RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCER.

TERMS NOTICES, &C

The RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCER is issued every Wednesday, from the office of publication, York St., Fredericton.

Terms $1.50 a year, in advance. If not paid in advance the price is $2.90 a wear.

NEW subscriptions may begin at any time the year.

WHEN SENDING a subscription, whether new or a renewal, the sender should be careful to give the correct address of the subscriber.

IF A SUBSCRIBER wishes the address of his paper changed, he should give first the address to which it is now sent, and then that to which he wishes it sent.

THE DATE following the subscriber's name on the address label shows the time to which the subscription is paid. It is changed, generally, within one week after a payment is made, and at latest within two weeks. Its change is the receipt for payment. If not changed within the last named time, inquiry by card or letter should be sent to us.

ALL A CALL CALL A CALL A CALL

CRYND A

していていていてい

10 23

なたいとう

大学を

たい大

WHEN IT IS DESIRED to discontinue the INTELLIGENCER, it is necessary to pay whatever is due, and notify us by letter or post eard. Returning the paper is neither ourteous nor sufficient.

PAYMENT of subscriptions may be made to any Free Baptist minister in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, and to any of the authorized agents as named in another column, as well as to the proprieter at Fredericton.

ITEMS of religious news from every quarter are always welcome. Denominational is born to trouble as the sparks fly up-News, as all other matter for publication should be sent promptly COMMUNICATIONS for publication should be written on only one side of the paper, and business matters and those for insertion should be written separately. Observance o this rule will prevent much copying and sometimes confusion and mistakes.

ALL COMMUNICATIONS, etc., should be addressed Religious Intelligences, Box 375, Fredericton N. B

Will each subscriber, who has not already done so, kindly forward a renewal at once --- by the next mail, if possible. NOW is the time!

Beligious Jutelligencer.

Lord.' There is, we are sure, no writer who is read with more interest and Dr. Cuyler, may he live long to bless the church and the world with the fruits of his ripe christian knowledge and experience.

-HE WHO STAGGERS up to the judgment a drunkard will have as good a chance as a respectable Christian who knowingly and intentionally always sanctioned the licensing of the drunkard-making traffic. God says, "Woe unto him that giveth his neighbor drink, that puttest thy bottle to him, and makest him drunken ;" and surely there can be no difference between a man's putting the bottle there himself, and his legally authorizing or protecting some one else to do it. That is what the Telescope says, and we say, Amen !

-THE WORST of all troubles are heart troubles. Physical pain is more easily borne than anguish of spirit. Despondency, sorrow, fainting of heart-they are everywhere. "Man ward." But there is a word of com fort for all, if they will but hear. Jesus says, "Let not your heart be troubled. Ye believe in God, believe also in me." Faith in God, and in Christ, is great cure and preventive of heart trouble. "Be careful fcr nothing ; but in everything, by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God."

-EVEN ARCHBISHOPS quarrel. The papers report a hard feeling between Archbishop Ireland of St. Paul, and Archbishop Corrigan of New York. It is said that formal charges have been preferred by Ireland against Cor-view, Archbishop Ireland is a much more manly man than his New York

-VOLTAIRE was so confident of the success of his attacks upon revealed religion that he said, -" In a century

the Bible and Christianity will be things of the past." More than a century has passed, and what has happened? The very house in which Voltaire lived became afterwards a Word for distribution. Instead of becoming a thing of the past the Bible has been multiplied and circulated as millions of Bibles and portions of engaged in distributing the Divine every known language of mankind.

sun out of the heavens as to root out

Temperance in Quebec.

The new Premier of Quebec, Hon

Mr. Taillow, is apparently disposed to meet the wishes of the temperance people of that Province for advanced legislation concerning the liquor traffic.

A few days ago representatives of the Protestant Ministerial Association, the Dominion Alliance and other temperance organizations were invited to meet him and the Provincial Treasurer, Hon.

Mr. Hall, to present their views as to temperance legislation at the approaching session of the Quebec Legislature.

