a team on Main street on Saturday and had his right leg broken.

Miss Jamieson, dressmaker, of Fredericton, was found dead on the floor of her room early Sunday morning. It is believed heart trouble was the cause.

Catarrahal deafness is relieved by using Johnson's Anodyne Liniment as directed. Try it.

Nova Scotia.

Gasperaux are again being shipped across the bay for use as bait by the Nova Scotia fisherman. Ald. Colwell has sent about 125,000 fish to Halifax and some 80,000 over to Lunenburg. Several other dealers are shipping about the same quantity over to Lunenburg. Several other dealers are shipping about the same quantity over to Lunenburg.

The residence belonging to the estate of the late John Campbell, Weymouth, N. S. was destroyed by fire on the 20th, together with furniture, outbuildings, and all contents, excepting a pair of horses and carriage. The fire is supposed to have originated from a defective furnace or stove. The occupants had just time to vacate. The loss is said to be in the vicinity of $10,000; partially covered by insurance.

Three small vessels aggregating 1,700 tons will be turned out this season in one yard in Parrsboro Village. There are about a dozen yards on Parrsboro shore where building of small craft is going on.

D. I. Thomas, Mayor of Truro, who neglected to obey an order of the Nova Scotia legislature to appear before them, was sentenced to 48 hours imprisonment for contempt. It is not likely to do him serious injury.

The Truro Condensed Milk company intend to go into the manufacture of butter, as they find it necessary at times to utilize in the best manner possible the surplus milk they may have on hand.

About 10,000 eels were speared in the mud on the bottom of Doyle's pond, Tishish, Cumberland, during the winter. They were skinned and sent, frozen to Boston, where the general price is 10c a lb.

On the 4th of April, Miss Mary E. Ryan, eldest daughter of Daniel Ryan of Williamsdale, Cumberland Co., N. S., went to the hospital at Halifax to undergo the operation of having a tumor taken from her side and last Thursday morning while the operation was being performed she died, being under the influence of ether at the time.

Moisten a handkerchief with Johnson's Anodyne Liniment and inhale for wakefulness.

Alex. Stephen, Senr. Esq., of Halifax, says: I suffered some time with Asthma and Bronchitis, accompanied with great nervous exhaustion; and after using three bottles of Putnam's Emulsion was completely revived, and am to-day perfectly free from either Asthma or Bronchitis, and my nervous system much invigorated.

Other Provinces.

The Quebec government has issued instructions for the prosecution of all lotteries in the province with the exception of the provincial lottery.

The Ottawa grand jury returned a true bill against Leonce Labelle, formerly clerk in the state department, charged with murdering his wife by administering a dose of carbolic acid.

The first meeting of the prohibition commission has been held at Montreal. It was decided to visit several United States cities and all the large cities and towns of Canada with a view to examining in detail the local operation of restrictive liquor laws.

The dead body of Charles Leslie, aged 25, was found in a yard in the rear of the Bell Telephone company, Notre Dame street. The deceased was night superintendent, and in going out upon the roof probably stumbled and fell seventy-five feet below. The coroner's jury censured the company for having the roof thus unprotected.

The cases against Thos. McGreevy and Nicholas Connelly have been postponed on account of the illness of the principal witness.

Robert McGreevy, who on being convicted of conspiracy to defraud, escaped to the United States, returned on Thursday and was sentenced to one year imprisonment without labour.

The first sod of the proposed provincial railway and foot passenger bridge across the Ottawa between Hull and Ottawa, was turned April 21st. The work of construction will probably begin this summer. The bridge will be constructed on five stone piers forty feet above high water mark.

Baird's Balsam of Horehound cures Whooping Cough and Croup.

The proof of the pudding is in the eating. K. D. C. has been tried and tested and has proved itself to be King of Medicines, "the Greatest Cure of the Age, and the only Perfect Dyspepsia Cure in the market."

United States.

The American Forcible Powder Works at Lake Popotung exploded at two o'clock April 18. Seven men were killed and two injured, one of whom will probably die. Two buildings were shattered. They caught fire, but were extinguished by the employees.

Carl Nelson, assistant cashier of the Union National bank of Grand Forks, N. D., is under arrest, charged with the defalcation of many thousands of dollars.

Seven attempts were made to burn Louisville Ky., on April 19. In four hours five buildings were destroyed and the loss of $35,000 entailed. All the fires were incendiary origin. Saturday night there were five incendiary fires.

It has leaked out that a shot was fired a few days ago at a window in the office of the British consul in Philadelphia. Detectives are investigating. The Senate ratified the convention providing for a renewal of the existing modus vivendi in the Bering Sea.

Esbert Shippoy, of Grenadier Island, went out on the river accompanied by his young wife to inspect some nets. Not returning, search was made for the couple with the result that their boat was found empty. No doubt they have been drowned.

