Henry McCluskey, of the Grand Falls, aged 34 years, committed suicide by shooting a few days ago. He was hunting with a couple of companions. They left him alone for a time while they went after provisions and when they returned found him dead in the camp with his empty gun beside him.

Customs Collector Binney created a sensation at Moncton, Tuesday, by seizing a large new pipe organ being erected in the Central Methodist church. The organ was bought from George H. Ryder & Son of Boston and entered at a valuation of $1,900, paying $550 duty. The ground of seizure is undervaluation.

At the coming session of Parliament the Temiscouata Railway Company will seek power to continue their railway from Edmundston to St. Leonard and to erect a railway bridge across the river St. John to Van Buren, Maine, so as to enable them to make connection with the Bangor and Aroostook railway.

The library in Sir. Leonard Tilley's residence in St. John was badly damaged by fire Monday night. The family were in another room, when the smell of smoke led to a search of the premises. The house was completely filled with smoke when the firemen arrived. They had little difficulty, however, in stopping the progress of the flames, which were confined to the library.

The building of Mr. Geo. W. Boyer, at Victoria Corner, C. Co. were destroyed by fire on the 4th inst. He succeeded in saving most of his furniture, though in a damaged condition. His loss is estimated at $6000. He had $3000 insurance on the house and furniture.—Pres.

Captain Rawlings is again in trouble in Moncton, having been called to account by the city council for not properly enforcing the Scott act.

There are about sixty shingle machines in operation in Restigouche during some part of the year. The mills situated on the shore run only during the open season. The portable mills run during the winter season, when the logs can be hauled to them in the woods. The shingles are hauled to the nearest station. As there is plenty of snow these mills are in operation. When standing on an elevation the smoke of many of them can be seen rising from the woods. The manufacture of shingles has become a great industry in the county, which gives employment to many men during the whole year.—Chatham World.

A disastrous fire occurred at Waewig, Charlotte Co., on Saturday. The dwellings, barns, and outbuildings on the property, owned by James McLaughlin, were destroyed. The furniture in the upper chambers and all stores and vegetables in the cellar, and all hay, grain, straw, and fodder, and a large number of farming implements were burned. Insured for $1,000,—all on the buildings.

On Friday, the 5th inst., the residents of Ballendown found the body of George McAllister, a resident of Mechanic Settlement, Kings county. It appears the deceased was in search of work, and being overcome by exposure laid down by the side of the road and was frozen to death. An inquest was held by Coroner Earle and a verdict returned in accordance with above facts.

The Boston Herald of Thursday says: "One week ago Herbert Raynes, a 16-year-old William boy was arrested for shooting two bullets into Hiram Caldwell, a milkman by whom he was employed. This morning Raynes was discharged by the court, although he pleaded guilty and admitted he wished he had put a more effectual end to his attempt. It was shown that the treatment he received was too severe for human patience to endure, and, as Caldwell will probably recover, the boy goes free.

Young Raynes is a son of Mr. W. J. Raynes of Fairville.

William Davis, formerly of Oromocto, Sunbury Co., employed on the English Dam company, Sierra Co., California, lost his life Dec. 20th while knocking off of the dam; the ice gave away and he was swept over the dam. His body was not found until the current was so strong he could do nothing. He was 74 years of age, and leaves one son and daughter, Mrs. John T. Currie of Oromocto.

George Howard, of Howard & Crangle, acknowledged the Scott act case, which has been pending against him before the police magistrate, and was fined $50 and costs.

The sum of $792.63 has been forwarded by the bishop of Fredericton in aid of the losses by the great fire in St. John's, being the aggregate amount raised by collections in answer to the bishop's circular. The Bank of New Brunswick forwarded the money without charge.

Two young Scotchmen were in Moncton last night tramping their way through from Halifax to St. John. They came out as stowaways. Being without money they were begging for bread and tell of a rather tough time. The decline of shipbuilding on the Clyde has thrown thousands of men out of employment and some of those who do work only get a shilling a day. These young men understand boiler-making and riveting and hope to find employment in St. John.—Times.

The New York Sun of Thursday contained the following: "Frederick Fleming the 22 year-old son of the late May Agnes Fleming, the story writer, was convicted of manslaughter in the second degree yesterday in the court of sessions, Brooklyn, for killing Michael Taylor in a fight in a Throop avenue saloon on July 10. Fleming was disputing with some young man in the saloon, when Taylor, who was a stranger to him, came in and joined in the discussion. Fleming finally rushed at Taylor and knocked him senseless on the floor, causing a fracture of the skull. Taylor died on the next day."

Mrs. Eliza Richardson, wife of Harris L. Richardson, M. D., of Sea Cliff, New York, and sister of Mrs. John Mitchell, sr., of this city, died on the 4th inst., from the effects of her clothing catching fire at the kitchen range. Despite all that medical attendants could do, Mrs. Richardson died. The night before her death Mrs. Richardson attended a revival meeting in the Methodist church, was wonderfully bright in relating her experience and gave special expression to her delight that one of the young men present had given himself to God. After reaching home that night she joined with her husband in singing twice through the hymn, "Nearer my God to Thee." Her husband says she was never more buoyant and happy.

The deceased was a daughter of John Furus, a well known resident of St. John who, with his family, moved to Boston over 25 years ago.

A dynamite explosion occurred at Acadia Mines Wednesday, by which John Williams lost his life and Sampson Mackinnon and James Wright were seriously injured. The shipments of coal from Cumberland county for last year will show a decrease of $4,000 tons. The total shipments from the Springhill collieries are 392,000, against 406,000 tons in 1891, a falling off of 14,000 tons. The prisoner Brent arrested on suspicion of burglarizing the Carribean House, Granville Ferry, and tried under the speedy trials act, was sentenced to five years imprisonment in the penitentiary with hard labor.