The Roman Catholic church was also

The Premier said :

ATTENDED AND A SHALLAND A SHALLAND A SHALLAND

with the punishment of liquor dealers published in the newspapers. The License Commissioners are actually be-the Bible from human life.

brother.

A Happy Christmas to you in the trates are asked for such names they ought to give them. Such signatures are often given as a matter of personal friendship, but it would be well for them to be published profit by INTELLIGENCER readers than in such cases. They certainly are pub- spectable people become very dangerlic documents.

> He went on to express his sense of the great importance of the representations which had been made, and spoke with great heartiness of his desire to further the objects of the temperance deputations.

There are, certainly, signs of great encouragement. Quebec is moving in the right direction.

"Off the Track."

The Christian Witness, Postor, see danger to the "Holiness movement." of which it is the special advocate, ic several things which the people it which it says are "likely in the end Holy Scripture becomes a perplexing to swamp holiness," are-" healing of the body;" "the sleep of the dead and the annihilation of the wicked; "setting a time for Christ's return : seeking marvels and wonders, visions fidence, and they are exerting a bad and miracles." An instance is cited of a recent meeting in Boston, in which a person present said they received a marvelous manifestation of the Holy Ghost. Many gifts were bestowed, such as the discerning of spirits and special endowments, to walk in the presence of the "unseen powers,' whatever they are ?

The Witness refers to these things at some length, and adds this word of warning, -- "There is danger of getting mischievous scepticism is responsible wise above what is written !" for the consequences.

We think the Witness does well to caution its people against what it regards hurtful beliefs and practices. But, if we may be permitted, we would suggest these queries. Why is rigan, of having engaged in a con- it that so many of those who adopt its spiracy to weaken or destroy the effect peculiar theories of holiness are the of the Pope's decisions in respect of people who take most readily to what church matters in America, and having it regards as dangerous vagaries resorted to methods unbecoming to a Would accounting for the latter, acbishop. The ill feeling between these count also for the other ? two prelates is of some years standing ;

There has been no repeal of the prin- | gestions that may kindle a flame of sin ciple involved in this ancient enactwe often discover that some very re-are some very reputable ministers and theological teachers who venture into the field of biblical criticism with very rash and self-confident spirit. Old opinions that have become quite rooted in the faith of God's people are ruthlessly torn up and flung aside as the mere weeds of "tradition." Certain utterances of our Lord and Saviour are regarded as questionable or possi bly inaccurate. Accidental mistakes in transcription are so magnified as to throw serious doubts over the inerrancy of God's Word. Sacred history is dissolved in myth, and the authoreads are adopting. The things, ship of many of the inspired books of muddle. Now we do not uncharitably a firm that these cock-sure critics have a bad purpose, but some of them write in a bad spirit of overweening self-coninfluence by unsettling the faith of thousands in regard to God's Book Some of these good men are playing with fire. When the public mind is in such an inflammable condition, every Christian teacher, whether pastor, pro fessor, author, or Sunday-school instructor, should be sedulously careful how he carries his tinder-box and steel into the domain of divinely revealed truth. "He that kindleth the fire" of

