Prevention Is Better

Than cure, and those who are subject to rheumatism can prevent attacks by keeping the blood pure and free from the acid which causes the disease. You can rely upon Hood's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for rheumatism and catarrh, also for every form of scrofula, salt rheum, boils and other diseases caused by impure blood. It tones and vitalizes the whole system.

Hood's Pills are easy and gentle in effect.

Condolence.

Whereas, our Heavenly Father, in his wisdom and love has seen fit to take our beloved sister, Susan Elbridge, from the joys and sorrows of this world to a better home on high,

Be it resolved, that we, the members of Beacon Light Lodge, No. 175 I. O. G. T., Beaver Harbour, Ch. Co., do extend to the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy in their sorrowful affliction. We commend them to the care of Almighty God, and may He, in His mercy, be their comforter and protector. As a faithful worker in the lodge we feel our loss deeply, as she was at all times cheerful and ready to do her duty whatever it might be. Yet we know your loss and sorrow is still greater than ours, as she has gone out from the home circle. But in our bereavement we would remember that our loss is her gain, who is not dead but gone before;

And be it further resolved, that we drape our charter during the next quarter in token of respect for our departed sister; and further resolved that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family.

Signed in behalf of Lodge,
M. B. BRADFORD,
M. I. DOUGLASS, COM.

GOLD AND SILVER.—The total stock of gold in the world is $3,582,605,000. The total stock of silver is of $4,042,700,000.

NATIONAL DIVISION.—There is a movement in the Nova Scotia Grand Division, Sons of Temperance, looking towards the establishment of a National Division for Canada. A resolution was introduced at the session in Halifax last week, but the further consideration of it was postponed till next year.

ELLIS FUND.—It is proposed to raise by subscription a fund to recoup Mr. J. V. Ellis for the heavy costs of the contempt case, something over $3000. Subscriptions are now being received.

U. S. ELECTIONS.—The elections in several states last week resulted in Republican victories of a most pronounced kind. McKinley was re-elected Governor of Ohio by a large majority.

AN OLD CITIZEN.—Mr. A. P. Miller one of Fredericton's oldest citizens, died on Tuesday of last week. He was eighty-six years of age, but until very recently was able to be out. He was well known to all our citizens and was highly esteemed. Until he began to feel the feebleness of age he was active in the temperance cause, and was for many years the secretary of York Division S. of T.

AGAINST GAMBLING.—Gambling has become so general amongst German officers that the Emperor, as head of the Army, has issued a decree forbidding gambling. His order will probably have good effect.

NEW PAPER.—A new daily makes its bow to the public in St. John this week. The Record is its name, and Mr. E. S. Carter is the managing editor. It will, doubtless, be wide-awake and interesting.

REFUSED.—The Governor General has refused to give his patronage to a comic opera performance in Ottawa. The entertainment was arranged in the interest of one of the Episcopal Churches, and Lord Aberdeen was asked to let his name be used as patron, with the expectation that he would, of course, consent. His refusal has disturbed the people who endeavour to promote pious purposes by questionable methods.

CIGARETTES PROHIBITED.—The cigarette is to be banished from Georgia if the House of Representatives has the power to enforce its will. A bill forbidding the sale of cigarettes in the State has been passed by that body. As introduced the bill only made it unlawful for any person to sell cigarettes, but the Committee on Hygiene and Sanitation, to which it was referred, emphasized the rigid moral sense of the House by amending it so as to include under the ban cigarette tobacco and cigarette paper. Then the house passed the bill by 101 to 45.

THE C. P. R.—The C. P. R. has done well at the World's Fair. The company has received the highest award for its standard passenger train and locomotive. The award reads as follows: "For excellence of design and construction of a handsome transcontinental passenger train, having special features of merit in its colonists' sleeping car."

"Locomotive for general excellence of workmanship and design, especially of the steel cab lined with wood, and the manner in which main frames over cylinder saddle are braced."

