INTERNATIONAL LESSON.

Third Quarter-Lesson VII. — Aug. 13.

PAUL AT JERUSALEM. —

Acts 21: 27-39.

GOLDEN TEXT. — For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake. — Phil. 1: 29.

THE JOURNEY TO JERUSALEM. —

At the close of his address Paul and his companions set sail for Jerusalem. Note some incidents on this journey. (1) At Tyre, he found a band of disciples with whom he spent a week. The apostle's example may well be followed by those who go from place to place in these days. Instead of waiting till some Christian finds them out, let them search for the disciples, and seek to do Christian work. (2) At Caesarea, he found an example of woman's work in the church, in the four unmarried daughters of the prophet Agabus, who spoke out the truths that God inspired them to speak. (3) Both at Tyre and at Caesarea, prophets warned Paul of the danger of going to Jerusalem. It was revealed to them, he would go into bonds, prison, suffering. The prophets inferred from this that Paul should not go on. But Paul recognized more clearly the voice of the Spirit, and his duty to proceed. For he had a clear vision of the great work to be accomplished. He would unite the two great branches of the church, the Jewish and the Gentile. He would correct the misrepresentations as to his teachings and work; he would show the approval of the Holy Spirit in the graces bestowed upon the Gentiles.

THE RETURNED MISSIONARIES REPORT TO THE HOME CHURCH. — From Caesarea, Paul went up to Jerusalem in time for the Feast of Pentecost. This was his fifth visit at Jerusalem since his conversion 20 years before. The next day he made a report of his missionary work to the leaders.

What God had wrought by Paul. In the eight years since Paul had reported his work to the church at Jerusalem, he had made two long missionary tours; revisited and strengthened the churches in Asia Minor; had carried the Gospel into Europe; had founded large churches in Philippi, Corinth, Thessalonica and Ephesus; had been the means of great numbers of conversions, and the great extension of the Gospel; some of the converts had been willing to endure much for the Gospel; they had sent large contributions by Paul to the poor in Jerusalem; special miracles had been wrought by the hand of Paul.

THE ATTEMPT TO HARMONIZE THE TWO PARTIES. — Paul believed and taught according to the decision of the council at Jerusalem eight years before. The Gentiles need not become Jews, and obey the Jewish ritual. The law was not necessary for salvation. No forms could save any one, but only faith in the Lord Jesus. The promises to the Jews were to be fulfilled by the Gentiles becoming Christians. The Gentiles were children of Abraham through faith. At the same time he himself obeyed the Jewish law, but not as a condition of salvation.

The Position of the Judaizers. Many of the Jewish Christians, notwithstanding the decision of the council, wanted the Gentiles to be saved, but only by becoming Jews, the true people of God. They opposed Paul, because many believed that to become a Jew was essential to salvation. Paul's position seemed an insult to God and the Bible. Their religion was divine. It had stood for 1500 years. They were reluctant to give up their privileges as a chosen race. They felt that if his teachings prevailed, all was lost. To correct the misrepresentations of his teaching, Paul reluctantly agreed to fulfill a Jewish vow, in connection with several others, in the temple. It was no compromise by giving up a portion of the truth. Paul himself lived strictly as a Jew. It was a wise and noble act of Christian conciliation, and its failure does not brand it as unwise or wrong.

THE ATTACK ON PAUL. — Vers. 27-39. Besides the two parties in the church, there were two other parties outside. The Pharisees, who were enraged against Paul as a renegade Pharisee, and the Sadducees, who disagreed with the Pharisees, and with Paul as a defender of the resurrection of Christ. It was chiefly the Pharisee element who assailed Paul at this time. The seven days of the vow. The Jews which were of Asia. Paul was well known to them, having preached three years there. When they saw him in the temple. In the apartment appropriated to the Nazarenes, and laid hands on him. Not a legal arrest, but the beginning of mob violence. That teacheth all men everywhere. Showing how extensively the apostle's influence had been felt. Against the people. The Jews. And the law, and this place. To them it seemed against them and their law and temple.

And further brought Greeks also into the temple. He had not done this, but they supposed he had. And hath polluted this holy place. By bringing Greeks, i. e. uncircumcised Gentiles into the Holy Place, beyond the middle wall or partition. For they had seen before with him in the city Trophimus an Ephesian. Being an Ephesian, would be well known by sight to many of the Jews from Asia. Whom they supposed. Contrary to fact. How many false accusations against Paul in this lesson from "supposing" without knowing. There are many like suppositions against others in our day, as to other denominations, as to other parties, as to other Christians. And all the city was moved. Excited. Ran together. In the court of the Gentiles. And they took Paul, and drew. Their design was probably to get him out of the temple precincts before they proceeded to further violence. Out of the temple. The inner sacred court. Forthwith the doors were shut. The holy places must be guarded against the rush of the excited mob. And as they went about to kill him. They would have soon put an end to his life. Tidings came unto the chief captain. Commander of a thousand men. Of the band. A body of 1000 men. Centurions. Captains of a company of 100 men. Left beating of Paul. The mob knew that Roman law would do justice. Bound with two chains. One from each of his arms to a soldier on each side of him. And demanded. Inquired of the bystanders. Some cried one thing, some another. Most did not know just what Paul had done. Carried into the castle of Antonia. And when he came upon the stairs, he was borne of the soldiers. On account of the pressure of the mob. Paul said, May I speak unto thee? Canst thou speak Greek? In surprise that he was not the ignorant brigand he supposed. Art not thou that Egyptian, etc. The "Egyptian," whom the chief captain took St. Paul to be, is mentioned by Josephus. A short time before this he had gathered a large body of discontented Jews on Mt. Olivet, whom he had deluded into the belief that he was the messiah, declaring that the walls of Jerusalem would fall down at his word. Felix marched out against the insurgents and dispersed them, but the Egyptian escaped. Among his followers were a numerous band of brigands who stabbed people in open day in the streets of Jerusalem. Into the wilderness. Between Egypt and Palestine. Four thousand men. Josephus says that this Egyptian prophet had led out 30,000 men. This included the 4000 that were murderers. I am... a Jew of Tarsus. A famous seat of learning. Suffer me to speak. Not for himself, but to proclaim the true Messiah. Then standing on the stairs, protected by the Roman soldiers, Paul spoke in Hebrew to the immense audience. He told the story of his conversion and commission to preach to the Gentiles. This stirred up the mob, who cried out for his life. He was rescued by the soldiers.