to send their children to school ? It This business of reckless playing seems lamentable that our legislators with fire. For instance, here is should have such a question to conhospitable master or mistress of sider, and especially so in view of the aimed at. But this is not all. The house who furnishes an elegant enterfact that our Free School System good in a revival in a large measure tainment, and invites a large company makes the common schools as acces- is the reviving that comes to the church. of guests. Among the abundant viands sible to the poor as to the rich. No that are provided, the lady of the man can plead poverty. But the fact house places some very choice brands remains and the State must grapple faithful everyday work was constantly of wine, and on her sideboard sets out with that fact as it appears. a huge bowl of inviting punch. Per-It is the duty of the representatives they must tell on many lives. The haps among the many guests is a young of a people to follow what is to them husband who has promised the wife of his love that he will never touch liquor the wisest course in reference to the again, and never turn their sweet home people they represent. They are bound to do those things that will be permaninto a hell. He sees the tempter in that punch bowl and is pressed by ently beneficial to that country whose laws they make. As a matter of statsome friends "just to take a glass. The fire catches in the dry thorns in istics our law-makers know that ignorance and poverty go hand in an instant. He drinks-not once only but often, and before the entertainhand, and that a dollar spent on education is as good as ten spent on ment breaks up, his shame-stricken wife is compelled to hide his disgrace pauperism-that as education inand her own agony by hurrying him creases, poverty decreases. They know that education helps a man to wisely away to the privacy of a home made exercise the franchise. Then as a matunutterably wretched. Now who 'kindled that fire ?'' Certainly the ter of course they recognize the fact mistress of that hospitable house, who that education cannot but be producput that bottle to her neighbour's lips. tive of good. As the individual is, so is the nation, and if we have a growing According to the Mosaiclaw, the careless incendiary who burned up a cornfield generation, every child of which is being educated in the common schools, was required to pay the damages of the at least we can look forward with a conflagration. But what "restitution" can be made for a ruined character, certainty to the time when our coungood a Pope as is Leo XIII., yet we desclated home, or a broken heart? try will take a leading place in the his tory of the nations, for to-day it is knowledge, keen insight, and develop-The artillery of this divine law has ed minds that rule the world. But to very wide range. It is pointed enter upon a discussion of the question against that social nuisance, the slanwhether an educated people is a benederer. "Behold how great a matter fit to a country would be superfluous his little fire kindleth !" The utter-Every thinking man will admit that to ance of an ugly insinuation or a dis compare the pleasures of a mind unparaging defamation, or the whispering tutored to the pure elevating thoughts of an evil rumour, may be truly likened of the cultured intellect would be a playing with fire. A single to manifestly out of place. It is clear spark may set a household circle or then that education is something that whole neighborhood into a blaze. No will be permanently beneficial to the matter that the original spark may nation, therefore, it is the duty of the have been lighted with no malicious legislator to enjoin and even compel intent. The ugly scorch upon the good attendance at school. name of the Christian minister or the But here the main difficulty arises. young maiden. or the integrity of the By what right, says one, do you comman of business, may not have been pel me to educate my children ? Are prompted by wilful malignity. But they not my own? Are you not by the scorch is there nevertheless, and this compulsion infringing on my somebody kindled the first spark. A personal liberty ? The question arises, careless word, spoken sometimes in What is liberty? Carlisle : ays: "Liberty jest, may work vast mischief. A foolis the finding out or the being forced ish wag, fond of practical jokes, once to find out the right path and to walk said to a friend : "Have you heard therein. He goes on in effect to say that A. and Company have stopped We do not allow a madman to walk payment?" He only meant by his over a precipice ! No ! We violate his silly joke that their banking had closed liberty. Every foolish man is but in up for the night. The friend took in a less degree a madman, and we do personal trangression. Without preachin earnest, mentioned it to others, and well, we who are wiser, to compel him ing against sin public and private in a day or two there was a "run" upor A great deal of mischief may be A. and Company's bank. The fool to act not foolishly but wisely. We ingless sentimentalism. wrought without any malicious intent. who played with fire came very near violate his liberty but we act toward Thomas Hood has well said that "Evil burning down a great business fabric, him as men and brothers should act. What consolation would it be to him whole chapter against the "unrully if every newspaper in the land heralded him abroad as a brave man and clares that some of them "are set on fire free, if he saw before him his sons and daughters growing up as mere of hell !" buffets for the world to knock about. How small would that seem in the There is no room in a brief article ly make restitution." Palestine was a like this to specify but a small fraction face of all the possibilities past and hot and dry country through half of of the mischief wrought by playing with all the ambitions lost! And on the the year, and there was a peculiar dan- fire. The divine law against moral incenci other hand how insignificant would he cal will be done. Personally, I am ger from accidental conflagrations. If arism applies to every utterance of unregard it when these very papers called him a slave and a coward if he truth however small, and every insinfield he was required to watch the uation of error. He who utters a wanhad in his soul the sweet conscious direction of the wind, and to take ton suggestion to corrupt the innocence ness that his children had risen to the every precaution lest the flames should of chastity, may set fire to passion that height possible to their abilities, and kindle upon the property of his neigh- cannot be quenched. The loan of a had not gone along the paths of life, ending in nothing.