ADDRESSES & C.—Prior to leaving Tracey Mills, C. Co., Rev. A. C. Thompson was the recipient of several addresses, viz. one from East Bridgewater, Me., signed by Dr. White, J. M. Tracey, J. H. Carey, C. Snow and W. Knox; one from Knoxford, signed by Geo. Knox, L. Williams, G. W. Jamieson, C. T. Margison, D. Irvin; one by the C. E. Society at Tracey Mills, signed by E. L. West, Clara Dixon and Beattie Sloat; one by the Centerville Prohibition Club, signed G. E. McClintock, J. G. Simonson and S. A. McKenzie; and one from Tracey Mills signed by C. White, E. Cosman, J. Long, L. B. Clark, A. Miller, Mrs. W. Mills, Mrs. J. Cronk, Mrs. J. Peterson, Mrs. H. Cronk, and Mrs. T. Jones. The names above were committees representing many others. Accompanying the addresses a purse from East Bridgewater, and one from Knoxford; a teacher's Bible from the C. E. Society; a parlor lamp from the Prohibition Club, and a silver tea set from Tracey Mills.

MEMORIAL SERVICE.—A service in memory of the late Mr. E. C. Freeze was held in the Temperance Hall last Sabbath evening. There was a very large audience, even the standing room being occupied. Mr. W. T. L. Reed presided, and on the platform were Revs. Dr. Saunders, McLeod, Weddall, Hartley and Brecken, and Messrs. H. H. Pitts, M. P. P., Ald. Everett and H. F. McLeod. The music was appropriate, and was well rendered. Rev. R. W. Weddall read a scripture lesson and offered prayer. The chairman, in his opening remarks, referred in warm terms to his departed brother. Rev. Jos. McLeod made an address in which he spoke of Mr. Freeze's life, his christian character and activities, the encouragement and help he had given to many young men, his interest in the temperance cause, and the much he did to promote it, and of the loss the work sustains by his death, the selfishness and patience with which he laboured in any good work, the purity of his motives, and the loyalty of his friendships. He spoke also of the sense of bereavement felt by so many, and of his own sorrow that he should not again, on earth, see the face nor hear the voice of the good man whom he had known from his (the speaker's) childhood, and the worth of whose strong, true, friendship had been tested and proven so many times. Mr. Pitts made a brief speech, expressing his high estimate of the worth of the deceased brother. And the large and deeply interested audience indicated the general appreciation of his life-work.

The electric light was invented in 1846, and as late as 1876 was pronounced by a scientific authority "a scientific toy," and the prediction made that it would never be anything else.

A suit in the English Chancery Court began one hundred and fifty-two years ago was concluded the other day. The government duties and legal fees covered nearly the entire sum fought for.

Since 1867 there have been exported from Cape Colony 50,000,000 carats of diamonds, approaching a total value of $350,000,000.

Scrofula eradicated and all kindred diseases cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla which by its vitalizing and alterative effects, makes pure blood.

"Yes brethren," says the clergyman who is preaching the funeral sermon, "our deceased brother was cut down in a single night—torn from the arms of his loving wife, who is thus left a disconsolate widow at the early age of twenty-four years." "Twenty-two, if you please," sobs the widow in the front pew, emerging from her handkerchief for an instant.

Orator: "Where else will you find in one spot such products as marble, iron, clay, chalk, copper, lead, slate, glucose, fruits of all kinds, hemp, flax, and all manner of grains?" Man in the audience: "In my boy's pocket."

A curate said to his flock: "I fear, when I explained to you in my last charity sermon that philanthropy was the love of our species, you must have understood me to say 'specie,' which may account for the smallness of the collection. I hope you will prove by your present contributions that you no longer labor under the same mistake."

The fall of the year is a trying season for elderly people. The many cheerless, dark, dismal days act depressingly, not to say injuriously, on both old and young. Now is the time to re-enforce the vital energies with Ayer's Sarsaparilla—the best of all blood medicines.

A YOUNG LADY'S ESCAPE.

An Interesting Story from Norfolk County.

GENERAL DEBILITY AND CHRONIC NEURALGIA MADE MISS LIZZIE BENTLEY'S LIFE MISERABLE—HER PARENTS FEARED SHE WAS GOING INTO CONSUMPTION—BROUGHT BACK FROM THE BRINK OF THE GRAVE.

From the Simcoe Reformer.

Miss Lizzie Bentley is the daughter of Mr. Ira Bentley, of Watford, a former well-known resident of Simcoe. It is well known that Miss Bentley was long and seriously ill, and it was recently reported that she had fully regained her health and strength. Her case has excited considerable interest in the Reformer, and coming to the ears of the Reformer, we felt more than a passing interest in the matter for the reason that for a period of nearly three years, there have been from time to time published in our columns, particulars of alleged cures of various serious cases of illness that have been effected through the use of a remedy known as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. The scenes of these cures have been located in widely scattered portions of the country, it might almost be said of the globe, for some of the stories come from the United States and some from England, to such great distances have the proprietors extended the sphere of their usefulness.