Although there were five tickets in the field in Louisiana in the late state elections the anti lottery party won the day.

A coal mine at Minersville Pa., was flooded April 20th. Eight miners were drowned.

Peter Eno, Lawrence, Mass. in jail charged with the murder of his wife April 6, committed suicide by hanging Sunday morning.

British and Foreign.

The London County Council has given a new impetus to the Deceased Wife's Sister Bill by an overwhelming vote in its favor. The House of Commons will again pass the bill, and again the Bishops are likely to appear in the House of Lords to vote for its rejection.

A terrible catastrophe took place at Hampstead-Heath London, April 18, by which two women and six children were killed and thirteen other persons seriously injured. Hampstead was visited by thousands of excursionists from London, and as the day closed there was a great rush of people to catch the trains to return home. Somebody fell at the foot of a staircase of the station and hundreds of persons thrown in a heap. The police closed the doors and set to work to extricate the dead and injured.

Several outrages attributed to Anarchists were reported at Madrid, April 20. The bridge in Herrera de Rio Pisuegra, Castile, was completely destroyed by a dynamite explosion. Public property in the town of Orense in Galicia at Ergobia was also damaged in a similar manner.

A violent epidemic of cholera is raging in Benares, India. The mortality is very great. In a week 180 new cases were reported and 135 deaths in one day.

How to cure a Corn.

It is one of the easiest things in the world to cure a corn. Do not use acids or other caustic preparations, and don't cut a hole in your boot. It is simply to apply Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, and in three days the corn can be removed without pain. Sure, safe, painless. Take only Putnam's Corn Extractor.

Literary Notes.

The numbers of The Living Age for April 2nd and 9th contain Diary of a Spanish Grandee; Reminiscences of Cardinal Manning; and the Genius of Plato; Ancient Trade; Madame Bodichon; Some Possibilities of Electricity; The Early Ancestors of our Queen; The Sinitan Tongue; Norway in Winter; Statesmen of Europe; The German Emperor's War with Disbelief; A Hundred and Three days on a Desert Island, &c. &c.

The number for April 2nd begins a new volume. For fifty-two numbers of sixty-four large pages each the subscription price ($8) is low. Littell & Co., Boston, are the publishers.

The Missionary Review of the World for May has for its leading article a review of the work of William Carey, who, in May, 1792, just one hundred years ago, founded his "Society for Propagating the Gospel among the Heathen." Other articles of interest and timeliness are: "Immediate and World-wide Evangelization," and "The Departure of Charles Haddon Spurgeon—Part II." "Are Mission Converts a Failure—Part II." "The Training of Missionaries." "The Monthly Concert of Missions" is devoted to "Siam." Other departments have the usual interest and variety. Published by the Funk & Wagnalls Company, 18 and 20 Astor Place, New York. $2 per year; 25 cents for single numbers. In clubs of ten, $1.50.

The Pulpit occupies a unique position in current literature. The interchange of sermon thought is calculated to improve the general tenor of pulpit utterances. The April issue contains twelve sermons by well-known preachers. The magazine is true to its title and purpose. $2.00 a year. 20 cents a copy. Edwin Rose, Publisher, Buffalo, N. Y.

The Methodist Magazine for May, 1892. Price $2 a year; $1 for six months; 20 cents per number. Toronto: William Briggs. Appropriate to this Queen's Birthday celebration is Dr. Williams' article on "God in the Victorian Age." Of much interest to Canadian readers are the able articles by Dr. J. J. MacLaren, Q. C. on "The Story of the Dominion." The second article on the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be read with interest. The other illustrated articles are: "Among the Maggars," "Picturesque India and the Editor's adventure among the Mormons." How such engravings (thirty-three in number) can be furnished for the price is a marvel. "Recreations in Astronomy" are continued. The stirring story, "A Woman's Fight With the Monster" grows in tragic interest. "A More Hopeful View of the Labor Problem," with the Current Topics, etc., make up an excellent number.

The Three Favorite Blacks.

Three names there are of great renown, Well known in each Canadian town; They have acquired a wondrous fame—Are friends of every country dame: These characters throughout our land Have made a most determined stand, And, in a bold and honest way Have come to every home to stay. Kind fate to ladies did ordain, That they should kindly entertain These three black characters of note, And to them special care devote: All this was done, because fair eyes Discovered they were Diamond Dyes—Three members of a noble clan Who've blessings brought to home of man.

The first of fame, is Black for Wool, Giving a Jet or Blue so full—A one-dip dye of wondrous pow'r, And fast e'en with a strong soap scour. The second, for your Silk or Feather, Gives such a Black, that use or weather Can never in the least reduce The brilliant shades they can produce. And last, not least, the Cotton Black To faded goods at once brings back A look of freshness, grandeur, style, That makes the housewife sweetly smile. Each member of this trio grand His special work has well in hand; Their reputation never dies. For they're allied to Diamond Dyes.