in a fellow-creature's heart! For it ment; it holds good in our days, and will not be in your power to "make restitution," and in the day of final reckoning you will be called to answer ous incendiaries. For example, there the question, "Who kindled that fire?"

Compulsory School Attendance.

The discussion of such a question as this seems strangely out of place in the face of all the enlightenment of the 19th century. Casually, the ordinary man would say: such men have by this time come to the place where they a new consecration. He waits and recognize the fact that a common longs for a fresh baptism. The door school education at least is indispensible for any advancement at all in the crowding, hustling world, and considering this, and remembering at the fire and power. The people feel the same time that parents generally are ambitious for the very best things for their children, it seems strange that it should be necessary to compel a man to send his children to the school which is to fit them the better for meeting and battling with the world. And yet, strange as it seems, it is nevertheless true that many men, either through thoughtlessness or because some of the superstition of the members think they are doing well middle ages still clings to their minds, are allowing their children to grow up without any mental training or development at all, without any weapons with which to return the hard knocks which are to be encountered in everyday life in the world.

State any right to put a law on the statute books compelling these parents

JANUARY 18, 1893

Some Current Topics.

ABOUT REVIVALS. Just now in many churches there is desire for revival; in some there are prayers and special services to promote revival. Here are three items, from three different sources, which are suggestive and may be help. ful. Of the often small beginnings, Zion's Herald says :

Revivals of religion ordinarily first become incarnate in a single soul or in a few souls, and then are diffused through the mass. The initiative is naturally with the minister. He seeks of the soul is thrown open wide, and the fullness of the Holy Spirit comes into him. Out of this new possession he speaks, and his words are words of new influence and are made glad. Without observation, the revival has come

Of hindrances, the N.Y. Advocate Sava

One of the chief hindrances in the way of a revival of religion is the indifference of church members in reference to such a movement. It is difficult to make a church feel the need of a revival. Strong churches are peculiarly effected in this way. The enough. The congregations are good, Sunday school flourishing, prayer meetings well attended, finances in good condition, and peace reigns among them. When religion is at a low ebb the church still fails to see the need of a revival. The first thing to be done in promoting a revival of religion is to wake up the church by Then the question arises has the pointing out the need of a work of grace.

> And of the results the Religious Telescope says

What are the results of revivals? One result is the conversion of souls. This may be said to be the chief end The largest number of converts come from the homes, churches, and Sunday schools where the most patient and done. Clearer views of vital Gospel truth have been sown broadcast, and closet, the family altar, and Bible study, as a personal preparation for all Christian duty under the leadership of the Holy Spirit, are clearly seen to be the secret of spiritual power, open alike to all.

which boast "beg they wrong ing as they 1 how I the h think himse of our that unpop Cess. go an M The ing C 130 ag Israel

JANU

father but ( there ites. The in ra Poun gift, c their Th aries Bomb will d orable held The

the B in use mean of the and th schoo

In nativ 1861 whils were muni

14,66

182,7 and i ence,

out t]

clviliz

and a

that

Kioto

Ten y

looke

serva

to giv

Guiar

In 18

The n

ant so

all at

They

times

ships.

fuge

The p

Engli

with b

coolie

amon

of the

The

Bible

two h

Pro

As

REV. JOSEPH MCLEOD, D. D EDITOR

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 18th, 1893.

and though once or twice a form of -MEN MAY succeed in relieving reconciliation was gone through with, their minds by persuading themselves that their misfortunes and sins were and the hatchet seemed burried, the caused by somebody else, but the old feeling remained, and is now showing itself in an unholy way. So far facts are not changed by such peras one can judge, who sees only the suasion. outside and from a distant point of -THE FACT is remarked that there is not a Presbyterian in the Dominion Cabinet. It might be a better cabinet, perhaps, if there were more Presbyterianism and less of some other isms in it.