And further brought Greeks also into the temple. He had not done this, but they supposed he had. And hath polluted this holy place. By bringing Greeks, i. e. uncircumcised Gentiles into the Holy Place, beyond the middle wall or partition. For they had seen before with him in the city Trophimus an Ephesian. Being an Ephesian, would be well known by sight to many of the Jews from Asia. Whom they supposed. Contrary to fact. PRACTICAL HINTS.
Difficulties in the way are no proof that God does not wish us to walk in it.

There will be honest differences of opinion on many questions in the church and in society. There should be free discussion, kindly feelings, an honest desire to see the truth, a willingness that others should differ from us, and an effort to conciliate. Tale-bearers and tale-hearers are alike guilty. It is far easier to disturb what is quiet than to quiet what is disturbed.

W. C. T. Union.

OUR MOTTO. — If God be for us, who can be against us.

The report of the Dominion W. C. T. U. convention, as given in the Woman's Journal, is especially interesting and encouraging. As we read it, we are glad to be one of the workers, even in a small way, in this great organization, which is doing so much for the uplifting of humanity. We publish a few extracts, which will give some idea of the work which is being done by the temperance women of this fair Dominion of ours.

Dominion Convention.

Maltum in Parvo the Convention just closed in Winnipeg has proved. A great deal of business was transacted the air of the prairies being conducive to clear brains and brightness of intellect. Flowers everywhere, the beautiful banners of the W. C. T. U. decorating the walls and buttonhole bouquets of prairie flowers adorning the delegates gave a truly summery appearance to everything. Winnipeg's hospitality is proverbial and the Convention was welcomed with open hearts and homes, the ladies of the different churches vying with each other in looking after the wants of the inner woman at the noonday luncheon and tea in Bethel Hall.

Precisely at 9.30 o'clock on Friday morning, June 16, the President, Mrs. E. L. Williams, of Montreal, took the chair and the grand old hymn "How Firm a Foundation," was sung and the Crusade Psalm (146) was read and prayer offered. Mrs. Rutherford, of Toronto, Rec. Sec., in her refreshingly clear voice read the minutes of the interim executive meetings. Conventions committees were formed. Credentials, Miss Tilley, Toronto; Mrs. Livingstone, Tilsonburg, Ont.; Mrs. Moody, Montreal. Courtesies, Mesdames Dusen and Manahan, Winnipeg. Finance, Mrs. Cavers, Galt; Mrs. Parker, Winnipeg. Resolutions, Miss Tilley, Mrs. U. Graham, Galt; Miss Bowes, Vancouver; Miss Meiklejohn, Kowloon, P. Q.; Miss Bryson, Montreal; Miss McArthur, Winnipeg; Mrs. Machlin, Portage la Prairie, Plan of Work, Mesdames McLaren, Cavers, Sanderson, Livingstone, Moody, Blakely and Todd.

In the Cor. Sec. Report there was a grand advance all along the line. Ontario had 3,758 members, with an increase of 21 Unions 491 members, Departments well managed. Increase in income $811.94. This Provincial union is incorporated and has received one bequest.

Quebec shows an increase of 491 members and five more Bands of Hope. Income increased $81.59 since last year and more literature distributed. Municipal and school suffrage had been obtained for properly qualified women.

Maritime, which binds together three Provinces, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, still keeps pushing forward and shows an increase of 5 more unions and a membership of 59 more than last year, increase in income $19.

British Columbia—Three new unions have been formed and 145 new members been enrolled. $200 more income than last year.

Manitoba—Has made great progress, 404 members enrolled and 37 unions.

North West Territories — 80 members.

TABULATED SUGGESTIONS.
That the existing departments be retained and school savings banks be added.

That provinces be urged to pay their Dominion dues before each provincial convention.

That the Dominion fees to the World's W. C. T. U. be paid directly after this convention, but in future they be paid before the books close.

Minard's Liniment cures Colds, etc.

There are many forms of nervous debility in men that yield to the use of Carter's Iron Pills. Those who are troubled with nervous weakness, night sweats, etc., should try them.

A Dinner Pill. — Many persons suffer excruciating agony after partaking of a hearty dinner. The food partaken of is like a ball of lead upon the stomach, and instead of being a healthy nutriment it becomes a poison to the system. Dr. Farnes's Vegetable Pills are wonderful correctives of such troubles. They correct acidity, open the secretions and convert the food partaken of into healthy nutriment. They are just the medicine to take if troubled with Indigestion or Dyspepsia.