It is of course the common idea that the age of miracles has long passed, and thousands of people who would not relish a classification among "doubting Thomas," and who are quite ready to believe any long story, so that it does not trespass upon the pre-conceived notions, and what old line physicians tell them of the limits and capabilities of the medical pharmacopoeia, as laid down by the schools, hear with a shrug of the shoulder and a smile of incredulity, of cases the evidence of which is of so certain a character that no court or jury in the land would question it. Take one of the best known and striking instances of the efficacy of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. We refer to the case of Mr. John Marshall. Could any evidence be clearer or more convincing even to a skeptic. Mr. Marshall is a well known citizen of so large a city as Hamilton. He was paid by the Royal Templars of Temperance the sum of one thousand dollars, that being the sum paid by that institution to its members who are proven to the satisfaction of its physicians to have become permanently incurable. Every fact in connection with the case was investigated by the Hamilton papers and vouched for by them. Not satisfied to take its evidence at second-hand, the Toronto Globe sent a representative to Hamilton. The result of these investigations was the publication by the Globe of an article in which every claim made by Mr. Marshall and the proprietors of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills was fully conceded, and the Hamilton Miracle! unreservedly endorsed by the great Canadian newspaper.

In a way it reminds us of the story of the great lawyer who attended a prayer meeting. His own views of religion were of the most orthodox character. He went to be amused; he came away with all his pre-conceived ideas changed. He said: "I heard these men whose word was as good as the bank of England get upon their feet and tell what religion had done for them, not theoretically, it was their own personal experience of it. Were these men in a witness box I would not have the slightest inclination to doubt their word; as a consistent man I was unable to doubt them anywhere else. I had doubted, now I believe."

The man or woman who will give an hour's attention to the evidence that the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company have to submit, if able to reason at all, concede that their Pink Pills contain wonderful properties for the amelioration of human ailments.

All these reflections are introductory to the case that has come under our notice. Mr. Ira Bentley is widely known in this district, where he has carried on business as a pump and windmill manufacturer for years. He formerly lived in Tilsonburg, afterwards in Simcoe and now resides in the village of Watford. A representative of the Reformer visited Watford not long since to interview Mr. Bentley as to his daughter's recovery. For he it understood this journal is as little prone to be carried away by fair spoken or written words as the rest of humanity, and as we had heard that Miss Bentley's cure was due to the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, we were anxious to investigate, that we might add our personal testimony, if possible, to the many who have already spoken and written on behalf of this great Canadian remedy. The result of the writer's journey to Watford was eminently satisfactory. We failed in finding Mr. Bentley at home for he was in Caledonia that day setting up a windmill, but Mrs. and Miss Bentley who were the immediate beneficiaries of the good effects of Pink Pills proved quite able to give full particulars.

Miss Bentley was apparently enjoying the best of health, and we were more than surprised to be told by her that it was she who first of the family had experimented with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. She told us that a couple of years ago she had been grievously attacked by rheumatism, and had after solicitation by some friends sought relief in Pink Pills. The result had been eminently satisfactory as any observer could see. It was, however, to become acquainted with the case of Miss Bentley that we had gone to Watford. In answer to our enquiries Mrs. Bentley told us that her eldest daughter, Lizzie, was nineteen years of age, that from her infancy she had been a sufferer and that her chances of growing to womanhood had never been considered good. She early became a victim of acute neuralgia, that for weeks at a time racked her body and made life a burden. She would at times go down to the very brink of the grave; she was in appearance a mere shadow, thin, pale, and weak, unable to do anything. After finding how Pink Pills had benefited her mother she too began to use them. No change from sickness to health could have been more rapid, no cure more complete. "You can say," Mrs. Bentley said to us, "she is a well girl, that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cured her and we are willing to tell the whole world that such is the case."