-Do Nor TRY to make somebody else-not even the devil-responsible for wrong and mean things the responsibility for which you ought to bear yourself. Be fair, even if wicked.

-To Every One who asks, " Who is my neighbour ? Christ's story of the poor fellow who fell among the thieves is answer. They are everywhere who have fallen into suff. ring and need. Are we ministering to them ?

-THE OLDEST Free Baptist minister in Maine, Rev. Samuel Wheeler, died a few days ago. He was nearly ninetytwo years old. He was ill but a short time. The fathers are passing away. They did grand work in their day. It behoves the sons to show themselves worthy their good ancestry, and the blessed heritage left them.

-A NORTH CAROLINA saloon-keeper attended a revival meeting in a neighbouring town, and was converted. He at once telegraphed home : "Close up my saloon ; I'm done with the business.'

Being converted the man could not do less than that. No true christian can have any part in the abominable traffic.

-THE REVOLUTION which made Brazil a Republic did not bring about a better state of things as to religious liberty, though one of the complaints against the empire was that the daughter of the Emperor was intriguing with the Jesuits. Freedom of worship and freedom of speech are not yet guaranteed. Recently a Methodist minister was imprisoned for speaking against the worship of Mary.

Hard to Explain.

During the time that Dr. McGlynn was an ex-communicated priest he said many very severe things about the Papacy, though he never ceased to be a Catholic. Now that he has been restored to the priestly office he may sometimes be reminded of his utterance during the last four or five years. And he may find it just a little difficult to explain them away. Here are some of the things he was in the habit of saying, and they are but specimens of many others of the same kind : "Nowhere is the Church more hated than in the so-called Catholic coun

There he (the ecclesiastic) is tries. shunned as though unclean. The sight of his shovel hat and sleek face at the window of a car empties the depository for storing the Divine whole compartment, and gives it to him alone.

"Peter was surely as great and seek in vain in the epistles of this first no other book ever has been. In this Pope for anything like the incredible nineteenth century, with its blaze of assertions of the last of the popes-I illumination and criticism, two hundred should say, the latest Pope,

"The Pope in politics has been the curse of every nation. Bis.marck car-Scripture have issued from the press, ried on a flitation with the old ladyand there are to-day a hundred societhat is just what he looks like-and ties all over Protestant Christendom they exchanged pictures, and the old ady was highly flattered at being noticed Is it not time for us to proword through the world in nearly test that it is no part of our religion to ergage in adulation of a poor old bag Infidels may prophesy discomfiture, of bones, seventy-eight years old, with but it would be as easy to pluck the one foot in the grave ?

"Have no fear for me. I defy the ry too hot to hold them. They had etter let me alone.'

ation of restoration when he thundered these things amidst the applause of thousands of sympathizers, the majority of them members of the Papal

BY REV. THEODORE L. CUYLER, D. D.

THE PULPIT AND PUBLIC SIN.

Somebody having called for contemporaneous sermons all over the country against public corruption, the Montreal Witness says :

