Fourth Quarter-Lesson III - Jan. 15.

ENCOURAGING THE PEOPLE.—Haggai 2:1-9.

GOLDEN TEXT.—Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain who build it.—Ps. 127:1.

THE LONG DELAY.—Ezra 4. The foundations of the temple were laid amid great rejoicings, opposition arose from their semi-heathen neighbors.

THE CONDITION OF AFFAIRS.—At Jerusalem, during these 15 years.

THE TIME FOR A CHANGE HAD COME.—The opposing king of Persia was dead, and a new king, Darius, had come to the throne.

THE PROPHET HAGGAI AND HIS MISSION.—It was at this juncture that two prophets appeared. They were messengers of the Lord.

NOTHING IS KNOWN OF HAGGAI EXCEPT what is stated here and in Ezra. He is generally regarded as an old man at the time of his prophecy.

THE FIRST PROPHECY. Was an appeal to the people to arise and build the temple. It was spoken on the first day of the sixth month, September, probably in the temple area.

THE SECOND PROPHECY.—Vers. 1-9. The first messages of the prophet were blessed by the Spirit of God, and the people began immediately to prepare to build.

THE TEMPLE. The porch that was in the front of the house, 20 cubits broad and 120 cubits high, was overlaid within with pure gold; the house glistened with precious stones.

Egypt by the plagues, and overthrow; the nations dwelling in Canaan; the Assyrians in Hezekiah's time; the great nations in Nebuchadnezzar's day, before the Jews were made captives for their sins; and then his empire was shaken, and Cyrus came to the head in order that the people might return; and again the kingdom of his successors was shaken, so that Darius might be king and lend his aid to the rebuilding of the temple.

warrant the undivided attention of statesmen, when the difficulties surrounding the future of the relations of England and Ireland are multiplying, when the complications of the labor question are thickening on all hands, the theme of every political speech, the plank on every liberal platform, the hot question at the elections, the burning subject of the hour is temperance reform.

THE TEMPERANCE QUESTION IN ENGLAND. All great reforms pass through four stages. They are ignored, ridiculed, abused, and then recognized as, at any rate, of vital importance.