Desirous of seeing Miss Bentley herself, we next repaired to the Watford post office, where she is employed as a telegraph operator. We had known Miss Bentley when she lived in Simcoe. We remembered her pale, delicate face as it was then. One glance at the bright young girl before us, her cheeks aglow with ruddy health, was sufficient. The days of miseries were not gone. The happy subject of one story before us. Her story was a repetition of the one told us by her mother, only with an added depth of thankfulness to the means of her recovery. We came away from our interview with Miss Bentley fully satisfied that we now knew of our own knowledge of at least one marvellous cure to be credited to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

An analysis shows that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain in a condensed form all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood, and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after effects of la grippe, palpitation of the heart, nervous prostration, all diseases depending upon vitiated humors in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. They are also a specific for troubles peculiar to females, such as suppression, irregularities, and all forms of weakness. They build up the blood, and restore the glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks. In men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork, or excesses of whatever nature.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are manufactured by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brookville, Ont., and Schenectady, N. ## Deaths.

VAIL.—At Wickham, Queens Co., on the 31st ult., of consumption, Emily E. Vail, aged 29 years, leaving a husband and four small children and a number of other relatives to mourn their loss.

O. N. MORT.—ELDRIDGE.—The death of Susan Eldridge has cast a gloom over the community. She died, of Typhoid fever, at her home in Beaver Harbor, Char. Co., Oct. 24th, 1893. Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord." The funeral services were conducted by Rev. F. C. Wright.

BURNETT.—At Pokiok, York Co., on the 30th ult., of paralysis, Mrs. Robert Burnett, aged 68 years. C. T. P. (Gleaner please copy)

GUION.—At Wakefield Centre, C. Co., on the 4th inst., after a lingering illness, Alonzo, aged 30 years, only son of Solomon Guion, leaving a widow and one child to mourn their loss. C. T. P.

JONES.—At the residence of Albert Patterson, Southampton, York Co., on the 27th ult., Mrs. Mary A. Jones, widow of the late Samuel Jones of St. John, Mrs. Jones was ill for nearly a year, but she patiently bore her sufferings, and longed for release, for she knew that for her "to die would be gain." She was tenderly cared for by her niece, Mrs. Patterson, during her long illness. Mrs. Jones was baptized by Rev. John Perry, in Fredericton, about thirty years ago, and united with the Fredericton church, and remained a member until her death. C. T. P.

GRANT.—At Southampton, York Co., on the 28th ult., very suddenly, Mrs. David L. Grant, aged 71 years. Sister Grant was one of the charter members of the Southampton church, and was one of its burden bearers. "It was in her husband's house that the church was organized; that home was always a home for God's servants, and Mrs. Grant and her husband were well known to the older ministers. A beautiful singer and ever ready with a warm testimony, she was considered a valuable aid in social and revival services. Sister Grant's death came suddenly and evidently, painlessly, but she was ready, and for her, "sudden death was doubtless sudden glory." C. T. P.

BRANNAN.—At Kingston, Kings Co., Oct. 31st, Sarah E. Brannan, in the 56th year of her age, leaving one son and one daughter to mourn their loss.

WALKER.—At Midland, Kings Co., Nov. 1st, of consumption, Minnie, adopted daughter of late Hugh Walker, in the 10th year of her age. "The gardener asked who was to bury the flower; they answered: The Master, and he said no more."

SLOAT.—At Tracey Mills, C. Co., on the 30th ult., Lydia Jane, beloved wife of Jas. N. Sloat Esq., and daughter of Lorenzo and Eliza Parsons of Blissville, S. Co. in the 43rd year of her age, leaving a sorrowing husband, 6 children, an aged mother, 5 sisters, 6 brothers, and a very large circle of friends to mourn their loss. Upwards of 30 years ago our deceased sister professed religion and was baptized and united to the Blissville F. C. B. Church by the late Elder Pennington. About 25 years ago, she and her husband removed from Blissville to Tracey Mills, and some 16 years ago she united with the Tracey Mills F. C. B. church, of which she continued a loved and honored member up to her death. She was one of the most faithful, active members of that large church, and the brethren and sisters there will deeply feel their loss; but what is lost to them we verily believe has been everlasting gain to her. The entire community sympathize with the husband and family in their sad bereavement. The funeral, on the 1st inst., was very largely attended. Appropriate services were conducted by the writer (at the request of our deceased sister) assisted by Revs. G. F. Currie, E. B. Grey, Joseph Cahill and Joseph Harvey, at the house and in the Baptist church, at Centerville. Text, selected by our sister, Isaiah 40: 6. (Woodstock papers please copy) A. C. T.

DAVIS.—At Hibernia, Queens Co., Nov. 4th, Lucinda only child of John and Charlotte Davis, aged 4 years. "Of such is the Kingdom of Heaven." C. B. L.