Many pulpits have already sounded out bravely on this subject and they should not cease. If this advice is followed, however, we shall hear from the pews and from the press a chorus of denunciation of political preaching. Yet if anyone will study the preaching of the Jewish prophets, which has been preserved to us for our instruction, we shall find that denunciation of public corruption was the constant theme of it. The preaching of the first Christian century was marked, on the other hand, by reticence with regard to public morals. There were two good practical reasons for this. In the first place, the people to whom the apostles preached were not responsible for the polity under which they lived. They were conquered peoples, and had no relations with government but to endure it. There was, indeed, no need of saying anything to inflame their wrath against a system of which they were the victims. In the second place, both Jews and Christians were oppressed peoples, among whom any talk against the government would have afforded the authorities the very occasion which they desired to persecute their religions. We find a very different tone in John the Baptist's rebuke to Herod and our Lord's denv iciations of the authorities of the people to whom he belonged. Preaching which involves the advocacy of a party is necessarily open to the suspicion of being interested and can cause but little harm in a Christian congregation. To find fault, on the other hand, with preaching against sins in high places -sins for which the people are responsible and in which they are sharers -smacks too much of the nambypamby religion of the world of to-day, which is quite ready to accept salvation without conviction of sin, whatever salvation under such circumstances may mean. The first work of all true preaching is conviction of sin, not of ancestral sin either, but of actual and to ful a bill ese af 000 sc the H Germ 50,000 there have The . most Miz Islam. tian z exciti He wa He wa into p in pri in Tal confes ence that o the he conse read h prison

erimin

Christ

having to the who h

Missio

are m

velop

Some

The

malignity of Rome. I give them warning now, that if they attempt to hound me with the arts of which they are such masters, I will expose them. I have only told things which politicians and well informed people have known in the past ; but I give them warning that I am full of knowledge of events the tale of which will make the coun-

He could not have had much expectchurch

-DR. PIERSON is an authority in all matters relating to missionary work. It is his persuasion that the beginning of this new century of mission work should be marked by a rapid invasion of the hitherto unoccupied regions of the world. It should, he thinks, be a work of evangelism, preparatory to "a more thorough work of conversion, organizations and education." He would have the fact of the great salvation made known to every nation, kindred and tribe at once. Amen !

-" PLAYING WITH FIRE," from the pen of Rev. Dr. Cuyler, was accompanied by this note :

"I send you this article, which may be of some profit to the readers of your excellent paper.

represented at the conference. At the close of the interview the Provincial Treasurer said :

"On behalf of the Premier, and I is wrought by want of thought, as well The Apostle James directs nearly a feel sure that I can include all my col- as by want of heart. In the old Mosaic leagues, and myself, I can assure you law was a statute which reads after this evil" of incendiary tongues; he defashion: "If a fire break out and catch great moral movement. Some remedial in thorns, so that the stacks of corn or measures must be adopted. Last session we were, as you know, very much the standing corn be consumed there-hampered. Something, however, has with, he that kindled the fire shall surealready been done in the way of administration. I think that I can assure you of more than our serious consideration, and that something practiconvinced that something must be done any farmer burned over his stubblewhether the revenue suffer or not. "It is much to be regretted that influential men will consent to interfere who break the law. Men who lend bour. Should he neglect these pre- pernicious book, the insinuation of an their names for such purposes would cautions, and the flames go careering infidel thought, the repetition of an through his neighbour's barley field cr unclean story, the irreverent use of corn stacks, he was obliged to pay for God's Word, is often fraught with un-

I joa play with the fire of wicked sug- at Andover, V. Co.

ORDINATION. - H. G. Estabrooks all ; but to follow out as they did new sieged by such men, whose names the damages caused by his own care- dreamed-of mischief. Beware how the christian ministry, on the 3rd inst

A CALLER AND A CALLER AND A CALLER AND

the preaching of salvation is a mean-

HONOURING THE FATHERS.

Much is said, in every generation, about the fathers-things they endured, the faithfulness with characterized them, and the great work they did, and the noble heritage they left their children. And the sons are counselled to be worthy of their fathers, and to honour them by carrying on the work they left. This is well-all of it. We cannot too much honour the fathers. But the question is whether we do honour by contriving to hammer away at work which they finished, fighting over the issues which they settled. There is sound sense in what the Christian Standard says about this :

The only way to follow in their footsteps where they went most gloriously, is not to follow in their footsteps at and difficult, untried and dangerous. paths of duty. Deliver us and our generation from those who are bound "To follow in the footsteps of the sionar under with t Union have arouse their many gone t There Afro-A peals t with w

> questi of suce