After sentence was passed the prisoner addressing the court said: "May God forgive you for the injustice you have done me for I cannot." The prisoner, who hails from Montreal, is a printer by trade and is apparently a very intelligent young man.

The N. S. Legislature is called to meet on the 19th inst. The members have been furnished with a circular, of which the following is a section: The session is called very much earlier than usual. But a few days have elapsed since the close of the fiscal year. The various public documents, which are necessary for the proper consideration of the ordinary business of the session, cannot be ready for some weeks. It is therefore not expected that such business will be ready for the meeting on the 19th inst. The government have, however, one matter of importance which they wish to submit to the legislature immediately. They have therefore determined to have the meeting on the 19th, for the consideration of this special business. If quickly disposed, as is anticipated, it is probably that motions will be made in the two houses for an adjournment until about the usual time, at which the sessional work begins. The special business referred to relates to some plans the government have had in view for about a year for the purpose of securing a more vigorous prosecution of the coal mining industry.

The Halifax police magistrate has delivered judgment against the Horse Car Company for doing servile labor on Sunday by driving cars. He convicted and fined them $5.

The total amount collected in fines amounted to $1,006, out of which for expenses had been paid as follows: Justice's fees, $161; constable fees, $313; counsel fees, $25; witnesses, $50; salary of inspector, $250; sundry expenses, $90; leaving a balance on hand of $111.

One of the largest and most valuable lot of fresh fish ever sold in Digby at one time by one vessel was delivered to Bouteiller & M. on Wednesday last by Capt. Outhouse of the scho. L. M. Ellis, of Tiverton. It consisted of 3,000 haddock, 6,000 lbs. cod and 3,000 lbs. halibut. The haddock sold at 14 cents, the cod at 12 cents, and the halibut at 6 cents, netting $1,228. Capt. Outhouse says the few days of fine weather with the fishermen of Tiverton enjoyed brought them over $3,000, some boats making over $100. Haddock are in great abundance, and the present stormy period will tend to increase prices.—Digby Courier.

These are pretty high figures and as the prices have been better this season than the previous one the money brought to the island through this important industry should be most acceptable. Something like $99,000 has been realized this season.

Literary Notes.

The Defence is a new Monthly Journal, published expressly for Bible Exposition and Teaching. As its name indicates, it is "Set for the Defence of the Gospel." It is conducted by Evangelist George C. Needham, assisted by Mrs. Needham, Professors Moorhead and Stiffer, Dr. W. J. Erdman, and Pastors A. C. Dixon and D. M. Stearns. It is neatly printed upon heavy paper, and published by ALBERT NEEDHAM, 1330 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pa. Subscription price, 50 Cents per year. Send for sample copy.

The Commencement of a New Volume of Littell's Living Age is not an event of very rare occurrence, for this magazine gives its subscribers four large octavo vols., aggregating over 3000 pages, every year. The appearance of the initial number of the 196th Volume of a publication replete with matter of interesting and instructive character is, however, worthy of more than a passing word. The Living Age is rightly named. Whoever possesses a single year's volume possesses the record of the progress of the world during that period. The various phases of modern thought are presented as set forth by their most distinguished exponents. The early issues of 1893 fairly illustrate the wide range of subjects covered by this periodical. The Patria Populi relates to the curious and interesting discoveries of Mr. Patria in Egypt; A French Abbe of the 17th Century is a sketch of that strange character, Francois Timoleon, Abbe de Choisy; Burmese Traits, is an interesting paper on the manners and customs of the Burmese. Articles of interest to the cultivated reader are Gauche as a Minister of State; Michelangelo. Fiction and Poetry receive a fair share of attention. To new subscribers for 1893 containing a story by the editor of the Fortnightly Review. For the quality and quantity of matter given, the price, $8.00 a year, is low. Specimen copies of The Living Age may be had by sending 15 cts. to the publishers, Littell & Co., Boston.

The Homiletic Review for January, the first number of the 25th volume, is of unusual strength. The Review Section opens with a suggestive article on "The Progressive Character of Revelation." Dr. Pierson discusses "The Pastor in relation to the Beneficence of the Church." "Theological Thought in Germany," and Clerical Celibacy: its Extent, Restrictions and Exceptions, are good papers. The denominations are well represented in the Sermonic Section. The living issue treated editorially is that of Immigration.

THE JEWS IN RUSSIA are being subjected to fresh rigors of persecution. In Moscow those of this unfortunate race who are not native to the city have been ordered, on twenty-four hours' notice, to return to the towns where they were born. This act of expulsion takes in all classes—merchants, artisans, and the like—who, by this cruel and peremptory decree, are compelled to abandon home and property which they cannot sell, and become, practically, many of them, outcasts and beggars. Even the wealthiest class, who have heretofore enjoyed immunity and possessed imperially-issued passports, have been driven out unless they consented to abjure their religion and be publicly baptized in the Greek faith. Even then a forced residence of three years in a monastic village some five miles from Moscow under the watchful tutelage of Russian priests is to be exacted, and they cannot return to Moscow until they receive a certificate of their orthodoxy from the priests. After this they are subjected to galling police supervision to see that they fulfill faithfully their religious obligations. The Moscow papers claim that there have been 20,000 of these "conversions" within the past two years. Famine and pestilence have not taught the Russians to be humane.
